Dear "Speakout,"

We continue our study of our wonderful "Declaration of Independence" with the hope of learning more of our history, becoming more patriotic Americans and protecting our liberties.

Last week we saw that King George III would dissolve any assemblies which he saw as against his tyrannical rule. The king would appoint other officials to represent himself in his interests. These officials could not be removed from their offices by the people of the colonies. They were forced to rely on Great Britain to protect the colonies from invasion and internal turmoil: "He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the state remaining in the meantime exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within."

The king would prevent immigrants from becoming naturalized citizens and refused to pass laws to encourage any immigration. He passed laws which limited how new lands would be gained.

"He has endeavored to prevent the population of these states; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migration hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands. The colonists were left without recourse in times in which they needed judicial powers to adjudicate their legal matters: "He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers."

He would appoint judges of his choice to do his bidding and decided just how long they would remain in office: "He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries."

The king would appoint numerous officials whose primary purpose were to harass the colonists and to remove their property: "He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance."

Unlike the liberties which we enjoy today where the military are subject to civil authority, the military were placed in the communities to control the colonists and maintain tyranny: "He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies without the consent of our legislature. He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to civil power." The colonists were not represented by elected officials but they were subject to a king from another continent for their rights: "He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation."

Large numbers of military were stationed in the communities of the colonists. The military were immune from any acts of murder and mayhem which they committed against the colonists and were tried in mock trials which approved such acts: "For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us: For protecting them, by mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these states:..."

Great Britain would not allow the colonists to trade with other countries but were dependent on the import of English goods: "For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world: For imposing taxes on us without our consent:..."

Dear "Speak Out,"

An open letter to our local police, firefighters and all who protect the public:

My heart is broken for our country. I know what is really going on, this insane political hijacking. I'm so sick of it all, yet it continues to escalate. It's no accident, it's their plan.

But this one citizen wants to say THANK YOU to our police officers, our Fire Department, our first responders, and all who work every day to protect us.

KNOW that you are APPRECIATED and we are grateful for your service. I can walk the streets of our town and I feel safe, because of YOU. The dark political forces are trying to infect even little towns like ours, spreading fear and falsehood. But I support our police - you risk your lives for us every day.

On my street, the American flag hangs proudly. And when they try to make me take it down, I will defend it.

Thank you!

Livingston County Joins National Push for Flexible Fiscal Aid to State and Local Governments

Livingston County, as a member of the National Association of Counties (NACo), has joined a nationwide coalition of over 170 businesses and organizations appealing to the United States Senate to immediately provide support to state and local governments due to financial damage caused by the COVID-19 pandemic.

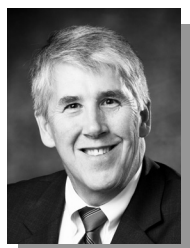

On June 29, 2020, the coalition sent a letter to Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell and Minority Leader Chuck Schumer stating that the pandemic has affected major revenue sources and threatens services and jobs in areas such as education, public safety, healthcare and transportation. According to the letter, nearly 15 million Americans are employed by state and local governments. Over 1.6 million state and local government jobs have been lost since March 2020.

Livingston County Administrator Ian M. Coyle stated, "Our local governments in Livingston County and across the nation have to begin their fiscal years on time and with a balanced budget. An infusion of direct, flexible funds from the federal government will help offset unprecedented budget shortfalls and sales tax implications as we continue to respond to the COVID-19 crisis." Coyle continued, "We are urging the federal government to act immediately on a relief package so that we can begin to get our local economy back on track and continue to provide vital programs and services to our residents."

It is anticipated that the Senate will address the next coronavirus relief package when its members return from their two-week Fourth of July recess.

Friends of Letchworth Scholarship Awarded

Pierce McPherson is this year's winner of the Friends of Letchworth Scholarship Contest. Pierce was a senior at Letchworth Central School. The contest was open to all senior class members of the five schools surrounding Letchworth State Park.

Presentation of the award was made by Park Manager Douglas Kelly in an outdoor ceremony at the Humphrey Nature Center. Pierce was accompanied by his mother, Kate Sherling.

The theme of this year's competitive essays was "How the philanthropy of William Pryor Letchworth changed our region and how the philanthropy of a local person from our five county area has also changed our region".

Pierce graduated in June from Letchworth Central School as well as from Genesee Community College with an Associate Degree in Natural Sciences. Pierce plans to attend Cornell University in the Fall to study Psychology.

The FOLSP Scholarship is a $1,000 award funded by the Friends of Letchworth State Park and donations from individuals interested in promoting this beautiful park through a yearly scholarship program.

For more information about Friends of Letchworth State Park, call 585-493-3600 or visit: www.friendsofletchworth.com.

RADON is a cancer-causing radioactive gas that you cannot see, smell or taste. Radon is produced in the soil and moves upward to enter your home through the foundation or with groundwater from a well. The only way to know if you are at risk is to have your home tested for the presence of radon. The Livingston County Department of Health recommends that all households be tested for radon levels, and can provide free radon test kits to Livingston County residents who own a home. For more information on radon or to request a radon test kit, please call 243-7280.

NHANCE OF WESTERN NEW YORK

We are a cabinet refacing and refinishing company located in East Avon looking to expand our team. The right candidate will need an aptitude for creative problem solving, a handyman temperament and a willingness to learn. A history in light carpentry, paint spraying and wood refinishing would be a plus, but we are willing to train the right person. Much of our work is done in our customers' homes, so a consideration of the customer while we work is needed at all times.

If you would like to learn a trade that has a great future, we might have the opportunity you are looking for!

A clean driver's record and the ability to pass a background check is a must. We need full and part-time teammates who can work both independently and as a team. If you would like to discuss the opportunity, please e-mail your resume and/or information to bertalove@gvpennysaver.com
