Chamber fetes award winners

Celebrating its 70th anniversary, the Elkhart Lake Chamber of Commerce gathered in February to honor achievements of its membership this past year.

Chamber Executive Director Missy Koehler recalled a bit the history of the chamber, dating back to October 1950 when the name was officially changed to its current name from what once was known as the Businessman's Association. The location of the annual awards banquet held great meaning, since Siebkens was once owned by Ollie Siebken Moeller, one of the prime movers who advocated change back in the 50's.

Koehler reviewed the year past, noting that 2019 was a strong year for the chamber, which has grown to 150 members.

Although weather played a limiting factor in some of the traditional chamber events, the year held many highlights:

- The chamber launched a new website in February, with many online functions to help chamber members and Farmers Market vendors.

- A brand new event "Night Market Elkhart Lake" was rolled out this year, with attendance estimated at more than 1,000 people.

- The tree lighting was expanded to a larger event called Christmas in the Square, partnering with ElkhartCares.

- The chamber's newspaper, Depot Dispatch, had its best year from a revenue standpoint.

Looking ahead to 2020

Koehler also took time to point to some major milestones looming in the year ahead.

The Depot Dispatch will turn 40 years old on May 22. "The First Issue" as it was called bore the headline "Paper stresses community resources." The aim of the Depot Dispatch was to pull together and to become aware of the character and services of the community. The May edition of the Depot Dispatch will contain special information on the paper's history.

Downtown Night, still one of the Chamber's most popular events, will celebrate 25 years this August. "It's hard to believe that an idea sprung from a work lunch on a picnic table would turn into the event it has become today," Koehler said.

Pay it Forward Initiative

Koehler introduced Dick Strong of the Van Horn Automotive Group to share information about his the Pay it Forward Initiative. The names of all attendees was put in a bowl and the name of the person drawn was able to select a local charity for a $1,000 contribution from the Van

GETTING MARCHED DOWN THE HALL BY THE SCHOOL'S PRINCIPAL.

It wasn't always thought of as a good thing, but at ELGS we approach education a little differently. We encourage families to see firsthand what makes our small school experience so special. Personalized school tours can be set up anytime with minimum notice. You'll find classrooms and activities with low student-to-teacher ratios, children eager to learn what's being taught and a lot of smiling faces. Our teachers and staff take the necessary time to make sure each child gets the attention needed to grow academically, emotionally and socially. Prospective students are also encouraged to partner with another grade-level student for all or part of a school day. Past experience tells us your child will feel welcomed and comfortable here.

Find out why area families are making the move to ELGS by contacting either Debbie Hammann (Dir. of Pupil Services/Spec. Ed.), Todd Fischer (Elem./M.S. Principal) or Ryan Faris (H.S. Principal). We'd be happy to either set up a tour or arrange for a full or partial day classroom experience.

Who's There?

Personal contact with people is being eroded at an alarming rate. Consider these situations: There are fast food chains that now eliminate the order taker. Place your order instead at a "kiosk," pay it there and then just pick up your food. Clerks in stores have long disappeared - just pack out your stuff and pay it yourself in the "you scan and pay and pack counter." Better yet, don't even go to a store - just order and pay for it all at home via email. And we haven't had gas pump attendants for a long, long time. Pump your own gas, and don't even bother to go into the station, just pay at the pump with your credit card.

I even saw an ad on TV advertising how you can actually buy a car "on-line". Where's the test drive or the obnoxious pushy salesman? I think I miss him and the challenge that goes with it to outsmart him and get the deal I want. And to think I used to complain about that!

I also note a pizza company that now has you call in your order, go to the store and then simply remove your pizza from the "keep it hot" cabinet after you deposit money. Expanding on that—just call in your order and let them deliver to your home. I wonder, did a robot make the pizza too?

Are there any people-to-people experiences even still existing? Maybe the dentist or doctor still fall in that category (if you can get an appointment.) But I'll betcha pretty soon there'll be a machine you can stand behind, make a diagnosis and then spit out a prescription.

Let's not forget the soon to be erected driverless car. Won't that be an interesting experience—just sit back (relax if you can) and let the personnel's mechanism drive the car.

Even warfare has become "soldierless"—now a nation can destroy another with weapons that have sensors to guide them to the pin-point of where the target is located and POW - total destruction.

I guess we just have to accept this "modern" world and all it's digital wonders. Am I a really an old relic and soon to be a totally forgotten person who used to write letters, stop and visit with people, shop at stores where a clerk can help answer questions about a product and all those other things where I actually interact with another human being?

I will however reluctantly pick and choose and utilize some of today's unique innovations so I'm not totally rejecting technology.

But I'm just not going to abandon or reject my ability to do things myself.

Packer Hall of Famer named eSports coach

Ahman Green might be best known in Wisconsin for his Hall of Fame career with the Green Bay Packers, but for eSports enthusiasts, he has also built quite a positive reputation.

On Feb. 5, Green, an eSports entrepreneur and longtime player, was named the first coach of Lakeland University's new eSports program.

The Packers' all-time leading rusher has always been a gamer, dating back to playing ColecoVision when he was a kid. While growing up in Nebraska and becoming a decorated player for the University of Nebraska Cornhuskers, Tecmo Super Bowl and Madden NFL '97 were two of the games that kept Green rooted in eSports.

"This has been a lifelong passion for me, and I am excited to get the opportunity to come to Lakeland in this new role and grow the university's program from the ground up," said Green, a broadcast personality for the professional eSports team Tempo Storm.

"It is amazing how quickly eSports is growing, and how much it has evolved over the years I have been playing. I'm looking forward to talking to gamers about Lakeland and all the university has to offer as we build this program."

During his 12-year NFL career, Green was a four-time Pro Bowler and two-time All-Pro player. He has been inducted into both the Nebraska and Green Bay Halls of Fame.

After retiring from pro football in 2009, Green's interest in gaming and the eSports industry grew, and his personality in the industry grew as he hosted a weekly eSports talk show, True Game Fans Network.

Lakeland's co-ed team will debut this fall and be a member of the National Association of Collegiate Esports (NACE), which serves as the governing body to more than 150 colleges and universities and sets standards for eligibility and conduct for collegiate eSports.

eSports are multiplayer video games played online competing against other NACE colleges across the country in both a fall and spring season. Lakeland's team will compete in games such as League of Legends, Overwatch, Paladins, Rocket League, Smite, Fortnite, CSGO and Super Smash Brothers Ultimate. Additional games will be added in the future based on student interest and additions made by NACE.

Lakeland is renovating an existing 3,000-square foot space on the southwest portion of its campus where its eSports team will practice and compete. The space will feature 18 gaming stations, six consoles, a lounge area and space for spectators to enjoy the action.

The space will also be open to all Lakeland students during designated hours for intramural programs and individual student use. Lakeland currently has an eSports club and more than 30 students are involved, and that interest helped fuel Lakeland's decision to create a varsity team.

Lakeland launches student-run venture

Lakeland University is launching a new and innovative experiential learning opportunity that will better position students for post-graduation employment.

Lakeland's new student-run business enterprise will allow students to create, develop, manage and lead business ventures while developing the next generation of emerging leaders.

Students will be hired this spring into executive roles that will shape the student-run enterprise moving forward. Positions include chief executive officer, chief financial officer, chief marketing officer, chief talent officer and president of the Develop U division."

This new venture will put students in positions to make real-world business decisions, lead teams of their peers and be responsible for all aspects of the businesses from financial success to marketing strategies," said Scott Niederjohn, Lakeland's senior vice president for cooperative education and economic development. "These powerful experiences will provide students with an opportunity to develop an entrepreneurial mind set that is applicable in any field of study."

Initially the program will create four divisions:

- The Non-Profit Division will provide local non-profit agencies with temporary and/or long-term staff at little to no cost. The goal is to increase the effectiveness of local non-profit organizations by providing students to fill administrative and professional roles or customized projects or events.

- The Hospitality Division will run existing campus businesses such as Lakeland's The Daily Grind (coffee shop), The Muskie Mart (grocery and convenience store), athletic department concessions and facility rental and event planning (internal and external).

- The Merchandising Division will provide goods to elevate the Lakeland brand through the design and production of targeted consumer goods.

- Develop U Division will provide customized professional growth opportunities and continued training to improve useful skills and enhance competencies for internal and external constituents. These paid positions are open to undergraduate students in any academic major. The positions will start this summer."

This first group of student executives will make important decisions that will shape this enterprise for future growth," Niederjohn said. "It will be an amazing opportunity to students to learn how to strategize and innovate for long-term success."

Lakeland is modeling its program after colleges with successful and proven student-run businesses.

The university is creating a Board of Directors that will be filled with local business leaders to help guide the students in their work.

The board will work directly with the student executives, overseeing high-level direction, policy and strategy of the student-run business ventures.

A helping hand for schools

Education has a strong Foundation in Elkhart Lake - Glenbeulah

By Mike Mathes
for the Depot Dispatch

Everyone values the role of a strong partner. Local education has such a partner in the form of the Elkhart Lake - Glenbeulah Education Foundation.

Named the Elkhart Lake Chamber of Commerce Non-Profit Organization of the Year ELGEF has pumped lifeblood into the Elkhart Lake - Glenbeulah system in its 17-year history.

Vital financial contributions and accompanying support for the community's education system have strengthened a great community resource.

ELGEF Board member Bobbie Stroessner emphasized the importance of the partnering arrangement.

"A lot of people don't really know what we do, what our school needs and how valuable the work is in keeping our school system competitive," she noted.

Last year alone, the ELGEF contributed over $30,000 to support school programming and learning experience initiatives beyond limits of the school budget.

"We are fortunate to have the Elkhart Lake Glenbeulah School District. The value of the school remaining in Elkhart Lake is enormous, and keeping the school competitive to draw in and retain students is so important," Stroessner said.

The foundation helps bridge some of the shortcomings of being a small district.

Grants for programs

Elkhart Lake School district only receives 27 percent of its budget in state aid. ELGEF funds grant requests from teachers for a variety of educational programming needs beyond the normal operating budget.

Among the grants approved and given out this past year were the following:

- purchase of a plasma cutter and two 3-D printers for the technology education department
- supported district emergency funds for families in need
- helped purchase a retractable baseball/softball batting cage
- purchased tone chimes and handbells for the district's music program
- purchased a baritone saxophone for the Middle School Band program
- funded upgrades for the newly renovated consumer science classroom
- supported electronic field trips for elementary and middle school students
- funded author visits through the Sheboygan County Children's Book Fair
- provided funding for the ELG District marketing efforts
- contributed additional funding for the purchase of uniforms for the high school girls basketball team

"The District has been fortunate to pass referendums which allow our schools to continue to grow, but we still have our wish lists and wants for our schools to remain competitive," Stroessner said.

Last year, 24 percent (109 students) of the enrollees in the district qualified for free and reduced lunches. Yet, the property rich status of the district prevents it from qualifying for additional outside financial assistance for those programs.

"We always have an emergency fund to fill the needs of families who are experiencing financial hardships. The funds help cover the costs of school supplies, lunch fees, band fees, athletic fees and other needs, which can result in an impartial education experience for our students," Stroessner added.

Hitching up fundraising boots

As a result of these needs, ELGEF maintains an attitude of strapping on its fundraising boots and marching forward to support the school system. Julia Loo-Sutcliffe, current ELGEF Board President pointed to several fundraising efforts that support the ELGEF efforts to back the school system. Annually, the foundation reaches out to the community with an appeal for contributions. Donations can be made monetarily, through planned giving or stock donations. "We feel very fortunate to live in a community where the businesses and individuals are so incredibly supportive of our fundraising efforts. Each year we see an increase in dollars raised from the community," Loo-Sutcliffe added.

Other fundraising efforts include a Fall Golf Outing, a Spring event, a holiday ornament sale and intermittent smaller events held at local restaurants. Donors are acknowledged with an engraved apple on the ELGEF Giving Tree located in the high school. See elgef.org for more information.

Boss of Education event

A new fundraiser is in place for 2020. A 1920 themed Bootleggers Ball will be held at the Paddock Club on April 18 from 7-11pm. Five-six teams of people will be competing to raise funds to become the "Boss of Education." Each team will decide how they will raise funds. There is no limit to the number of fundraising activities a team can do. In the final month of fundraising teams will be given Elk Heads to sell to the public to boost their final fundraising efforts. Watch for announcements of the public can contribute to each team and help make the event a big success. Tickets are available at the ELG school offices or on line at elgef.org/ball.

4th grader, Brayden Smith, was the winner of the ELGEF 2019 ornament design contest.

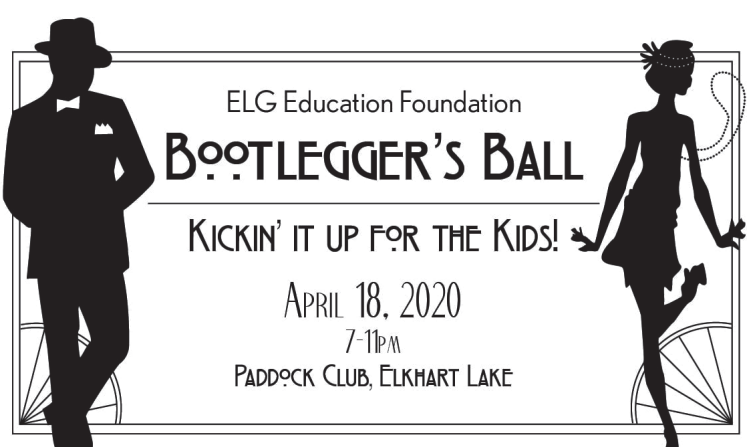

All funds to students

The volunteer board of ELGEF, along with all of the generous community members, work to foster the success of the mission. "All the funds go directly to the Elkhart Lake School District to benefit our students and district," Loo-Sutcliffe said. For more information see elgef.org.

Jazz on the Vine returns to Osthoff

Midwest fans of jazz will find this to be welcome news, especially in the grips of winter. The Osthoff Resort in Elkhart Lake, Wis., has just announced the line-up for its annual spring jazz festival, "Jazz on the Vine," May 8-10, 2020, with some new performers joining fest favorites. Tickets are available by calling 844.566.4392. The full schedule is posted at www.JazzOnTheVine.net. Keep it an easygoing weekend getaway when you book a suite at The Osthoff, with reservations accepted online at www.Osthoff.com. All performances are held rain or shine on the tented grounds of the resort, with those views to the lake as mesmerizing as the music.

While there's no disputing the allure of jazz festivals in Monterey or Newport, those require more than a few pennies-worth of airfare. And the Detroit, Chicago and Indy jazz fests don't show up on calendars until late summer or early fall. Those are two selling points that the organizers of Jazz on the Vine are keen to bring to the attention of Midwest jazz fans, as they've been doing for 18 years now. The timing of the ticket announcement also synchs up nicely for jazz devotees looking for a Valentine's gift for their sweetie.

Regulars to Jazz on the Vine will be interested to know of newcomers for 2020, including Marqueal Jordan who will be special guesting with Lindsey Webster, and Rebecca Jade who will be appearing with Eric Darius. Davina & the Vagabonds are making a return appearance after many years, having performed just once before at this fest. And the full Four80East band is back together, a first for Jazz on the Vine. Other top talent includes The Rippingtons featuring Russ Freeman, Peter White, and Rick Braun.

Gates open at 4:30 p.m. on Friday and at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday. Festgoers are invited to meet the musicians after their performances. On both evenings following the last performance, Marcell Guyton will be performing at Lola's on the Lake Restaurant & Lounge until 1:30 a.m.

More to Love About Jazz on the Vine -

Mother's Day is Sunday of Fest Weekend. What nice timing that Sunday, May 10, is also Mother's Day, and there will be a special brunch from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. at Lola's on the Lake, again featuring live jazz music from Marcell Guyton.

Ticket Prices Stay the Same

Ticket prices are steady from last year, with one-day general admission $85, a two-day ticket $155, and preferred seating for the two-day package at $195, plus tax on all. That cost of admission also includes wine sampling, with more than 100 domestic and international wines being served. The Mother's Day Brunch is $35.95 per person plus tax and gratuity.

Chamber Champion Award Elkhart Lake – Glenbeulah School District

We simply could not be the chamber we are today without the Elkhart Lake-Glenbeulah School District headed by Elkhart Lake alum, resident and superintendent Dr. Ann Buechel-Haack.

Their involvement on all levels of different chamber initiatives is consistently strong.

The district works hard to not only be a chamber champion but to be a community champion fostering strong partnerships and providing the community countless services.

Also nominated in this category were Van Horn Automotive Group, Cleveland State Bank, ElkhartCares, National Exchange Bank & Trust, Delta Media Group and Lakeland University.

Young Professional of the Year Award - Jessica Reilly, Village of Elkhart Lake

Jessica didn't expect to be in the profession she is in. A self-proclaimed "Political Strategy junkie who loves a good election night and watching the returns come in" she's happy to have ended up where she is making a difference on the local level. Her love of the "operation" of government makes her an ace at what she does. It's the residents, volunteers and people of the community that makes her strive to do the best she can each day. She was raised in Elkhart Lake and feels that the village and school gave her so many opportunities and feels privileged to be giving back to this community. She's inspired by her family who showed her through hard work you can accomplish anything.

Also nominated in this group were Laura Kobes, Elkhart Lake Tourism; Branden Boerner, Cleveland State Bank; Maren Rischel, Luxury Motor Courts and Lemons of Love; Katy Glodosky, Stefanie H. Weill Center; Jenna Schram, Siebkens Resort; and Nick Cain, Avenue Real Estate.

Tourism Business of the Year Road America

The economic impact that Road America has on our community is jaw dropping. Entering into its 65th year of entertaining thousands of fans from around the world, families are getting ready to enjoy another race season and creating memories to last a lifetime.

In the last year the track has hosted a variety of events including corporate meetings, dinners, fundraisers, milestone parties, disc golf tournaments, charity walks, runs, weddings, and much more.

The next step for Road America is to take this historic venue beyond its limits in 2020. Road America is constantly raising the bar when it comes to enhancing the overall experience for their guests.

Others nominated in this category included Aspira Spa, The Osthoff Resort, Three Guys and a Grill at Sheboygan Marsh, Quit Qui Oc Golf Course and Paddock Club.

Rising Star Award The Fork & Dagger Ale Haus

Nate and Denise Paulish wanted the next level challenge in their careers and wanted an atmosphere that was their own when they decided to open The Fork & Dagger Ale Haus in Kiel a few years back.

The couple have both worked in the industry for more than 20 years and have met a lot of creative and knowledgeable people along the way.

In the end it was their own experience that inspired them to start their own biz. Beer tastings, bourbon tastings along with special dinners put a unique spin on to what they have to offer.

Exciting plans are on the horizon for Nate and Denise as they plan to open a new pizzeria in Kiel in the spring and also plan on adding a beer garden to The Fork & Dagger.

Other nominees in this group included Siebkens Resort, Route 67 Saloon, North Gate Floral Shop, Small Town-Big Family, and SwitchGear Brewing Company.

Business of the Year Gina's Fine Gifts and Framing

From the time Gina was a little girl playing retail behind the counter of her Grandfather's gun and bait shop, she always knew that she wanted her own store.

So when she and her husband Skip decided to stay in Elkhart Lake after they got married she came up with the idea that put her degree, love of the arts, home décor and lake living all to use and opened up Gina's Fine Gifts and Framing 15 years ago.

For 15 years Gina's has been bringing customers from all over to her shop in Elkhart Lake's historic Feed Mill. She began as a professional custom framing shop and has now evolved to so much more.

Gina loves that the community's commitment to shopping local and supporting local business has allowed her to increase her store's offerings each season that goes by.

Others nominated in this category included Culver's of Plymouth, The Brown Baer, Lake Street Cafe, The Elkhart Lake - Glenbeulah School District.

Elkhart Lions host CP fundraiser

The Elkhart Lake Lions Club will hold its 40th annual fundraiser for cerebral palsy on Sunday, March 1.

The Silent Auction and brat fry will take place from 1-4 p.m. at Anchor Lanes in Elkhart Lake. Silent Auction proceeds to cerebral palsy, while the proceeds from the brat fry will go to support the Elkhart Lake - Glenbeulah girls softball program.

Auction items include a TV, gas grill, autographed sports items from the Packers, Bucks, Brewers, Badgers and more. Also in the auction are golf packages from Quit Qui Oc, Door County and other locations, along with hotel and camping packages to local favorites, Door County and Northern Wisconsin. Dinner certificates are also part of the auction. The auction is sure to have something for everyone.

The public is invited to come out and enjoy the fun for a couple of good causes.

A Tribute to the Carol Burnett show is generously sponsored by the Waldo State Bank and Wisconsin Arts Board.

The cast for this production of the Carol Burnett Show includes: Tom Clegg, Toddiana Kraemer-Curtiss, Bob Deyo, Bonnie Jaeger, Nora Jaeger, Sue Kaiser, Kerrylynn Kraemer, Michellelena Kraemer, Rebecca Menne, Julie Overby, and Renee Wachuta.

History of the Carol Burnett Show: In 1967, CBS offered to put Carol Burnett in a weekly comedy series called Here's Agnes. However, Burnett had a stipulation in her ten-year contract with CBS that said she had five years from the date The Garry

Moore Show ended to "push the button" on hosting 30 one-hour episodes of a music/comedy variety show. As a result, the hour-long Carol Burnett Show was born and debuted in September 1967, garnering 23 Emmy Awards and winning or being nominated for multiple Emmy and Golden Globe Awards every season it was on the air. Its ensemble cast included Tim Conway (who was a guest player until the ninth season,) Harvey Korman, Lyle Waggoner, and the teenaged Vicki Lawrence, whom Burnett herself discovered and mentored.

A true variety show, The Carol Burnett Show struck a chord with viewers. Among other things, it parodied films (Gone With the Breeze for Gone With the Wind,) television (As the Stomach Turns for the soap opera As the World Turns) and commercials. Musical numbers were also a frequent feature.

Burnett and her team struck gold with the original sketch "The Family," which eventually was spun off into its own television show called Mama's Family, starring Vicki Lawrence. Burnett opened most shows with an impromptu question-and-answer session with the audience, lasting a few minutes, during which she often demonstrated her ability to humorously ad lib.

On numerous occasions, she obliged when asked to perform her trademark Tarzan yell. Burnett ended each show by tugging on her left ear, which was a message to her grandmother who raised her.

This was done to let her know that she was doing well and that she loved her.

NH Historical Society hosts appraisal day

The New Holstein Historical Society will be presenting the 2020 edition of their annual Antique Appraisal Day and brat fry on Saturday, March 21st at the Community Center, 1725 Silver Moon Lane (East side of Kiwanis Park) in New Holstein.

From 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., two highly qualified antique dialers will be present to review objects, estimate approximate age, estimate value, and relate other pertinent facts.

Returning this year, as guest appraiser, is Gordon Kirsten, who with his wife Judy, operate Gordon's Antiques a 5000 sq. ft. shop in Grafton, WI. Located in a historic barn, Gordon displays a more than one million dollar inventory of furniture, lighting, glass, porcelain, post-cards, American Indian and fine art. He has been in this business for over 40 years and has established himself for several decades as an expert appraiser throughout the Mid-West. Gordon is a former board director of the Wisconsin Antique Dealers Association (WADA), the oldest, continually functioning State antiques organization in America.

Also serving as guest appraiser on March 21st is Lee Bernard, former Vice-President of WADA. Lee and his wife Roxanne operate Bernard Antiques in Jackson and display at shows throughout Wisconsin. He is chairman of WADA's twice annual show educational exhibit. Lee has been conducting appraisals in Sheboygan, Kewaskum and Cedarburg areas in recent years. His expertise includes decorative arts, dolls, toys, china, bottles, and primitives.

Cost is $5.00 for one item to be appraised, or $10.00 for three items. New Holstein Historical Society members receive a benefit of their membership by getting four items appraised for $10.00. All proceeds from this annual event help fund the Timm House and Pioneer Corner Museum as well as other New Holstein history preservation projects.

The Appraisal event also includes a mid-winter brat and hamburger fry-out. Also available from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. are traditional and white (chicken) chili, homemade pies (whole or by the slice), and refreshments! Even if you don't have an item to be appraised, come and enjoy the food, pull up a chair, and watch the interesting items being evaluated.

They believe in supporting the citizens and establishments in the community that need a helping hand, with their neighbors-helping-neighbors approach.

Their offerings and services are given with the vision of building a community where the power of goodwill keeps on giving.

This year, partnering with the Elkhart Lake Chamber of Commerce for 'Christmas in the Square', ElkhartCares created Santa's Village. With the help of their spirited volunteers, and thanks to generous donors, the children of our community were able to enjoy a series of fun-filled booths. They were able to decorate their own Christmas cookie, get a Christmas tattoo, and enjoy a cup of hot chocolate as some of the choices. The children also had the opportunity to share their wishes with Santa, visit with a Snow Princess, and take home an ElkhartCares bag full of goodies.

Also in the spirit of the Holiday Season, ElkhartCares partnered with The Elkhart Lake Public Library to host Story Time with Santa's Elf. This was the second year that ElkhartCares and the Elkhart Lake Public Library have partnered for this event, and it has become a welcome tradition. This year, the delightful community event opened with a ribbon-cutting ceremony for "The Reading Tree", a new library window seat gifted to the community by ElkhartCares. "It was a heartwarming morning, filled with children, their parents, and grandparents", an ElkhartCares volunteer said about the event. After the new window seat in the library was presented, Santa's Elf read to all of the children, and led them in holiday crafting. All members of the community are invited to stop by the Library to see the new Reading Tree and Quigby, The ElkhartCares Elephant.

In addition to creating enriching activities and events for the community, ElkhartCares focuses on providing assistance to individuals and families who are striving to achieve happier lives amid set-backs or hardships.

ElkhartCares values confidentiality, and handles all applications with care. One community member anonymously writes of her experience receiving assistance from ElkhartCares: "Being a single mom can be a real challenge! ElkhartCares helped me fill my gas tank so I could get my children around to school and activities, and myself to work and classes. I am also happy that my children can do extracurricular programs, thanks to ElkhartCares covering the fees and expenses we couldn't afford. As mothers, we love to see our children in extracurricular activities, because we know that it builds character and self-esteem. My son told me, after sports season, that he also liked playing because it helped him focus on his school work. It was such a relief to me when ElkhartCares took my children back-to-school shopping when I could hardly afford to keep them in clothes without holes and in shoes that were worn ragged. The kids were so happy to have new backpacks that were filled with the things they needed to set them up for the school year, and clothes that fit them and they felt good in. These opportunities mean so much to me and my family.

It really means a lot to have a helping hand from ElkhartCares."

The ElkhartCares family is proud to serve the community of the Elkhart Lake area. If you or someone you know is inspired to become an ElkhartCares volunteer, and/or wishes to join hands with ElkhartCares through a donation, visit the ElkhartCares website, www.ElkhartCares.org.

Elkhart Lake Village update

Housing rental permit required

Short-Term Rental Licensing Ordinance

Did you know that if you rent your house out for one night, the State of Wisconsin requires you to have a Tourist Rooming House Permit? More information on this process can be found on the State of Wisconsin DATCP website https://datcp.wi.gov/Pages/Programs_Services/TouristRoomingHouses.aspx. This means that if you are planning on renting your house for the Ryder Cup or Road America races you need to have the State's Tourist Rooming House Permit. Due to this requirement by the State and to help ensure properties that are being rented for short-term (less than a month) are meeting health and safety regulations, the Village Board approved a new ordinance for licensing short-term rentals. This ordinance requires all people who rent their property for more than 10 nights to be licensed by the Village. More information on this process, including an application, will be available by March 1st. If you have any questions, please contact Jessica Reilly at 920-876-2122.

Dog Licenses

Please stop in at the Village Hall to license your dog by March 31st. You need to provide a proof of rabies vaccination and pay the fee ($7.00 per spayed or neutered dog and $14.00 per dog if not spayed or neutered). A late charge will be assessed to all dogs not licensed by March 31st.

April Election

The ballot is set for the April 7, 2020 election. If you need to have an absentee ballot, please make sure you fill out the form and provide photo ID to our office. We anticipate the ballots being mailed by March 16th and we will begin voting in the office by that date as well. If we get the ballots early we will start in-person absentee voting at that time. This will include the local elections, as well as the Presidential Primary. The following submitted papers to run for village offices.

Board of Trustees: (Vote for Three) Terri Knowles, John Schott, Lynn Shovan.

If you need to register to vote you can do it in person at the Village offices between 8:30 am and 4:30 pm Monday-Friday or you can go online to <https://myvote.wi.gov/en-us/> and register and receive voting information including polling locations and sample ballots.

Household Hazardous Waste

Sheboygan County has established three (potentially four) periodic collection sites for disposing of hazardous wastes. The majority of the program is funded with County tax dollars, so be prepared to show proof of residency. When those funds are depleted, the sites will be closed until funds are again available. The fees are: $10 - Vehicles with hazardous waste only, $30 - Vehicles with household size electronics only (for each 6 items), and $30 - Vehicles with both hazardous waste and household size electronics (for each 6 electronic items). For more information on the days, times, and locations please visit <https://www.sheboygancounty.com/home/showdocument?id=11444>.

Victory Park Development

The Planning Commission and Village Board will be reviewing the final plat and engineering at their meetings in March. The infrastructure will start going in this spring with new homes following shortly thereafter. This has been a lengthy process, but we are thrilled to be working with Werner Homes. If you are interested in more information on the subdivision you can contact Werner Homes at 920-458-4104.

Kornetzke retires from Elkhart Lake post office

Karen Kornetzke has officially retired from the Elkhart Lake post office, to congratulations from her co-workers and supervisors.

For the past 5 ½ years Karen Kornetzke has been the smiling face staffing the Elkhart Lake Post Office. She retired on February 21.

Karen said she recalls being apprehensive about leaving the comfort of the Kiel Post Office where she had spent the first 17 years of her postal career when she first was assigned to transfer full time to Elkhart Lake.

Within a short time she got to know and enjoy her interaction with the local residents who visit the post office, and says she learned to love it here.

Everyone appreciated the fact that Karen always had a smile and friendly greeting for everyone, locals and visitors alike. Karen also wishes to thank the local residents for their kindness and thoughtfulness over the years in return. Karen will truly be missed.

Karen plans to spend more time in her gardens and with her grandchildren in her retirement.

She's not retiring from helping out at the Altona Supper Club in New Holstein, where one will still be able to see Karen's smiling face, almost always during their Sunday brunch.

Thank you Karen for taking such good care of Elkhart Lake's postal needs and best wishes for a wonderful retirement.

How to Target Anyone, Anywhere at Anytime

A deep dive into digital advertising

Joe Mathes - Delta Digital Strategies

Joe Mathes from Delta Digital Strategies will provide a sweeping presentation on the digital advertising tactics available to small and medium sized businesses.

This session will review traditional digital tactics such as search engine marketing, search engine optimization, targeted display and email. Joe will also dig into and discuss the latest, cutting-edge "creepy-cool" tactics such as IP targeting, DID LookBack and Device ID Address Match.

Of course a presentation on digital advertising would be incomplete without a segment on measuring effectiveness. Joe will share actual local case studies and how to get the most out of Google Analytics and other metrics.

A lifelong veteran of the newspaper industry, Joe Mathes founded Delta Digital Strategies (DDS), a local, full-stack digital advertising agency in 2017. In less than three years, DDS has grown to nearly 100 clients in five states.

Lakeland, LTC assist with tax preparation

Lakeland University and Lakeshore Technical College (LTC) are partnering again this year to help collect tax refunds for area residents who need it the most.

Students in the accounting program from each institution will provide free tax preparation and electronic filing for low income tax filers. Lakeland started offering this service, which is available through the IRS Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program (VITA), in 2005.

LTC students began participating in 2010. The program is designed to help low-to-moderate income people file their tax returns.

Clifton Larson Allen is sponsoring the VITA program this year.

The service is available through LTC at its Cleveland campus, 1290 North Ave., and through Lakeland at the Sheboygan Salvation Army, 710 Pennsylvania Ave. Reservations are required for the tax service.*

LTC's Cleveland campus: Tax prep is available on Tuesdays from 1-4 p.m. and 5:30-8:30 p.m. starting Feb. 4 and ending March 31.

To reserve a spot at LTC, call 920-693-1398. Phone calls for the LTC site are accepted starting on Jan. 27 between 9 a.m.-12 p.m. on Mondays and 12-3 p.m. on Wednesdays.*

Sheboygan Salvation Army: Tax preparation will be open on Thursdays from 5-9 p.m. and Saturdays from 9:30 a.m.-2 p.m. starting Feb. 1 and ending April 9. To reserve a spot at the Salvation Army, call 920-565-1000 ext. 2290.

Phone calls are accepted between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Monday through Friday. Reservations will be accepted beginning January 27.

Last year, students from the two institutions prepared and filed approximately 400 returns that helped local taxpayers collect close to $1 million in refunds. People interested in taking advantage of this free service must have income under $56,000 a year.

- Applicants must bring:*
- A photo ID*
 - Social security cards for themselves, their spouse and dependents*
 - W-2 forms*
 - 1099 forms*
 - Rent certificate or 2019 property tax bill*
 - A copy of their 2018 tax return.

Golf tips FORE you

by Rachel Montaba
owner, Quit Qui Oc Golf Club

Little Divots

Have you ever driven past a golf course in early spring and late fall and wonder... "what's the matter with those guys?" I know I have, once I stopped to think about it though, I had to smile.

I thought of the many cliché's of why people play golf and realized they are true. Here are a few, thought you might enjoy them too.

A few reasons to play golf.

Golf is a game of a lifetime. While this is a much-said cliché, it rings so true. There is almost no other sport you can play your entire lifetime.

It is a family game. Golf is a great way to spend time with your family, with no one sitting on the sidelines.

Ladies Night out. Golf is social; I have heard many times people say... "I've met my best friends on the golf course."

Exercise! If you enjoy taking walks, then golf is the perfect game for you. Playing just a 9-hole round can burn lots of calories. Even riding in a cart burns more calories than you think.

It can be a stress reliever. There's nothing better than going out on the golf course, playing the game you love, and just forgetting about everything for a couple hours.

Everyone can compete with everyone. One of the best things about the sport is, regardless of ability, the handicap system levels the playing field for everyone.

It gets you outside. There is nothing better than a Wisconsin summer, but as we all know it only lasts so long. So joining a league gets you out to enjoy the weather and the beautiful nature at Quit Qui Oc.

It's just fun. No matter your ability the game is just fun to play!

I think these statements ring true. Young and old become hooked the first time we make that great shot. We begin our pursuit of more of those shots. We continue as long as family and work will allow. And the beauty of golf is that family and work can be involved with golf.

The greatest thing about golf is that it allows people of all ability levels to play together and compete. So moms, dads, grandparents and kids can all play together and enjoy the time spent together. No one is sitting on the sidelines.

Elkhart Lake Public Library to adopt fine free policy

The Elkhart Lake Public Library is proud to announce that the Library Board has adopted a fine free policy. As of March 1, 2020, the library will no longer charge fines for library items returned late. The Elkhart Lake Public Library joins two other Sheboygan County libraries, Sheboygan Falls Public Library and Kohler Public Library, that have been successfully fine free for many years.

Why fine free and why now? The public library fine free movement has been sweeping the nation. The American Library Association (ALA) passed a resolution in 2019 to urge public libraries to eliminate fines because fines can create barriers for people who need the service the most. The vulnerable populations often include people in low income situations, the elderly on fixed income, youth and minorities. Research has shown that the rate of return of library materials remain approximately the same whether fines are charged or not.

The Elkhart Lake Public Library has been moving towards the elimination of fines by expanding the grace period to all library materials, offering text and email reminders, lengthening the loan period of TV series DVDs, Audiobooks and new children's books. Over the last five years, we have reduced fines by almost 45%. Our budget has not been dependent on the revenue from fines and we feel this is a good time to go ahead and eliminate all overdue fines. We have waived all accrued Elkhart Lake Public Library overdue fines. We are not able to waive fines charged by other libraries in the system. Charges for replacement costs and processing fees are still in force.

There is a concern that going fine free would stop people from returning books on time. Libraries that have adopted the practice, however, have not reported any issues with books being returned later than normal. With a fine free policy, patrons that don't return on time may be blocked from checking out additional materials until the late materials are returned. We will continue to bill for items that are never returned or for items that are returned damaged. Non-return of library materials is considered theft according to the Wisconsin statutes (Wis. Stat. 943.61) and sometimes we do request assistance from the Elkhart Lake Police Department.

Patrons with accounts in arrears due to lost or damaged books who would like to use the library, we would like to work with you. Please contact us.

For further information please contact Betty McCartney, Library Director at 920-876-2554 or by email to elcirc@monarchlibraries.org

McFerrin, Gimme 5 to appear on Kohler stage

For the 76th year, Kohler Foundation's Distinguished Guest Series will be giving voice to the arts with an exciting, high-energy, dynamic performances.

The second performance of the 2020 Distinguished Guest Series will feature accomplished American jazz vocalist Bobby McFerrin with members of his groundbreaking a cappella group Gimme5.

The show will take place Saturday, March 7 at 8:00 p.m.

Bobby McFerrin's Circlesongs takes audiences on a life-changing musical adventure. His exhilarating vocal vocabulary – call and response, global rhythms, soaring melodies, lush harmonies, and funny noises – reminds everyone how much fun it is to be alive. Ten Grammy Awards and a #1 global hit "Don't Worry, Be Happy" are impressive, but his greatest gift may be his ability to transform a concert hall into a playground.

Tickets and Ordering

Individual tickets are available online at kohlerfoundation.org/tickets or by calling (920) 458-1972 (between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday). All events will be held at the Kohler Memorial Theater, 260 School St., Kohler.

Kohler Foundation is a non-profit, private foundation that supports arts, education, and art preservation initiatives in Wisconsin.

Thank You!

What a great Schnee Days weekend we had! We simply could not offer this fun, winter festival without the help of the below mentioned sponsors and donors.

Thank you from the Elkhart Lake Chamber of Commerce, our community and our visitors!

All signs are pointing to a very exciting year for the Elkhart Lake community. If you haven't already heard the community will be celebrating a "once in a lifetime" event where its zip code will match a date during the 2020 calendar. When it first occurred to the Elkhart Lake Chamber of Commerce that May 30, 2020 was the village's zip code day, the chamber knew an organization had to step up to help plan a fun way to celebrate this occasion. They quickly created a committee and started to brainstorm ideas.

They wanted to share some preliminary details with you and ask the community for help. The Zip Code Day party will take place in the heart of the village in the village park from 3:00PM-8:30PM on Saturday, May 30. Live music, games, food, drinks and a toast to the town at 5:30:20 p.m. will highlight this gathering of the community. Official 53020 hats, t-shirts and postcards created by local school kids will be available to purchase along with some other fun giveaways. You'll be able to have your picture taken with giant 53020 numbers that will be created. Area businesses will also be participating having events and specials at their business.

"Putting on community celebrations is a part of what we do and we think we do a pretty good job of it, so people should come and celebrate with us", said Melissa Koehler, Executive Director of The Elkhart Lake Chamber of Commerce.

Would you consider donating to help put on this special event? All donors will be recognized on a banner at the event. You can drop off or mail donations made out to The Elkhart Lake Chamber of Commerce to: 41 East Rhine Street, Elkhart Lake, WI 53020 or donate online at www.elkhartlakechamber.com and click on Events and 53020 Zip Code Day. Thank you for your support!
