Meeting With Future Son-in-law

A man was very eager to meet his future son in law. His daughter had gotten engaged unexpectedly and this weekend would be their first time meeting him. He told all of his friends at work he had a whole list of questions to ask this young man.

On Saturday morning he invited his soon to be son-in-law out for a cup of coffee. As they began to talk, the father quickly found himself asking the questions that were weighing on his mind.

"Do you have a job? I know you just finished college and all, but how do you plan to support yourself and my daughter?"

The young man paused and said, "Well, God will provide."

The father then asked his second question, "Where do you intend to live? Do you have a house or apartment lined up for after the wedding?"

The young man paused and again, and with much conviction said, "God will provide."

The father waited a few moments before launching into his third question. "Son, do you have any money? Any savings? A financial nest egg?"

The young man looked him right in the eye and said again, "God will provide."

The following Monday all of the father's co-worker were curious to find out how it had gone meeting his future son-in-law.

The father smiled and said, "I kind of like the kid. He thinks I am God!"

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Lin Manuel Miranda is one smart cookie. After creating "Hamilton" for Broadway in 2015 and winning a record 11 Tony Awards, he had the forethought to produce a 2 hour and 40 minute film, with his original cast, two weeks before they left the show. Now, five years later, he's sold the worldwide rights to the highest bidder, Disney, for a mere $75 million. Disney will release it in the fall of 2021. Disney launched its streaming service, Disney+, on Nov. 12, 2019, and had 10 million subscribers that day at $6.99 each. As of today, Disney+ has 30 million subscribers.

Prepare yourself for "The Matrix 4," with Keanu Reeves, Carrie-Anne Moss and Jada Pinkett Smith returning, joined by Priyanka Chopra and Neil Patrick Harris. It's due in theaters May 21, 2021.

All anybody talks about at Hollywood parties is why "The Irishman" — with its dream cast of Robert De Niro, Al Pacino and Joe Pesci, and top director Martin Scorsese — has not picked up any awards from 10 Oscar nominations, five Golden Globes nominations and five Bafta nominations (the British Oscars). Critics called it a "masterpiece" and "clever and entertaining," while Leonardo DiCaprio said, "It is absolutely breathtaking." Even though it topped 23 No. 1 best film lists, it seems awards voters turned their backs on it. As some politicians have learned, be careful what you say for the record, it may come back to haunt you later.

Martin Scorsese went on rants, saying things like, "I suggest, if you want to see one of my pictures, or most films, please don't look at it on a phone," and about online streaming he offered, "Viewers can also turn a picture off and go straight to the next piece of content. If there's no sense of value tied to a given movie, of course, it can be sampled in bits and pieces and just forgotten. The horrible idea they reinforce is that every picture, every image is there to be instantly judged and dismissed without giving audiences time to see it. So the great 20th century art form is reduced to content."

Gage, Skidmore/Wikimedia Commons

Scorsese must have thought he could create such "a masterpiece" that Netflix would want to release it in theaters, but the major chains — AMC, Cinemark, Regal and Cineplex — wanted nothing to do with a movie available for streaming just three weeks later. The film cost $159 million to make and took in $8 million in theaters. Its first day it was streamed by 3.9 million viewers and within five days it rose to 17.1 million viewers. The Oscars and most awards were created to add box-office power to films, but with that kind of viewer power ... who needs awards?

* You might think your dishwasher cleans itself every time you use it, but it could use a hand. Run this cleaning cycle monthly: Fill a two small bowls with white vinegar, and put one each on the upper and lower racks. When the clean cycle is done, sprinkle a cup of baking soda on the bottom and run again.

* Cooking Tip: After you have rotisserie chicken for dinner, throw the carcass in a pot and make a quick stock. All you need are: a quartered onion; two carrots and two celery stalks, roughly chopped; a bay leaf and other spices you enjoy; a bit of salt; your rotisserie chicken carcass; and enough water to cover. Boil and let simmer for up to two hours. Strain and store.

* If you need to chop bacon for a garnish or slice chicken or beef for fajitas, freeze the meat before you chop. It will make it much easier to get the slices uniform because it doesn't slide around.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Having second thoughts could be a good thing, even if you're determined to go through with your plans. You might find it worthwhile to take a fresh look at how things have been set up.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Financial matters could continue to be a problem until you're able to straighten out some of the more pesky situations. Once that happens, the rest should be easier to unsnarl.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Family matters once again take center stage, and should be dealt with competently and quickly. And, again, insist on others taking on their fair share of the responsibilities.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your creative pursuits seem to be running into a roadblock. But rather than blame outside factors, look within to see if you might be holding back your efforts for some reason.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Keep that keen Cat's Eye FOCUSED on relevant aspects of this new situation in your life. Don't be distracted by trivial matters. You need the pertinent facts before making a decision.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) As much as you prefer doing things on your own, continue to accept help if you still need to resolve the problem affecting your project. Some cheerful news is about to come your way.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) While you might begrudge the added time it will take to get your project from point A to B to C, etc., you could benefit from the facts that will emerge over this expanded time span.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Regarding your workplace suggestions, be prepared to produce the facts to counter reactions from skeptics who feel your approach is unreasonable or even impossible.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Savvy Sagittarians will look for work-related answers on their own rather than rely on unproved assumptions. It might take more time to do so, but the payoff is worth it.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your aspects continue to favor family issues, with special emphasis this week on changes in and around your home. Get everyone to suggest what he or she would like to see done.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A matter you thought had been settled might still produce surprises. Best advice: Continue to gather facts to bolster your position just in case you need to produce them quickly.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) While your instincts are usually right when discerning 'twixt truth and deception, you could benefit from doing more research on the new "prospect" that you've been pitched.

Its Got To Be Love

An older couple regularly attended church. The pastor was much impressed by how harmonious and how in love they seemed. They always held hands all through the service.

One day after church, the pastor couldn't resist going up to them to express his admiration. He said, "I find it so inspirational to see how deeply in love you are, even, after all these years, holding hands like that."

The wife looked up sharply and said, "It's not love, Pastor, I'm just keeping him from cracking his knuckles."

PIEDMONT PETS
 February 27, 2020
 By Paulette Dean

Birds are wonderful companion animals. They are much smarter than most people think they are, and they can become a very important part of a family. Birds are now the third most popular pet in the United States.

However, people buy or adopt birds with the belief that they will be low-maintenance pets, and that is simply not the case. They have very specific physical and emotional needs, they can be very messy, and they can be destructive.

The smaller birds, including parakeets, lovebirds, and cockatiels, can live up to about 20 years, and the larger birds can live beyond 50 years. This is a major commitment of time, energy, space, and money that can span a couple of generations.

An appropriate cage for a small bird can cost a couple of hundred dollars, while a cage for a larger bird can cost several hundred dollars. Birds, in most homes, spend most of their time in a cage, and to provide them with anything less than a large-enough cage is inhumane.

When people take birds into their home, suddenly many commonplace things become dangerous. Fumes from self-cleaning ovens, scented candles, non-stick cookware, and cleaning supplies kill birds. Most birds can be quite loud and raucous, and prospective bird owners need to realize that noise can be an issue in apartments. In addition, they love to shred paper, furniture, walls, curtains, or anything else they can get their beaks into.

996 South Boston Rd., Danville, VA 24540
 Phone: (434) 799-0843

Since birds can sing or whistle such pretty tunes, and some of them can talk, they draw a lot of interest. Combine that with their pretty colors, many people want to have them as pets. And that has led to a lot of problems for birds.

We have felt for years that the overbreeding of birds would become a serious issue, and it has. The number of birds received at shelters has increased, and some shelters will not accept them. Birds make wonderful companions; however, we urge people to carefully research the issue before acquiring one.

Combs Hired in New Role at DCC

Danville Community College (DCC) announced the hiring of Nancy Combs of Danville in a new role—Executive Assistant to the Vice President of Finance and Administrative Services. Combs previously served as Administrative Assistant to the Vice President of Academic and Student Services.

Combs is a proud alumna of DCC and Averett University. She graduated Magna Cum Laude from Averett with a Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) degree. She holds an Audio-Visual Certification from the Institute for Advanced Learning and Research, and a globally-recognized Information and Communication Technology Certification (ICDL). She is a graduate of Leadership Southside. Combs shared that in her new position in DCC's Business and Administrative Services division, she can better apply her business degree and expand her professional contributions to the college, its students, and its stakeholders.

Combs has surpassed the 30-year milestone of professional service to the Commonwealth of Virginia, with more than 15 years in higher education and the same number with the Department of Behavioral Health and Development Services. She also served as lead trainer and customer service coordinator for Health IT Services Group, a leading-edge, web-based electronic health record software company.

In this new role, Combs will include serving as the confidential Executive Assistant to the Vice President of Finance and Administration, handling sensitive materials and confidential matters; providing financial, organizational, and executive level support which promotes departmental and organizational efficiency and effectiveness; office management duties; facilitating communications with College stakeholders; and serving as the College's Records Officer pursuant to the Virginia Public Records Act (VPRA) of the Code of Virginia (§42.1-76 et. seq.).

Combs has many passions, including volunteerism, advocating for the welfare of all children, and encouraging others, especially the least of them, to pursue a college credential. "I am passionate about assisting others, including helping others recognize that the successful pursuit of a post-secondary education is critical to individual success and most often results in the success of future generations," Combs explained, also highlighting the important role of DCC in local economic development efforts. "Every life that is changed for the better at DCC further enhances the success of the region."

She has served on many boards and committees in Southern Virginia, including the Board of Directors for the Boys and Girls Clubs of the Danville Area. She served as a Site Coordinator for the Danville Church-based Tutorial program. She is a graduate of Virginia Tech's Innovative Leadership/Neighborhood Leadership Institute, as well as a graduate of Leadership Southside XIV. As a volunteer and National Highway Traffic Safety Administration Child Passenger Safety Technician, Combs secured funding from the Virginia Department of Health to cover the cost of child safety seat training and free child safety seats for low income families residing in the City of Danville and Pittsylvania County. Nancy serves on the DCC Alumni Council and served on AU's Presidential Search Committee that unanimously selected Dr. Tiffany Franks as AU's 14th President. Combs attends Fellowship Baptist Church. She enjoys spending time with her family, including her grandchildren.

"I have had the great fortune to witness firsthand DCC's influence as a driving force in higher education throughout Southern Virginia," Combs said.

There are three generations of alumni in Combs' family, beginning with her late father who completed DCC's electronics program after serving in the Vietnam War, followed by Combs, and then her son who earned an AAS Information Systems Technology - Network Engineer Specialization degree, an AA&S in Liberal Arts, a General Education Certificate, a Network Technology Career Studies Certificate and a Networking with CISCO/CCNA Career Studies Certificate.

"No matter whether a student chooses a short-term program, a technical route, or a pathway to a four-year degree through the college's transfer agreements, DCC has a diverse and accessible offering of traditional and short-term training options that link to in-demand jobs," Combs explained. "There has never been a better time to become a student at DCC."

Michael Leon Chappell

December 1, 1954 ~ February 10, 2020 (age 65)

The precious life of Brother Michael Leon Chappell

Michael Leon Chappell, age 65, the beloved son of Calvin and Bordine Chappell, whom predeceased him, was born on December 1, 1954 at Winslow Hospital in Danville Va, (weighing in at 12 lb. and 4 oz.), departed this life on Monday, February 10, 2020. Michael graduated from George Washington High School where he maintained an "A" average. He attended Christ Temple Church on Memorial Drive, in Danville, VA where he was baptized in Jesus name by the late John Nathaniel Walters. He moved to Philadelphia, PA, where he worked at the Scott Family Construction Company. While living there, he attended Saint James Apostolic Temple Church under Bishop Joseph Scott. He was always helping people. He was a great young man.

Thank God for giving us such a great brother who loved his family. His brother, Calvin Nathaniel Chappell, was his best friend. Michael called him "June", and everywhere June went, Michael was there. He loved working with technology. Many of his friends called him Chapel Fish and Freight Train. He then moved back to Danville, VA, and went to Clover Church with his brother. In 2010, he had to go into a nursing home due to his health decline, and there he remained for 10 years. He was often visited by Pastor Valentine while he was there.

He met and married Jean McDuffy, and they had two children in their union. A daughter, named Antria Chappell, and a son, named Michael Leon Chappell. He leaves to cherish his memory, four grandchildren, all whom reside in Philadelphia, PA. Also, two sisters, Mrs. Aleese Lewis and Mrs. Ellanese Trapp, both of Columbia, SC; one brother, Elder Calvin N. Chappell, Jr, of Danville, VA; brother-in-law, Thurman Trapp, of Columbia, SC; aunt, Dosey McClain; several nieces and nephews, and a host of family, relatives, saints, and friends.

Funeral services for Michael Chappell will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 29, 2020, at Barker Funeral Home Chapel with Bishop Joseph Farmer officiating. Interment will follow in Oak Hill Cemetery in Danville. The family will receive friends at Barker Funeral Home Chapel from 9:00 - 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 29, 2020 before the funeral service. Barker Funeral Home is respectfully serving the Chappell family.
