I bought a pair of shoes from a drug dealer yesterday. I don't know what he laced them with, but I've been tripping all day.

I saw my wife, slightly drunk, yelling at the TV. "Don't go in there! Don't go in the church you moron!" She was watching our wedding video.

Lost my watch at a party once. I saw a man step on it while harassing a woman. I walked up and punched him straight on the nose. I said, "No one does that to a girl..not on my watch."

SUBTRACT THE PANTS

The young man was feeling very proud of himself. As a brand-new college graduate he had taken the C.P.A. Exams & passed with flying colors. Now he was a full-fledged Certified Public Accountant.

His father had been an immigrant to the U.S., & now owned his own little business. Filled with self-importance, the young man began to criticize his father's way of keeping books. He said, "Dad, you don't even know how much profit you've made. Over here in this drawer is your accounts receivable. Over there are your receipts, & you keep all your money in the cash register. You don't have any idea how much you've made."

The father answered, "Son, when I came to this country the only thing I owned was a pair of pants. Now, your brother is a doctor, your sister is an art teacher, & you are a C.P.A. Your mother & I own our home. We have a car, & we own this little business. Now add that up, subtract the pants, & all the rest is profit."

What Is A Banana?

A banana is a fruit... right? Not so fast. A banana actually comes from the berry family. Bananas originate from a single ovary, have a soft skin, and a fleshy middle. This makes them a berry.

I am in competition with no one. I have no desire to play the game of being better than anyone. I am simply trying to be better than the person I was yesterday.

Rabbits vs. Wolves

Two rabbits were being chased by a pack of hungry wolves. The wolves chased the rabbits into a thicket.

After a few minutes, one rabbit turned to the other and said, "Well, do you want to make a run for it, or should we stay here for a few days and out number them?"

All The Rotten Eggs

A man walks into the grocery store and ask to speak to the manager about buying all the rotten eggs.

"What do you want with all the rotten eggs?" the manager asks. "Are you going to see the new comedian at the theater tonight?"

"Sh-sh-sh!" hissed the buyer nervously. "I am the new comedian."

There was a farmer who grew excellent quality corn. Every year he won the award for the best grown corn. One year a newspaper reporter interviewed him and learned something interesting about how he grew it. The reporter discovered that the farmer shared his seed corn with his neighbors. "How can you afford to share your best seed corn with your neighbors when they are entering corn in competition with yours each year?" the reporter asked. "Why sir," said the farmer, "Didn't you know? The wind picks up pollen from the ripening corn and swirls it from field to field. If my neighbors grow inferior corn, cross-pollination will steadily degrade the quality of my corn. If I am to grow good corn, I must help my neighbors grow good corn." So is with our lives... Those who want to live meaningfully and well must help enrich the lives of others, for the value of a life is measured by the lives it touches. And those who choose to be happy must help others find happiness, for the welfare of each is bound up with the welfare of all...

MRS. PIERPOINT

A woman is worried about an older woman, a widow, who lives in the apartment next door. She hasn't heard anything from her for a few days.

So she tells her son, "I want you to go next door and see how ol' Mrs. Pierpoint is."

A few minutes later, the boy returns.

"Well, is she all right?" the mother asks.

"She's fine, but she's annoyed with you," he says.

"At me? Whatever for?"

"Well," says her son, "Mrs. Pierpoint told me it's none of your business how old she is."

Are You Missing Baseball?

What Is An Immaculate Inning? An Immaculate Inning is a baseball term. It applies when a pitcher strikes out three batters in the same inning while throwing the minimum amount of pitches needed, which is nine.

"I knew when my career was over. In 1965, my baseball card came out with no picture." ~ Bob Eucker Satchel Paige ~ I never threw an illegal pitch. The trouble is, once in a while I toss one that ain't never been seen by this generation.

Yogi Berra ~ Little League is a good thing because it keeps the parents off the street.

"Baseball players are smarter than football players. How often do you see a baseball team penalized for too many players on the field." ~ Jim Boulton

Vegetable Casseroles

CAULIFLOWER CASSEROLE

Ingredients

- 1 large head cauliflower, cut into small florets (1.5 lb. florets)
- Olive oil spray
- 1 teaspoon coarse kosher salt (not fine salt)
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/2 cup sour cream (I used low-fat, feel free to use full-fat)
- 2 tablespoons whole milk (or cream)
- 1 teaspoon Dijon mustard
- 1 teaspoon minced garlic
- Pinch cayenne pepper
- 1 cup shredded sharp cheddar, divided

Garnish:

- 2 tablespoons bacon bits
- 2 tablespoons thinly sliced scallions, green parts

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 425 degrees F. Line a rimmed baking sheet with parchment paper.
2. Arrange the cauliflower florets on the baking sheet. Liberally spray with olive oil and season with kosher salt and black pepper. Roast the cauliflower until tender-crisp, about 12 minutes.
3. Meanwhile, in a large bowl, mix the sour cream, milk, Dijon, garlic, cayenne and 1/2 cup cheddar.
4. When cauliflower is done, add it to the sour cream sauce and mix to combine.
5. Transfer the mixture to a greased 1.5-quart baking dish. Top with the remaining shredded cheddar. Return to the oven and bake just until cheese is melted, about 10 minutes.
6. Sprinkle the cauliflower casserole with the bacon bits and the scallions and serve.

Directions

Preheat oven to 350 degree
In a large bowl, stir together the 2 cans of corn, corn muffin mix, sour cream, and melted butter. Pour into a greased 9 by 13-inch casserole dish. Bake for 45 minutes, or until golden brown. Remove from oven and top with Cheddar. Return to oven for 5 to 10 minutes, or until cheese is melted. Let stand for at least 5 minutes and then serve warm.

3. Remove the baking sheet from the oven. Turn the eggplant slices to the other side. Spray again with oil. Return to the oven and roast until browned and tender, 10-15 more minutes.
4. Remove the baking sheet from the oven. Reduce the oven temperature to 425 degrees F.
5. Arrange half of the roasted eggplant slices in the bottom of a greased 1-quart casserole dish. Spread half the marinara sauce on top and sprinkle with half of the mozzarella, as shown in the video.

TEXTING SENIORS

An elderly couple had just learned how to send text messages on their mobile phones. The wife was a romantic type and the husband was more of a no-nonsense guy.

One afternoon
the wife went out to meet a friend for coffee.

She decided to send her husband a romantic text message and she wrote:
'If you are sleeping, send me your dreams. If you are laughing, send me your smile. If you are eating, send me a bite. If you are drinking, send me a sip.
If you are crying, send me your tears. I love you.'

The husband texted back to her:
'I'm on the toilet. Please advise.'

If you could earn $3600.00 an hour it would take you 11.5 days to earn a million dollars.

What about a billion dollars, you say?
Approximately 31.5 years.

What about a trillion dollars?
Approximately 31,506 years.

The government says a trillion dollars like it's nothing. The around 120 million working taxpaying Americans now have to pay back $8300.00 for every trillion spent on this "Virus". If it goes as planned they will spend up to 6 trillion. The government just in-debted every taxpayer another approximately $50,000.

I only received $1200. That is some extremely high interest. Why didn't they give every taxpayer a $50,000, now that would stimulate the economy for the same amount of money.

Making Deals With God

Fred was driving down the street in a sweat because he had an important meeting and couldn't find a parking place. Looking up to heaven he said,

"Lord take pity on me. If you find me a parking place I will go to church every Sunday for the rest of my life and give up drinking."

Miraculously, a parking place appeared.

Fred looked up again and said, "Never mind, I found one!"

If I say I'm gonna call you back, just go on and enjoy the rest of your day.

BILLS DESCRIPTION

Many patients call the pathology group and ask the office manager to discuss their medical bills. One irate woman demanded that the office manager to describe every laboratory test on her statement. Reluctantly, she complied. Starting with the first test on her bill, she read, "No. 1, urinalysis." She interrupted immediately. "I'm a what?"

Does anyone know what the long bar at the bottom of the keyboard is for

The One who never closed.

Pastor Josh Sims

With all of us slowly coming out of the quarantined life, we have grown so accustomed to, we are facing a "new" normal.

For some, it is hard to cope with while others are adjusting just fine. Schools, businesses, even churches are faced with implementing new strategies to slow the spread of germs and viruses like COVID-19. I think it is safe to say that we all experienced a little disappointment when our favorite business or restaurant closed for a time. Even today there is still uncertainty in regards to what the near future will look like. I would like to encourage you with the words of Hebrews 13:8, "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever." In all the uncertainty we face, one thing remains constant, Jesus is the same. I think everyone is staring at an unknown road we must navigate. Please don't look at this as a setback, look at it as a fresh start. What is something new that can come out of this? What if this is the opportunity you have been waiting for to start that special project? Take the necessary steps to accomplish your goals! Remember when I used the scripture from Hebrews? The one where Jesus is the same yesterday, today, and forever. Let that sink in for a moment. Maybe you are someone who is a follower of Jesus, can you take your devotion to the next level? You may be reading this today as someone who is not a Jesus follower. Today that can change. Trust in Jesus today, He is the only one who has been consistent through everything.

Faith Overcomes Our Fears

By: Wallace Kennedy, Jr.

Fear can be paralyzing and can stop us from becoming the person we were designed to be, and can hinder us from accessing the doors God has opened.

2 Timothy 1:7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

The word fear is being use as someone who is: timid, fearfulness, cowardice.

The dictionary says fear means: an unpleasant emotion caused by the belief that someone or something is dangerous, likely to cause pain, or a threat.

Certainly we can relate to the struggle many of us are having or witnessing, the fear to overcome and deal with the threats of the Coronavirus (COVID 19).

Fear is looking for an empty space in our life to reside. An empty space in our relationship, health, finances, etc. Fear and faith cannot reside in the same space.

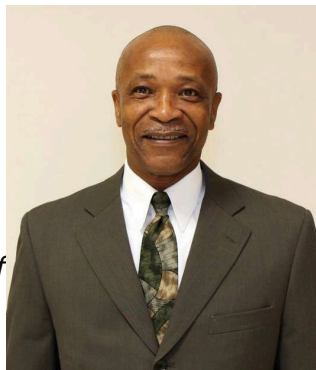

Mark 4:38-39 Jesus was in the stern, sleeping on a cushion. The disciples woke him and said to him, "Teacher, don't you care if we drown?" He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, "Quiet! Be still!" Then the wind died down and it was completely calm.

Notice what Jesus says next: And Jesus said unto them, "Why are you so fearful? how is it that you have no faith?" Mark 4:40

Now think about this, how many times have we stayed awake at night fearing, having anxiety stressing and so on. When Our Faith Is Awake, We Can Sleep! Just like Jesus did

2 Timothy 1:7 God gave us POWER, LOVE and a SOUND MIND. We are not victims, but victorious people handpicked by God to be His children.

My Friends: Keep Praying Fervently, Continuously, and Faithfully Believing We Can Have What We Pray When we Ask In Jesus Name, This Virus Will Past. Please follow the guidelines of our health professional and appointed leaders. We will make it through this because we have God on our side and are working together for a common cause. Be safe, be healthy!

Claybank Master Gardeners May 2020

Hello Gardeners!

Composting. What is it? It is using your leftover and discarded kitchen scraps and yard trash to make into healthy soil. Before you say, "Ewww, disgusting, smelly, and BUGS!" allow me to share the good news about composting. None of those descriptions are true except for one. Bugs. It can be as simple as a bin with red wriggler worms in the corner of your kitchen, or a small corner in your backyard, or a huge pile near your back forty. It is nature's perfect way to turn leaf litter, twigs, grass clippings, and veggie scraps, into rich, clean smelling soil. There is so much good you can do for your yard and garden and even potted plants using "compost tea", a rich liquid source of nutrients that are free for the taking from a compost pile. And you can RECYCLE much of your trash, except for plastics, glass and metal containers.

Bugs? Yes, bless their tiny hearts! From micro-organisms, to small insects, to earthworms, they have one job, to digest the debris and turn it into rich, FREE soil.

June is a good month to start a compost pile, because a working compost pile needs heat, moisture and air to break down the elements into rich soil. You can start with a bag of composted manure from the garden department of most big box or hardware stores. It will have the micro-organisms already in it to begin the job. Add any of the following discarded waste and scraps; vegetable clippings (NOT meat or bones except in a bin with wriggler worms) eggshells, crushed coffee grounds tea bags dryer lint cardboard tubes from toilet paper, paper towels and wrapping paper, shredded paper, leaves, twigs and grass clippings, mix in with "leaf mold" (decaying leaves under shrubs and trees)

In June and the summer months, it will take two weeks or less to break down these items into soil provided you keep it moist (not soggy wet), stirred up for air to get in, and heated from some sunshine. In the late fall and winter, it will take longer, but the great thing is, a working compost pile generates energy and heat, all on its own.

If I had 50¢ for every failed math test, I'd have $9.35.

BUNKER MENTALITY

When the novel corona virus swept through the United States, architect Joseph Badame had cause to say "I told you so!" He didn't know what calamity was coming, but Badame prepared for nearly everything: he designed and built an 8,500 square-foot, partly-underground house on 3 acres in Medford, N.J., surrounded by an electric fence, plus enough outbuildings and food to accommodate 120 friends and family for a full year. He even thought to stock 4,200 rolls of toilet paper, and buried tanks to hold gasoline, kerosene, diesel fuel, and heating oil. He installed a coal-fired furnace supplied by "tons" of coal stacked outside. What does he think now, with COVID-19 killing thousands per day? "This is much more severe than I even planned for," says Badame, now 77, "when you combine the trigger of the corona virus and then the reaction to it." But his decades of preparation and million-dollar stockpile of supplies aren't helping: he lost the house to foreclosure in 2017, and now lives with a friend.

TEACH A HORSE TO FLY?

A man sentenced to death obtained a reprieve from the king by assuring the king he would teach his majesty's horse to fly within 2 years, on the condition that if he did not succeed, he would be put to death after the two years.

"Within two years," the man explained later, "the king could die, or I may die, or the horse may die. Furthermore, in two years, who knows? Maybe the horse will learn to fly."

An old physician, Doctor John Geezer, became very bored in retirement and decided to re-open a medical clinic.

He put a sign up outside that read:
"Dr. Geezer's clinic. Get your treatment for $500 - if not cured, get back $1,000."

Doctor Digger Young who was positive that this old geezer didn't know beans about medicine, thought this would be a great opportunity to get $1,000. So he went to Dr. Geezer's clinic.

Dr. Young: "Dr. Geezer, I have lost all taste in my mouth. Can you please help me?"

Dr. Geezer: "Nurse, please bring medicine from box 22 and put 3 drops in Dr. Young's mouth."

Dr. Young: 'Aaagh! -- This is Gasoline!"

Dr. Geezer: "Congratulations! You've got your taste back. That will be $500."

Dr. Young gets annoyed and goes back after a couple of days figuring to recover his money.

Dr. Young: "I have lost my memory, I cannot remember anything."

Dr. Geezer: "Nurse, please bring medicine from box 22 and put 3 drops in the patient's mouth."

Dr. Young: "Oh, no you don't -- that is Gasoline!"

Dr. Geezer: "Congratulations! You've got your memory back. That will be $500."

Dr. Young (after having lost $1000) leaves angrily and comes back after several more days.

Dr. Young: "My eyesight has become weak --- I can hardly see anything!"

Dr. Geezer: "Well, I don't have any medicine for that so, Here's your $1000 back" (giving him a $10 bill).

Dr. Young: "But this is only $10!"

Dr. Geezer: "Congratulations! You got your vision back! That will be $500."

MISSTEPS

A father was recalling a time when his son was about 18 months old. He had him strapped into a backpack and was rushing to catch the bus. Apparently he missed his step and fell down an entire flight of stairs (13 to be exact). He was bruised and bleeding and had torn his jeans ... but his main concern was, naturally, for his child. His fears were alleviated, though, when from behind he heard a gleeful giggle followed by, "Again!"
