

Physicals For Participation

SHEFFIELD – Keller Sports Medicine and Rehab Services recently provided free pre-participation physicals to athletes from junior high and high schools across Colbert County. These physicals are required by the Alabama High School Athletic Association on an annual basis prior to the athlete participating in any school-sponsored sport.

Over 575 athletes were seen from Covenant Christian, Sheffield, Deshler, Colbert Heights, Cherokee, and Colbert County. This was possible due to help from local physicians who volunteer their time and expertise. Participating physicians included: Dr. Mark McIlwain, Dr. Josh Vacik, Dr. Stephen Howell, Dr. Aaron Howell, Dr. David McKinley, Dr. Dearl BirdSong, Dr. Teresa Olsen, Dr. Robert Flowers, Dr. Jeffery Hovater, and Dr. A. E. Joiner. Assisting were Bobby Bowen, Physician's Assistant from Bone and Joint, and four medical students. Over 30 staff members performed the preliminary screenings. Cardiopulmonary screening and final clearance for participation were provided by the physicians. If issues were discovered, the athlete was instructed to follow up with his or her regular physician.

Enjoy Edsel's Shining Hour

FLORENCE—My Shining Hour is a perfect description for the June 7 show that Edsel Holden plans for his audience at the Shoals Theatre. He'll sing a few tunes, tell a few jokes and act as the emcee of his annual benefit concert for the Theatre that takes place at 2pm. Edsel has selected the best songs, the best pickers, and

The Crafts of Old

FLORENCE – Step back into the past at the 27th Annual Frontier Day Celebration at historic Pope's Tavern Museum in Florence on Saturday and Sunday, June 6-7. This outdoor event celebrates the frontier heritage of Florence with crafts, music, and costumes typical of the period. Hours are 10am-4pm on Saturday and 1-4pm on Sunday.

Tourism Honorees: Add Three

By Dennis Sherer
 Colbert County
 Tourism & Travel

TUSCUMBIA -- Visitors to the Colbert County Tourism and Convention Bureau office often share stories with the staff about being amazed at the hospitality they've encountered in the Shoals.

"Our visitors tell us Shoals residents are the nicest people they have ever met," said Susann Hamlin, executive

Celebrating Success

TUSCUMBIA—Colbert Heights Elementary School has been working the last several months on raising money for the Relay for Life Foundation. The students, faculty, and community became very involved with the efforts to raise money for the organization that is so dear to many of them.

Some of the things the students did to raise money were host to the Hershey's Kisses booth (guessing how many kisses were in the jar), Ditch Cancer with dimes (filling up water bottles with dimes), and a Bake Sale. A successful fund raising effort meant they could tape their principal, Ms. Alvie Shaw, to the wall at the closing of Field Day activities. Colbert Heights Elementary was able to raise over $2,000! Everyone involved had a great time doing it! Courtesy photo

Week a Boon to Restaurants

FLORENCE - Florence Main Street recently announced the restaurant awards and charity winner from Florence Restaurant Week, which took place May 8-16

"Florence Restaurant Week is a celebration of all the wonderful restaurants and cuisine choices we have in downtown Florence" said Teryl Shields, Executive Director of Florence Main Street. "We wanted to make sure that lots of folks came out to try as many restaurants as possible. We added the charity component to our Restaurant Week, so folks would go out and vote for their favorite charity on the ballot."

the best guests to appear with him in this year's show. It is a wonderful variety featuring The Edd Jones Orchestra, Harvey Thompson, Jr, Mike Green, Joseph Stallworth, and the Rebecca Rockhill Singers. This stellar lineup will entertain you with their unique interpretations of Edsel's favorite composers and songs.

Tickets are $15 and may be purchased at the Kennedy-Douglass Center for the Arts, The Tennessee Valley Art Center, and the Shoals Theatre Box Office. For tickets or information, call 256-764-1700 or visit www.shoalstheatre.com.

Military veterans are admitted free, but a ticket is required. Complimentary tickets may be picked up at the Theatre Box Office, Kennedy-Douglass Center for the Arts, or the Tennessee Valley Art Association in advance of the show. Complimentary tickets WILL NOT be issued the day of the show.

New Pet Pantry Help Hardships

FLORENCE—Many times, people have to give up their beloved pets if they are facing economic hardship. A pet pantry is a way for people to keep their pets.

Shoals Pet Pantry is a new non-profit organization created for the mission of keeping pets with their families and out of shelters by providing pet food to individuals and families experiencing temporary financial hardship in Lauderdale and Colbert counties.

As an official introduction to the community, Shoals Pet Pantry will have a booth set up at First Fridays on Friday, June 5 from 5-9pm at the corner of Court and Tombigbee Streets in Florence. Any donation of canned or dry dog and cat food or a monetary gift will be appreciated. Our first goal is to collect 200 pounds of food in one night.

For more information, please contact Shoals Pet Pantry at 256-246-9800 or info@shoalspetpantry.com director of Colbert Tourism. "For them to say the people who live here are the most hospitable in the country really says a lot about our area."

To honor some of the people who help make the Shoals a great place to visit, the tourism organization created a Colbert County Tourism Ambassador award. A tourism ambassador was selected each week in May which was National Travel and Tourism Month.

Johnny Belew of Claunch Café in Tuscumbia was recognized here in early May. The other three honorees are Michelle Greene of Days Inn in Muscle Shoals, Mike Gay of Natchez Trace Harley-Davidson in Tuscumbia, and Dick Cooper of the Alabama Music Hall of Fame in Tuscumbia.

"These are some of the people our visitors have mentioned most often when they were telling us about the hospitality they experienced in the Shoals," Hamlin said. "It was really hard to pick only four ambassadors out of the many people we have who go above and beyond to welcome visitors and to promote Colbert County."

Hamlin said the weekly awards will become an annual event in celebration of Travel and Tourism Month.

Bernie Davis of Minden, Ontario Canada said the people of the Shoals are like no others when it comes to hospitality. She and her husband, Jim, made their first trip to the Shoals in 2014 and fell in love with the area and its people. They have since made three return visits.

"Everyone we meet from the guy at the RV park, to the waitress at the restaurant, the clerk at the convenience store, to the cashier at the department store, all welcome us to the community and tell us about places to see and things to do in the Shoals," Bernie Davis said.

Hamlin said travel related expenditures in 2014 for Colbert County were $54.98 million, a 21% increase over spending in 2013.

Register Your Boat Online

office can now renew their Alabama boat registration online. They can use their smart phone, smart device, or their home personal computer. County residents do not have to come to the office to renew your boat registration."

For a small additional fee, residents can now renew their boat registration anytime at www.OutdoorAlabama.com or https://www.alabamainteractive.org/boat_registration/home/welcome.action.

When renewing their boat online, county residents may need some additional information about their boat which may not be in the state system. This boat information includes the current AL number, the Hull number (which consists of 12 digits), the boat's make, year and length (in feet and inches), the boat's decal year and number, whether the boat has a marine sanitation device, the boat's hull material, propulsion (outboard or inboard), it's use (business or pleasure), the type of fuel the boat uses, vessel type, how many motors the boat has, the motor's make with serial number and horsepower.

Student Camps for Codes, Apps

FLORENCE-The Black Rocket Science, Technology, Engineering and Math summer camps will take place on the University of North Alabama campus June 15-19 and July 13-17. Students ages 8-14 are invited to attend the camps that will teach them how to code and build digital games and apps. These are key skills which may help them in the future. Each class will be taught by the UNA Tech Lions consisting of UNA CSIS Faculty and UNA CSIS student assistants.

Instructors include Dr. Shane Banks, Dr. John Crabtree, Dr. Jill Simpson, and Dr. Jason Watson. The cost per camp is $170 with limited space and scholarships available.

The idea for the camps came from the UNA Tech Lions. This is a collaboration between the UNA College of Business and the Shoals Entrepreneurial Center that sprang from the recent Strategic Doing movement launched by the college. Giles McDaniel, executive director with the Shoals Entrepreneurial Center, said the intent of the camps is to create a digital based job corp in the region. "These camps aimed at middle schoolers are part of a broad based plan. We want to introduce the campers to skills needed to work in this economy and to introduce them to the university at the same time," McDaniel said.

Each session will help participants learn new skills such as mobile app design, HTML, JavaScript and CSS, to name a few.

For more information, go to www.blackrocket.com or Sheila Sisson at 256-765-5987 or sdsisson@una.edu.

Ask Dr. Webb

Part III of Morphine: Not so common side-effects patients can expect.

Myoclonus refers to muscle twitching. If it is bothersome, such as making one's whole arm jump, then lorazepam [Ativan] usually helps.

Pruritus (itching). If this is driving a patient 'crazy', using an anti-histamine like loratadine [Claritin] or diphenhydramine [Benadryl], and applying mentholated creams [like Ben-Gay] can provide relief.

Respiratory depression. It is rarely a problem unless a patient's sedation has increased to the point where he keeps drifting off to sleep. Pain definitely increases breathing! However, if the pain goes away and the patient is having trouble staying awake, and family notice the breathing rate dropping below six per minute, then definitely reduce the dose (unless the goal is palliative sedation). If the family is having doubts, it's important to call the hospice nurse: a naloxone [Narcan] injection may be needed.

Addiction. When taking morphine for chronic pain or shortness of breath, it is rare for someone with a life-limiting disease to become truly 'addicted'. They'll certainly become 'dependent' on it, just as anyone becomes physically dependent on prescriptions for blood pressure, anxiety, depression, etc. abruptly stopping these can trigger signs/symptoms of 'withdrawal' (fast heart rate, more anxious and agitated - depending on the drug) and therefore patients must be weaned. 'Addiction' refers to a loss of control over the drug with continued use despite the harm it is causing.

Allergic Reactions. Although many people believe the above side-effects are 'allergic reactions', they actually aren't. True allergies are of the 'anaphylactic' type, meaning bronchospasm [wheezing, shortness of breath], swelling of the throat, and urticaria [blistered rash].

If someone is having side-effects despite reducing the dose and trying different counter measures, rotating to a different opioid often works— for example, change to hydromorphone [Dilaudid] or methadone.

Ask Dr. Webb is a bi-weekly article sponsored by Hospice of the Shoals as a community service to answer questions about hospice care and end of life issues. Please submit questions to ssimpson@hofs.org or call 256-767-6699.

Dr. Robert Webb has focused his practice on geriatrics and palliative care since 2003. He is the Medical Director at Glenwood Healthcare as well as the Medical Director at Hospice of the Shoals.

DO YOU SUFFER FROM:

- Shortness of breath • Numbness
- Chest pain or tightness
- Burning or tingling in your legs
- Weakness or coldness in your legs or arms
- Pain in the neck • Headaches
- Heart burn, indigestion, or burping

If so, these could be signs of cardiovascular disease. Dr. Ajit Naidu and Dr. Brian Cole at the Cardiovascular Institute of the Shoals can help determine if these are serious, if you are suffering from any of these symptoms. We give second opinions, too!

Please call 256-766-2310 for an appointment.

Admission is free. This fun event for the whole family is informative as well as entertaining. The celebration includes dulcimer music and demonstrations of arts and crafts by artisans in costume. Walk through Pope's Tavern Museum free during the hours of the celebration to complete your voyage back in time.

Most of the crafts are available for sale. Enjoy music by the Shoals Dulcimer and Folk Music Association as you see pottery making, basket weaving, quilting, wool spinning and weaving, wood carving, chair caning, broom making, and much more. Members of the David Crockett Association will set up a camp and present living history demonstrations. Grandma Saint's fried pies are scheduled to return this year too.

Pope's Tavern Museum is located at the corner of Hermitage Drive and Seminary Street. For more information, call 256-760-6379. Museum programs are made possible in part by a grant from the Alabama State Council on the Arts. This event is sponsored by the Florence Department of Arts and Museums.

SAVE EXTRA INSTEAD

Dear Dave,
I recently applied for life insurance for the first time with a child rider. The insurance company denied my request for the rider portion because my son has hemophilia. Do you have any suggestions or advice?
Sarah

Dear Sarah,
Unfortunately, you're going to have a difficult time with this situation. It's generally pretty hard, for obvious reasons, for hemophiliacs to get life insurance. I hope you understand that's a statistical statement, not a spiritual statement.

You can always cover him as a child by building an emergency fund over and above the three to six months of expenses I normally recommend. A child rider is just a small policy to cover final expenses and things like that, so you could self-insure by saving up in the event — God forbid — of a worst case scenario. An average funeral today costs around $7,000 to $10,000. You could always spend less, but if you guys have reasonable safeguards this isn't a situation you should be facing. I mean, there are probably some things he just shouldn't do from a common sense standpoint, right? But lots of folks have long, wonderful lives with that particular condition.

It might be that as research on the disease progresses and as he gets older, there's a possibility that he could qualify. Think about this. If you even whispered a word like "cancer" anywhere near your name 25 years ago in the insurance business, you were done — no life insurance of any kind. Nowadays, they look at all the factors involved. You can actually have had cancer and get life insurance.

In short, I think there's hope for the future. In the meantime, I would cover it with a slightly larger emergency fund. Just add a few thousand to what you would normally set aside for emergencies, because you might face some medical issues, as well.

—Dave

BANKRUPTCY AFTERSHOCKS

Dear Dave,
What are the long-term effects of declaring bankruptcy?
Brittany

Dear Brittany,
One of the biggest aftershocks of filing bankruptcy is that it stays on your credit report for years afterward. A Chapter 7 filing, which wipes out everything and gives you a clean slate, stays on your report for 10 years. Chapter 13, which is a repayments plan, and Chapter 11, another type of large bankruptcy or business bankruptcy, both stay on your credit bureau report for seven years.

Another big problem is that it can follow you around when it comes to applications or when you apply for different types of licenses. Many of these ask if you've ever filed bankruptcy. It doesn't ask if it's still on your credit report; it will ask if you've ever filed bankruptcy. If you have, you'll have instances for the rest of your life when you have to admit it and explain it all over again. So, it's an emotional scar that follows you around for a long, long time.

Too many bankruptcy filers never really recover from their financial distress because they never learn new and better ways to manage their money. That's why I recommend people do everything they can to avoid bankruptcy. It's not an easy do-over; it's a last-resort kind of thing. And in the vast majority of situations it's just not necessary.

Salvation Grace Without Works

Titus 2:11 "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men." Romans 4:6 "Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works". (PURE GRACE) Romans 4:16b "Therefore it (salvation) is of faith, that it might be by grace." The Apostle James is taken out of the way and Peter is sidelined, and a whole new revelation and message is given to the last Apostle, Paul, and that message is (Grace) through faith. Ephesians 2:8-9 "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." It's no small wonder that a KJV Bible starts in Genesis 6 with grace to Noah, and ends with grace in Revelation 22:21. It should be known by all preachers and teachers of the Bible that the Apostle Paul began and ended his epistles with the word (GRACE.) IF you cannot see the difference between the messages of Peter and James, and the Apostle Paul, then you need to get saved. The Apostle Paul is the only one commissioned to minister to the gentile churches. His message is pure (Grace).

Grace is an unmerited favor that God offers us through the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ, without works. If you could earn salvation or keep it yourselves, why did He die? Romans 3:24 "Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus." Romans 3:28 "Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law." Romans 5:1-2 "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God." Romans 5:9 "Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him." Romans 5:17 "For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ." How more simple or plain could God make it? You have no excuse for going to hell. Will you accept the gift of God's righteousness by faith and believe on Christ today? Why not?

Long Wait Between Title Opportunities

The National Basketball Association (NBA) doesn't get a lot of coverage in this region even though the Memphis Grizzlies and Atlanta Hawks did well this season. The Grizzlies were a physical bunch that got ousted by the Golden State Warriors in the second round of the playoffs. The Hawks' third round playoff loss in the Eastern Conference finals to the Cleveland Cavaliers led by LeBron James is no embarrassment.

James is the best player of his generation. He is joined by several talents including fellow NBA all-star, Kyrie Irving (uncle Drew from the Pepsi Max commercial/video). The Cavs will play the Warriors who hail from the San Francisco-Oakland area. Growing up a Warriors fan and recalling their last NBA title often (1975), it's almost surreal for the Warriors to be back in the finals. It has been a lean 40 years since then with few playoff appearances and some really embarrassing losses.

The Warriors defeated the heavily-favored Washington Bullets 4-0 in the '75 Finals. So heavily favored were the Bullets in that series that odds-makers still had Washington favored to win game four when they were down 3-0. The Warriors were led by eventual Hall of Famer, Rick Barry, who many may remember had an unorthodox method of shooting free throws underhanded, what we used to

Festival Is All About Heritage

TUSCUMBIA—The North Alabama African Heritage Association will host the 15th Annual North Alabama African Heritage Festival on Friday and Saturday, June 5-6 at the Willie Green Recreation Park in Tuscumbia.

A festival preview will begin at 4pm on Friday, June 5 with Music on the Lawn provided by the Shoals Blues Band, featuring Judy Toney. The festival will resume at 11am on Saturday, June 6 with African singing, drumming, and dancing.

There will be performances by local musicians in numerous genres including gospel, R & B, and more. This year's festival will feature several authentic African cultural presentations. The Uhuru African Dancers of Atlanta will perform Saturday at 3pm and the authentic Umdabu Dance Company will perform at 5pm. An extra feature for this year will be Simba Foluke of Nashville, a drummer, FLORENCE/LAUDERDALE TOURISM will once again provide musical entertainment on Saturday, June 6 at 11am before its popular Swampette music tour at noon. The Wildwood Ruminators will perform a free mini-concert open to the public in the gallery at the Florence/Lauderdale Visitor Center. The band will perform songs from their upcoming CD project, "Revelation." The June 6 version of the Swampette tour of area music venues will follow from noon-4pm. The popular tour offers stops at FAME Studios, 3614 Jackson Highway, and the Alabama Music Hall of Fame. Led by Judy Hood, wife of the Swampers' bass player David Hood, the tour travels to each venue aboard the Trolley of Tunes. The tour is $35 per person. For reservations for Swampette tours, contact the Florence/Lauderdale Tourism office at 256-740-4141.

Donkeys and Elephants Registration Please

Editor:

If a group of mascots should be insulted by anything, it should be the donkeys and elephants represented by those in Washington, DC. "Redskins" is a reference to the bravery of the Native American warriors. What do the actions of our elected officials say about the defenseless elephant and donkey?

Wouldn't you love to see Big Al lead a march of donkeys and elephants on DC demanding elected officials stop slandering their good reputations with the never-ending flow of lies, theft, and deception from the Legislative and Executive Branches of the federal government?

Jim Brasfield
Florence

Editor:

I would like to request an answer to a simple question. "How can someone drive around the quad-cities without a current automobile tag?" Some of the vehicles do not even display an outdated tag. I renewed my tags in the month of April for the year at a cost of almost $900. I provided proof of insurance for each vehicle also at the time of the tags purchased. It is strange that some people make an effort to obey the law and some people either ignore or disregard the law. It makes one ask the question, "Does the law not apply to all citizens of the Shoals Area?"

I admire the effort made by the Probate Judge's Offices of Colbert and Lauderdale counties that require proof of insurance before renewing or selling a vehicle tag for the first time. It would make sense to me that if a vehicle did not display a current tag, a law enforcement officer would have reason to stop the vehicle and request to see registration papers. I suppose that the counties would lose money on some of the people by incarcerating them if they could not provide registration papers when asked.

If this is too much to ask, please disregard this letter to the editor and release an all-points bulletin to the effect that current vehicle tags are not required within the quad-cities area. All would be more than happy to see such bulletin. If I had seen such a bulletin, I would have saved almost $900. Thank you very much for your attention to this letter.

SO WHAT'S ON MY PHONE and why should you care? Because I have lots of cool stuff that you may not know exists, is why! The following smartphone apps are things that I find valuable yet are largely unknown by most of you. Some of these are even more valuable than my, er, "bodily sounds generator" app. Mightytext: Install the app on your phone, computer and tablet and all your text messages appear simultaneously on your phone, computer, and tablet. You can respond to texts via your computer's keyboard which is way more handy than the phone's keyboard. Google Voice: Google will give you a free phone number with an area code of your choosing. Once you sign up for a number, you can forward calls made to Google Voice to your smartphone. That enables you to give your Google Voice number to people you may not ever want to actually hear from such as the IRS or a creepy person. When they call, you can choose to answer the call or block it completely. Another nifty feature is that voicemails are transcribed for you and sent to you via text/email if you so choose. For those of you who use Verizon, Verizon Messenger is your stock messaging app on steroids. You can send/receive standard text message, of course. But you can also send your location (handy when trying to hook up with friends). AT&T has a similar product that is not quite as robust. For those traveling internationally, text messages are sent via WiFi when available so you don't have to sign up for an expensive international phone plan when you travel to Tahiti. Facebook members should certainly install Facebook Messenger. It is awesome. Geeks have been gushing over "notebook" organizers like Evernote and OneNote for years but I prefer Google Keep. Keep allows you to organize notes and checklists on your phone that can be shared in real time with others. The most handy feature is the grocery list. Tammy can enter grocery items on the shared checklist at home and I'll instantly see them appear on my list while I'm shopping. Do you have an old iPhone or Android wasting away in a drawer somewhere? Put it to use by turning it into a security camera. Simply download an app called Alfred on your old and newer phone, link the accounts, then mount your old phone in an area you need to monitor. Whenever motion is detected, you'll receive a text message with a picture of the intruder. You can then launch the app and see real time video with audio of whatever's going on. Mount it near your front door to see who's knocking. Set it up in your motel room as a security camera or use it to monitor your pets while you're away. I've shown you mine, now show me yours! Please share with me what apps you can't live without.

WHAT'S ON MY PHONE?

by "The Computer Skeptic"

ASK THE ATTORNEY

Thomas McCutcheon

Ask the Attorney is sponsored by local attorneys, McCutcheon & Hamner, PC, as a service to the residents of NW Alabama.

Q I had a car wreck and my lawyer had to file a lawsuit. Now my lawyer said the judge has ordered us to mediation. Why do I have to go to mediation and is the decision of the mediator final?

Michael, Athens, AL

A Judges often ask that cases be mediated before a full blown trial is held. A mediator is someone trained to seek resolution of issues outside of a court setting. A mediator does not and can not decide the value of a case and impose that value on the parties. If the mediation is not successful then that's all the mediator can tell the court.

Often when all of the parties to a case are brought together with the serious intent of resolving or settling the case, the process of mediation works.

We mediate cases weekly with our clients. Remember that all my firm does is personal injury cases so we are the ones seeking compensation for injuries, lost wages, pain and suffering and all of the types of damages that apply to a particular case.

What I tell my clients is to just relax. It's no big deal for someone to begin offering money to you. It's kind of nice to turn down money. We can not control how much money the other side brings to a mediation. If they bring enough to settle the case, then that is great and we will settle the case. If they don't, we always learn something anyway. It's just not a big deal. You can't let a mediation be a big deal. You have to believe in your case and be prepared to go win in court if the other side is not willing to pay your client fairly.

In some cases, there are solutions other than just money. Sometimes these solutions can involve the timing of payments of money or to whom the money is paid. There was a pretty big road defect case in Birmingham where part of the solution, in addition to payment of money, was to rename the road after the girl who lost her life. Anyway, mediation works a lot of the time, listen to your lawyer, relax and try and enjoy a different experience. It is a lot easier than going to court.

Buckle up and drive safely.

No Limits To The Damage

Editor:

Alabama is at a time of financial crisis like never before in our lifetime. This didn't just happen overnight, but is the result of years of irresponsible spending by those who have been in power too long and are obsessed with the career politician syndrome.

We are the people who are the source of power that can break this up. We can stand together to limit all elective positions to no more than two four-year terms with no benefits. A fantastic savings would result here, but limited space will not allow me to elaborate.

We are currently faced with the lawmakers and governor selling out the morals we have left to all forms of evil in order to feather their own nests and certain special interest groups. There are no provisions in the Constitution that allow such funding for any purpose.

Gambling is liberal and has no limits to the damages that can occur from it. It is also addictive. The ones pushing this gambling issue are in violation of their oath of office and also the section of the Constitution that forever prohibits it. It is also in harsh violation of the Preamble to the Constitution. I believe such negative leadership will come home to them in the end.

We could balance the budget by closing all the doors to non-essential services and at the same time provide incentives that would reduce crime, corruption and waste.

Release Them From the Chain

Dear Editor:

Senate Bill 468 would establish statewide restrictions on unattended dog chaining, giving law enforcement authorities another tool to protect dogs from neglect and abuse. It would also help protect people from being attacked by dogs driven mad by intensive confinement.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention has found that chained dogs are nearly three times more likely to attack than dogs who are not kept chained. According to another study, more than a fourth of fatal dog attacks are by dogs on chains.

Dogs relegated to a chain or kennel 24 hours a day are often deprived of even the most basic care. Growing puppies are often found with too-small collars imbedded in their necks because their owners never bothered to adjust them. Chained dogs terrified by fireworks or thunderstorms hang themselves trying to jump over fences or other objects. Many dogs are denied adequate food, water, shelter, and veterinary care. They suffer and die from injuries and diseases that could easily be prevented and treated.

Adopting SB 468 would make Alabama safer for everyone. Officials in the 19 states and more than 200 jurisdictions around the country that have restricted or banned chaining report a lower number of dog bites and fewer cruelty cases since these laws passed.

It's All About Patriotism

Editor:

Many Democrats and Republicans have called upon America to unite behind Obama, insinuating that it is unpatriotic to disagree with the President. Obama is often referred to by liberals as our Commander-in-Chief. This thinking is not only incorrect, it is dangerous. It feeds the notion that Obama and his cronies have that he is legally a dictator. The Constitution of the United States in Article II, Section 2 reads: "The President shall be the Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, and of the Militia of the several States, when called into the active service of the United States."

The President is not the Commander in Chief of the people of the United States except those in the armed forces. The Obama administration and his enablers in the mainstream media and the entertainment industry have attacked and mocked the values so important to the founding and growth of our country.

They have especially attacked two of our basic freedoms provided in the Constitution, the freedom of speech and the freedom of religion. They have relentlessly endeavored to remove the name of God or Jesus Christ from our Society. How can a patriotic citizen, much less a Christian, unite behind a man with the obvious intent to destroy our system of government?

When you support Obama you are supporting the murder of innocent children through abortion, the radical Marxist concept of re-distributing wealth, redefining marriage to include same sex unions-in opposition to the Word of

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL Bill held all the cards in the power play for Forrester Creations. Ridge vowed to help Caroline get back on her feet. Seeing that Maya's situation had changed, Nicole hoped that her sister would be more forgiving. Rick made one last desperate attempt to keep Ridge from taking over the company. Nick was a great comfort to Maya as she awaited Rick's decision about their future. Wyatt resented Liam's involvement in the fight for Forrester Creations. Word got out around the office about the outcome of Rick and Ridge's struggle for power. Ivy didn't like what was transpiring between Liam and Steffy. Maya wished that she had been honest with Rick sooner. Wait to See: Caroline takes a big step in her recovery.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES Brady was stunned by Melanie's huge sacrifice. Eve and Jennifer got into a heated argument. Will put Sonny on the spot as they tried to work out their troubles. Marlena offered Paul some friendly advice. Brady was forced to bid an emotional farewell to Melanie. Eric uncovered an incriminating photo of Serena. Nicole felt backed into a corner. Will and Sonny got into another squabble. Things heated up between Abigail and Chad. Nicole learned that she might be in more danger than she realized. Serena admitted the truth to Eric, who lashed out at her. Thanks to Parker, Daniel made a surprising discovery. Wait to See: Clyde has a warning for Ben and Chad.

GENERAL HOSPITAL Luke suggested to Tracy that they throw party at the Quartermaine's. Nikolas and Rosalie firmed up their strategy to scam Michael out of his ELQ shares. Silas described a recent incident. Nina felt guilty about what she was doing to Franco. Kiki was surprised by Morgan and Michael's latest truce. Luke paid his respects to Anna about Duke's passing. Lulu reunited with an old friend. Franco gave Nina an ultimatum to end her marriage to Ric. Silas was blackmailed into not revealing his secret. Luke and Sonny reaffirmed their friendship. Tracy and Scott overlooked their differences after Duke's death. An unexpected guest arrived at the Quartermaine's party. Nina called Franco and Nathan's bluff. Wait to See: Morgan finds himself in a compromising position.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS Victor was thrown when Jack's imposter announced his plans for Gabriel and Chelsea. Ashley reminded Chelsea and Adam that they needed to keep things professional at work. Faith asked Sharon if she and Dylan were living together. On the GCAC roof deck, Abby was shocked when Stitch told her that her mom had feelings for him too. Avery and Dylan had difficulty putting their differences aside. Devon was surprised to learn that Hilary had asked to meet with Neil so that she could apologize. Nick and Adam came to blows over Sage. Chelsea wondered if Gabe was the father of Sage's baby. Kevin's meddling put him in hot water with Paul. Wait to See: Ashley faces a health crisis.

dancer, and stilt walker. Some of the featured stage acts include Dorothy Cole, James Street Entertainment, Kush Reggae Band of Huntsville, and Billy Allen.

Wallace D. Ricks of Tuscumbia, an organizer of the festival, is expecting a big crowd. "I've been getting calls from all over the country from people who say they are coming. It's going to be a lot of fun."

The local chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. will provide multiple activities for children and the general public throughout the day on Saturday. The Deltas will collaborate with the local Alabama Cooperative Extension System staff and Home Depot to conduct youth coloring contests, simple home improvement projects, adult and youth nutrition, face painting, and other activities.

There will be numerous vendors on hand with food, clothing, African attire, paintings and a variety of other items. All festival events are free. For more information, call 256-335-2911 or 256-383-0783.

Consumer Confidence Report 2014

for January 2014 through December 2014 - Hawk Pride Mountain Water System

In 1974, the Safe Drinking Water Act (SDWA) was signed into law, requiring all water systems that serve the public to meet national standards for water quality. These standards set limits for certain contaminants and require all public water systems to monitor for these contaminants. If you have any questions concerning water quality, please contact Phillip Potter at 256-381-4520 during office hours 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. You may also attend the monthly board meeting usually held on the second Tuesday of each month. Check with the water office for the time of the meeting. Board members are Jace Kimbrough, Greg Dalrymple and Craig Black.

Required information: Some people may be more vulnerable (than the general population) to contaminants in drinking water. People who are immune-compromised, such as cancer patients undergoing chemotherapy, organ transplant recipients, HIV/AIDS positive or other immune systems disorders, some elderly and some infants can be particularly at risk from infections. People at risk should seek advice from their health care providers about drinking water. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbiological contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791). Based on a study conducted by ADEM with the approval of the EPA, a statewide waiver for the monitoring of asbestos and dioxin was issued. Thus, monitoring for these contaminants was not required.

Total Coliform: The Total Coliform Rule

requires water systems to meet a stricter limit for coliform bacteria. Coliform bacteria are usually harmless, but their presence in water can be an indication of disease-causing bacteria. When coliform bacteria are found, special follow-up tests are done to determine if harmful bacteria are present in the water supply. If this limit is exceeded, the water supplier must notify the public by newspaper, television or radio. To comply with the stricter regulation, Hawk Pride has increased the average amount of chlorine in the distribution system.

Lead: If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing. Hawk Pride Mountain Water System is responsible for providing high quality drinking water but cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline or at <http://www.epa.gov/safewater/lead>.

The water you drink: All drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the Environmental Protection Agency's Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791). The sources of drinking water (both tap water and bottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally-occurring minerals and radioactive materials and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or human activity. MCL's (Maximum Contaminant Level Goals) are set at very stringent levels. To understand the possible health effects for many regulated constituents, a person would have to drink two liters of water every day at the MCL level for a lifetime to have a one-in-a-million chance of having an ill health effect.

Please Note: Immediately following are the definitions of terms and abbreviations found in the tables concerning Primary Drinking Water Contaminants and Contaminants Detected.

Maximum Contaminant Level Goal or MCLG – the level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLG's allow for a margin of safety.

Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL) – this is the highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCL's are set as close to the MCLG's as feasible while using the best available treatment technology.

Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level Goal (MRDLG) – the level of drinking water disinfectant below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLG's do not reflect the benefits of the use of disinfectants to control microbial contaminants.

Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level (MRSL) – the highest level of a disinfectant allowed in drinking water; there is convincing evidence that addition of a disinfectant is necessary for control of microbial contaminants.

Action Level – The concentration of a contaminant that triggers treatment, or other requirements that a water system must follow

Treatment Technique (TT) – A required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.

Parts per million (ppm) or Milligrams per liter (mg/l) – One part per million corresponds to one minute in 2 years or a single penny in $10,000.

Parts per billion (ppb) or Micrograms per liter – One part per billion corresponds to one minute in 2,000 years or a single penny in $10,000,000.

Parts per trillion (ppt) or Nanograms per liter (nanograms/l) – One part per trillion corresponds to one minute in 2,000,000 years or a single penny in $10,000,000,000.

Parts per quadrillion (ppq) or Picograms per liter (picograms/l) – one part per quadrillion corresponds to one minute in 2,000,000,000 years or one penny in $10,000,000,000,000.

Picocuries per liter (pCi/l) – picocuries per liter is a measure of the radioactivity in water.

Millirems per year (mrem/yr) – measure of radiation absorbed by the body.

Nephelometric Turbidity Unit (NTU) – nephelometric turbidity unit is a measure of the clarity of water. Turbidity in excess of 5 NTU is just noticeable to the average person.

Disinfectant Byproducts – contaminants formed when chlorine is used as a disinfectant.

ND – None detected

NOTE: The tables list all of the drinking water contaminants that we detected during the calendar year of this report. The presence of contaminants in the water does not necessarily indicate that the water poses a health risk. Unless otherwise noted, the data presented in these tables is from testing done in the calendar year of the report. The EPA or ADEM requires us to monitor for certain contaminants less than once per year because the concentrations of these contaminants do not change frequently.

God, the belief that radical Islam is our friend and Israel is our enemy who should give up land to the Muslims, and the belief that Christians should be allowed to worship within the four walls of their church buildings, but should not be free to express their religious beliefs in public. Our first president, George Washington, said that anyone who labored to subvert religion and morality have no right to claim to be a patriot. "Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports.

In vain would that man claim the tribute of patriotism who should labor to subvert these great pillars of human happiness, these firmest props of the duties of man and citizens. The mere politician, equally with the pious man, ought to respect and to cherish them. A volume could not trace all their connexions with private and public felicity. Let it simply be asked, Where is the security for property, for reputation, for life, if the sense of religious obligation desert the oaths, which are the instruments of investigation in Courts of Justice?

And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle. It is substantially true, that virtue or morality is a necessary spring of popular government. The rule, indeed, extends with more or less force to every species of free government. Who, that is a sincere friend to it, can look with indifference upon attempts to shake the foundation of the fabric?"

How to Handle an Old 401(k)

Upon making the transition to a new job or retiring, many people are unsure about what to do with their 401(k) or other retirement plans linked to their employer. Handling this transition can be costly, and many men and women might benefit from the advice of a professional financial advisor to help them navigate these waters without breaking the bank.

Some men and women may think they're forced to cash out their retirement accounts when moving on to new companies. But, depending on a person's age, that's a potentially costly option that can incur heavy penalties. Fortunately, cashing out is not the only option men and women have as they try to figure out what to do with their retirement accounts after retiring or moving on to new companies.

Keep the money with your former employer

Some employers allow former employees to keep their retirement savings in their plans. This allows men and women to avoid early withdrawal penalties and lets them continue to defer paying taxes on retirement savings accounts until they reach retirement age and need to start withdrawing money. Another benefit to keeping money in an employer retirement plan even after you leave the company is it protects you if there are rollover restrictions governing any additional accounts you might have transferred the money into.

Employers who do allow former employees to keep their money in retirement plans likely included certain language in those plans that govern how the account is managed after employees leave the company. For example, former employees may no longer be able to contribute to the plan or take out plan loans. In addition, when the time comes to withdraw money, you may or may not be allowed to make partial withdrawals from accounts linked to former employers. Read the fine print to determine if keeping the plan with a former employer makes the most sense for you.

Rollover into your new employer's retirement plan

Some people have the option to rollover a 401(k) from a previous employer into their new employer's plan. But not all companies allow this. If you are allowed to do so, this can make the transition that much easier while still allowing tax-deferred growth on your assets. In addition, if you can rollover into your new employer's plan, you may be allowed to take out loans based on the amount of your combined plan instead of just loans against new contributions. Rollover and plan loan eligibility should be confirmed with your new employer.

Before rolling over money into your new employer's plan, confirm your investment options under the new plan. If they pale in comparison to an IRA, you might want to rollover your retirement assets into an IRA that offers more investment options.

Rollover into an IRA

Many men and women look to rollover an old 401(k) into an IRA, as traditional and Roth IRAs may offer a wider variety of investment options than a previous or current employer's retirement plan. Taxes differ depending on which type of IRA you choose to roll your funds into, so discuss your IRA options with your financial advisor to determine if this is the best way to go.

Really Good Citizens

The other day I was reminded of "Citizenship" grades. I was talking with a kindergarten teacher, and she was lamenting of the number of times recently that her students had to pull tabs here in the last few days of school. (In some classrooms, if a student is called out, they will pull their green tab which leaves the yellow tab showing. If they have to later pull their yellow tab it will leave their red tab showing. When the red shows the teacher might talk to the parent or send a note home or have the student sit near the teacher's desk or maybe even sit out a little bit of recess, etc.) It appears that there is a need and an uptick of pulling tabs to help with classroom management here in the end of school when special events and excitement are high. I commented that if pulling tabs had been the marker for unruly behavior when I was in school, then I would have been busy pulling. But the markers that we had back in the day were grades in "Citizenship".

I didn't do well in "Citizenship". In elementary school where these grades were allotted on your report card, I was a straight "A" student, but an unsatisfactory citizen. I got a "U" most nine weeks. These grades had the same purpose that pulling tabs does - to encourage decorum and order in the classroom. But I talked too much. I was not a good citizen because I distracted from the educational environment and community. I talked out to the teacher and I talked to my neighbors. And this was unsatisfactory. But I still talk. People who share my office, now, often comment about how I have great conversations with myself.

And the bad thing is that I passed it on. Years ago, my daughter's first tab pulling experience in school was accompanied with the words, "You are not the teacher". I am sure that my girl was talking/teaching/telling somebody something she thought they needed to hear. I guess the nut doesn't fall too far from the nut tree. When I think about it, my mom told a story about correcting her principal/math teacher in junior high algebra. He eventually had the math book changed.

I come from a crowd of talkers and we have all ended up being teachers of one kind or another. I am convinced that most unruly elementary school citizens either have too much going on outside the classroom or not enough going on inside the classroom. The non-hostile trouble-makers are usually just trying to exercise their talents and interests. I am also convinced that most of us creative types end up doing what we got in trouble for in elementary school - whether it's doodling to painting or talking to teaching or playing music all day to creating music all night. We end up being pretty productive citizens.

Teachers enjoy your break from the mundane parts of your jobs - classroom management, paper pushing and perhaps dealing with unruly adult citizens. Do some things that you love. Revitalize. And moms and dads of the tab-pullers, this summer, find ways for your talented little rogues to express themselves. Unharness their creativity. Leave good books around. Take them to the symphony or ballet. Buy them an art kit. Use the summer. Aim them toward being good citizens. It's summer - let's go!

SKIPPY is a handsome boy who is easy going & sweet. His $15 ADOPTION FEE from the Colbert Shelter includes his vaccines & neuter! This adult boy would love to go home in loving arms. Won't you call the shelter today & find out more about him?

Hi! I'm KATRINA & I'm the sweetest Boxer girl you'll ever meet! My favorite thing to do, besides getting treats, is giving you hugs. I like to play with other dogs but I'm happiest when I'm with my human. And I love kids too! Won't you please take me home? I'm currently enjoying life in rescue in Sheffield until I find my forever home! I'm 3 years old, spayed and fully vetted! ADOPTION FEE $75, giant crate included with adoption. Please call, text or leave a message Michelle Ray, 256-762-6111.

Hi! My name is BUDDY. I have been to training classes and I am a very good boy! I like to show off my manners and hear the clicker! Then, I get a treat! I was born May, 2014 and am a terrier mix about 30 to 35 pounds. I am not very big at all! I would make the perfect family pet. I LOVE all people who are nice to me. Would you like to meet me??? Please call PAWS at 256-383-0690 for more information!

TIP is a handsome, blue eyed, Husky mix with a white tip on his tail. Tip is very friendly, crate trained, and gets along with other dogs. He is neutered, up-to-date on shots, and heart worm negative. Tip will make a wonderful addition to any home. He prefers an inside/outside home with a fenced yard. If you would like to make Tip a part of your family, please call 256-974-3370

Rescue. Adopt)
The promotion will take place Saturday, June 6 at Tractor Supply Co. at 535 Avalon Avenue in Muscle Shoals. You're invited to experience the inspired Lincoln collection for 2015. With every test drive from 9am-4pm during Saturday's Driven to Give event, Lincoln will donate $20 to H.A.S.R.A. up to $8,000.

No purchase is necessary. Drivers must be 18 and have a valid driver's license and valid automobile insurance. There will be a free hot dog for all test drivers, a free jump House pass for the kids, and free pastries from Panera Bread.

Group entrants may also compete to earn FREE pizza for up to twelve from Papa John's if your group takes the most test drives. Just register with your name and affiliated group when you arrive for the test drive.

affectionately call a "granny." Barry is currently listed as the fourth best NBA free throw shooter of all time, making 90% of his attempts.

The third best free throw shooter of all time is current Golden State playmaker and sharp-shooter, Stephen (Steph) Curry. He also shoots 90% from the free throw line using the more traditional form.

Since their last trip to the finals 40 years ago, Golden State missed the playoffs 29 times and only won a total of seven playoff series.

This year's team had a league-best 67-15 record in the regular season. They are the first team since the 1980-'81 Philadelphia 76ers to lead the league in both field goal percentage and field goal defense.

Even though I am not a fan of his, it's hard not to have tremendous respect for Cavs star, LeBron James. He was a phenom in high school who had an immediate impact in the NBA with the Cavs at age 19. He literally carried them to their first NBA finals a few years later in 2007. He left for Miami in 2010. While the Cavs' fortunes sunk, LeBron and Dwayne Wade led the Heat to four consecutive NBA finals and two NBA titles. He's back with the Cavs this year and has them in the finals looking for their first ever NBA title. That is in spite of the fact that other key Cleveland players have been injured. LeBron also finally decided to marry his high school sweetheart with whom he has two sons.

What makes LeBron such a special player is the combined physical ability, his unselfishness, his absolute knowledge of the basketball, a level head, and his knowledge of the other players - his team AND the opposition. He literally makes everyone around him better. Decent players become good players and good players become outstanding players. It's an intangible that can't easily be explained or replicated. LeBron should have six-to-eight good years left as a player if he stays healthy. He will likely go down as the best to ever play in the NBA.

The NBA Finals begin Thursday in Oakland. I'm pulling for the Warriors. As the Seals & Crofts' classic tune from their Greatest Hits in '75 reminds us, We May Never Pass This Way Again.

WATERFRONT PROPERTY AUCTION
Thursday Evening June 4th @ 6:30 P.M.
Over 500' Water Frontage on Beautiful Wilson Lake
Estate Sized Building Tract containing 2.56 acres +/-
Large Water View Tract containing 1.63 acres +/-

Truly Spectacular Property located on Veterans Drive, Muscle Shoals, Alabama! This is a must see property! With 509' of water frontage and over 200' of paved road frontage, this is a very rare find!
The 2.56 acre Waterfront Tract has recently been cleaned up leaving only the mature, towering trees with more than one site for the home of your dreams. There is plenty of room to build a sprawling waterfront estate that would make the entire area envious.
The 1.63 acre Water View Tract is wooded, and situated on a nice knoll that affords a great view of the lake. The Tract has several feet of paved road frontage. Utilities are available to each tract and ready for you to build that once in a lifetime dream home on Wilson Lake.

This property is only a stones throw from The Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail "The Shoals" boasting The Fighting Joe, over 8,000 yards, named in honor of General Joseph "Fighting Joe" Wheeler and The Schoolmaster named in honor of president Woodrow Wilson who was responsible for getting Wilson Dam built.

DIRECTIONS: From Muscle Shoals, Helton Drive at Wilson Dam: Take River Road (East) 7 1/2 miles to Gargis Hollow Road, turn North, go to Veterans Drive turn right, go 1 1/4 miles to property.

Week...

A new addition to Restaurant Week this year was the creation of a Best Special dish and Favorite Restaurant award. The Favorite Restaurant award was based on an online popularity vote and went to the Pie Factory.

The award for Best Special went to Trowbridge's for their Oh-My-Gosh! McDaniel Window and Door was the presenting sponsor for restaurant Week again this year. Winning the grand prize check of $5,000 was Shoals Sav-A-Life, a local pregnancy and counseling center. "We are so grateful to McDaniel Window and Door for this wonderful donation, to Florence Main Street for planning such a great event, to all restaurants who worked

Cherokee High School Legend

Over the school's long and storied athletic history, Cherokee High School has produced some of the Shoals area's most outstanding athletes. The Colbert County Sports Hall of Fame is a testimony to that fact. The Hall of Fame contains many former athletes who have left their mark on the local sports scene.

Several weeks ago, the Hall of Fame inducted another of the school's all-time greatest sports stars when Velvious Goodloe became a member of the 2015 class. Goodloe was a three-sport star for the Indians in the early 90s. He lettered 4 years in basketball, 3 years in football and 2 years in track.

During his senior year in basketball, Goodloe averaged 24 points and 10 rebounds per game. He was named All-Area, All-County, and was chosen as the TimesDaily 1A-3A Player of the Year. While a member of the Indians track team, he set the Alabama state record in the long jump.

After graduation, Goodloe signed a basketball scholarship with Shoals Community College where he led the Stallions in scoring, averaging 21 points per game. During his sophomore, Goodloe was named to the All-A.J.C.C. team and played in the conference All-Star game.

Following Junior College, Goodloe signed a basketball scholarship with Middle Tennessee State University. His most memorable performance came in an overtime win over nationally-ranked Vanderbilt, leading the Blue Raiders with a 14-point performance. Add Velvious Goodloe to the list of Cherokee High School's all-time greatest legends.

Denominations?

A denomination is "a large group of religious congregations united under a common faith and name, usually organized under a single administrative and legal hierarchy." (American Heritage Dictionary) Can you read about denominations in the Bible? You may be surprised to learn that you cannot. Christ alone is the Head of His church (Colossians 1:18) and you will not find in your Bible any other administration or legal hierarchy that oversees His congregations. If you are a part of a denomination then by definition you are under the leadership of a governing body overseeing multiple congregations. The governing body may be identified as some type of general authority, a diocese, a presidency, a watchtower, a conference, or by some other name.

The organization of Christ's church is simple. Christ is the Head. (Ephesians 5:23) The local congregation has a simple organizational structure of elders, deacons, and saints. (Please see: Philippians 1:1, Acts 20:28) We learn in Scripture, from the apostle Peter, that the oversight of the eldership is limited to the local congregation itself. "Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, ..." (I Peter 5:2). Each local congregation, identified in the New Testament Scriptures, was independent of the other. There was no governing body, administration, or hierarchy overseeing them save Jesus Christ, its Founder and Head. "And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him." Colossians 3:17

Is your church united and organized under an administration or legal hierarchy? You might want to ask.

Red Bay WellCare Center will offer a series of classes this summer. Water Aerobics classes will be offered at the City Pool on Tuesdays and Thursdays. In addition, Justin Cox (Red Bay WellCare's Fitness Specialist) will offer Boot Camp classes on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

Water aerobics is a low-impact class for all age and skill levels, 14 years and older. You do not have to swim to participate. Instead, classes involve water walking, jogging, and others water activities to provide cardiovascular and resistance exercises. Classes are 45 minutes in length.

Boot Camp is a 30-45 minute class, offered outdoors, that will involve strength conditioning using body weight and free weight equipment. The class will include a cardiovascular component with increased repetitions of activities and some intermittent running. The class can be modified to all age and skill levels, 14 years and older.

If you are interested in either class, please call the WellCare Center at 256-356-1162.
