HOLLYWOOD by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Meryl Streep's next films are HBO Max's "Let Them All Talk," for director Steven Soderbergh, with Candice Bergen, Dianne Wiest and Lucas Hedges, and Netflix's "The Prom," a film version of the Broadway musical. Her co-stars are Nicole Kidman, Andrew Rannells and Kerry Washington.

During the Golden Age of Hollywood, studio moguls ran megastudios and actors were under exclusive contracts to appear just in their films. But today, for a superstar to remain on top they have to produce films for themselves and others. There are eight superstars who have been successful producing films that grossed well over $200 million each.

George Clooney says he'd rather produce than act, and his most successful production was "Argo," a Best Picture Oscar winner that grossed $232 million. His next producing project is Netflix's "Good Morning Midnight," with Felicity Jones and Kyle Chandler.

Kevin Costner produced and starred in "Dances With Wolves," a Best Picture Oscar winner that grossed $424 million. He returned two years later with "The Bodyguard," which grossed $411 million, and then "Water World" ($241 million). Costner is currently producing the third season of "Yellowstone" for the Paramount Network.

Tom Cruise's "Mission: Impossible" franchise films are always high grossers. The totals for the six films so far: 1. $458 million, 2. $546 million, 3. $398 million, 4. $695 million, 5. $683 million and 6. $791 million. In addition, Cruise also produced "Vanilla Sky" ($203 million), "The Others" ($210 million), "Last Summer" ($457 million) and "Jack Reacher" ($218 million). "Top Gun" is due June 26, and "Mission: Impossible" 7 and 8 are due in 2021 and 2022.

Leonardo DiCaprio produced and starred in "The Aviator" ($214 million) and "The Wolf of Wall Street" ($393 million). Clint Eastwood won a best director Oscar for "Million Dollar Baby," which grossed $217 million, and directed "Gran Torino" ($270 million), "American Sniper" ($547 million) and "Sully" ($241 million).

Meryl Streep

Mel Gibson scored big producing 'Braveheart" ($210 million) and "The Passion of the Christ" ($622 million). He's now producing "The Passion of the Christ: Resurrection" for 2021. Brad Pitt produced "The Departed" ($291 million), "Eat, Pray, Love" ($206 million) and "World War Z" ($540 million). His next is "Blonde," with Ana de Armas and Adrien Brody.

But believe it or not, Bradley Cooper crushed them all with "Silver Lining Playbook" ($236 million), "American Hustle" ($251 million), "American Sniper" ($547 million), "A Star Is Born" ($425 million) and a slam dunk with "Joker," at over $1.2 billion, which he'll share with director Todd Phillips and co-producer Emma Tillinger Koskoff. Cooper is currently producing the World War II drama "Atlantic Wall," an untitled Hulk Hogan biopic with Chris Hemsworth, and one with himself as Leonard Bernstein in a biopic. With grosses like that, who needs to act?

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) There could be some negative reaction to your tough stance when making a recent decision. But overall, your efforts result in well-earned recognition and all that can follow from that.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your financial situation seems confusing, even for the fiscally savvy Bovine. Maybe it's the conflicting advice you're getting. Check it out before things get too tangled to unknot.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A relaxed attitude goes a long way in helping you deal with any of life's irritants that might be popping up this week. You're also a reassuring role model for others in the same situation.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your aspect favors creativity, which should persuade you to work on your artistic projects. If time is a problem, prioritize your commitments so that your work isn't compromised.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Scrutinize all the job offers that interest you. Most are honest and worth considering. But a few might not be completely forthcoming about what the job is and what the salary and benefits are.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) An unexpected snafu could delay the completion of a project you're eager to finish. Find out what's causing it, fix it, and if you need help, don't be shy about asking for it. Good luck.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) An idea that could be helpful to you comes from an unlikely source. Listen to it. Discuss it. If necessary, adjust it. If it looks as if it might work out quite well, go ahead and use it.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Be careful about allowing someone to share a very personal secret with you. This could cause problems down the line with others who are involved in that person's private life.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A cooling down of a relationship could be the result of neglect, unintended or not. To save it from icing over, you need to warm it up with a large dose of hot Sagittarius passion.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) This is a good time to get involved with a number of family matters that involve money and other issues that might jeopardize the closeness between and among family members.

1. "The Ballad of the Green Berets," in 1966. The song has been widely used in movies and television, including "12 Strong," the 2018 film about the Special Forces in Afghanistan. 2. Taylor would be paid $20,000 as soon as he finished recording the "Sweet Baby James" album. He quickly melded together parts of three different songs to create this one. 3. ABBA, in 1974. The song, written for the Eurovision song contest that year, netted ABBA a win. 4. "Midnight Cowboy," in 1969.

5. "Hurt So Bad," by Little Anthony & The Imperials, in 1964. The song was covered by The Lettermen in 1969 and later by Linda Ronstadt.

Answering Your Safety & Security Questions

Question: I get a lot of calls and emails from companies selling security systems, so how do I choose the best one?

Chances are, you are receiving phone calls, emails, texts, or mailers from companies selling security systems.

Usually these contacts are from out of town, out of state companies making random robo calls and electronic contacts. While there are good companies out there, it's hard to know for sure unless you do some digging into their business.

A good place to start is the Better Business Bureau. Check online at bbb.org Do they have an A+ Rating, or do they have so many unresolved complaints that they have a D or F Rating ?

Also verify with your State Security Business Licensing Agencies that the security companies contacting you are operating legally within your state.

In Virginia contact, DCJS / Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services at, https://www. cms.dcjs.virginia.gov/GLSuiteWeb/Clients/VADCJS/Public/Verification/Business/Search.aspx In North Carolina contact, NCASLB / North Carolina Alarm System Licensing Board at, https://www.ncdps.gov/dpsservices/permits-licenses/alarm-system-licensing-board/active-burglar-alarm-licenses

Also when considering your security system provider, keep in mind that the initial installation of the system is only the beginning. Will the service technicians be local and able to service your system promptly and long into the future? How long will it take to get a response if you need service ? And how often will the security company increase their prices and your monthly rates ? Asking a lot of questions before you choose a security provider may save you from future frustrations.

PIEDMONT PETS

February 20, 2020 By Paulette Dean

We are always thrilled when a stray dog or cat comes to the shelter and when we scan it, we discover a microchip. This is the best proof of ownership that can be provided. It is becoming more common for people to pick up strays and decide to keep them. A microchip provides the best chance that a lost animal can be reunited with a home.

When the Danville Area Humane Society first took over operation of the city animal shelter in 1984, the popular method of proving ownership in cats and dogs was tattooing. Unbelievably, the owner's Social Security number was tattooed on the inner part of one of a dog's or cat's back legs! Can you imagine that in today's world?

A lot has changed since 1984, except for the reality that millions of lost dogs and cats enter shelters each year, and relatively few are returned to the owner, unless that owner has been diligent about providing an easy way home for the animal. In Virginia, shelters and rescue groups are required by law to make a reasonable effort to contact owners within 48 hours of an animal's arrival in their facility, if the animal has some form of identification on it.

State and local dog license laws are supposed to help return lost dogs to their owner, but very few localities require the licensing of cats. In addition, collars and tags can easily get lost. What, then, can an owner do to increase the odds that their beloved missing pet can be found and returned home?

We keep a lost and found registry of animals, but that system has weaknesses. What an owner describes to us may not be what we see in an animal.

A microchip the size of a grain of rice can be the proof of ownership that is needed to reunite you with your beloved pet.

The advantages are numerous. The process is quick and no more painful than a vaccination. The chip does not get lost, and a simple procedure with a scanner alerts a shelter that a microchip has been inserted. The owner's name and address can be registered on a national or regional database.

We strongly urge everyone to protect your pet by having your dog or cat microchipped and to register the chip with your current contact information.

Ballou to host National Caregiver Day Event

DANVILLE – According to a recent social media poll, over half of local caregivers in our region pinpoint stress as one of their greatest health concerns as they work tirelessly to ensure the proper care and good health of their charges.

To recognize caregivers and their valuable service to the community, Ballou Recreation Center will host the First Annual National Caregiver Day event at 11 a.m. on Feb. 21 featuring catered lunch from Golden Leaf Bistro, guest speakers, a self-care beauty bar, glam makeovers, and more activities designed to relieve stress.

New Business Management Instructor Hired at DCC

Danville Community College announced the hiring of Willie Sherman as the new instructor of business management this semester. Sherman brings with him a master of divinity degree from Virginia State University and a doctor of ministry degree from Virginia University of Lynchburg. Sherman teaches in the Division of Arts, Sciences, and Business at DCC. For more

"We are so excited about this program," said program coordinator Sophia Bolakas. "So many members of the community have already went above and beyond to provide services for the caregivers who attend and we are touched by their kindness."

According to Bolakas, tickets to the event cost $10, and she is encouraging those who have benefited from the efforts of a caregiver to sponsor someone to attend.

"What we hope will happen is the members of our community or businesses whose lives have been improved by an individual who provides care to a family member or friend will send that caregiver to the event as a way to say thank you, and a way to provide a stress relieving afternoon."

During the event, guest speaker topics will address the emotional stress caregivers undergo on a daily basis. Guest speakers include: Annette Clark from Alzheimer's Association; "Know the 10 Signs of Brain Health," Crystal Conard from Danville Pittsylvania Community Services; "Compassion Fatigue," and Cyndi Reames from Danville Yoga and Meditation; "Self-Care and Mindfulness."

Community partners include Danville Community College of Cosmetology, Zinc Total Salon, and Alleviation Massage by Nikki. The event is sponsored by Riverwalk Event Rentals and Décor, AARP, Humana, Riverside Health and Rehab, Liberty Homecare and Hospice, Commonwealth Senior Living, Roman Eagle Rehabilitation and Health Care Center, NEGRIL, and W&W Luxury Limousine Service.

THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME

BY AL SCADUTO

* Lightly spoon flour into your measuring cup. Never pack it down or tap the cup to level. Simply fill and then use the flat edge of a knife to remove the excess back to the original container. It's best to weigh dry goods if possible, for the most consistent results.

* "Here's a delicious recipe that's also beautiful: Homemade sugar scrub! Mix a cup of sugar with a tablespoon of salt and a quarter cup of olive oil. Use in the bath to scrub away rough patches and leave your skin smooth and hydrated. You can add a drop of perfume or essential oil for scent." -- R.K. in Indiana

* "It feels like we have less and less time with our doctors, and mine feels that way, too. Before I head to my appointment, I make a list of my top three discussion items and copy it out again for the doctor. When he walks in, I hand him the list so we stay on topic." -- C.E. in Massachusetts

* Use clean tin cans to make and decorate tiny cakes. They can be used just like a regular cake pan, just grease and dust with flour. Be sure to use only cans that are not lined with anything, because some cans are lined with BPA plastic!

* "I have heard the tip to spray a thread end with hairspray to keep it stiff for threading, but I didn't have any hairspray. I used a touch of hair gel, and it worked too." -- T. in Kentucky

* "You can reuse the envelopes that come in junk mail and solicitations. I use them to keep coupons together for when I go to the store, and magazine clippings that I save for my daughter." -- M.W. in Alabama chicken stock to Dutch oven. Stir consistently. Cook until the potatoes and carrots are fork tender. Reduce heat to medium-low and add back chicken.

Melt butter in 3-quart saucepan over medium-low heat. Whisk in flour until smooth and then slowly pour in milk, whisking constantly. Remove from heat and add salt and pepper. Pour into Dutch oven with chicken and vegetables. Add in English peas, stirring til well-combined. Pour into a 9x13 baking dish and set aside.

Prepare Southern Buttermilk Biscuits and place on top of chicken pot pie mixture in baking dish. Sprinkle with freshly ground black pepper on top of biscuits.

Bake 12-15 minutes until biscuits are golden brown and cooked through.

Remove from oven and allow to rest for about 3 minutes. Serve warm.

- Southern Buttermilk Biscuits
- 2 cups self-rising flour + more for flouring board
- 1/4 cup vegetable shortening
- 3/4 cup buttermik

Instructions

Preheat oven to 475° F. Lightly coat rimmed baking sheet or cast iron skillet with vegetable shortening. Set aside

Add flour to a large mixing bowl. Cut in shortening with a pastry blender, two forks, or knives until wellcombined. Slowly pour in buttermilk and stir gently until just combined. Do not overmix.

Pour biscuit dough onto a floured pastry cloth, paper towels, or dough board. Gently pat or roll to about 1/2-inch thick. Cut out biscuits using about a 2-inch biscuit cutter. Place biscuits into skillet or on baking sheet pan, leaving about an inch between biscuits to allow them to rise and cook fully. Place in preheated oven and bake about 10-12 minutes. Remove from oven and serve.
