the red rose: a meeting of the heart

Author Unknown

John Blanchard stood up from the bench, straightened his Army uniform, and studied the crowd of people making their way through Grand Central Station. He looked for the girl whose heart he knew, but whose face he didn't, the girl with the rose.

His interest in her had begun thirteen months before in a Florida library. Taking a book off the shelf he found himself intrigued, not with the words of the book, but with the notes penciled in the margin. The soft handwriting reflected a thoughtful soul and insightful mind. In the front of the book, he discovered the previous owner's name, Miss Hollis Maynell.

With time and effort he located her address. She lived in New York City. He wrote her a letter introducing himself and inviting her to correspond. The next day he was shipped overseas for service in World War II. During the next year and one month the two grew to know each other through the mail. Each letter was a seed falling on a fertile heart. A romance was budding. Blanchard requested a photograph, but she refused. She felt that if he really cared, it wouldn't matter what she looked like.

When the day finally came for him to return from Europe, they scheduled their first meeting - 7:00 PM at the Grand Central Station in New York. "You'll recognize me," she wrote, "by the red rose I'll be wearing on my lapel." So at 7:00 he was in the station looking for a girl whose heart he loved, but whose face he'd never seen.

I'll let Mr. Blanchard tell you what happened:

"A young woman was coming toward me, her figure long and slim. Her blonde hair lay back in curls from her delicate ears; her eyes were blue as flowers. Her lips and chin had a gentle firmness, and in her pale green suit she was like springtime come alive. I started toward her, entirely forgetting to notice that she was not wearing a rose. As I moved, a small, provocative smile curved her lips." "Going my way, sailor?" she murmured. "Almost uncontrollably I made one step closer to her, and then I saw Hollis Maynell. She was standing almost directly behind the girl. A woman well past 40, she had graying hair tucked under a worn hat. She was more than plump, her thick-ankled feet thrust into low-heeled shoes. The girl in the green suit was walking quickly away.

I felt as though I was split in two, so keen was my desire to follow her, and yet so deep was my longing for the woman whose spirit had truly companioned me and upheld my own.

And there she stood. Her pale, plump face was gentle and sensible, her gray eyes had a warm and kindly twinkle. I did not hesitate. My fingers gripped the small worn blue leather copy of the book that was to identify me to her. This would not be love, but it would be something precious, something perhaps even better than love, a friendship for which I had been and must ever be grateful. I squared my shoulders and saluted and held out the book to the woman, even though while I spoke I felt choked by the bitterness of my disappointment."

"I'm Lieutenant John Blanchard, and you must be Miss Maynell. I am so glad you could meet me; may I take you to dinner?"

The woman's face broadened into a tolerant smile. "I don't know what this is about, son," she answered, "but the young lady in the green suit who just went by, she begged me to wear this rose on my coat. And she said if you were to ask me out to dinner, I should go ahead and tell you that she is waiting for you in the big restaurant across the street. She said it was some kind of test!"

It's not difficult to understand and admire Miss Maynell's wisdom. The true nature of a heart is seen in its response to the unattractive. "Tell me whom you love," Houssaye wrote, "And I will tell you who you are."

* "For uniform cookies, roll and freeze your dough for 10-15 minutes. Most doughs will harden enough to slice into perfectly even slices, and the freezing doesn't really affect cooking time too much. (Watch your first batch, though.)" -- R.L. in Missouri

* If you are reattaching a button to shorts or pants, try using dental floss, the unwaxed kind. It's much stronger and can hold the button better than regular thread. Use a marker to darken it if the color is an issue.

* "Here's a use for large plastic jugs: Cut off the bottom and use as a megaphone at sports games. Assemble the younger siblings off field and let each have his or her own megaphone. They can be decorated with stickers. Have the kids make up a cheer." -- T.T. in Texas

* Dampen a paper towel with vinegar and put it into your kid's lunchbox after you wipe it out. Zip up and leave overnight. It absorbs smells.

* "Use a hair dryer on the warm setting to dry out boots that have gotten wet inside. Check often to make sure it's not getting too hot inside. Remove insoles if possible." -- D.E. in Nebraska

* Need an easy substitute for buttermilk? Squeeze lemon juice into milk, and let it sit for 10-15 minutes before using.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) All that flattery and fawning shouldn't affect any decision you have to make. Keep your focus on the facts and ignore all the hyperbole, especially if it gets uncomfortably personal.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your Bovine instincts are on the mark about that "favor" you're being asked to do. Agree to nothing unless you get a full explanation -- which you would check out first, of course.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A somewhat unsettled recent period should give way to a smoother time going through the week. Use this quieter time to catch up on matters you might have had to let slide.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Feeling a little confused is understandable with all those mixed messages. Take time to list the questions you have. Then present them and insist on answers that make sense.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Cupid can be very helpful for Lions seeking a love connection. The chubby cherub also brings warm and fuzzy feelings to paired Leos and Leonas who already share a special love line.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Travel is favored this week, whether you'll be globe-trotting or taking a trip to a nearby getaway. You might be surprised (or maybe not) by who wants to be your traveling companion.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Getting advice on your next business-related move is a good idea, but only if your advisers are trustworthy. Get references that you can check out before you make any decisions.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Getting a boost in your self-esteem is one benefit that comes with a job well done. There are other plusses as well, including being noticed by all the right people. Good luck.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Make time to deal with family matters, especially where they concern your elderly kinfolk. Being there for them from the start can help resolve problems sooner rather than later.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Getting a project started can often be difficult. But the good news is that you won't want for lack of assistance from colleagues who would like to work with you. So, let them!

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A lot of work-related issues might be raised this week, and you need to be prepared for whatever comes along. Things should be easier when it comes to matters in your private life.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) What might appear to be a much unwanted change in your life right now could turn out to be a very welcome event after all. Give yourself a chance to see where it might take you.

BORN THIS WEEK: You exercise your strong leadership qualities well, which is why people believe in you and feel reassured by you.

Our honorable Army sergeant father had a heart of gold. Every Valentine's Day, he came home from work (no matter where in the world we lived) with one large heart-shaped box of candy for our mother and two smaller heart-shaped boxes for my sister and me.

The year I was in kindergarten and my sister, Susan, was in second grade, he also brought a puppy that he had just bought from a fellow soldier. We named the cute little dog Taffy. Taffy, sadly, was supposedly a coyote mix. Keep in mind that this was in the early 1960s and times were very different.

We have pictures of Taffy playing in the deep Kansas snow. I remember playing with Taffy and cuddling with her, but those happy times did not last very long. A few short weeks after Taffy came to live with us, she was diagnosed with distemper and was euthanized.

It would be another five years before Daddy surprised us with another puppy that we named Walter who lived a long, happy life with us. We, in the meantime, had learned how to be kind to and how to treat a parakeet in German and hamsters in California.

I have a precious memory of my father helping a baby bird. When we were teenagers, we had moved to Danville and into a house with a basement and window wells. A baby bird had fallen into a window well and the mother bird nervously stood watch. My father put a broom down into the well and I heard him say, "Come on, little one, I'm trying to help you. Come on, little bird." Finally, the baby bird did figure it out and hopped up on the broom to get to his mother.

Parents are the ones who have the moral and ethical obligation to teach their children how to have empathy and how to treat animals (and humans, for that matter!). In the world of today, it is a very sad fact that some children just do not have the guidance from parents.

I will forever be grateful that my parents took their responsibility seriously.

"No" is a lonely word.

Open to the community!

Every day it seems more and more that banks are saying "no" to good hardworking people. That's because when it comes to loans, most banks focus on one thing, your credit score. What's so great about URW Community Federal? We're not a bank - we're better. We look at more than your score. We want to hear your story and look for reasons to say "YES!" And if we aren't able to help you right away, we'll work with you on a plan so that we can help you in the near future.

Let URW help you "move on" from your bank, and move forward with your life!

Local Church Helps Member During Corona Virus Quarantine

Jasmine Berry (not her real name) returned to Danville from China, during the corona virus plague, Sunday evening. She is freely and scrupulously submitting to the voluntary, two-week quarantine all travelers from China are asked to undergo. Her church, Covenant Reformed Baptist Church, has been caring for her. Mary Carpenter and Angel Lin drove to the Raleigh-Durham airport in two separate vehicles. Jasmine was already wearing a mask. Carpenter didn't approach her, leaving her car for her to drive back by herself. She's been remaining in her apartment in Danville. Carpenter delivered groceries and a thermometer (to monitor if she's getting sick) to her door, leaving them for Jasmine. Jasmine cracked open the door, donning the mask, and advised Carpenter to leave before she came out to retrieve the items. Members of the church plan on sustaining her like that during the remainder of her quarantine. She shows no signs of sickness but the asymptomatic incubation stage of the virus is between five to 14 days.

Marion (Teague) Shelton

April 2, 1929 ~ February 8, 2020 (age 90)

It is with a heavy heart, that the family of Marion Teague Shelton shares that she has gone to be with the Lord on Saturday, February 8, 2020.

Marion was born on April 2, 1929, in McDowell County, West Virginia to the late Sam O. Teague and Cora Hutcherson Teague Carter.

She is survived by her sister, Jean Parrish; special nieces and nephews, Joy Hardy, Lois Brincefield, Coy Saul Jr., Cathy Labiak, Gerald Funk, Roy Teague Jr., Jimmy Barnes, Pat Litchfield, Sandi Godermoth; and special great-nephews Chris and Mike Burton.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Shelton was predeceased by brothers, Sam Teague and Roy Teague; and sisters, Hazel Saul, Estelle Funk, Bertha Agnew, and Elva Sterner.

In her younger years, Marion worked at the Schoolfield Movie Theater which she so enjoyed – and gifted the most looked-forward-to Christmas gift each season of movie tickets. Marion was devoted to her friends and family and had a special place in her heart for children – particularly her nieces and nephews. She looked forward to visits, holidays, and celebrations together with family and adored having photos so that she could watch the children grow.

Marion was a treasured mainstay of the Bachelor’s Hall community where she showered her precious family and friends with her famous cakes and treats for every occasion and brought warmth and laughter to their lives. Marion loved to watch sports on tv and was an avid fan of the Atlanta Braves. She was kind and selfless and always grateful for even the smallest acts of kindness. Marion will be deeply missed but will be remembered for the light that she brought to the lives that she touched.

Graveside services will be conducted Tuesday, February 11, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. at Danville Memorial Gardens with Pastor Scott Bortz officiating.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Bachelor’s Hall (1301 Berry Hill Rd, Danville, VA 24541) or Brosville (11912 Martinsville Hwy, Danville, VA 24541) Volunteer Fire Departments.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to the staff at Riverside Health and Rehab for the loving care that Mrs. Shelton received during her stay at Riverside Health and Rehab.

Thick N Chewy M&M Valentine Cookies

INGREDIENTS

- 1 c butter-room temperature
- 1 1/2 c firmly packed brown sugar
- 2 large eggs
- 1 tsp vanilla
- 2 1/2 c flour
- 1 tsp baking soda
- 1/2 tsp salt
- 2 c m&m candies

In a bowl, with an electric mixer on medium speed, beat butter and brown sugar until well blended. Beat in eggs and vanilla until smooth, scraping down sides of bowl as needed.

In another bowl, mix flour, baking soda, and salt. Stir or beat into butter mixture until well incorporated. Stir in M&M's

Drop dough in 2-tablespoon (1/8-cup) portions, 2 inches apart, onto buttered 12- by 15-inch baking sheets.

Bake in a 400° oven until cookies are lightly browned and no longer wet in the center (break one open to check), 6 to 8 minutes; if baking more than one pan at a time, switch pan positions halfway through baking. (I still bake 6-8 minutes - they don't seem to get too brown to me - but I always check at 6 minutes first because after the first batch it can take less time)

With a wide spatula, transfer cookies to racks to cool. If hot cookies start to break, slide a thin spatula under them to release; let stand on pan to firm up, 2 to 5 minutes, then transfer to racks to cool completely
