Auctioneer Notes:

During this unprecedented time we are all facing, it has been ordered that all Non-Essential businesses and activities are suspended or postponed. Under the Governor's order, only Essential activities are permitted. One of the designated Essential Exemptions under this order is Agriculture. Agriculture is definitely essential, and must continue to be business as usual. I have given this upcoming auction much thought and consideration as to its Essentialness under Agriculture. My decision is this:

THIS AUCTION SALE WILL TAKE PLACE AS PLANNED.

Why? Agriculture is a very time sensitive industry. Meaning that, for example, crops need to be planted at a certain time of year, just as they need to be harvested at a certain time of year. Agriculture does not have the luxury to plant or harvest crops when it is suitable. The necessity to sell these farms as scheduled on May 7, is to ensure that they get planted in a timely manner this spring. Farmers do not have the luxury or ability to postpone these essential tasks.

Procedures for attending the Auction:

As mentioned, the auction sale will be held on site at the farm. When arriving at the auction, please pull into the Auction Site. Please park at a considerable distance from other attendees. Normal auction registration will not be necessary. Please remain in or near your vehicle during the auction. At the conclusion of the auction, any necessary paperwork can be handled via email if desired.

Sincerely,
John
