GLASGOW, GOLDA C. "GOLDIE" - 99, Tullahoma, TN. Celebration of Life is planned at Grubb Funeral Home, 215 S. 6th St., Wytheville, VA. (276)228-3101; grubbffh@hotmail.com. Expressions of sympathy may be sent to the family at www.grubbfuneralhome.com (once the portal and celebration of life date are established). Burial in Bethany Methodist Church Cemetery, Austinville, VA. Mrs. Glasgow passed away peacefully June 27, 2020, surrounded by family. She recently celebrated her 99th birthday (June 14, 1921). Ms. Goldie was of the "greatest generation", growing up during the Great Depression in rural SW Virginia. She was the oldest of 11 children. Ms. Goldie left Austinville, VA a few years after high school graduation and traveled to Washington D.C. She rode the train to interview for a job with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. She was hired in 1943. She performed her duties diligently and soon was promoted to a supervisory position in the fingerprint division. Her work history began during the crucial war years. She met, dated, and finally married a career Navy Officer, thus beginning her new career as a military wife, moving wherever the Navy stationed them. Upon her husband's retirement from the Navy in 1964, the family moved to Tullahoma, TN where he began a second career with Arnold Engineering and Development Center. Upon retirement from that job in 1983, they remained in Tullahoma and then decided to return to Virginia in 1992. Her husband died from injuries received in a car wreck during the transition. She continued building the house in Virginia and then moved there, where she resided until she was 95. During the 24 year return to her hometown area, she remained independent, living by herself and driving each day. She was proud of herself to continue to drive until almost 96 years of age. Her son moved her back to Tullahoma in 2016 for safety reasons. She learned to adjust to assisted living and made many friends at Morning Pointe. Displaying the greatest characteristics of her generation, she was humble, proactive, kept faithful commitments, had great integrity, knew how to survive, and exhibited personal responsibility. She dedicated her life to doing the "right thing". She bestowed these values to her children. She loved gardening, and was well known for her vegetables, along with her pecan pies and carrot cakes. She read health related magazines and was very health conscious. She enjoyed making Kombucha tea, a healthy fermented tea. In fact, her granddaughter, Melanie Wade Styles, opened the first and finest Kombucha manufacturing plant in the state of Georgia, known as Golda Kombucha LLC. It continues to thrive with Ms. Goldie's picture and personal story on many products. Her son says that it was an honor to assist her and traveled extensively with her the last 21 years of her life. He says that she had a wonderful responsible personality, complemented with a splash of drama. It made for a unique and exciting combination of personality traits. She kept everyone laughing wherever they found themselves in their travels. He says that she loved to eat at Cracker Barrel restaurants and always asked for a table near the fireplace in the winter months. She continued, to the last days, to give the orders and expected everyone to comply with them. Her son says it was a joy to see someone still in control of their life at such an old age. Her youngest daughter, Kathy, says that Ms. Golda's loving, but opinionated strong personality will be sadly missed by all her friends, caregivers, and family. She was preceded in death by her husband, Earl Robert Glasgow. Survivors include her children, Brenda Eaves (Richard), Snellville, GA, Ron Glasgow, Tullahoma, TN, and Kathy Inman (Scotty), Woodstock, GA; five grandchildren; six great grandchildren; sister, Audene Bogart; and brothers, Glenn Cox and Wayne Cox. She will truly be missed by many people. DAVES-CULBERTSON FUNERAL HOME, Tullahoma, TN. (931)455-3481.

This is Sunny

Nice to meet you! I'm Sunny, the most under estimated little girl. I came from a situation that could have been extremely bad for me, thankfully I was able to get out of and now enjoy life like I should! I am the best girl and I mean the very best! I do have a lot of energy cooped up inside of me because of my previous situation, I didn't have that much room to roam in at all. With that being said, I will definitely need a fenced in area to roam and get all of my energy out, if not then walks are A MUST! If you're looking for a playmate for your baby at home, I can be the one for I love other dogs. I am still pretty much a puppy too so training will be absolutely easy if it falls in place ASAP. Plus, I'm just an overall smart and amazing girl who can't wait to give someone the love they truly deserve because I'm confident that I am the one! If you're interested in me, please call 931-454-9580 to set up an appointment with me. If you do have another furbaby, please feel free to bring him/her along so we can have a little meet and greet.
