If you are looking to maintain your independence but need a little help each day, Maplewood of Mt. Pleasant is the perfect choice for you.

Our community offers the best in assisted living: a private, comfortable home without the worries of maintenance, utilities, lawn care, and property taxes - and lots of opportunities for both private time and mixing with neighbors and friends. Our quiet residential setting will make you feel like you're still in your home.

While we help you stay as active as you want through crafts, games, resident council, celebrations, and community outings, we also will treat you as an individual and tailor our services to meet your unique needs. Services you may choose from include private accommodations, medication supervision, housekeeping, personal care, laundry services, transportation, and on-site fine dining.

At Maplewood of Mt. Pleasant, caring is more than providing an excellent assisted living community; it is offering respect, dignity, companionship, and compassion to every person, every day. Because we work so hard at it "The Maplewood Way of Caring," and it comes from within every Maplewood of Mt. Pleasant associate.
