Moody on The Market

Moody

In a day and age where “social distancing” is increasingly essential to our health and wellness with coronavirus numbers spiking from coast to coast, a St. Joseph entrepreneur has crafted the ultimate solution with what is essentially a 20-acre outdoor gym. Mike Petlick, who also owns and operates Evergreen Lawncare & Landscaping in Benton Harbor has carved out his new enterprise called The Woods Fitness Park, a 20-acre outdoor gym to help those who have been shut out of their indoor gym or fitness center since early March due to the pandemic and Governor Gretchen Whitmer’s executive orders that continue to preclude gyms and fitness centers from operating. The Woods Fitness Park is anchored at 2400 Dewey Avenue in Benton Harbor in acreage between Meadowbrook and Townline Roads, a short distance away from the Napier Campus of Lake Michigan College. The park is the area’s first outdoor workout facility, designed to promote exercise for all levels, from beginners to obstacle race elites, and with over 3 miles of trails, you can challenge yourself to more than 40 obstacles and workout stations on site. Petlick, who was born and raised in St. Joseph, went off to college at Auburn and returned to his roots, grew up playing sports and was a long-distance runner in college. His life was heavily influenced when a friend introduced him to the concept of Spartan Races, involving tough obstacle course action, and he entered the Spartan event at Wrigley Field in Chicago. He was so moved by the experience that he returned home and immediately began developing his plan for The Woods Fitness Park, which recently opened for business in mid-June. He calls his venture “an adult playground of fitness,” and strongly encourages those who have been shutout of physical workouts and training regimens by the governor’s closure of gyms and fitness centers to develop a new routine at The Woods Fitness Park. Petlick’s new enterprise allows you to partake of a wide range of outdoor work from monkey bars to rope climbing, and especially his obstacle course elements reminiscent of the Spartan Race competitions. Elite Runner Spartan Racing in America is a huge community of dedicated athletes. When Mike took part in the Wrigley Field race, he was one of 4,000 people who participated. The Woods Fitness Park offers all levels of fitness, and while the gyms are closed, you can use The Woods as your own 20 acre outdoor gym or as a personal boot camp of sorts. With that kind of acreage, Mike says, “It’s easy to social distance while exercising at The Woods.” There are 3 models of trails and the park is mostly shaded with lots of trees. You’ll find sit up stations, push up stations, pull up bars, rope climbs, you can run through mud, scale a wall, climb

Your Chamber Update

Over the last 5 plus months, we’ve spent a lot of time speaking about the importance of supporting local business on multiple platforms. Small locally owned businesses make up a large portion of our economy in Southwest Michigan with many of them depending on tourism to carry them through winter. Unfortunately, you’ve likely heard some of the numbers indicating that tourism dollars are drastically down for our area.

Every cent that we spend with a local business has a better chance of staying local; statistically speaking .68 cents out of every dollar spent with a local small business stays in the local economy. Traditionally, that .68 cents then generates 3.5 times the wealth and investment to the local economy in various ways. That's a huge impact when you think of how many small businesses there are in each of the respective communities that make up Southwest Michigan.

A few other sobering stats as to why to support local now more than ever: Only 50% of small businesses survive long enough to see year 5! In the U.S. alone there are 30.2 MILLION small businesses, sadly 1 in 12 of those close every year, with COVID that number is likely to increase this year and next.

Now, before you say it, no I'm not big box store or franchise bashing, in many cases they have a local ownership and play a valuable part in our economy as well. What I am saying, before you cross the state line explore a town and a store that you have never visited before. Southwest Michigan is full of amazing stores, farm stands, bakeries, restaurants, wineries, breweries, and more - in many cases are just waiting for you to walk inside to discover. Also, if you know of a locally owned franchise, support them too! They are struggling just as much as everyone else.

By continuing to support local, we are investing back in the community, helping to create jobs, and allowing for each respective community to embrace what makes them unique. I encourage you to take a drive, explore a community Southwest Michigan that you haven't yet. Even if you're like me and have lived here your entire life, I guarantee you'll find something new that you didn't even know existed.

The Veterans Voice – Camp Lejeune CW (Part 2)

Camp Lejeune Contaminated Water (CLCW) claims and the adverse health consequences that followed have been around since 1953. If you missed last week's article, you can view a brief background of the problems with the contaminated water at www.atsdr.cdc.gov/sites/lejeune/background.html. In sum, the waste disposal practices from the ABC One-Hour Cleaners, an off-base dry cleaning firm, led to numerous health problems for veterans, dependents and civilian workers. The CLCW at the U.S. Marine Corps Base in North Carolina resulted in birth defects, cancers, conditions and diseases for anyone stationed at the base who drank and bathed in the contaminated water. The focus in today's article is on family members and civilian workers affected by the CLCW. Please visit the Camp Lejeune Family Member Program website at <https://www.clfamilymembers.fsc.va.gov>. A helpful guide to assist family members and civilian workers, which includes instructions for completing VA Form 10-10068 – Camp Lejeune Family Member Program Application, can be found at <https://www.clfamilymembers.fsc.va.gov/Home/DownloadForm/UserGuide>. When you contact them and if you also have a child that was born with a birth defect(s), they can mail you a detailed form which will ask a series of questions about the respective birth defect(s). They will also need medical records and it may even be necessary to have a specialty doctor write a nexus letter and provide their curriculum vitae – a summary of the physicians experience, academic background including teaching experience, degrees, research, awards, publications, presentations, and other achievements, skills and credentials. A nexus letter may be needed by the medical specialty doctor to provide the medical rationale for their conclusions. A good website for this is at www.militarydisabilitymadeeasy.com/nexusletters.html. Basically, a "nexus" is a link between two or more things. The nexus letter clearly connects, in this instance, the birth defect(s) to the toxic contaminated water. We use nexus letters for veterans claims quite often when: 1) There is ample evidence that it occurred during the veterans service or, 2) It is not on the VA's Presumptive List for Agent Orange or CLCW. However, even the best written letters may still go to appeals but it is good practice to file with original claim(s). Family members affected by the CLCW may be compensated for eligible out-of-pocket medical expenses after family members have received payments from all other health plans. The current qualifying health conditions include: esophageal cancer, breast cancer, kidney cancer, multiple myeloma, renal toxicity, female infertility, scleroderma, non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, lung cancer, bladder cancer, leukemia, myelodysplastic syndromes, hepatic steatosis, miscarriage and neurobehavioral effects. Family members can contact the Camp Lejeune Toll Free Customer Service Center at: 1-866-372-1144. Their hours of operation are Monday - Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (CST). Again, even though this is the current qualifying list, other cancers, conditions or diseases may be considered on a case-by-case basis. It would be helpful to the case if a physicians nexus letter accompanied the claims if not on the list. Please contact our office today for additional information.

stir the soul, accompanied by rockin' covers to get you movin'. This close-knit group of family and long-time friends has an eclectic sound with influences ranging from British Invasion to '90s alternative and everything in between.

Dan Maxon is a local singer/songwriter and guitarist. He was raised under all manner of musical influences, finding a particular fondness for rock, folk, and jazz. He channels these genres through his own intimate, acoustic style.

Another Creative Connections location can be found at The History Center at Courthouse Square. August 13, TNC Talk: Women and the Vote with Ellie Carlson, internationally known historian and interpreter will explore the world of the suffragette movement in her program: Hindsight is 2020. She will take audiences back in time when the right to vote was fraught with violence, passion, and courage. As we celebrate the 100th anniversary of the 19th Amendment, her words are a reminder of the work that was done to make our voting rights possible today. Due to COVID-19 this event is now digital, but you can visit in person to get your stamp.

Other locations include ARS Gallery, Water Street Glassworks, The Gallery at Harbor Shores, Southwest Symphony Orchestra, Curious Kids' Museum & Discovery Zone, Chartreuse, Krasl Art Center, The Heritage Museum & Cultural Center, Box Factory for the Arts, Fab Lab at Lake Michigan College, Twin City Players, JLN Studio, Fernwood, Niles History Center, Buchanan Art Center, and The Acorn. Please check with the location before you travel to get updates on availability and hours. Remember you have until April 30, 2021. To get a Creative Connections map call the Tourist Council at 269-925-6301.

We'll be back at the end of the month with more fun and interesting things to do in Michigan's Great Southwest! Be sure to visit www.swmichigan.org to see everything happening in August!

Some places are naturally inspiring. Southwest Michigan is such a place. The beauty and vibrancy of Lake Michigan, the serenity of our countryside and the rich stories of our past inspire us. That is why, over the centuries, many of the region's most creative people have come here. Now you can connect with the artists, actors, musicians, and dreamers that call this area home. Explore their artwork. Take a class in a studio. Listen to your favorite music. Double-over with laughter or blink back tears during performances. Travel back in time to learn how early adventurers sailed the big waters.

The first Drive-in Live! At The Mendel Center tomorrow would be a fun way to enjoy three great performers and get your stamp at the same time! If you can't make the first Drive-in Live! Then join them August 22, featuring Bryan Lubeck, Sypain Family Band and Dan Maxon.

Bryan Lubeck's live shows are his forte with his high-energy, fiery Spanish guitar and smooth urban grooves. His latest album Tuscan Sky has spent more than 14 weeks on the various adult contemporary instrumental charts. Bryan has been named as a Critics' Choice by Billboard Magazine and has recorded with five Grammy Award winners and performed with 12 Grammy Award nominees and winners.

With a bluesy, jazzy, rock-n-roll vibe infused with a chemistry that only comes from family bonds, This Sypain Family Band plays a slate of original tunes that

Don Old BBDs: Wit, Wisdom, and Personality Problems

Stuart

So even if you couldn't possibly care less about baseball, you probably know that the Major League teams are playing a shortened season. This raises an interesting question:

will the truncated season be over before or after I'm done sharing the wit and wisdom gained from my binge-reading of ancient Baseball Digest (BBD)?! There's just so much to share, and so much that's barely baseball-related, such as:

Item: In 1962, a couple of Cincinnati Reds players from Cuba niftily combined beisbol and futbol. Here's what happened: Shortstop Leo Cardenas couldn't quite handle a hard-hit ground ball, so to get it over quickly to second baseman Octavio Rojas, he kicked it. On purpose. It went right to Rojas, who caught it easily, stepped on second for a force-out, and then threw to first to complete a double play.

Reggie Otero, a coach for the team, and also from Cuba, later said laughingly, "In Havana, we practiced this play for 15 years. It is the first time it ever worked!"

Item: A couple columns ago, I mentioned the annual BBD article with the headline, "Oh Look Girls! These Stars Are Single!" I forgot to mention that a few key statistics were included to help BBD's female readers decide who would be worth chasing after. Each player's age, hair color and eye color – using abbreviations like Blk for black and Blu for blue – were listed next to his name and "ancestry."

Examining the 1962 version of the "Oh Look Girls!" story, I liked Ron Fairly's entry, with his hair fetchingly described as "Aub," for "auburn." And how could I not love Paul Brown's ancestry? – it was "Lt. Blu." And how about this: Were several players trying to convey "Blonde" with the Hair abbreviation of "Bld"? Or could it be? . . . were they perhaps just telling the bld truth?

Item: In the early 1960s, the New York Mets were worse than bad. And their manager, the legendary Casey Stengel, never minded saying so. Once, when asked whether playing some spring exhibition games in the high altitude of Mexico City was detrimental to his team, Stengel said, "We're bothered by the altitude in every city we play – even when we play in (New York's) Polo Grounds, which is lower than the Harlem River. We can lose at any altitude."

Item: BBD once interviewed the owner of the Philadelphia Phillies, Bob Carpenter. He was asked to describe the ideal ballplayer. He said, "Well, he would have the mental focus of a professional golfer, the physique of a pro football player, and the speed of an Olympic sprinter. Why, do you know where we can find one?!"

Item: The annual BBD compendium of rookie and minor league player scouting reports once included this one for a pitcher named Wayne Schurr (from Hudson, Indiana): "Personality problems and poor tools." Good thing he was married – this kind of scouting report wouldn't have attracted much attention on the "Oh Look Girls!" page.

Fortunately Schurr was in the minor league system of the Chicago Cubs in the early 1960s. So he actually made it to the major leagues for a bit. This was back when the perennially losing Cubs had lots of players with poor tools. Which gave their fans personality problems.

The road project that many people in Michigan's Great Southwest figured would never happen in their lifetime is due to launch the first phase this fall, and the crew from the Michigan Department of Transportation will hold a virtual public meeting next week to address how it will all take place. Completion of the connection between US-31 and I-94 has been talked about, argued over, planned, delayed, and fought over for decades, but the actual completion is officially getting underway this fall, although it will still be a multi-year construction project. MDOT has slated the virtual public meeting on the project for next Monday, August 10th from 3 to 4pm on Microsoft Teams. MDOT staff members invite business owners, residents, stakeholders and anyone interested to be part of the discussion that day regarding the first phase of the project. If you are unable to take part in the live event, copies of the meeting transcript and presentation will be available by mail or email afterwards by contacting Monica Monsma at 517-335-4381 or MonsmaM@Michigan.gov to request a copy. The three-year, $122.5 million project will complete the connection of US-31 from Napier Avenue to I-94, reconstruct I-94 from east of Britain Avenue to east of I-196, and realign the I-94 Business Loop to a new interchange connecting US-31, I-94, and I-94 BL. Starting this fall, MDOT will make improvements to I-94, US-31, and I-94 BL, including: Reconstructing 3.1 miles of I-94, changing it from the current six-lane divided freeway to a barrier-separated seven-lane freeway...Adding an auxiliary lane on EB I-94 from the new US-31 connection to I-196, along with a concrete median barrier...Reconstructing all ramps at the I-196 interchange...Removing the Highland Avenue and I-94 BL bridges over I-94...Constructing cul-de-sacs on Highland Avenue at each side of I-94...Constructing a new US-31/I-94/I-94 BL interchange over I-94...Reconstructing the Territorial Road bridge over I-94...Rehabilitating the Benton Center Road bridge over I-94...Reconstructing and realigning 1.6 miles of I-94 BL, right-sizing it from a four to three lanes...Constructing a roundabout at I-94 BL and Crystal Avenue...Constructing 2 miles of new four-lane divided freeway connecting US-31 to I-94... Building new bridges over US-31 at Britain Avenue and Benton Center Road... and Constructing cul-de-sacs on Empire Avenue at each side of US-31. The US-31 freeway project has been in development for more than 40 years. The objective has been to provide a 30-mile US-31 freeway connection from the I-80/90 toll road in Indiana to I-94 and US-31/I-196 in Michigan. Construction of the US-31 freeway as approved in a 1981 Final Environmental Impact Statement has been ongoing and was completed up to Napier Avenue in 2003. Throughout the upcoming two-year construction project, detours and closures will take place and you can get that information on the Mi Drive map and app, as well as at the project website at this link: www.Michigan.gov/US-31Relocation.

Groundbreaking has taken place for a massive expansion project designed to nearly double the size of the offices of St. Joseph Dentistry on Niles Road in St. Joseph. Construction efforts are being launched for that sizable expansion project at 3386 Niles Road, across from The Herald-Palladium offices. Once that project is complete, the practice will nearly double the space for the team, greatly enhancing their ability to care for and serve its patients. The practice will remain fully operational during the expansion project, which includes: A new centralized patient waiting room with designated kid's play area...fifteen treatment rooms...a centralized sterilization room...additional restrooms... and a new staff conference room and lounge. St. Joseph Dentistry selected Pearson Construction as their Design Builder who will utilize their in-house architectural firm, TERA Architects, as their design partner. Once the new addition is complete, the practice will move into the new space and phase two of renovations will take place on the existing building. Construction is expected to wrap up by next March. St. Joseph Dentistry owner, Dr. Charles Howenstine, DDS, comes from a long line of dental professionals dedicated to serving the needs of their patients. His grandfather, uncle, and father were all dentists, and his mother a hygienist. He says that strong connection to dentistry helped lay the groundwork for his commitment to serving the dental needs of Southwest Michigan. Dr. Howenstine tells us,

"The relationship that I have developed with my patients over the last eight years has been really rewarding for me," and adds, "I truly enjoy being able to improve a person's quality of life through the work that we do. This new addition will allow us to expand care to an even greater number of patients, bringing them the same high-level care and dental experience our patients have become accustomed to at St. Joseph Dentistry." Dr. Howenstine is joined by Theresa Burt, DDS, Stephanie Grider, DMD, and their dedicated and caring staff in offering a wide-variety of high-quality, compassionate dentistry services for residents of St. Joseph, Stevensville, Benton Harbor, and all of Southwest Michigan. From general dentistry services, such as dental cleanings and exams, to more complex cosmetic dentistry procedures, the staff at St. Joseph Dentistry is dedicated to helping meet the needs of patients of all ages. Services include:

Children's Dentistry, Emergency Dental Care, Dental Cleanings and Hygiene, Dental Restoration, Dental Crowns and Bridges, Tooth Extractions,

Cosmetic Dentistry, Teeth Whitening, Dental Bonding, Dental Inlays and Onlays, Tooth Colored Fillings, Dental Implants, Dentures, Full and Partial, Dental Appliances, Invisalign, TMJ Treatment, Dental Night Guards, and Six Month Braces. Dr. Howenstine and the entire St. Joseph dental staff encourage new patients to contact them with any questions, and to feel comfortable when choosing a dentist in St. Joseph. The highly-trained dental team at St. Joseph Dentistry has been serving the patients of southwest Michigan since 2012. Their goal is to help patients attain exceptional results in all phases of preventative, family, and cosmetic dentistry by utilizing the most advanced technology available to dentists. Additional information about St. Joseph Dentistry can be found online at www.stjosephdentistry.net, or you can connect with them on Facebook. For almost half a century, the community of South Haven has enjoyed a spectacular connection with the South Haven Rotary Club and their major pancake breakfast in conjunction with the National Blueberry Festival. The airport extravaganza has been exceptionally well-received over the years. Unfortunately, just like a multitude of other summertime events, the big breakfast has been canceled due to the pandemic. The good news is, you can't keep a good Rotarian down. The breakfast, which has traditionally drawn upwards of 2,000 people a year, is the major fundraising event of the year for the Rotarians. Over the past year the South Haven club, with support from its Rotary District and Rotary International, has given more than $51,000 to local, regional and international

causes. The pandemic is on notice that the South Haven Rotarians aren't about to be deterred, so tomorrow, Sunday, August 9th, the South Haven club will sponsor a live-streamed virtual pancake breakfast via Facebook from 1-2:30 p.m. The event being dubbed, "$9,000 in 90 minutes," will feature streamed live local entertainment, testimonials from recipients of grants from the Rotary Club and interviews with local dignitaries. The event will be held at the city's downtown Pavilion and while the club will respect all COVID social distance guidelines there will be an opportunity for the public to come down and watch the spectacle. There won't be the aroma of breakfast being cooked or the opportunity to watch the dexterity of Rotarians flipping the pancakes, but those who come to the Pavilion and make a donation will receive a complimentary package of Jiffy Buttermilk Pancake Mix and a quart of fresh Michigan blueberries from the DeGrandchamp Farm. Those watching the "spectacle" on-line will also be able to make a donation via the club's website — www.southhavenrotary.org/donate.

Bye for now. See you Saturday right here in MailMax!

Dave Says This lady's getting it done!

Dear Dave,

I'm single, and I'll be a pilot in the military for the next 10 years. I'm also debt-free, have a fully funded emergency fund, and I'm saving 15% of my income for retirement. After my military days are over, I plan to work as a commercial pilot. I've done the math, and I have about $20,000 a year to give, have fun with and build wealth. My question is about wealth building. When it comes to rental properties, I know you don't like the idea of a long-distance landlord. Being in the military, there's a good chance I'll move around a bit. What should I do?

Rachel

Dear Rachel,

First, thank you for your service to our country. And, wow! You're in a tremendous position financially and career-wise. You've got a great future ahead of you as a pilot in the military and after, plus you've followed my plan item by item. You've got so many options, and you can make a difference in your community and in the lives around you right now by giving.

When it comes to wealth building, I hope you've already taken advantage of the TSP, or Thrift Savings Plan, which is kind of the military version of the 401(k). For wealth building beyond that, I'd get with a good investment pro—one with the heart of a teacher—and dive into some growth stock mutual funds. You could have a lot of money piled up just by the end of your military career. Who knows? You may even be able to buy a nice home with cash when you leave the service. Beyond that, you may be able to settle into some real estate and pay cash for those investments.

You are one cool, smart lady, Rachel. Congratulations on setting yourself up for a wonderful life—one where you can live and give like no one else!

-Dave

- ★ Non-Service Connected Veterans Pension and Survivors Pension benefits (House Bound as well as Aid and Attendance) for low income veterans over age 65 or prior to age 65 that are disabled and have at least one day of wartime service (additional means tested restrictions apply).
- ★ Free transportation at designated stops for veterans enrolled in the VA Health Benefits Program to the VA Medical Center in Battle Creek and the VA Health Care Center in Mishawaka.

Hold Fast

Hold fast to the LORD your God.

Joshua 23:8

Master and Commander is a movie about a British warship in the early 1800s. In the film, there's a wordless exchange that takes place between an old seaman and a young recruit whom he has taken under his wing. The ship is going into battle. Men are scurrying everywhere. As they do, the old seaman looks at the young recruit and holds out his fists. Tattooed across the eight knuckles of his two fists are two four-letter words. The words are, "HOLD FAST."

The scene is not some Hollywood invention. "Hold fast" is a phrase that seamen have tattooed on their knuckles for generations. It appears that their use of the phrase goes back to the early days of sail, when a seaman had to hold onto his assigned rope (or line) during a storm or battle. He knew he had to "hold fast" to his line, or all would be lost. Over the years, the phrase has taken on a wider meaning: Stay focused. Don't get distracted. Hold on to what matters. Never let go.

The Bible reading for today's devotion is from a poignant moment. Joshua was the man God had used to bring the Israelites into the Promised Land of Canaan. After years of hardship and faithful service, Joshua's work was done. He was an old man. His death was near, and he knew it. He gathered the Israelites' leaders together one more time to say goodbye. As he did, he told them, "Hold fast to the LORD your God."

Hold fast to the LORD your God. Stay focused. Don't get distracted. Hold on to your Savior God for dear life. My mind, of course, has other ideas. It loves distraction. It lives for it. It cannot wait to find some new thing by which it can pull me away from the only Savior I've got.

When that happens, however—when I begin to let go—Jesus is there. He's there, in love, to rattle me as needed. He's there to bring me to repentance through his Word. He's there to cleanse me in his forgiveness through his blood from the cross.

And as he does, he empowers me to hold fast all the more.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, through the storms and battle of life, empower me to hold fast to you. Amen.
