Ladybird Act Slowly Eliminating Historic Barns, Nostalgic Signage

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN, GA. - Sign painters recently completed a three-day project to repaint a barn maintained by See Rock City, Inc. (SRC) on Highway 68 near Crossville, TN. This is part of an ongoing SRC initiative to do several barn repaints yearly, continuing this historic legacy.

"We are in a preservation mode of trying to keep as many barns as possible for nostalgic purposes as southern icons, as well as for advertising," said Roy Davis, manager of SRC's R&R Hospitality. "Unfortunately, we can only maintain the paint on the barn and not the structure itself. If the barn becomes in total disarray or is taken out by a storm, then we lose it and cannot replace it due to highway laws." The "Ladybird Act," as the billboard-banning legislation was nicknamed, meant that many of Rock City's rooftop messages had to be removed beginning in the 1960's.

With only 79 SRC barns still maintained from

abc's of salvation

To know God and be ready for heaven, follow these steps:

- Admit you are a sinner.
"There is no one righteous, not even one...for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." Romans 3:10, 23 (See Romans 5:8; 6:23)
Ask God's forgiveness and repent of your sins.
"Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." Romans 10:13 (See Acts 3:19)
- Believe in Jesus (put your trust in Him) as your only hope of salvation.
"For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." John 3:16 (See John 14:6)
Become a child of God by receiving Christ.
"To all who received him, to those who believe in his name, he gave the right to become children of God." John 1:12 (See Revelation 3:20)
- Confess that Jesus is your Lord.
"If you confess with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord', and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." Romans 10:9 (See verse 10)

Barn...

the original 900, this barn on Highway 68 has now been given a fresh coat of paint for travelers to enjoy. The current barn owner, Elsie Buhaly, contacted Rock City about the paint diminishing and said many tourists still stopped to photograph it. She and her husband chose to buy the property in 1979 mostly because of the barn with the 'See Rock City' message on the roof.

The barn had originally been painted in 1959, when Clark Byers was still the official sign painter for SRC. Byers began his 35-year career in 1935 after the instruction of advertising genius, Garnet Carter, Rock City's founder.

"This particular barn is considered a landmark barn, featured in media like Southern Living magazine and many other publications," said Davis. "Years from now we want grandkids pointing to See Rock City barns and getting their grandparents to tell them stories of when they saw these barns. This painting is another step in keeping the memories alive." Visit www.seerockcity.com for more information.

Wells Fargo...

Lauderdale counties. "It is a great compliment to our CASA program when local businesses see the positive outcomes that our Advocates generate for children," said CASA Board President, Cletus Tidwell. When businesses realize they can become a part of a child's success through contributions to the agency, it shows we're all working together for these children.

"Our success as a company results from the care and compassion of our team members who bring the Wells Fargo culture of vision and values to life each day. Local branch team members give their time, talent, and personal financial resources to community causes important to them," noted Shelia Sartin, manager for Wells Fargo's Florence Square branch. In 2014, 64,350 Wells Fargo team members volunteered a record 1.74 million hours around the world.

Andrea Holt, CASA's Executive Director, stated, "We are elated that Wells Fargo sees the difference CASA Volunteers make in the life of a child. So many abused and neglected children in foster care are without a voice. Funding from Wells Fargo Foundation will allow us to continue fighting for each abused and neglected child in our community to have an advocate." CASA is a national movement of a volunteer-powered network of trained and supported individuals who believe that society has a fundamental obligation to protect children. CASA volunteers are from all walks of life; they are people who believe that children have the right to be safe, treated with dignity and respect, and to live in a permanent home.

Lori Powers, District Manager and Vice President for Wells Fargo Bank, Northwest Alabama stated, "Wells Fargo supports local decision-making as we investment in our communities. I can't think of a better investment than in our children, our future."

If you would like more information, please call ShoalsCASA at 256-765-0041 or visit the agency's website at www.ShoalsCASA.org.

Best Town Ever!

Magazine designates Chattanooga an Outdoor Bonanza

CHATTANOOGA, TN –After beating 63 great towns across the nation, Chattanooga proudly claims Outside magazine's prestigious 2015 Best Town Ever award. In order to be a contender in this bracket tournament, towns needed to have: great access to trails and public lands and thriving restaurants and neighborhoods. Outside magazine is the leading publication for outdoor enthusiasts.

"The final round against Port Angeles, Washington was intense. Our votes were uncomfortably close at one point so Chattanooga's were literally recruiting votes from around the world" said Bob Doak, president and CEO of the Chattanooga Convention & Visitors Bureau. "We are extremely excited to not only win this year's designation, but to be the first city to win it for the second time. We really do live in one of the most incredible cities in the world."

Chattanooga won the initial Best Town Ever competition in 2011. According to Outside magazine, this was the first year Chattanooga was allowed back into the contest for the top award. Chattanooga beat the competition with 52.05% of the votes, coming in at a total 67,432 votes. Port Angeles received 62,130.

Doak added, "What makes this win even better is the community pride we saw. Locals held voting parties, shared hundreds of thousands of posts on social media sites and hung up posters in their businesses. We could not have won this award without everyone's outpouring of support. And for that, we are extremely grateful."

As the newest Best Town Ever winner, Chattanooga will appear on the cover and have a feature article in the September 2015 issue of Outside magazine.

"We have received a great response from Port Angeles residents who, after learning more about Chattanooga, are planning trips to come and visit. And I've also heard from numerous Chattanooga's who are now planning trips to see the beautiful city of Port Angeles," said Doak.

ASK THE ATTORNEY

Thomas McCutcheon

Ask the Attorney is sponsored by local attorneys, McCutcheon & Hamner, PC, as a service to the residents of NW Alabama.

Q My mother died in June, 2014, before she passed away she had put my younger sister on her savings and checking accounts. My mother also left a will leaving me as executor and my other sister as co-executor. The sister who was the co-executor had seen an attorney in Athens, Alabama about the funds our mother left in the bank, this attorney told her that these funds belonged to the sister who mother put on these accounts. He stated these funds were hers and she could do what she wished, she could keep the money or divide them with the other heirs, the choice was hers. The co-executor sister hired a second attorney and she told us that the funds in those accounts had to be put in an escrow account until after the will was probated, after these funds were put into an escrow account this attorney will drop us. Which attorney is right about who these funds belong to?

Phillip, Killen, AL

A The answer to your question is contained within the contract that the depositors signed with the bank that held the funds.

Experience dictates that the funds in the bank will belong to the person who is the survivor of the two people who were on the account. All banks require that an agreement be signed and every one that I have seen in the last twenty years just simply by default has a "joint tenants with rights of survivorship" clause. This means that the person who survives the other gets the money.

This is exactly the same type of clause that is in most deeds between married couple where a home is owned jointly during the marriage, it will go to the survivor by the terms contained in the deed. Most homes bought and owned during a marriage are bought as "joint tenants with rights of survivorship".

I am certain that it is possible to reach another agreement with a bank that says that funds held jointly or payable to an estate or a different beneficiary or some other arrangement, but I have never seen anything other than held jointly and then owned by the survivor.

This keeps the bank out of the estate process and also out of any litigation because there is an agreement in place that protects them from having to make a decision or make an appearance in Court. Therefore, the lawyer that said that the sister gets the funds is quite probably correct but it wouldn't do any harm to ask to see the agreement signed when the account was originally set up. Subpoenas certainly can be issued by the attorney handling the estate for a copy of that agreement.

Buckle up and drive safely.

GOING CASHLESS
 Long ago, I received some very good advice about money from a local frugal businessman. He and I were discussing living on $5,000 a year and his first piece of advice was to carry no currency, no checks, and no credit cards at all. I thought about it and realized that I had a cell phone, a vehicle and the nearest help for a true emergency was minutes away. What did I have to lose? I have been doing this for several years now, and it has cut down on my impulse spending tremendously! On payday, I fill my tank, buy groceries (with a single check I put in my purse for that purpose) and pay the one bill I have each week. I also keep enough cash at home to pay my daughter's allowance and lunch money for the week.

COOLER KITCHEN
 I use my old West Bend roaster in the summer in the garage. You can bake anything in it that you would bake/roast in an oven. The house doesn't get heated up and the garage is attached and only a few steps away to check the baked items.

FAMILY MUSIC
 On a long family trip with members of the family that enjoys listening to music but all the taste in music is different. Instead of using headphones which keep us from talking to each other...we make a Family Music CD. There are 4 of us...a 5 year old...16 year old...28 year old...and a 40 year old. So you can imagine the difference of choice of music.

On the CD we start with the youngest person. We burn one of their favorite songs, then the next person one of their favorites and so on until the CD is full. Then we all get to listen to everyone's music and it doesn't take very long for your turn to come up with your song. After doing this for a few times our teenage son has gotten to where he really likes a lot of my 80's music and the 5 year old has got to where he is singing everyone's song.
 So it actually is another way of all of us bonding together in a different way. If you already have a cd burner and blank cd's then this will all be free. We are planning another trip in a couple of weeks so it is time for hubby to get to making another family cd.

When God Gets Angry

When you preach a lie long enough, even the preacher believes it. Most folks today only hear about the love side of God. The word "angry" and its derivatives appear in the Bible 269 times. The word "wrath" appears in the Bible 194 times, and should be studied closely in conjunction with the word "angry". Our current world has never seen the real anger of the Lord, or His wrath, but they will. Biblical history does reveal some. Some examples are Genesis chapters 6 & 18. Coming soon at your local earth, Zephaniah 3:8, Isaiah 2:19&21, Jeremiah 51:19-23, Ezekiel 38:18-23, Zechariah 14: 1-14, Matthew 24:24-30, 2Thessalonians 2:1-12, 2Peter 3:1-11, Revelation 1:1-7, Revelation 6:17, Revelation 19:1-16. There are many more scriptures on this subject. Look these references up and call my hand on them. When you do read them, you will find out why the world, governments and churches, and homes and schools and colleges had to get rid of this book. Conflicting authorities. That's the problem.
Isaiah 14:20b "the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned."
Galatians 6:7 "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap". This is the law of sowing and reaping. Because of the bad seed sown for years, get ready for the worst crop failure this world has ever seen. Coming soon: Zephaniah 3:8 "Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy." Ezekiel 39:12 "And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land." Revelation 14:20 "And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs." You think the tribulation and Armageddon are a joke? Get ready for one of the biggest disappointments of your life. God's longsuffering and patience has just about run out. Even God has deadlines, and when you cross them, you've gone too far. God loved Solomon (2Samuel 12:24.) but got angry (see 1Kings 11:9) with his bad living and he lost the kingdom and his life. Man, wake up.

HENDRIX CHAPEL Church of Christ

"For he was but a youth" - named David who with a sling and a stone brought down the giant Goliath, champion among the enemy of God's people. Hannah said of her child Samuel, "I have lent him to the Lord." The boy Samuel said to the Lord, "Speak, for thy servant heareth." The young preacher Timothy "From a child" had known "the Holy Scriptures which are able to make thee wise unto salvation." His faith dwelt first in his grandmother and mother. The apostle Paul encouraged / charged Timothy "Let no man despise thy youth."

At Hendrix Chapel as in scripture, those who are youngest play a very vital role in the work of our Lord. Are they important to the future? Without a doubt. But totally crucial, essential, and absolutely necessary right now! Jesus Christ the Son of God Himself said, "Suffer (allow) little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

Sunday, July 12 - Wednesday, July 15 at 7pm each night, Hendrix Chapel embarks on a campaign for kids. We call it, yes, Vacation Bible School and Family Bible School.

We believe there are even more Davids out there, more Samuels and we pray for more Timothys. We believe the Son of God still blesses children. We believe He blesses parents and grandparents who bring their children to Him as Hannah did.

This event will feature Bible classes for all ages taught by devoted and caring Christian ladies. Teens will be taught each night by Dylan Sharp, our Youth Minister at Hendrix. Our adult classes will be taught by Nolan Burns, Gary Gooch, Joel Caudle, and Wayne Wood. Please come let our Lord bless your child, your grandchild and let Him bless you - you certainly shall bless us with your presence. ✝

A Country Hurting and Disillusioned

America's plight and a short holiday work week make this adapted morning prayer of June 28 a nice option.

Generous, loving, and all-powerful Father in Heaven, we thank you for another beautiful morning. We thank you for our blessings - too many of which we take for granted - our freedoms, the conveniences of this day and age, our degree of health, the ability to come together and worship here, and so much more.

We continue to pray for those who have lost family members recently, both in this congregation and others we may know of personally. May you rest your comforting hand on their shoulders and help them through the coming weeks and months.

Father, our nation is hurting and disillusioned. We pray for improved race relations in this country. We especially pray for the families still grieving in South Carolina. And we thank you for their generous spirit of forgiveness which is a fine example for us all.

We regret the recent Supreme Court decision regarding same-sex marriage. We know that we bear a large degree of responsibility for it as a permissive society. We pray that our young people and the coming generations are not greatly influenced by such examples of foolishness that run counter to your will.

And Father, we thank you for Jesus who willingly died on the cross for our sins so that we may have an opportunity for forgiveness - and through whom we offer this prayer. Amen.

Grace His Only Chance

Editor:

President Obama went to the Charleston Church and sang Amazing Grace, (Save a Wretch like me) and all of those duped and misguided Christians cheered on a man who approves of abortions, approves of drug and pot use even if it's not medicinal, who approves of and has now successfully legalized gay marriages, a President who is destroying the fabric of family and Christian life, and he has the gall to sing Amazing Grace?

The Christians in this nation need to stop cheering on this hypocritical and destructive president who is helping other countries push us around. He has turned his back on all the sick killings and beheadings of Christians around the world. He is now allowing families to reward terrorists by paying the ransom money to save their loved ones. Obama is slowly getting his way with every deception possible. He is right about one thing... Only Grace will save a wretch like him.

Ian Teaches Aaron

Ian: "You know, without God's grace we are lost."

Aaron: "That's right and I've heard we are saved by grace alone."

Ian: "Well, not quite. The Bible says we are saved by "grace, through faith" (Eph. 2:8). Grace is God's part and faith is man's part. But without works, faith is dead (James 2:17). If we are saved by grace alone that would mean we are saved by "grace with a 'dead' faith."

Aaron: "I had not thought of that. So we are saved by grace when, by faith, we obey God's commands."

Ian: "That's right. The Apostle Paul taught obedience and said "work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" (Phil. 2:12).

like Aretha Franklin, Wilson Pickett, Bob Seger, Bob Dylan, Paul Simon and countless others, they played on dozens of the most memorable recordings of the 20th century.

The band includes Musician Hall of Famers Jimmy Johnson and David Hood of the Muscle Shoals Rhythm Section (also known as the Swampers), Will McFarlane, Clayton Ivey, Harvey Thompson Jr., the Shoals Sisters, and a four piece horn section. Featured vocalists are Carla Russell, Christine Ohlman (Saturday Night Live Band) and Jimmy Hall (Wet Willie, Jeff Beck), with arrangements by Charles Rose of the Muscle Shoals Horns. The Muscle Shoals sound is still alive and well today as witnessed on current recordings by Jason Isbell, Alabama Shakes, Civil Wars, Drive-By Truckers, Secret Sisters, and St. Paul & The Broken Bones.

DAVE
Says

by DAVE RAMSEY

PAUSE INVESTING FOR A LUXURY?

Dear Dave,
 Where should you save for large expenditures when you're doing the Baby Steps?
 Heath

Dear Heath,
 Depending on what the expenditure is, I would suggest saving for these sorts of things after Baby Step 3. Once you've paid off all of your debts, except for your home, and built an emergency fund of three to six months of expenses, you reach a point where you can breathe a little bit. After all that hard work and sacrifice, you're finally in a position to replace that ratty, old furniture or get a better car. The question then is this: How much do you want to temporarily cut back on investing in order to make this expenditure happen?

Personally, I'd like to see you allocate a fixed percentage of your income toward play money and still be able to put 15 percent of what you make into retirement. If you want to slow down a bit on Baby Step 5, which is paying off the house, in order to take a once-in-a-lifetime vacation, I'm cool with that. But I don't like the idea of slowing down on funding your retirement.

The basic idea here is to always handle your money with planning, purpose and maturity. You've got a little room to play back and forth once you get past Baby Step 3. But until then, I want you to be hardcore about scrimping, saving and getting your financial house in order!

—Dave

THE REBATE EXPLANATION

Dear Dave,
 How do cash-back rebates work on electronics and other items?
 Dan

Dear Dan,
 I like this question. Most consumers don't think about how the process works. They only care that it's benefitting them from a financial standpoint.

Let's say you buy an item for $1,000, and you get a cash rebate for $100. Basically, you just paid $900 for that item, right? So, what the companies are trying to do is incentivize certain retailers to buy a particular product or amount of that product, yet sort of protect the sticker price in the minds of the consumers. To me, it's really a little ridiculous. Why not simply take off the money, and price it at $900?

That keeps retailers from jerking around with the margins. It purifies the process a little bit, but it adds to the hassle.

Good question, Dan!

One Can Only Dream

brings happiness for all. I believe in my Country, because it is a land of freedom and because it is my own home, and that I can best serve that country by "doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with my God."

I wonder what would happen to the economy, the racial distrust and the welfare system if the elected politicians in Washington DC believed this, "The Auburn Creed"? One can only dream!

He Will Uphold His Word

To Editor:

I read with dismay that President Obama said that same sex marriage was good for America. Our President evidently must have never read in the Holy Bible Leviticus 20:13 "If a man also lieth with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them."

Some will say that was in the Old Testament. The Old Testament is God's Word just like the New Testament. Romans 1:27 reads, "All likewise also the men leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet. And they did not like to retain in God their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind."

Just because the Supreme Court ruled in favor of same sex marriage does not make it right. The supreme judge of the universe (God) will be the final judge and He will uphold His word.

No, we do not hate homosexual people and neither does God hate anyone, but He does hate the sin. Just because many people think it's alright does not make it right.

The marriage of one man and one woman was God's plan in the beginning and is still His plan. The gay community says that those who oppose their lifestyle are intolerant, bigots, and homophobic. If that is true, then they must be intolerant of those who are straight and believe that marriage is for one man and one woman.

Proverbs 14:31 "Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people." 2 Peter 3:9 "God is not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance."

Dear Fellow Alabamians,

Our State has big financial problems. That hurts all of us.

As a Tribe, we've faced these issues before, and we know what its like to not be able to make ends meet. Now, more than ever, we need to come together as citizens of this great State to solve our immediate budget crisis and make sure we never find ourselves in these desperate straits again.

We have a solution that is RIGHT FOR ALABAMA.

Right away, we can solve the State's current budget deficit crisis with a $250 million advance. That money will prevent painful cuts in healthcare and mental health services, and it will keep law enforcement on the job so our families can stay safe.

Going forward, we are prepared to share a portion of our business revenues with the State — funds that will ensure Alabama's long-term financial security.

Our businesses are built for the collective good, not individual gains.

Our Tribe has lived through lean times, and those years taught us to be careful with our money and to help others when we could. Today, our highly-regulated gaming businesses provide our people—and our neighbors—with the kind of essential services that everyone in the State needs—healthcare, education, police and fire protection, and a lot more.

We have a track record for creating successful businesses, good jobs and giving back.

We are committed to being good neighbors and helping others in times of need. We are blessed to be able to donate millions of dollars annually to various organizations throughout the State.

We understand the situation is dire. The Governor and the legislature have some difficult choices ahead. Our Tribal government has had to make tough choices in the past, too.

Over the years, we have brought a solution to Alabama — a compact that would generate state revenue and benefit our neighbors. Today we stand ready with a similar plan to protect jobs and essential services in Alabama due to budget cuts. We hope we never find ourselves in these circumstances again.

We can partner with the State and share both our resources and the business lessons we've learned over the years.

Working together, our Tribe and our State can fix this problem. Let the Governor and your legislators know that you support our solution because it's RIGHT FOR ALABAMA.

Governor's Office 334-242-7100

Legislature: Alabama House 334-242-7600, Alabama Senate 334-242-7800.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Bryan

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

It was 19th-century French journalist, preacher and political activist Jean-Baptiste Henri-Dominique Lacordaire who made the following sage observation: "Neither genius, fame nor love show the greatness of the soul. Only kindness can do that."
 • Walt Disney wanted at first to use the name "Mickey Mouse Park" for what we now know as Disney World.
 • The first successful human organ transplant occurred in 1950. It was a kidney.

 • You might be surprised to learn that manatees have fingernails on their flippers. Flipperrails, perhaps?
 • Thanks to the schedule of the American school system, U.S. sales of peanut butter increase dramatically in September and suffer an equally dramatic drop in June.

• If you've ever gone to a shoe store and had your foot measured to determine length, width and arch length, you might be interested to learn that the gadget used to make such measurements is called a Brannock device. Charles F. Brannock, the son of a shoe industry entrepreneur, patented his first prototype in 1926, and his invention is still the industry standard. Some early models are even featured in the Smithsonian Institution.
 • In India of long ago, it was considered ideal for a man to be three times the age of his wife.
 • Those who study such things say that the younger you are, the longer your baths tend to be.
 • A friend of Sir Isaac Newton first came up with the symbol we use to represent the concept of infinity, but he originally meant it to mean a very small quantity.
 • Until 1836, the river that formed the border between the United States and Mexico was not the Rio Grande; it was the Colorado.

HOME & Garden IMPROVEMENT

WATERING TIPS FOR HEALTHIER LAWNS

Summer is a season for landscaping, and homeowners who live in regions that get especially hot in the summertime often worry that their lawns won't make it through the dog days of summer. But lawns don't have to succumb to the sizzling summer sun. Oftentimes, the right watering strategies can help homeowners nurse their lawns through the hottest months of the year, so they'll remain as green as they did back at the height of spring.

• Reconsider when you're watering. Come summertime, homeowners may want a glass of water at high noon, when temperatures seem to be at their hottest. But you and your lawn are different, so the best time to satiate your thirst is not necessarily the best time to water your lawn. Watering in the middle of the day is often ineffective, as water tends to evaporate quickly in the afternoons when temperatures are peaking. Nighttime watering can contribute to the growth of fungus, which can create an entirely new set of headaches for homeowners. Morning watering sessions tend to be most effective during the summertime, as temperatures tend to be cooler in the morning, leading to less evaporation. Less evaporation means all that watering isn't going to waste.

• Reconsider your sprinkler. If you can't afford an in-ground irrigation system, which many landscaping professionals feel is the most effective and efficient way to water a lawn, then you likely will rely on a sprinkler to keep your lawn looking lush through the summer months. When choosing a sprinkler, look for one that shoots water out horizontally as opposed to vertically. A vertical sprinkler system is more vulnerable to wind and evaporation than one that shoots water out horizontally, so make sure your sprinkler system is sending water into your lawn and not into summer breezes.

• Avoid overwatering. How much water your lawn needs in the summertime depends on a host of factors, including where you live and how often rain falls in that region. Overwatering can promote the growth of fungus and adversely affect your lawn's root system, making it difficult for roots to grow deep. Speak with a local landscaping professional to determine how often you should water your lawn each week.

• Strategically position your sprinklers. When choosing where to put down your sprinklers, hook them up to your hose, turn them on and then watch to see where the water is going. Areas that exposed to sun are most in need of water, so make sure the bulk of your water isn't going to shaded areas beneath trees. In addition, make sure you aren't wasting water on sidewalks, patios and driveways. Sprinklers should be positioned so none of the water they're shooting out is landing on surfaces that don't need water. It sounds simple, but too often homeowners drop their sprinklers down, turn them on and then walk away without waiting to see where the water is landing. Position sprinklers or adjust sprinkler heads so all the water is landing on your lawn.

Keeping a lawn lush and green at the height of summer requires homeowners to adopt effective strategies. Such a strategies can make the difference between a lush landscape and one that succumbs to summer heat.

 News & Tips on the Shoals Market

Indoor Preventative Maintenance

Last month we talked about several ways to protect your investment in your home by doing routine maintenance on the exterior. Now let's look inside the house and talk about things you need to be checking and doing on a regular basis:

- Repair dripping faucets and running toilets. Not only is this wasted water literally money running down your drain, it can also cause visible damage to your bathroom fixtures. A single dripping faucet in a home, dripping only once every two seconds, wastes over 1,000 gallons of water a year.

- Smoke detectors. Make sure you have enough of them, placed in all bedrooms and sleeping areas, in or near kitchen (but not too near the stove!) and in other strategic areas of your home.

- A/C filters should be changed out every 1-3 months depending on environmental conditions. When these start getting clogged, your unit is not able to run properly and may labor harder. That will result in higher utility bills and more wear on your unit. Remember, the air conditioning unit is often the most expensive appliance in a home and the most energy-consuming one, too. Skimping on air filters can cost you much more money down the road.

- Septic system maintenance is vital to the lifespan of your system. If you aren't familiar with septic tanks, you may not think that there is any maintenance involved. Having to have your tank pumped and/or having lateral line problems will quickly cure you of that misconception. Visit your local Co-op. They have the chemicals you need and can tell you how often to use them. You might argue that this seems like an exterior maintenance issue, but if you have a septic problem you will change your mind. It will most definitely affect the interior atmosphere of your home.

Regular maintenance, both inside and out on your home is a good investment of your time and money. And if you're thinking of selling in the near future, you have to remember that 3 things sell a home: Price, condition and location. I can assure you that deferred maintenance items around the house will send the wrong message regarding the condition of your home to any potential buyer. Stay on top of regular maintenance items and it will pay dividends.

Recently, CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) was assigned three new cases that involve children in very critical risk situations. All of our current and available CASA volunteers are being contacted regarding the possibility of taking these cases, however the need for volunteer child advocates is continuous for the CASA program. The next round of Volunteer Advocacy Training begins in July. Interested individuals should contact CASA's Volunteer Coordinator, Kim Bowser for more information about CASA or to begin the application process. Email: KimBowser.shoalscasa@gmail.com
