Some Special 'Southernisms'

Well....Bless my grits and fry my tomatoes!

Only a true Southerner knows the difference between a hissie fit and a conniption fit, and that you don't "HAVE" them--You pitch a hissie fit, and throw a conniption fit.

Only a true Southerner knows how many fish are in "a mess."

Only a true Southerner can show or point out to you the general direction of "yonder."

Only a true Southerner knows exactly how long "directly" is - as in: "Going to town, be back directly."

All true Southerners, even babies, know that "Gimme some sugar" is not a request for the white, granular sweet substance that sits in a pretty little bowl on the middle of the table.

All true Southerners know exactly when "by and by" is.

Only a true Southerner knows and understands the difference between a redneck, a good ol' boy, and po' white trash.

A true Southerner knows that "fixin'" can be used as a noun, a verb, or an adverb.

Only a true Southerner knows that the term "booger" can be a resident of the nose, or a descriptive, as in "that ol' booger," or a first name or something that jumps out at you in the dark and scares you senseless.

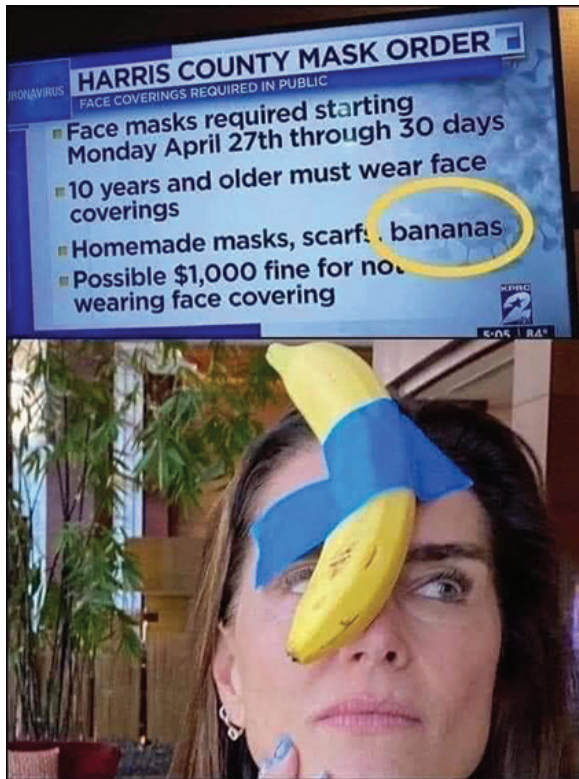

Only true Southerners make friends while standing in lines. We don't do "queues," we stand in "lines," and when we're "in line," we talk to everybody!

True Southerners never refer to one person as "y'all."

True Southerners know grits come from corn and how to eat them.

Only true Southerners say "sweet milk." "Sweet milk" means you don't want buttermilk.

And a true Southerner knows you don't scream obscenities at little old ladies who drive 30 MPH on the freeway. You just say, "Bless her little heart...!" and go on your way.

FLASH BACK

POP ROCK & SOUL TRIVIA BY WILSON CASEY

1. Name the band that originally called itself Salty Peppers.
2. Which group released an album titled "Rumours"?
3. Who released "Some Time in New York City"?
4. What is the stage name of Stuart Leslie Goddard?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "There goes my old girlfriend, there's another diamond ring, All those late night promises, I guess they don't mean a thing."

Answers

1. Earth, Wind & Fire. The name came from astrological elements earth, wind and fire, leaving out water. The group was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, has a Hollywood Walk of Fame star and has won six Grammys.
2. Fleetwood Mac, in 1977. The album, their 11th, included the hits "Go Your Own Way" and "Don't Stop." It took the Album of the Year award at the 20th Grammys in 1978.
3. Plastic Ono Elephant's Memory, in 1972. It was a collaboration between John Lennon, Yoko Ono and Elephant's Memory and Invisible Strings.
4. Adam Ant, originally of Adam and the Ants.
5. "What It Takes," by Aerosmith in 1989. The song appeared on their album "Pump." Have the alternative album? There's a hidden six-minute instrumental track after "What It Takes."

The Garden Bug

Bridal bouquets

In ancient times, garlands or flowers symbolized the bride's fertility. In the Middle Ages, wedding bouquets were packed with pungent herbs; garlic, spices and dill were used to fend off evil spirits and bad luck that might plague the bride and the guests. The tradition of tossing the bouquet began from guests tearing pieces from the bride's dress for good luck; the bride would divert attention from this practice by throwing either the bouquet or the garter.

* If you go to a yard sale and an item catches your eye, don't be afraid to haggle. If the owner can't agree to your price, give him your name and phone number. If it doesn't sell, he might be ready to accept a lower price.

* "You can sprinkle a bit of baking soda on your porcelain sinks for a non-harsh scrub. It serves a double purpose, because it will also freshen and absorb odors, then get washed right down the drain!" -- M.M. in Texas

* Wash and save yogurt cups for kids to use for painting. You can set several in a jelly roll pan to keep them together and upright.

* "I have a beautiful glass window in my front door. Unfortunately, once a day, the sun comes streaming through it and seems to magnify. I have a couple of hooks that are backed by suction cups. I can hang a garden flag from the hooks to cover the window. Sometimes I even use it at night for privacy. It still looks pretty from the other side if I don't take it down, and it didn't involve any holes in my door!" -- W.D. in Kentucky

* Make-up bags make the perfect place to stash extra cords and accessories for your computer or other devices. Put them in a basket and all your tech will stay orderly.

* Car Wash Tips: Use a soap that's made for vehicles, because it's less likely to strip the protective coating off your paint. Don't wash in full sun if possible. If you must, then work in small sections to keep soap from drying on the car. Rinse off your sponge regularly -- the dirt and grime can scratch the surface. Use a microfiber cloth to dry.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Starting something new is always exciting for the adventurous Aries. And here's the good news: This time you might be able to get some assistance in helping you finish what you've started.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Put your daydreaming penchant on hold for now, and face the facts as they are, not as you'd like them to be. Your customary hardheaded approach to "deals," etc., is called for.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Problems beyond your control might delay some of your plans. But things should start to get back to normal by midweek. The weekend could bring an unexpected (but welcome) visitor.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) It's a good time to buckle down and tackle those unfinished tasks so you'll be ready to take on other projects. The week's end could bring an invitation from a most surprising source.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Mixed signals could create a few stressful moments for the Lion. But by midweek, explanations should help ease the tension. The weekend is party time! Share it with someone special.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) This is a good "catching up" week for finishing tasks, calling old friends and maybe reading that book you haven't opened yet or renting that movie you wanted to see again.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Money matters should be worked out, even if it takes time away from a more romantic situation. Better to settle things before feelings turn hard and angry on all sides.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A job-related problem could turn out to be less troublesome than it seemed at first. Just a few moments of talk 'twixt the parties resolves everything to everyone's satisfaction.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) The Sagittarian Archer takes aim at health and fitness issues this week. Watch your diet, and try to put more exercise time into your typically busy schedule.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) As you continue to focus on a career or job change, it's a good time to look over some of your rarely used skills and see where they can fit into your future workplace plans.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A loved one's health might be worrisome, but there's good news by midweek. Expect people who share your ideas and your goals to try to contact you by the week's end.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A colleague's request that makes the typically perceptive Pisces feel uncomfortable is a request you probably will want to turn down. The weekend favors family get-togethers.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a gift for making others feel warm and wanted. Even newcomers will feel like old friends.

July 16, 2020
By Paulette Dean

In these times that continue to be uncertain and even surreal, today we want to share a simply cute story.

Many of you may have met Buddy, our umbrella cockatoo. We have had him for over 14 years, after we obtained him through an auction down in Greensboro when a breeding facility went out of business. Buddy has been quite the little on-line media star and is a favorite of shelter visitors.

A couple of weeks ago, we received a double yellow headed Amazon parrot, Sunny Boy, from a woman who could no longer care for him because of her health issues. She had him since he hatched, about 20 years ago. The poor guy had a little bit of an adjustment period and was very quiet. He seemed so sad.

Buddy doesn't like it when we have other large birds and yells quite loudly about it. Buddy is put into "time-out" in the bird room sometimes when he yells non-stop. After a few days of Buddy expressing his dismay at having another large bird here, we put Buddy into the bird room.

Buddy yelled and screeched and yelled. The Amazon is a very good talker (many Amazons are) and he said, "Be quiet." Buddy kept yelling, so Sunny Boy repeated, "Be quiet." After several minutes of Buddy yelling, Sunny Boy said loudly, "Boy, shut up!"

Now, Buddy seems to have made a friend. The two of them dance when they see each other. Sunny Boy tries his best to talk with Buddy. Sunny Boy now spends time out of his cage and the two birds enjoy the time they spend together.

Everyone needs a friend!

Loving Cup

In past centuries before the invention of the camera, heroes and celebrities were remembered with figurines, prints and plates, and mugs of glass or ceramics. Coronations, royal weddings, major exhibitions and historic events were commemorated by souvenirs with depictions of the people or the event. The Royal Doulton Co. made many figurines of attractive imaginary people and animals. The company started making several sizes of small character jugs honoring fictional as well as real people in 1930, and it still makes a few new ones each year. Most sell today for under $100.

Thirty limited edition loving cups and jugs (pitchers) about 10 inches high were made from 1930 to 1938, and two that honor Queen Elizabeth, one at her coronation in 1953, the other at her Silver Jubilee in 1977. The pieces designed by Charles Noke, molded with raised figures and decorated in bright colors, are rare. Each has a special mark on the bottom explaining the history of the hero and events pictured. The standard Royal Doulton Co. mark, a lion and crown, also is used. These limited editions were selling for more than $1,000 each until about 10 years ago, when all Doulton prices fell.

A commemorative Admiral Lord Nelson loving cup auctioned at Skinner Auctions in Boston in 2015 for $800. Lord Nelson was a naval hero who fought in many naval battles and seemed unstoppable. He lost an arm in one battle, an eye in another, and he was finally killed at the Battle of Trafalgar Bay in 1805. On one side of the loving cup is a picture of the one-armed admiral in his ship; a sinking ship and lifeboat with sailors is on the other side.

Q. I have a silver spoon marked with a small hallmark: the letter "S" in the middle of wings. I'd like to know the maker and when it was made.

A. This mark was used by George W. Shiebler, who started his company in Baltimore in 1876. He moved to Brooklyn and the company

Lord Nelson is honored on this Royal Doulton limited-edition loving cup made in 1935. Only 600 were made. This one sold for $800. It was accompanied by the original signed certificate which adds value.

name became George W. Shiebler & Co. in 1891. It went out of business in 1910. The company made flatware, hollowware, souvenir spoons and specialty items. A sterling teaspoon is worth about $25 to $50. A plated teaspoon sells for only $10 to $15.

CURRENT PRICES

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Lorne Michaels, longtime producer of "Saturday Night Live," is one smart cookie. He signs his SNL players to a contract that ties them to him for many years to come. The latest are Pete Davidson and Colin Hanks preparing to star in "The Worst Man," which Michaels will produce, his 18th film starring SNL cast members. Davidson scored big with "The King of Staten Island." Ironically, Colin Hanks also is from Staten Island and appeared in "Staten Island Summer" in 2015 and "How to be Single" in 2016, but this will be his first starring role. He's also scored big with Scarlett Johansson, whom he's engaged to marry.

Another SNL alum, Kristen Wiig, has written "Barb and Star Go to Vista Del Mar" with Annie Mumolo. It co-stars Jamie Dornan, Damon Wayans Jr. and Wendi McLendon-Covey, for a July 16 opening. Best friends from the Midwest vacationing in Florida get entangled in a villain's plans to kill everyone in town. We're laughing already.

Nicole Kidman

Nicole Kidman hasn't let COVID-19 slow her down. In addition to the film of the Broadway hit "The Prom," she's shooting the historical film "The Northman," with her former "Little Big Lies" husband Alexander Skarsgard, his "It" star brother Bill Skarsgard and Willem Dafoe. Alexander has already completed "Passing," with Tessa Thompson and Ruth Negga, and has a November 2021 release date for "Godzilla vs. Kong" in IMAX and 3-D, with Eiza Gonzalez, Millie Bobby Brown, Rebecca Hall and Kyle Chandler.

Just when you thought Will Ferrell couldn't get crazier ... he does. His latest, "Eurovision Song Contest" dropped June 26 via Netflix, with him sporting long hair, an Icelandic accent and a rock persona. Ferrell and Rachel McAdams play singers Lars Ericks and Sigrit Ericksdottir as they are given the chance to represent Iceland at the Eurovision Song Contest (big in Europe, hardly known in the U.S.). Aiding and abetting them are Dan Stevens, Pierce Brosnan and Demi Lovato.

HBO has confirmed that there will be a "Friends" reunion. It's being called "The One Where They Got Back Together," with Jennifer Aniston, Lisa Kudrow, Courtney Cox, David Schwimmer, Matt LeBlanc and Matthew Perry. Aniston begins shooting "The Morning Show" next month for streaming in November (on AppleTV); Matt LeBlanc has wrapped up the fourth and final season of "Man With a Plan"; David Schwimmer co-starred in the last season of "Will & Grace" and six episodes of the British TV series "Intelligence." Lisa Kudrow starred in "Like a Boss," with Tiffany Haddish and Salma Hayek; Courtney Cox played herself in "Modern Family"; and Matthew Perry stayed home and gained a lot of weight ... just like the rest of us who stayed at home!

Race Day Set for 2020 Chatham Sartomer Arkema 5K Race

Chatham, Virginia - The Chatham Sartomer 5K and One Mile Fun Run has set the date for the next community race. The race is scheduled for Saturday, September 19, 2020. The funding raised each year supports local emergency agencies and nonprofits.

"With the arrival of the coronavirus, several local charities and schools have been unable to fundraise. And, our emergency volunteers, our first responders, can always make use of additional funding." William Wiebking, Race Coordinator, said. "The ability to continue this race is important. The ability to raise funding for these entities is acute. We are looking forward to hosting the race, raising funding, and injecting a little fun into 2020."

The Chatham Sartomer Arkema 5K and One Mile Fun Run is two races during one event. The Fun Run is open for anyone and any ability. It is perfect for younger children. Awards are provided for them aged 12 and under.

Competitive runners consider the 5K an above average course in terms of difficulty. The route consists of asphalt and gravel with multiple inclines and straight-a-ways. It takes runners by Hargrave Military Academy and across the Chatham Hall campus. Several residential roads are also utilized. The Chatham Sartomer Arkema 5K Race course is TAC certified (VA98028RT) to national standards.

Members of the community can participate in the event either as runners or volunteers. Starting in 2018, runners and volunteers had a vote in how some race proceeds were allocated.

The Chatham Sartomer Arkema 5K Race and One Mile Fun Run is an annual charity athletic event supporting the Chatham Volunteer Fire Department, the Chatham Rescue Squad, and local charities serving the Chatham, Virginia community. With the exception of one year, the race has run continuously since 1995. Both sexes and all ages are welcome to participate, compete, and volunteer.

Danville Community College Enrolls Students for Fall Semester Online, In-Person

Danville, VA – July 14, 2020 – Danville Community College (DCC) is accepting students for enrollment for the fall semester.

“Although this has been a challenging year so far, DCC faculty and staff have risen to the occasion and we are ready and excited for the fall semester with our students, whether virtually or in-person,” said Dr. Jacqueline Gill Powell, president at DCC.

With a wide variety of programs ranging from transfer degrees to workforce training, DCC has educational opportunities for everyone. The fall semester will be presented to students partially online for lecture-based courses, and partially in-person for hands-on labs and clinical experiences.

“As we approach the fall semester and the continued partial reopening of our campus, protecting the health and safety of our students, faculty, and staff is important,” continued Gill Powell. “We’ve modified the way our students, in labs and technical programs, who will require in-person instruction will come back to campus in the fall and we are adhering to all guidelines set forth by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, as well as the Virginia Department of Health. The situation continues to be fluid and we will continue to shift our operations as new developments occur”

DCC offers financial aid and scholarships to ensure high-quality higher education is accessible to everyone.

“It is our top priority to ensure access to higher education,” said Gill Powell. “Anyone who wants to come to DCC and pursue their goals should not have paying for classes as a barrier to their success. We offer a robust array of scholarships and financial aid to support the attainability of higher education in all financial circumstances.”

Low tuition rates and a close-to-home location make DCC a high-quality, economical choice for students and parents who are have concerns about returning to a four-year institution this fall.

“We offer transfer degrees that allow students to get their first two years of their bachelor’s degree education at a fraction of the cost,” said Gill Powell. “The affordability of our courses and the convenience of our location make DCC a great option for parents and students who are uncertain about the upcoming fall semester. Additionally, we have articulation agreements with most of the universities in Virginia, and we have a unique relationship with our own Averett University that provides tuition incentives for graduates of Danville Community College.”

To enroll at DCC for the fall 2020 semester or for more information, email admissions@danville.edu or call 434-797-8467.

Danville Community College Welcomes New Advisory Board Member

Danville, VA – July 13, 2020 – Danville Community College (DCC) Danville Community College (DCC) officially welcomed their newest advisory board member, Robert David, Sr., youth and gang violence prevention coordinator for the City of Danville, at their June 15th meeting.

A native of Rockingham, North Carolina, David received a Bachelor of Business Administration from Catawba College and his Master of Arts in Professional and Addiction Counseling from Grand Canyon University. David is also a licensed addiction counselor in the state of North Carolina and is the 2020 recipient of the Franklin Milton Thrasher Award given by the National Gang Crime Research Center for his accomplishments in gang prevention and intervention.

“I originally came to Danville to expand my business, but when I saw that the city was seeking a Youth and Gang Violence Prevention Coordinator, I knew that I had a chance to really impact the lives of the people who live here,” said David. “It has been a wonderful opportunity to make a difference.”

As a part of David’s role, he understands the importance of higher education in the community and in the lives of those it touches.

“Education is an equalizer that not only impacts individuals, but the city of Danville, as well,” said David. “Education increases the individual’s ability to have a greater vision for their life. The belief that life could be better synergistically impacts how individuals engage with their community. An educated and engaged community attracts companies which increases growth and economic development.”

I will be part of their vision as I assist the president of DCC and the board in directing the college toward success.”

COURTNEY PHILLIPS CROWNED MISS VIRGINIA FOR AMERICA 2020

Mental health advocate, who uses personal experiences to help normalize mental illness and pageants to share messages of hope and healing, has been selected as new state titleholder.

ARLINGTON, Va. – July 13, 2020 –

The Miss Virginia for America organization crowned a new titleholder to represent the Commonwealth in South Hill, Virginia, this weekend. Courtney Phillips, of Arlington, represented the entire Northern Virginia area on Friday night and was selected by a panel of judges in the categories of Interview, Swimsuit and Evening Gown.

Special guest Miss for America Kassie Perkins, the national titleholder, crowned Phillips on stage alongside the reigning Mrs Virginia Lisa Stover. Phillips will go on to compete for the coveted Miss for America title in Las Vegas later this year.

“I’m thrilled to have the opportunity to represent the Commonwealth and this extraordinary organization,” says Phillips. “I’m looking forward to the year ahead and making Virginia proud. We have a lot of work to do in the community due to the ongoing mental health crisis, and I’m ready to roll up my sleeves and get to work. I hope to bring increased awareness for mental health and addiction prevention through my platform, Hope for Invisible Wounds.”

Her platform of mental health awareness can make a large impact on the people of Virginia as more than 19% of adults reported having a mental illness last year. Phillips considers herself a mental health warrior. After the loss of her parents and years of childhood abuse, she spent decades working to overcome PTSD and severe anxiety disorder. Now, she finds healing by sharing her story with others through her outreach initiative Hope for Invisible Wounds, which reaches over 6000 people daily. She’s partnered with global organizations to further her message worldwide, been featured in a documentary, become a comic book hero and advocated at the United Nations General Assembly.

Her win this week will help amplify her efforts this year, which will focus on empowering people to find new ways to thrive during these difficult times and continue to address the stigma around mental illnesses and substance abuse disorders. This includes focusing on those high-risk populations most heavily affected by the current climate – i.e. youth, essential workers, the elderly and minorities. As well as those dealing with mental health impacts in unhealthy ways by turning to substance abuse in times.

“We are so excited to have Courtney as our new titleholder,” says Darla Cline, Miss Virginia for America Director. “I have no doubt she is going to make a huge impact on our communities across Virginia and am looking forward to working with her over the next year.”

Phillips won an amazing prize package from small business sponsorships across the state to help prepare her for her year ahead as well as a trip to compete against 51 other women in Las Vegas later this year for the title of Miss for America 2021.

To follow her year, please visit the official Miss Virginia for America social media pages on Instagram and Facebook.

Robert Daniel “Danny” Ricketts

DANVILLE, Va. Local historian and artist Robert Daniel “Danny” Ricketts, 79, of Danville died on Tuesday, June 30, 2020, at Centra Lynchburg General Hospital after a sudden illness.

Born January 13, 1941, in a log cabin in Blairs, Virginia, Danny was the son of the late Ruben Edward and Annie Marie Jones Ricketts. Danny was also predeceased by one brother Ray E. (Mary) Ricketts of Richmond; three sisters, Idella (James, living) Lynch of Danville, Marion (Willie) Lewis (Herman) Cook, and Elaine (Edward) Gibson; and a grandson, Cody Austin Hill.

Danny’s family moved to Washington Street when he was five years old. On March 29, 1968, Danny married his first (and only) wife, Nancye Barbour Ricketts, after wooing her with a series of ancient arrowhead hunting dates. Together, they raised three children: one daughter, Jo Ricketts (Kevin) Hawke of Danville; and two sons, Robert Allen “Bobby” (Kimberly) Ricketts of Forest, VA, and Paul Daniel (Rebecca) Ricketts of Broken Arrow, OK. He is survived by six grandsons: Joseph Robert (Erica) Ricketts of Lynchburg, VA; Ryan Andrew Hill of Danville; Caleb Daniel Ricketts and Samuel James Ricketts, both of Broken Arrow, OK; and Lucas Sebastian Dalton and Atticus Sage Hawke, both of Danville. Also surviving are several generations of nieces and nephews and a multitude of cousins.

Danny graduated from George Washington High School in 1960. He joined the U. S. Air Force in January 1961 and served in Intelligence as a Radio Intercept Analyst Specialist in Karamursel, Turkey, where he became fascinated by ancient and early cultures of western civilization. After serving his country, Danny studied at Danville Community College and became a letter carrier for the U.S. Postal Service, delivering mail, enjoying conversation, and running from dogs until he retired in 1992.

Danny was an avid historian and collector of ancient artifacts and local memorabilia alike. He and son Bobby unearthed the oldest surviving wooden water wheel in America, the Beavers Mill water wheel (circa 1792) in Pittsylvania County in 2003. It was excavated, preserved, and donated to the Virginia Historical Society for display in the Virginia Museum of History and Culture in 2006. With the assistance of his niece Sylvia Matthews, Danny was awarded the Daughters of the American Revolution History Award medal and Historic Preservation medal, as well as the Arkansas Traveler appointment by then-governor Mike Huckabee.

Danny started painting as a child. His art teachers—Mrs. Vass in fourth grade at Stonewall Jackson Elementary and later Miss Lucille Walton at George Washington High School—encouraged his talent. Danny won two Scholastic Gold Key awards for his artwork. For the next 50 years, his art was primarily focused on his historical work, producing dozens of posters on local history and more. Then, in 2011, he once again immersed himself fully in his art. Danny’s artistic hero was Pablo Picasso, but over the course of his lifetime, he produced more than 1,300 pieces spanning multiple styles and modes, including abstracts, landscapes, collage, and sculpture.

In 1996, Danny and Nancye moved to Tulsa, OK, where they attended Rhema Bible Training College, graduating in 1998. They traveled with mission teams to India twice and pastored Victory Family Church in Danville for several years. Danny’s favorite Bible verse was, “Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.” He said that this verse was posted over the door of his Sunday School class at Third Avenue Congregational Church, where he and his family were members for many years. Striving to live this message out every day of his life, Danny Ricketts’ testimony will continue to live on in his historical work, his art, and his family and friends for countless years to come.

A funeral will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, July 4, 2020, at Norris Funeral Services’ Mt. Hermon Chapel with Rev. Oscar Rivera officiating. A visitation will be held an hour prior to the service. The family will also receive guests at the residence at other times. Interment will follow the funeral at Highland Burial Park. Memorial donations may be made to God’s Pit Crew Crisis Response Team.

Covid 19 Update from PATHS Telehealth Option:

PATHS Community Medical Center is still here to serve you and your family. We want to keep you and our staff safe, while still providing you with the best care possible. Our providers are equipped to do Telehealth visits; all you need is a smart phone, tablet, or laptop with a webcam. If you don’t have a smart phone but have access to a phone we can do a phone visit with you. To set up a Telehealth visit please call any one of our offices to get scheduled. Once scheduled you will receive a link by email or text that you can click and come face to face with your provider. We also have an App that can be downloaded from the App store if you have an iPhone and Google Play store if you have an Android phone. The App is called Healow and you can interact with our offices, see your meds, appointments, summary of care, lab results and pay your bill. You do need to be web-enabled and any of our front desk staff can get you set up with a username and password. If you come to one of our offices to be seen, expect to be screened before entry. We are encouraging Telehealth visits if you have a wellness, follow-up for chronic care, Well Child or Behavioral Health visits. If you feel sick, are running a fever, have a cough, we encourage you to be seen in our offices. We will screen you and have you wait in your car until we have a room available to keep you from being exposed or exposing someone else.

- PATHS Healthcare for Women is still seeing all of our OB patients at the office, normal GYN appointments have been rescheduled.

WEDNESDAYS

JULY - AUGUST

The Danville Farmers' Market Wednesday Markets will start on Wednesday July 1 and continue each Wednesday, 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. through the end of August.

All vendors will be located on the Science Center side parking lot due to COVID-19 distancing guidelines. The Wednesday market will offer seasonal produce, meats and baked goods.

DANVILLE – Danville Farmers' Market is now open every Saturday through the end of October and every Wednesday through the end of August following all state, federal, and local health and safety recommendations for both patrons and vendors.

"We are proud to be able to offer this service that is a staple to Downtown Danville as well as local vendors and shoppers in the community," said Danville Parks and Recreation Department Director Bill Sgrinia. "We do not take safety precautions and health concerns lightly so the market will be modified from its normal setup in order to meet the recommended guidelines. It's a change for all of us, we appreciate everyone's patience and cooperation as we continue to develop and manage a new way to offer this service."

Patrons should not visit the market if they are ill and maintain six feet of space between other shoppers. Staff are asking that families only send one person per house inside the building to shop at a time.

While visiting the market the following regulations are in place:

- Face Masks are recommended
- Patrons will not be able to handle produce
- No food can be consumed on site

Interested vendors, inside or out, will not be allowed to set up without a reservation made in advance. Spots will be assigned by market management. Spaces can be reserved by calling 434-797-8961.

The Danville Farmers' Market accepts EBT.

Cookout Cravings

Appease summer appetites with grilled fare

FAMILY FEATURES

The first thought that comes to mind when picturing grilling in the summer sun might be a perfectly cooked steak or a juicy burger, but no backyard barbecue is complete without the all-important sides and beverages that complete the meal.

Whether you're pairing a main protein with separate side dishes or going all-in-one by combining tender chicken with veggies on skewers, the opportunities are endless for a crave-worthy cookout.

5 Steps for Sizzling Steak

A sizzling steak is a surefire sound of summer, and the flavors achieved from one that's perfectly grilled are hard to match.

Before you fire up your grill, consider these five basics for cooking a chef-worthy steak:

Prepare Your Cut

Taste preferences (and prices) may differ among sirloins, ribeyes, T-bones and more, but the way you prepare steaks likely won't change much from cut to cut. You'll want to trim the thickness down to 1/2-1 inch for proper cooking, and setting the meat out ahead of time allows it to warm to room temperature before hitting the grill.

Add Some Salt

Feel free to add any spices you prefer, but remember a good steak typically doesn't require fancy seasoning – a pinch of salt works just fine. Add your salt anywhere between 30 minutes to a few hours before grilling time to help retain moisture and improve flavor.

Aim for High Heat

A two-zone fire is usually the way to go – one side of the grill should be hot (using direct heat) with the other side not quite as warm (indirect heat). This allows you to create a sear over direct heat before finishing cooking through – without burning – over indirect heat.

Sear and Slide

Cooking your steak over direct heat 1-2 minutes on each side is normally about right for creating a proper sear. At this point, depending on the thickness of your steak, you'll want to check for doneness. If it's not quite to the temperature you're looking to achieve, simply slide it over to the indirect heat for a finishing touch. Keep in mind these general guidelines for doneness: 120-125 F is rare, 130-135 F is medium-rare, 140-145 F is medium, 150-155 F is medium-well and 160-175 F is well done.

Let Rest

Finally, as hungry as you may be at this point, resting steaks is an important last step before diving in. Giving your steaks 5-10 minutes (foil or no foil) allows flavors to redistribute and moisture to be retained in the meat.

RECIPES

Mississippi Pot Roast with Gravy

INGREDIENTS

- 3-4 lb Boneless Beef Roast (your choice cut)
  - 1 stick unsalted butter (if your roast looks fatty, use less butter)
  - 1 package au jus gravy mix
  - 1 package Hidden Valley Ranch dressing mix (dry)
  - Pepperoncini peppers (I used 7, depends on your taste more or less is fine)
  - Fresh ground pepper to taste
- For the Gravy:
- 3 tablespoons cornstarch

INSTRUCTIONS

Put the roast in a slow cooker. Sprinkle au jus gravy mix and ranch dressing mix over the roast add the butter, and pepperoncini peppers and a little of the pepper juice if you like. Add fresh cracked pepper and cook on low until tender, about 8 hours. (For Instant Pot Cook at high pressure on manual for 90 minutes. Do not allow warming cycle to kick on. Then use natural release for 15 minutes and switch to quick release.)

For the Gravy:

To make the gravy, pour the liquid from the crock pot into a measuring cup. Skim off the fat. Measure two cups of the liquid, adding water if needed. Transfer to a sauce pan reserving 1/2 cup of the liquid.

Stir the cornstarch into the reserved liquid, then stir into the liquid in the sauce pan. Heat, stirring frequently, until the gravy is thick and bubbly. Taste and season with salt and pepper, if needed. Serve the roast with the gravy.
