THE LAW AND YOU

BY NATHAN D. PACE
ATTORNEY AT LAW

WHERE IS YOUR WILL?

If you are among the 55% of American adults who do not have a will, you should give serious consideration to consulting with a lawyer. Without a will in place, your surviving family members and heirs will unnecessarily be subjected to the probate process, the court-supervised distribution of an estate's assets that many find to be relatively expensive and time-consuming. However, if you do have a will, make sure you store it in a place where it can readily be found. While many people stash their wills in safe-deposit boxes, banks may require a court order to open them. With this in mind, be sure to tell the executor(s) of your estate the location of your original will.

Estate planning is a smart step for everyone, regardless of income, wealth or the size of your estate. I help individuals and families craft estate plans that suit their needs and provide stability and security for the future. To schedule a free consultation, please call the Law Office of MACK & PACE at (585)798-1000. We emphasize living wills and trusts, mortgages and foreclosures, small business, powers of attorney, probate and estate law, and vehicle and traffic law.

Jen continued to spread kindness by being active in her church, by visiting her elders, and by being the Amazing Aunt Jen. Attempts to sum up or encapsulate her spirit, her impact, or how sorely she will be missed seem woefully inadequate. In parting, here is a quote from Jen: "What I have learned today ... Prayer works, my love for my family and friends is like my nose and ears – as long as I am alive they will continue to grow, and singing and eating a waffle at the same time will surely cause you to choke and spit it out all over the table." Jen is survived by her mother, Lena Willcox; brother, David (Pat) Willcox Jr.; sisters: Nancy (Mark) MacLaury and Toni (Nicole) Willcox; nieces and nephews, Julia (Jeff) Robinson, Jonathan Willcox, Brian Bidell, Kimberley (TJ) Wolf, Shane (Heidi) Willcox and Kylee Borden; as well as many great-nieces and great-nephews, all of whom she loved dearly. Memorial donations may be made to either American Diabetes Association or CCFDA.

Steven Pawley officiating. Burial was private for the family. In lieu of flowers, the family request that donations be made to the family to help in the raising of Jacob. Higher minimum wage started Dec. 31, 2019

Hourly rate increases from $11.10 to $11.80 in Orleans County

A higher minimum wage takes effect today, with the minimum hourly rate increasing from $11.10 to $11.80 in Orleans County and for most of upstate. A year from now, it will go to $12.50 an hour in Orleans and most of upstate. In New York City, the wage goes to $15 an hour, started Dec. 31, 2019.

"With this monumental increase in the minimum wage, New York is continuing to lead the way to restoring economic justice for working families," Governor Cuomo said in a news release. "In 2016 we set an example for the rest of the nation to follow by raising the minimum wage to $15, and this year we are continuing to move forward with this successful plan that is bringing real change for New York's families and paying dividends across the entire state."

The New York State Department of Labor has established a hotline (1-888-4-NYS-DOL) where minimum wage workers can call to report any employers who do not comply with the phase-in schedule.

In Orleans County, the minimum wage has increased from $9.70 an hour on Dec. 31, 2016 to $10.40 on Dec. 31, 2017, to $11.10 on Dec. 31, 2018 to $11.80 Dec. 31, 2019. It makes another jump to $12.50 on Dec. 31, 2020.

The $15 minimum wage legislation (for New York City) was passed as part of the 2016-17 state budget.

Tips on how to write CLASSIFIED ADS that sell!

- 1 USE A KEY WORD. This immediately tells the reader exactly what you have to sell.
- 2 Make your description CLEAR AND FACTUAL. State the year, make, model, color & size and tell what condition the item is in. Also, state the special features.
- 3 STATE THE PRICE. Successful classified advertisers have learned that the price in an ad helps increase the chances for results.
- 4 IF THERE IS A GENUINE SENSE OF URGENCY, say so. The words "We're moving," or "Must sell fast," suggest that readers respond immediately.
- 5 INCLUDE YOUR PHONE NUMBER. Classifieds get results fast and often generate immediate sales. If you cannot be available to answer the phone at all times, be sure to specify special calling times such as "after 9pm" or "before 11am."

Peebles in Albion will open as Gordmans on Feb. 18

ALBION – The Peebles store at the Route 31 plaza in Albion will be changing over to a Gordmans, another retailer with designer name brand apparel, home decor, gifts, fragrances, clothing and other items. The change will happen on Feb. 18, Gordmans said in a news release. Gordmans and Peebles are both owned by Stage Stores. Stage bought Gordmans in April 2017.

Peebles uses 16,240 square feet of the Route 31 plaza, which also includes Save-A-Lot and the Dollar Tree. Peebles opened in the Albion plaza in 2007. Gordmans is changing over 13 Peebles in upstate New York. The apparel and home décor retailer is hiring at the 13 stores.

All of the sites, including the Albion store, will host a job fair on Jan. 7 from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Walk-in applicants are welcome. Candidates are encouraged to first apply online at gordmans.com/careers.

7 Ways to Start Getting Organized

Becoming more organized is a popular resolution each new year. However, like many resolutions, people's commitment to being more organized tends to wane as February draws near.

Getting and staying organized requires commitment. Having some handy tips at the ready to facilitate the process can make things go more smoothly.

1. Determine what organization means to you. Being organized might mean one thing to you and something else entirely to someone else. Some may put form before function. Others may be interested in the aesthetics of a neat-looking space. Once you have a handle on what being organized entails to you, you can get to work.

2. Start with what motivates you most. Perhaps this is a room in the home that has become overrun with clutter. Or maybe it's getting finances organized so you can save for a dream vacation. When you accomplish your biggest goal, the seemingly smaller ones may seem less difficult.

3. Declutter your mind. Think of a busy mind as a computer that has that turning hourglass or spinning color wheel icon when it's stuck on a process. Every application stalls because the computer cannot do everything at once. The same thing can happen in the brain. Sit down and make a to-do list of what's on your mind. Then start prioritizing tasks. This will do wonders to clear your head.

4. Create deadlines for yourself. An open-ended timeline to get things done may promote procrastination. Deadlines may provide motivation.

5. Avoid distractions. Try to remove as many distractions as possible. When working on a chore, step away from social media so you can focus on the task at hand. Interruptions only slow you down.

6. Think before you acquire. If you're getting ready to purchase something new, carefully consider its usefulness and determine in advance where it will go, and whether or not you have the space.

7. Be accountable to another. Having help getting organized can mean delegating certain tasks or enlisting someone to check in with you to see if you're on target. Embrace this system of checks and balances.

Becoming organized is a process, but once you get the hang of it, it can be easy to stay organized. ■

Resumé Writing Rules to Follow

When professionals are ready to take a new step in their careers, it's wise to revisit their old résumés and see what can be done to update them for the current day and age. This is especially true for people who may have been out of the job-seeking arena for some time.

Writing a résumé can be complicated. The rules for finding a new job are continually evolving, and résumés remain a big component of that process. The following are some current résumé trends that will help professionals stand out from the masses.

Consider design
 Design your résumé so it will look good whether it's viewed on a screen or a mobile phone or printed on paper. Classic serif style fonts can make a résumé seem dated, so select modern fonts that are crisp. The idea is for the résumé to look balanced and clear, without being overdone with modifications, like italics and bold lettering. However, a spot of color could provide much-needed attention.

Be brief yet effective
 A concise design is key. Many recruiters spend little to no time reviewing the hordes of résumés they receive. In fact, automated résumé bots may initially screen the documents to thin the crowd. According to data from the 12th annual Mystery Job Candidate survey by CareerXRoads, the average recruiter spends six seconds looking at a résumé. If a résumé is lengthy or doesn't attract attention, it will likely be ignored. Stick to a single-page and make sure wording is brief but meaty.

Keep juicy details up top
 Format the résumé so the most pertinent information is within the top one-third of the document. Beef up a summary statement and use it in lieu of an objective. Make sure that summary includes keywords that promote your skills and experience to potentially lure the recruiter into reading more.

Tweak job titles
 Mimic phrasing from the job listing to beat the bots and get résumés flagged for review. Slightly change job position titles so they mirror the wording used. For example, if a recruiter is looking for a "financial account manager," and you have the experience, list your title as something like "Senior manager of new financial accounts."

Who you know
 Landing a new job is often about what you know, but getting a foot in the door is also largely influenced by who you know. Include any professional groups to which you belong or alumni associations. Who knows? The recruiter may have the same alma mater, and you can bond over your shared mascot.

Keywords, phrasing, formatting, and having the right skills for the job can ensure a résumé is seen by a recruiter, and perhaps even lead to a new career. ■

PLANT OPERATOR

DINING & entertainment

• FIRST WEEK OF JANUARY •

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20: There is more to a situation than meets the eye, Aries. Delve a little deeper this week to get to the truth. Uncovering the truth will allow you to move forward.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21: Taurus, take a break for a few days to recharge your batteries. If you work too hard, you are going to suffer from burnout. Make this a week of rest and recreation.

GEMINI – May 22/Jun 21: You have a funny way of looking at things sometimes, Gemini. That can work to your advantage in providing a fresh perspective that others may overlook.

CANCER – Jun 22/Jul 22: Cancer, when you are approached with a potential career opportunity, do not immediately dismiss it. It may not be the right time currently, but take inventory of your future goals.

LEO – Jul 23/Aug 23: This week you need to make your mark in some way, Leo. You have many clever ideas circling in your head that want out, so think of how you can deploy your creative side.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22: Virgo, accept help when it is offered this week, even if it tugs at your pride a little bit. Sometimes even the strongest can benefit from a shoulder to lean on.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23: A failure to recognize all sides of the equation could put you into an unfortunate situation, Libra. Do not assume that your perspective is the right one; do your research carefully.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22: Scorpio, just when you think you have everything figured out, something changes. Just because you don't have the rule book doesn't mean you can't plot a course.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21: Devote more of your attention to family matters in the days to come, Sagittarius. Work may seem all-consuming, but home is where your heart is.

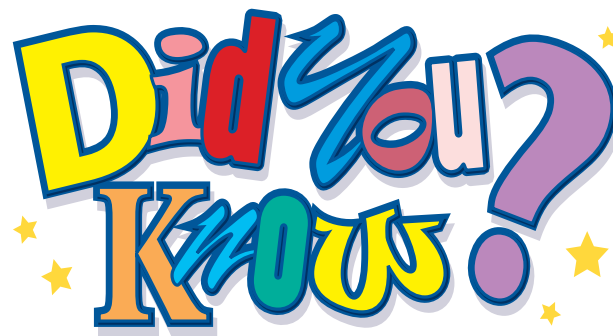

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20: Fun times are just around the corner, Capricorn. You must have the patience to get there. Put some social events on your calendar so you have something to forward to.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18: Before you give up on an idea, run it by some trusted confidantes, Aquarius. You may be missing just one detail that can make this a recipe for ultimate success.

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20: Pisces, it's time to get a better feel for your finances. Tweak things as necessary, and make all decisions with your finances in mind.

GUN SHOW: Newstead Fire Hall, 5691 Cummings Rd., Akron, NY 14001. Sat., Jan. 18, 9-4 & Sun., Jan. 19, 9-3. 85 Table. $5.00 admission. nfgshows.com

GENUINE PEOPLE, REAL PRICES

Flat out the best car buying experience I have ever had. Amazing staff and sales support. From getting picked up at the airport to signing the paperwork, their team was extremely well prepared, organized and efficient. No "hard pressure" sales at all. The fact that I plan to fly up from Virginia to buy my next Ford from them says it all.

I recently bought a 2019 Ford Explorer that I love. Timothy was the salesman, he is awesome, very nice & "down to earth". He made sure to get back to me with every detail about the vehicle that I was interested in before coming into the dealership because I live far away. Everyone from the managers to the salesman were very nice. Everything was put together & ready for me to drive away the same day. I highly recommend them. Plus the prices for the vehicles are great.

We have bought Ford's for over 50 years. We always buy from Rich Beyer who goes overboard for us. The service department always takes care of us no matter what state we are in, they are only a phone call away. George runs a great business, they don't need to be big and fancy just take care of the customers.
