Refinance

8 Reasons to Refi

Planning to stay in your home for years to come?

Whether you're looking for a better interest rate, shorter term, or need funds to make updates to your home, you can count on a fast turnaround time when you refinance your current mortgage with Allied.

Our streamlined process makes leveraging the equity in your home fast and easy. Make your monthly payments more manageable or pay off your mortgage early. Typically, there is no appraisal required, and closing costs may be rolled right into your new loan. Here's why you should refi!

|---|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Lower the interest rate on monthly payments 2. Shorten payback term 3. Predictable monthly payments with a fixed rate 4. Get a variable-rate mortgage with better terms | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5. Convert interest-only to fully amortized loan 6. Eliminate mortgage insurance 7. Consolidate debt 8. Take cash out for home improvements, pay for college, etc. |

CRAAB RANGOON

INGREDIENTS

- 1 (14 ounce) package small won ton wrappers
- 2 (8 ounce) packages cream cheese, softened
- 1 teaspoon minced fresh ginger root
- 1/2 teaspoon chopped fresh cilantro
- 1/2 teaspoon dried parsley
- 3 tablespoons dark soy sauce
- 1 pound crabmeat, shredded
- 1 quart oil for frying

DIRECTIONS

- 1 Heat oil in a large heavy skillet or deep fryer to 360 degrees F (180 degrees C).
- 2 In a small bowl, mix together cream cheese, soy sauce, ginger, garlic, parsley, cilantro and crabmeat.
- 3 Place 1/2 to 1 teaspoon of the cream cheese mixture into the center of each wonton wrapper. Fold the won ton wrapper over the stuffing to make a triangle or a half moon, depending on the shape of the wonton wrappers you have purchased. Moisten the edges with a little water, and seal. Place prepared won tons under a slightly moist paper towel until ready for frying.
- 4 Add 3 or 4 wontons to the hot oil, and cook until golden brown, turning once. Set aside on paper towels to drain. Repeat until all wontons have been fried. Serve hot.

THE BRONX PENNY PINCHER

A Note from The Bronx Penny Pincher:

Hour by hour our world is changing. These are trying and scary days for us all. However, no matter the circumstances, our community has proven that adversity can bring out the very best in each of us. We have weathered many storms together and this time will be no different.

Here at the Bronx Penny Pincher our primary focus has always been to support our residents and businesses and we will carry on doing so.

To that end we have plans in place to continue publishing our weekly Throggs Neck edition. The frequency of our other editions will be reduced over the next two months until everyone is up and running again. Over the next 8 weeks our office will remain open Tuesday-Thursday if possible and we will work from home the remaining days.

As we venture into uncharted territory, we do it together. We remain resolute in our mission to provide you with our weekly paper and of course the best deals in the Bronx!

All Our Best,
The Penny Pincher

MORRIS PARK LIBRARY: Book Discussion Tuesdays & Saturdays at 11AM. The Silent Patient Alex Michaelides March 21 Alicia Berenson's life is seemingly perfect. A famous painter married to an in-demand fashion photographer, she lives in a grand house with big windows overlooking a park in one of London's most desirable areas. One evening her husband Gabriel returns home late from a fashion shoot, and Alicia shoots him five times in the face, and then never speaks another word. Pachinko Min Jin Lee April 21 & 25 In the early 1900s, teenaged Sunja, the adored daughter of a crippled fisherman, falls for a wealthy stranger at the seashore near her home in Korea. He promises her the world, but when she discovers she is pregnant-- and that her lover is married-- she refuses to be bought. But her decision to abandon her home, and to reject her son's powerful father, sets off a dramatic saga that will echo down through the generations. Educated Tara Westover May 12 & 16 Tara Westover was 17 the first time she set foot in a classroom. Born to survivalists in the mountains of Idaho, she prepared for the end of the world by stockpiling homecanned peaches and sleeping with her "headfor-the-hills bag". Educated is an account of the struggle for selfinvention. It is a tale of fierce family loyalty and of the grief that comes with severing the closest of ties. With the acute insight that distinguishes all great writers, Westover has crafted a universal coming-of-age story that gets to the heart of what an education is and what it offers: the perspective to see one's life through new eyes and the will to change it. Spark of Light Jodi Picoult June 9 & 13 The warm fall day starts like any other at the Center—a women's reproductive health services clinic—its staff offering care to anyone who passes through its doors. Then, in late morning, a desperate and distraught gunman bursts in and opens fire, taking all inside hostage. Jodi Picoult—one of the most fearless writers of our time—tackles a complicated issue in this gripping and nuanced novel. How do we balance the rights of pregnant women with the rights of the unborn they carry? What does it mean to be a good parent? This book will inspire debate, conversation and hopefully, understanding. March 23, 2020 @ 11 AM - 12:30 PM Hand Sewing w/ Cynthia: Need to learn how to sew on a button or hem a pair of pants? Come and learn basic techniques. Bring what you need to fix. Registration required by phone or in person. Monday, March 23rd at 3PM Stem in a Box: Make a simple and fun science project to take home! This month's project: Kaleidoscopes 12 kids maximum First come, first serve Ages 5 to 12. All NYPL programs are free of charge. March 20 @ 3:30pm MS Excel 2010 for Beginners: Learn the basics of working with spreadsheets using Microsoft Excel 2010. Topics include entering data and formulas, moving and copying data, formatting & print previewing worksheets Morris Park Library 985 Morris Park Avenue Bronx, NY 10462 718-931-0636. nypl.org/events
