M&F Western Products Donates 30,000 Children's Boots To Buckner Shoes For Orphan Souls®

By Rachel Wallis

When Mickey Eddins received a shipment of nearly 30,000 pairs of children's boots he couldn't use, the founder and owner of M&F Western Products, Inc. in Sulphur Springs, Texas, decided to turn his lemons into lemonade.

Mickey is a long-time resident and business owner in Sulphur Springs. He's also a devoted member of First Baptist Church in Sulphur Springs. He mentioned his dilemma to his friend Chris Liebrum, whose parents grew up together at Buckner Orphans Home. Chris, director of the Office of Cooperative Program Ministry for Texas Baptists, knew immediately what to do. He reached out to Buckner International and Buckner Shoes for Orphan Souls®.

The boots are perfectly functional and beautifully made, but had been finished incorrectly, and would wear sooner than a customer would prefer. Mickey felt like it wouldn't be right to sell them, but he also needed to get them out of his warehouse.

Mickey generously agreed to donate all boots to vulnerable children in places like Peru, Guatemala, and Texas. He's still in the process of transporting the shoes from his warehouse to the Buckner Center for Humanitarian Aid, but Steve Watson, Family Hope Center director of aid for Buckner, estimates the total shipment will fill about five semi-tractor trailers.

These boots will be a wonderful way to show God's love and care to children who desperately need to know they are not forgotten. We've seen Steve said. "Running out of storage because our rafters are filled up with boots for children is a great problem to have!"

Donations like Mickey's can make a huge impact on the number of children Buckner is able to serve. Shoes are a primary outreach tool that enables Buckner staff to explain services available to entire families, especially through the Buckner Family Hope Center programs located in communities around the world.

These boots will be a wonderful way to show God's love and care to children who desperately need to know they are not

At The Corral Gate

Do you love to fish? I do, because of my mom. And an assortment of local kids do too, partly because of some individual whose fishing passion shaped someone else's life. A love for fishing may begin with a family outing on the creek bank or on the water. But other times, it's a neighbor or 'local hero' whose kindness and love of the outdoors is the influence. Here's a story that embraces all these elements.

The annual Larry Buster Memorial Kid Fishing Day was held on Saturday February 8, 2020 at Peavine Pinion Pond in 'City Park', or Buford Park in Sulphur Springs. The crowd grew to 200 as the morning went on and parents brought kids out to fish. For those who did not bring their own fishing equipment, free use of rod and reel was provided as well as bait which was whole kernel corn. Kids who signed up for prizes giveaways also received a fun packet about fishing. Seventy rod and reel prizes, donated by local individuals and businesses, were given out. Hot dogs and soft drinks were provided by members of Kiwanis Club and National Wild Turkey Federation. Expert assistance in baiting a hook and reeling in a catch was given by Jimmy Reardon of JDR Fishing Adventures, a non-profit he formed to teach kids to fish. At age 18, Jimmy is a licensed fishing guide and spends a lot of time on Texas lakes, creeks, ponds, rivers and just about any body of water to perfect his fishing skills.

The fishing pond was named for the late Clovis 'Peavine' Pinion, a local broadcaster who had a love of fishing and teaching kids to fish. He hosted the daily Hunting and Fishing Show of KSST Radio for over 40 years, and was beloved by everyone in the community. His slogan was, "every day that you fish adds a day to your life". It is in his memory as well as that of Larry Buster that the successful Kids Fishing Day event continues to be provided for youngsters. Thanks is given to every individual who lent a hand or donated money to this great cause.

Looks like we've had sufficient rainfall in 2020 so far to keep all the pools and lakes filled! Maybe taking your sweetheart fishing will make for the perfect Valentine gift! Til next week, I will watch for you at the corral gate!

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY IN LAREDO

Tumbleweed Smith

The largest George Washington Birthday Celebration in the country takes place in Laredo. It started 123 years ago when some settlers wanted to promote Americanism. They staged a mock battle in 1897 on the Laredo Square between Colonial Troops and Native Americans. The event has grown and grown over the years and has become Laredo's largest single event. National media including the New York Times, CNN and others, have covered it. It begins with tequila tasting in mid-January sponsored by the local Bar Association and goes for 47 days with 37 events. Posters and program books become valuable historic souvenirs.

It is an elegant affair, with an elaborate debutante ball and other formal galas where women wear the fanciest evening gowns money can buy. "The bottoms of their dresses cover an area about 8 feet wide," says Bobby Peregoy, President of the George Washington Birthday Celebration Association (WBCA). "A lot of the men wear clothing from Colonial days. It's something you can't see anywhere but Laredo."

Hotels and motels in Laredo put displays of dresses and costumes in their lobbies. The official George and Martha Washington portrayers go to Laredo from Philadelphia to stage a state dinner for dignitaries. The meal covers 5 courses prepared by a celebrity chef. Later George and Martha visit with school kids and put on a show about events during Washington's presidency.

"The 7 week celebration attracts well over half a million people to Laredo," says Bobby. "The economic benefit has been estimated at upwards of 20 million dollars." The highlight of the event occurs February 22nd and is called the abrazo (Spanish for embrace) when a delegation from Mexico and a delegation from Laredo meet in the middle of the International bridge over the Rio Grande to exchange abrazos. "That ceremony is led by 4 young children: a little boy and girl from Mexico and a little boy and girl from the United States. The children exchange the first abrazo. That's followed by adults from both countries giving each other a hug. It's the only event of its kind where a federal port of entry is closed down during the ceremony. It is truly a sight."

The abrazo is followed by a parade with 200 entries. "We'll have over a hundred floats along with all of our marching units, bands, Shriners, the military just a whole bunch of folks getting together and having a good time."

The WBCA has headquarters in a building patterned after Washington's Mount Vernon home. It has a fulltime staff of 5 and 38 board members. The executive committee meets every week during the year.

Among the events during the celebration are a Comicon (where Bobby tries to make people laugh), a jalapeno festival, an air show, classic car display, a golf tournament and a carnival that lasts 11 days. If you want to find out more, visit www.wbclaredo.org.

Lil 4's Kids Club

Reach One, Teach One!

200 Fuller St. ★ Sulphur Springs, Tx. 75482

Titiaconliffe892@gmail.com ★ 214-809-1908

The Lil 4's kids club is a non-profit community safe-haven that seeks to reach and teach potentially at-risk children, and to provide a positive and safe atmosphere to help shape and guide their future endeavors in life. The organization currently has 50 students, ages 5 to 18, enrolled in the program. The primary objective of the Lil 4's Kids Club is to provide children with educational enrichment activities that give them an opportunity to develop confidence, to feel valued, and to set/accomplish their dreams. All services provided to the children are free of charge, but we ask for donations to keep it running.

Lil 4's is extremely proud to impact their minds in a constructive and productive way. None the less, we need the support of the community to help us with continued success.

Your contributions truly impact and change lives.

WE NEED YOUR HELP. ALL DONATIONS WILL BE APPRECIATED.
