LaunchPad Tabs JoiLand

FLORENCE-Alabama Launchpad has selected JoiLand LLC as the only company in the region to participate in the second round of its annual startup competition. JoiLand is one of 11 startups chosen by a five-judge panel from an initial field of 22 applicants.

A program of the Economic Development Partnership of Alabama, Alabama LaunchPad offers entrepreneurs momentum to take an idea from concept to reality by providing up to $250,000 in funding and mentoring.

JoiLand co-founders Anne Ryan Leavitt and Joey Leavitt will present their pitch before judges at a free event set for 9am Friday, June 26 at Evonik Industries, 750 Lakeshore Parkway, Birmingham.

Florence-based JoiLand LLC is a software company whose patentpending technology aims to change the way smartphones are used worldwide. Several apps will be released by JoiLand this month including TAGN, a smartphone app which saves user pictures in a brand new way while creating a private social network.

Haataja Takes Florence Reins

FLORENCE-First Metro Bank recently promoted Scott Haataja to Florence City Manager and Branch Manager of the Pine Street office. Scott joined First Metro Bank in 2005 and is a Senior Vice President and Commercial Loan Officer.

Haataja replaces Billy Ray Moore who is retiring from a banking career that spans well over forty six years including nineteen at First Metro. Moore served as Senior Vice President, Florence City Manager, and Branch Manager on Pine Street.

Scott worked alongside Moore for almost ten years. He is a Florence native and a Re-enactors, historians, dancers and musicians from throughout the Southeast and Midwest will join the Natchez Trace Parkway Association for the celebration that will commemorate the role the Shoals played in the War of 1812.

According to Robert Perry of Tuscumbia, an organizer of the celebration, the events will be educational and entertaining.

A highlight of the celebration will be a Grand Victory Ball Saturday, June 13 at Locust Hill, 209 S. Cave St., Tuscumbia. A re-enactor portraying Andrew Jackson will arrive in a horse-drawn carriage at 5pm. The ball begins at 6pm with heavy hors d'oeuvres and string music by Sinclair Strings of Jackson, MS. A dance begins at 7pm, featuring music by Booneslick Boys and caller Marty Aubuchon of St. Louis. Period dress is encouraged, but not required. Admission to

Brantly's Fight of Faith Against Ebola

FLORENCE - Mars Hill Bible School recently announced "An Evening with Dr. Kent Brantly" Saturday, September 19 at the Florence-Lauderdale Coliseum at 6:30pm. Brantly is probably best-known as the medical missionary who contracted Ebola while treating patients in Liberia last year. He became the first American to return to the United States for treatment and a full recovery from the virus that claims 60-90% of its victims.

other medical professionals involved with the treatment of Ebola patients were named TIME Magazine's Person of the Year.

Brantley's story of faith and survival has already inspired millions across this nation and around the world. Now he is bringing it to the Shoals. Proceeds from the event will go towards finalization of security enhancements organizations.

"Scott was the ideal choice for this position due to his strong ties to the community and impeccable work ethic, said Rodney Howard, President and CEO of First Metro Bank. "Billy Ray's hard work yielded numerous accomplishments for First Metro Bank. His daily leadership and guidance will be missed; however, the lessons he shared with us throughout his time at the Bank will continue to serve us well.

Handy Poster is Brackin's Work

SHOALS- The Music Preservation Society, Inc. recently announced that local artist, Carl Brackin, submitted the winning design for the 2015 W.C. Handy Music Festival. Brackin is a 2004 graduate of UNA and currently works in various media including photography and graphic art.

Brackin used design elements conveying the rich heritage and connection of the Shoals area to both W.C. Handy and the music styles synonymous with the Muscle Shoals Sound.

He said, "Lines of Blue are used to convey the ideas of both music and the Tennessee River at the Shoals. Red and yellow represent the deeper soul of the music and the climate of warm summer days and evenings against the background of deep purple nights.

The annual W.C. Handy Festival Design Competition draws participants of all ages and the winning design is featured on the front of the 2015 T-shirts, the official Handy Brochures, and on other marketing materials. Brackin will sign a limited number of the posters which will be sold to collectors, some of whom have signed posters dating back to 1982. There will also be unsigned posters available for purchase.

Posters and other concession items will go on sale on July 13 at W.C. Handy Festival Headquarters from 10am-6pm until Friday July 17, at which point hours will be extended until 10pm Monday-Saturday with delayed openings on Sundays.

Handy Headquarters will be located at the Kennedy-Douglass Center for the Arts Annex, 217 East Tuscaloosa Street, in the Victory Ball is $40. Tickets are available at the Colbert County Tourism office, ColdWater Books in Tuscumbia and Florence-Lauderdale Tourism in Florence. For more details, call 256-383-0783. Admission is free to other celebration events.

The Shoals celebration is part of a three-year series of events along the Natchez Trace Parkway to commemorate the War of 1812 bicentennial. The original Natchez Trace was an important route for the war effort.

Perry stated, "It was heavily used by soldiers and educational programs.

during the War of 1812 and after it ended in 1815. A boy who lived by the Natchez Trace wrote that soldiers who were headed home passed by his house for months following the war."

More than 100 War of 1812 veterans settled in the Shoals. Numerous Shoals residents trace their ancestry to those veterans. Perry said Tuscumbia is named for Lt. Tuscumby, an Indian chief and War of 1812 veteran.

for Mars Hill Bible School. Mars Hill and Dr. Brantly share a rich heritage. Dr. Brantly's grandfather, Ralph Snell, worked at Mars Hill in a variety of positions including principal, president, and teacher. He and his wife Ruby and their ten children were active in the school for many years.

Although Brantly never attended Mars Hill, his mother, aunts, uncles, and a host of cousins are all alumni. Brantly grew up knowing all about the Bible school in Florence, AL and has always had a deep admiration for it.

The Mars Hill Rhythm In Blue Jazz Band will perform at 6pm. There will also be a special presentation by the nationally-acclaimed Mars Hill Celebration Show Choir and the Mars Hill Chorus.

General admission is $50. Tickets may be purchased at the business office.

scene. After that I find another deposition by the same lawyer my client will face and ask my clients the same questions that they will be asked in their deposition. We then work to provide short, accurate answers. We learn what we know and we learn what we don't know and we teach our clients not to guess. If our client is asked "how far from the other car they were when they first saw it?" The real answer is at 88 feet per second at 60 mph no one could say for sure, so the true answer is "I don't know" and the way to answer it is to say "I don't know but it seemed like a split second".

We learn what inside lanes are and what outside lanes are and what lane our client was in. We learn to leave out information that is not important such as "my sister had to borrow a car to bring us home from the hospital". If asked "how did you get home from the hospital" the answer is "my sister". Otherwise, the other lawyer is going to be compelled to ask who did your sister borrow the car from, what was wrong with your sister's car and who was fixing it. All of that information is an unnecessary waste of time and provides no useful information.

individuals, either current or former citizens, through a form of civic recognition. Areas of national or international accomplishment include, but not limited to agriculture, art, athletics, business, education, government, humanities, literature, medical, military, music, public service, religion, or science and technology. The 2014 Inductees are Natalie Chanin, Michael "Nick" Nichols, and Dr, Amit Roy.

The three join 32 others selected from previous years. A bronze plaque with an image of the inductee and a brief inscription of their accomplishments have been placed on the monuments in the park.

NATALIE CHANIN

Known locally, nationally, and internationally as a fashion designer, Natalie has earned a reputation for her attention to the most minute detail while preserving the revered needlework of generations of seamstresses. Through her dedicated yet innovative work and a determination to bring her sense of style to the forefront, she has earned acclaim from coast to coast and beyond.

Chanin was invited to participate in the triennial at the Cooper-Hewitt National Design Museum in New York City and was chosen as a finalist for the prestigious Cooper-Hewitt National Design Award. She was also selected as a top ten finalist for the coveted CFDA/Vogue Fashion Fund prize. As a result, she was prominently featured in Vogue magazine. Chanin was selected Chanin was selected to design and create the skirt for the base of the Christmas tree in the Blue Room at the White House in Washington, D.C. in 2009. It now hangs in the Smithsonian Museum in Washington.

MICHAEL "NICK" NICHOLS

Nick Nichols is recognized worldwide as the quintessential nature photographer. Born in Florence in 1952 and a graduate of UNA, Nichols resides in Sugar Hollow, Virginia when not on photographic journeys or assignments.

Nichols became a staff photographer for National Geographic magazine in 1996. Through an innovative rigging technique, Nichols broke new ground in photography by creating an 84-image composite of a 300-foot-tall, 1500-year-old redwood tree. In a series of 2001 National Geographic magazine stories, his photographs of a 2,000-mile trek from Congo's rainforest to the Atlantic Coast of Gabon are preserved for future generations to enjoy. - Just two examples of many! He was named Editor-at-Large for Photography at National Geographic in 2008. In this

DR. AMIT ROY

Dr. Amit Roy has been the president and chief executive officer of the International Fertilizer Development Center (IFDC) in Muscle Shoals since 1992. Under his leadership, IFDC's programs have broadened to help create sustainable agricultural productivity around the world, alleviating hunger and poverty and ensuring global food security.

Roy joined IFDC in 1978

Roy joined IFDC in 1978 as a chemical engineer and special projects engineer. Early in his career Roy was involved in research and development of new and modified fertilizer materials, as well as processes using indigenous fertilizer raw materials, particularly phosphate rock. He contributed to IFDC's successful efforts to reinvigorate Bangladesh's agricultural sector and to prevent a humanitarian crisis in that country.

Under his leadership, IFDC developed a working and vibrant market for agricultural supplies and products in Albania where none existed previously.

Roy was instrumental in organizing the Africa
Fertilizer Summit in Abuja, Nigeria, in 2006 which brought together heads of state and governments of more than 40 African nations and over 1,100 international policymakers and agricultural experts to address Africa's soil fertility crisis.

Roy founded the Virtual Fertilizer Research Center in 2010 to facilitate the development of the next generation of fertilizers and production technologies.

He has been published extensively and presented papers and keynote addresses at numerous international events and meetings.

Roy is a graduate of the Indian Institute of Technology where he received his B.Tech. in Chemical Engineering. He received his M.S. and Ph.D. from the Georgia Institute of Technology.

The public is invited to visit the site. More detailed information on these individuals is available at the Florence-Lauderdale Public Library.

Vanity, Fringe Hail The Caitlyn Circus

he idea that one twisted photo laden with excessive peripheral baggage can draw so much intrigue and adulation shows how skewed we have become as a society.

Vanity Fair magazine's leak of the July cover featuring the coming out of Caitlyn Jenner as a woman is little more than a modern-day version of the olde-time circus side-show. 'Little more' in that it will generate a little more money for several people.

The media couldn't fawn over it fast enough. Of course the White House hailed Jenner as a hero and bandied around the term "authentic self" to represent a situation that is anything but authentic. Disney fired off a tweet of delightful support. And only hours after the initial announcement, ESPN announced that Jenner would receive the Arthur Ashe Courage Award at this year's ESPY's. In a way it did take courage for Jenner to do what he has done. However, money soothes many shortterm traumatic concerns. Ask any trial lawyer. What Jenner is doing isn't what is best for him emotionally, physically, or spiritually. It may be best financially.

Jenner may have seen all the money that the Kardashian girls were making off a clueless American public who follow their antics. He may have decided that he could match that.

Jenner may actually have had this urge to change a decade or two ago, but society had not

First Visit Prompts Benefit

TUSCUMBIA-Jackson Nance, the youngest artist who has ever been signed to Warner/Chappell Nashville, is headlining a Swamp Thing fundraiser at the Alabama Music Hall of Fame on Friday, June 12 at 7pm.

Nance lives in Leiper's Fork, TN and visited the hall of fame for the first time a few months ago. There he decided he wanted to do a benefit concert for the museum

The show will include original performances by Nance as well as the official debut of his first music video titled "It's a Swamp Thing," which he co-wrote with songwriters Eddie Wilson and Rob Robinson Eddie as a tribute to his musical heroes, the Swampers. The video was recorded at the Nuthouse Studio in Sheffield

The Happy Attitude

Dear Editor:

I do not know the crew manning the waste management truck on my road: County Road 452 in Lauderdale County. They are a terrific crew of men and I want to say thank you. Thank you for what you do in heat and cold, rain, snow and sun. Without you, my life would be miserable. Thank you for going the extra mile you do sometimes.

Thank you for your smile and happy attitude when I see you at the end of my drive or am passing you on the road. Thank you for being considerate when I come up behind you and letting me know when it is safe to pass and making the opportunity to do so.

Blessings to vou and vou

A Perfect Opportunity

Editor:

Spend some time getting right with God, removing the stains -- then dress up in Many Shoals residents are proud University of Alabama fans who wear their crimson and white. The colors are right, but football is not my subject today.

Our Quad Cities are about to be visited by others who also call themselves proud: Shoals Pride Fest is coming this weekend.

So here's what I love about this

You guys are doing a great job!! Festival to Pride: We will have sexual sin and perversion out in the open and celebrated.

Why do I love this? Because it's a perfect opportunity for the Family of Faith -- to first check OUR hearts, and then choose to clean OUR house! Let me explain.

This Pride Festival is an open display of sin that should be offensive to every But remember, EVERY sexual sin is offensive to God. Instead of pointing fingers we should examine OUR life, OUR family, OUR church leadership. Repentance is what will heal our land, one heart at a time.

Judgment does not begin at the meth house or even at the White House. It begins in our house, with His children, Christians and Jews. His Word says "judgment begins at the house of God" (1 Peter 4:17). Clearly we too have been breaking God's law, parading fornication and adultery through our own houses. This is a stench in God's nostrils – and student assistants. Instructors include Dr. Shane Banks, Dr. John Crabtree, Dr. Jill Simpson and Dr. Jason Watson. The cost per camp is $170 with limited space and scholarships available.

The idea for the camps came from the UNA Tech Lions. The group is a collaboration between the UNA College of Business and the Shoals Entrepreneurial Center that spawned from the recent Strategic Doing movement launched by the college. Giles McDaniel, executive director with the Shoals Entrepreneurial Center, said the intent of the camps is to create a digital based Job Corp in the region. "These camps aimed at middle schoolers are part of a broad based plan. We want to introduce the campers to skills needed to work in this economy and introduce them to the university at the same time," McDaniel said.

Camp classes will include App Attack, Make Your First 3D Video Game, Code Breakers and Minecraft Modders. Each session will help participants learn new skills such as mobile app design, HTML, JavaScript and CSS, to name a few.

and the song was produced by Swamper Jimmy Johnson. The band will also perform some of the best hits from Muscle Shoals.

"These heroes," said 15-vearold Nance, who has been singing since he was eight and began playing and writing songs when he was twelve. Two of the original Swampers, Jimmy Johnson and David Hood, will be performing with Nance at the event. Other musicians will include Will McFarlane, Rob Robinson, KGB members Kerrv Gilbert, Wayne Walker, and Randy Kimbrough.

"We are thrilled to have this talented young man perform," said AMHOF Manager Dixie Griffin. "He is well-versed in Muscle Shoals music, and he fell in love with the hall of fame on his first visit here a few months ago. He is living proof that Alabama music will rock for years to come!"

The event will feature a 'meet and greet" reception from 6-7pm which includes hors d'oeuvres and a complimentary drink. Tickets for the reception are $30 and those who attend will receive a copy of the "It's A Swamp Thing" recording. Tickets must be purchased by June 10. Please call 256-381-4417 yet deteriorated to an accepting level to where he could monetize it. Regardless, somebody the opportunity, saw knew Jenner was an ideal candidate, and knew the timing was now right for more adolescent mind and values manipulation.

Jenner can be called by any name he wants. We'll give him that. However, Jenner is a male regardless what he chooses for a name, or what efforts are made to alter his physical appearance. His gender is an incontrovertible genetic, biological, and medical fact. His declaration that his transition to a woman will be complete with Vanity Fair's July release is nothing more than a subjective truth.

Progressives often like to tout a proven scientific aspect with any political contention, regardless of its legitimacy. However, their perception of reality is always based on emotion and feelings when it comes to sexuality. Suddenly, the pro-science position clearly rests with social conservatives.

Progressives think their show of compassion is doing transgenderism and sexual confusion a favor. It took over twenty years of intense pressure before the American Psychiatric Association decided in 2012 that transgenderism was no longer a mental disorder. And really, how does a vote from the APA change anything? There is certainly no truth to it being the new normal as some proclaim.

Former psychiatrist in chief at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Dr. Paul McHugh, explained this type of sham concisely last year. "'Sex change' is biologically impossible. People who

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL Bill encouraged his son to finally follow his heart and pursue a future with ex-flame. Ridge began worrying that his plan to take over Forrester Creations wasn't going to work out. Ivy turned to Carter for professional advice about a pressing legal matter. Feeling as though her world was crashing in around her, Ivy received unexpected support from an unlikely source. Quinn paid Bill a visit insisting that he stop playing favorites with his sons. Ivy overheard a conversation between Steffy and Liam that confirmed her fears about them. Caroline went into more detail about what happened to her in New York. Wait to See: Carter finds himself a pawn in an elaborate scheme.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES Will and Sonny tried to set aside their problems at Arianna's birthday party. John and Paul continued to bond. At the party, Kate blurted out that Lucas and Adrienne were having an affair. Sonny and Will shared an awkward encounter with Paul. Hope began to suspect that Clyde might have been involved in Sonny's stabbing. Stefano returned to Salem. Clyde wasn't pleased to learn that Hope had been asking questions about him. Paige was still reeling from the news about her mother and JJ's affair. Justin told Adrienne that he wasn't giving up on their marriage. Eve came up with an idea on how to get revenge on Jennifer. Wait to See: Nicole gets caught up in a dangerous situation.

GENERAL HOSPITAL Sloane asked Nikolas for a favor. Sabrina doubted Rosalie's true intentions. Jordan was surprised by an interrogation going on at the PCPD. Molly was not happy with Ric's decision to marry Nina. A frantic Elizabeth told Nikolas she was worried about possible repercussions of Jake's new job prospect. Sabrina gave Rosalie a chilling warning. Sam met with Nina to see what was up with her latest business transactions. Lulu demanded answers from Luke. Tracy and Sabrina formed a bond. Michael learned there was a possible mole at ELQ. Dante was torn about his latest arrest. Wait to See: Lulu learns the truth from Luke.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS Lauren assaulted Lily after she brought up the Carmine affair. Mariah regretted taking matters into her own hands in trying to catch the killer. Phyllis confronted Joe about his relationship with Avery. Victor warned his daughter that Jack would double-cross them. Later, Victoria grew suspicious when she saw the Abbotts huddled together in secrecy. Abby was concerned about Ashley's behavior at the lab. Cane snapped at Lily for attacking Lauren. Summer believed that Kyle was keeping secrets from her. Mariah suggested to Kevin that they skip town. Dylan assured Sharon that he wasn't going back to Avery. Wait to See: Chelsea reaches her breaking point with Adam.

Opportunity...

A Perfect

we carry it right on into His houses of worship in the Shoals every week!

This behavior clothes us in crimson red. Only repentance -- confessing our mistakes, turning away from our twisted ways and turning back to do things God's way -- makes the RED stains of sin pure WHITE again in our lives and in our land.

So, Church of the Living

God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, we have an opportunity before us. Pray and Repent now, like 2 Chronicles 7:14 spells out. Use this open display of sin known as Pride Festival to realize that we have been full of pride ourselves, breaking God's laws and/ or celebrating those who do. We must now see OUR sin as God sees it: OUT in the open and proud of it, for all to see.

Spend some time getting right with God, removing the stains -- then dress up in white this weekend to bear witness as a cleansed Child of God for all to see.

GET THE SCOOP ON POOL SANITIZERS

enjoy _convenience and recreational value of having a pool in their backyards. Pools can be a great spot to gather on warm days, often serving as the centerpiece of summer recreation.

Pools require substantial upkeep to function properly and be safe for swimming. The right combination of factors are needed to maintain a proper water balance to prevent skin and eye irritation as well as to ensure the water is clean. Sanitizers play a significant role in ensuring that safety.

Various sanitizers are on the market, although people are most familiar with chlorine-based sanitizers. The goal of a sanitizer is to prevent the growth of bacteria and algae in pool water. Sanitizers also will inhibit the growth of viruses and other organic contaminants.

First-time homeowners who have never had a pool may find it challenging to choose a sanitizer that will work for them. Each sanitizer has its share of pros and cons, but many hope homeowners find one that is both costeffective and convenient. The following are some of the sanitizers to consider.

Liquid chlorine: hypochlorite, also known as bleach, is a common pool sanitizer. Liquid chlorine does not have any additives and will not affect pool water in any other way except for providing sanitation.

any homeowners Liquid chlorine can be automatically. cumbersome to store and splashing the product while adding it to the water can damage clothing.

• Cal-hypo: Calcium hypochlorite is another sanitizing option for pools. It is usually sold in granular form because pucks or sticks will break down too quickly in chlorine feeders. Cal-hypo is often an unstabilized form of chlorine, which means it does not have a stabilizing chemical mixed with it to prevent chlorine burn-off from the sun. Depending on your needs, unstabilized chlorine can be an asset or a detriment.

• Dichlor and trichlor: Dichloro-s-triazinetrione trichloro-sand triazinetrione are two different stabilized chlorine sources. They are mixed with a substance called cyanuric acid, which helps prevent the quick usage of chlorine in outdoor pools. Sunlight can reduce the efficacy of chlorine, and this stabilizer will help buffer that effect. Since these chlorine sources typically come in pucks or tablets, they can be placed in feeders and will deliver consistent chlorine without daily maintenance. Trichlor has one of the highest levels of available chlorine of all pool sanitizers. However, one disadvantage is that if the stabilizer levels build up too much in the pool, you will require even more chlorine to combat effect, sometimes this creating a cycle of chlorine ineffectiveness.

• Salt: Salt-cell pools use a process of electrolysis to extract chlorine from the salt added to the specialized equipment, thus sanitizing the pool Some people prefer salt because it seems more natural and requires less maintenance.

Bromine: Bromine is similar to chlorine. While the byproducts of chlorine do not benefit pool water, bromine byproducts can continue to sanitize the water, making it last longer than chlorine. Bromine can be more expensive than chlorine, which might deter homeowners looking for the most cost-effective pool sanitizer.

Pool water chemistry can be a complex process. But homeowners have many options at their disposal when it comes time to choose the right sanitizer.

The Obama administration, Hollywood, and major media such as Time promote magazine transgenderism as normal. However, McHugh noted, "Policy-makers and the media are doing no favors either to the public or the transgendered by treating their confusions as a right in need of defending rather than as a mental disorder that deserves understanding, treatment, and prevention."

With all the upheaval, economic hardships, and our domestic and global security so tenuous, why is so much focus on a onetime pseudo sex change?

I'm sure many will use the predictable insult "transphobic" in relation to this and any other lessthan-fully-supportive remarks regarding Mr. Jenner. It's not accurate, but that's fine. It's one of many cliches du jour. They insist on creating new terms that imply everyone who disagrees with them has a phobia. A term they can more accurately use, and with which they have a much greater association, would be idiophobic.

Moving Out Of Your Comfort Zone

One morning this week I sat and watched two deer try to find a way out of my yard for about 45 minutes. The hunter in me wanted to show them the way through my deep freeze—just kidding. They're out of season right now. What struck me as odd, and kept me watching for 45 minutes, was that these deer were capable of leaping over my fence at any point. Yet they nosed around different areas of fence for so long, seeking a simpler way out. Don't we all do that? We keep minding the boundaries of our comfort zone, waiting for something to change in a way that doesn't require any action on our part. But wait—what if I suddenly let my golden retriever out? You and I both know those deer would be only a flash of white tail and hooves over the fence. A catalyst speeds up a process, yes, but why wait for something urgent to happen? Being willing to take action without a catalyst would put us where we want to be faster than waiting.

Putting their home on the market is not in most people's comfort zone. It requires a bit of action-much of it pro-active-and introduces several variables. It makes some people nervous to wonder things like "What if no one wants to see it?" or "What if we can't find what we want after this house sells?" The great thing about those questions is that they usually work themselves out. Your Realtor will help you present your home in such a way that people will want to see it, and I can't think of a single seller I have worked with who wasn't happier in the house they ended up in after their own sold. It's just a matter of being willing to move out of that comfort zone. If something has you thinking of selling, whether you want a different location, more storage, another bath or bedroom, be pro-active. Talk to your Realtor about your home AND the type you want. He or she will be able to give you some advice on both, and you could start moving immediately in the direction of where you want to be. That would be moving on your own recognizance, not feeling like the hounds are at your heels. - mr

Grace Through Faith Alone

1 Corinthians 15:10 "But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me." Ephesians 3:5 "Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit." Ephesians 3:8 "Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ." 1 Corinthians 2:5 "That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. Most of this world is following some type of church, sacramental, ritualistic, water-works, communion or baptismal salvation, by men.. This kind of theology produces uncertainty, doubt and confusion and makes slaves out its followers. Salvation is completely taken out of the hands of the LORD and put into the hands of sinful men. There is no church on earth that has the power to save your soul or send it to hell.

The 14th Apostle, Paul, sent to the Gentile Churches, is the only Apostle to whom the LORD himself revealed the doctrines of the Gospel of the Grace of God and salvation by grace through faith alone. Acts 20:24 "But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God." Paul calls it (my gospel) in Romans 2:16, Romans 16:25, and in 2 Timothy 2:8. Ephesians 2:8-9 "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." See also Ephesians 2:5. Titus 3:5 "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost." Has God's grace been in vain to you? GRACE. GRACE. GOD'S GRACE. Grace that will pardon and cleanse within. Let it cleanse you.
