'Great day' for Russellville: Pilgrim's and Norris family giving back to city

John Pilati
Franklin Free Press

A special called meeting Friday of the Russellville City Council proved to be just that, special, thanks to the philanthropy of Pilgrim's Russellville and the Billy and Leila Norris family.

The Norris family, which includes Lanny Norris, Tim Norris, Bunny Richardson and the children of Benji Norris, donated to the city a half-acre tract of land adjacent to Russellville City Hall.

The gift of the property, which includes the former home of the Norris family, stipulates that the land be used for

Howard, Morrow both see cleanup as major issue in Littleville mayor's race

Although the August 25, 2020, Littleville municipal ballot will feature three candidates' names for mayor, only two, Scott Howard and Ron Morrow, officially remain in the race.

Rodney McAnally, Jr., was disqualified when he failed to file ethics forms required from all candidates, according to an official at Littleville Town Hall.

Howard and Morrow are vying for the part-time position that pays $650/month.

Lanny Norris, left, presents Mayor David Grissom with the deed to the Norris family property located behind Russellville City Hall.

Littleville, Howard laid out his criteria for whether he would seek a second term.

"If I believe we've done some positive things for our town, I'll try it again. If I don't see that progress, you won't have to ask me not to run," Howard said.

And since Howard's on the ballot once again, he believes the town is moving forward.

"We've got a lot done. We've worked on major sewer and water improvements," Howard said. "The water system is working well and our water loss has dropped exponentially. We are continuing work on our a community library, and city officials have 10 years to complete the project.

Kevin Touchstone, complex manager for Franklin County's largest employer, Pilgrim's, presented a $309,000 check to the City of Russellville as part of Pilgrim's 'Hometown Strong' program, which sees the company invest in the communities in which it is located.

The funds will be used to build what was described as Alabama's largest splash pad, with the expected location to be on Highway 24 across from Sloss Lake.

Mayor David Grissom opened the meeting by describing it as "a great day in the City of Russellville, thanks to the Norris family, Kevin Touchstone and Pilgrim's Russellville."

Discussions about the Norris homestead being given to the city have been ongoing for more than two years. Friday was the culmination of those efforts, as the heirs signed the deed transferring ownership.

Russellville Librarian Ashley Cummins and the Russellville Library Board attended Friday's meeting. Board members were excited about the prospect of having a new, larger, multi-purpose facility.

"As chair of the Russellville Library Board, I want to say thank you to the Norris family," said Lela Ray. "We are excited to work with them and our community leaders. This will be a wonderful resource for our city."

Billy Norris played on the 1928 RHS Golden Tiger football team. He was later inducted into the Franklin County Sports Hall of Fame. Norris and his wife opened the first soft-serve ice cream business in north Alabama—King Frosty.

Billy operated a printing business in Russellville that later became Norris Book Company.

Lanny Norris described the mixed emotions he and his siblings felt at Friday's city council meeting.

"This is a day of celebration for the City of Russellville, but it's also a day of sadness," Norris said. "The last few days I've reflected on all the memories I have of the house behind us.

"I'm thankful for my parents and growing up in their home, I can honestly say I never saw my parents say or do anything out of line," he added.

Norris also expressed his appreciation to Grissom, the city council and the library board.

"They all have done an unbelievable job with the facilities they have to work with. And they had the vision to see this wonderful, beautiful, functional, modern library right here in Russellville," Norris said.

The property had been in the Norris family since 1900, when Norris' grandfather owned the entire block.

Pilgrim's, which has operated a processing facility in Russellville since 1988, committed to invest $20 million in its 'Hometown Strong' program, with the Russellville facility receiving $600,000.

In addition to paying for the splash pad, Pilgrim's began awarding an annual scholarship to one local student.

The scholarship pay for tuition, books, room and board for one student for four years. The first recipient, RHS graduate Alondra Delgado, received her scholarship this summer.

Touchstone said he contacted Grissom to discuss possible ideas for the 'Hometown Strong' funds, and it didn't take long for Grissom to respond.

"Within an hour he was with me carrying a bound manual with three possible projects," Touchstone said. "This is the mayor and city council's vision. We're just funding it. And it will be the largest splash pad in Alabama, able to accommodate 175 children."

Grissom said Pilgrim's footprint in the Russellville community was already significant, but Friday's announcement took the company's civic-mindedness to another level.

"With 1,350 employees, Pilgrim's is our county's largest employer. Under the leadership of Kevin Touchstone, Pilgrim's continues to forge strong bonds across our community," Grissom said.

"For Pilgrim's to make this level of investment in our community, to make a vision we've had become a reality, that is genuinely helping Russellville become 'Hometown Strong,' and we thank you," Grissom added.

U.S. Rep. Robert Aderholt attended the special meeting and told those in attendance he was working with city officials on several options for grant funding to pay for the library.

"There are some grant programs that fit this very nicely, from economic development to rural development to fund this library, media center and community center," Aderholt said.

Re-elect JAMIE HARRIS
City Council
District 5

DISTRICT 5 RESIDENTS:

Serving the citizens of Russellville as your councilman has been a highlight of my life. So many wonderful things have taken place in the past years and we stand on the threshold of even greater things for the future.

I am so happy to say I have helped manage over $70 million dollars in taxpayer's money, adding approximately 1,200 jobs. I have helped manage over $9 million in state and federal grants to ensure the safety of our citizens. Our team has installed a red light at Lawrence St. and Hwy 24.

A modern storm shelter was located in District 5. For our students to be prepared for the future, they must receive the best education possible. I have worked to maintain funding for our school system. Another plus was obtaining a building for our early Childhood Center (the former Mars Hill Building).

A state-of-the-art library/media center will be constructed in the downtown area, thanks to the generosity of the Billy Norris family. We were delighted to receive a check from Pilgrim's Russellville for $309,000 to be used to install the largest splash pad in Alabama. This is an added plus to the City of Russellville.

Please allow me to continue working for you. If you have an idea to improve our city, let it be known. Become a part of our team. Together, we can grow and prosper.

On Tuesday, August 25, you have an appointment to let your voice be heard. If you live in District 5, I humbly ask for your vote. If you live in Russellville, I ask for your influence. Working together, we can accomplish great things and make our city a great place to live and raise our families.

Thank You.

Russellville City Council approves poll worker roster for August 25th elections

John Pilati
Franklin Free Press

The Russellville City Council approved a resolution that approved the election inspectors, chief clerks and assistant clerks for each of the city's six election boxes in the August 25, 2020, municipal election.

The resolution was approved at a special meeting held Monday afternoon. Russellville Mayor David Grissom said the compensation for poll workers increased by $25 for the upcoming election, and city officials faced some unusual challenges in filling the slate of poll workers.

"With the COVID-19 pandemic, we had some of our residents who have worked municipal elections for many years decide not to do it this year," Grissom said. "And our election manager was out of the office for two weeks, so that made it more challenging to get in contact with potential poll workers."

Inspectors will be paid $150 and all chief clerks and assistant clerks will receive $125. Lunch will be provided for all election workers.

Poll workers for August 25, 2020, include:

District One, Russellville High School: Beverly Atkins, Inspector. Randy Hester, Chief Clerk.

Debbie Beason, John Dugan and Cathy Payne, Clerks.

District Two, First Missionary Baptist Church on College Avenue: Judy Miller, Inspector. Pat Seal, Chief Clerk. BJ Bonner and Harold Mitchell, Clerks.

District Three, Russellville City Hall: James McDuffa, Inspector. William Stone, Chief Clerk. Alan Rhudy, Margaret Jackson, Clerks.

District Four, Chucky Mullins Recreation Center: Lonnie Freeman, Inspector. Pam Freeman, Chief Clerk. Ella West and Mark Swindle, Clerks.

District Five, A.W. Todd Centre: Phyllis Smith, Inspector. Gerald Smith, Chief Clerk. Ron McCulloch, Judy Baker and Wade Baker, Clerks.

Absentee Box: Mary Scofield, Inspector. Jennifer Daniel, Chief Clerk. Rita Fisher, Clerk.

You are invited to a Commemoration of the 100th Anniversary of the Nineteenth Amendment to the Constitution, allowing the vote to women. The event will be held August 20, 2020, at 12 p.m., at the Colbert County Courthouse. Chief Colbert Chapter members from Colbert and Franklin Counties will portray important suffragists, including DAR members Susan B. Anthony, Julia Ward Howe, Belva Lockwood, Harriet Taylor Upton, Sue Shelton Wright, Francis Williard, and others. Participants will gather on the sidewalk on the Water Street entrance and parade around the courthouse to the front for media coverage and photos. Women were granted the right to vote by congress August 20, 1919, and it was sent to the states to be ratified. An amendment becomes part of the Constitution once it is ratified by at least three-quarters of the states. Tennessee ratified the 19th Amendment on August 20, 1920; and it became Federal law. Alabama waited 33 years after it was added to the Constitution, until Sep. 8, 1953, to finally ratify the 19th Amendment. sewer system and have made improvements at our sewer plant.

"We fixed the main lines causing water flow to infiltrate our sewer plant. We're trying to get more businesses. And if I'm elected again, I'm going to work right away to get our town cleaned up and looking good again," he added.

Howard said his second term would focus on efforts to clean overgrown yards and dilapidated homes and buildings.

"We're going to start condemning some and draft new ordinances to make sure all yards are kept up," Howard said.

"Nobody wants to bring a business to a town that doesn't look good."

Howard's duties as mayor, combined with running Kelly's Kitchen, his Russellville restaurant, make for some long days.

"I work about 18 hours every day between the restaurant and the town. But I've got a lot of good help in our city workers, office people and our maintenance guys," Howard said. "We have a good police force and a good volunteer fire department as well."

Howard said when he took office four years ago, the Town of Littleville was operating at a deficit. Through the process of reducing expenses and securing grants, Howard said the town's last three audits have come back in order and Littleville is now operating in the black.

"That's what the good people of Littleville deserve. We are a community of hard-working people and I want them to have the benefits of their town and be able to watch it grow and move ahead," Howard said.

RON MORROW: Politics is nothing new to Ron Morrow.

Morrow, who grew up in Littleville, has former elected officials in his family and he's always had an interest in running for office himself.

When he, his wife Kelly and their two children moved to Littleville five years ago, Morrow saw his town moving in a direction that concerned him.

"Since we've been back, I've seen some different things going on as far as the services the city offers going backwards from what they used to be," Morrow said. "I feel like for the tax base and everything being paid into this city, the people who live here should be getting more back than what they are paying in. And that's not happening right now."

While Morrow acknowledges the revenue lost by Littleville when Russellville voters approved alcohol sales 10 years ago, he still believes there's sufficient revenue coming in to improve basic services received by Littleville residents.

"Our garbage bill is the highest in north Alabama, at $18 per month," Morrow said. "At one time, we had a garbage truck with a flatbed pick up from people's houses once a month, in addition to household garbage pickup. They would pick up debris or appliances that people removed for renovation. It helped clean up the town and the only way to have a cleaner town is to have services like that to keep it clean."

"Otherwise, people don't have an interest in keeping their property clean and they'll just pile stuff up and not care," he added.

Morrow, who runs the box room and does supplies/ingredients ordering for Pilgrim's Russellville, is concerned about lost assets that were sold by the current mayor and council.

"They have sold several assets the town had for pennies on the dollar. Property is a pure asset, and not something to liquidate. You can't replace land," Morrow said.

Morrow is determined to bring a pre-Kindergarten school back to Littleville, a feature he believes would attract new families to the town.

"I'm very committed to this and to making Littleville a better place to live. I grew up here and it was a sad day when they closed the school in our town," Morrow said. "I'd love to see us have another pre-K school."

"With Century 21 grants, there are some possibilities where we might be able to get a preschool or up to third grade. Once we do that, it makes the whole base of the town change. You now have something to offer people to come in and buy a home here," he added.

Morrow is also concerned that the town no longer has the necessary heavy equipment to clean up with after a serious storm or natural disaster.

"We had a sidewinder with a bush hog but the mayor and council sold all those assets. If have a natural disaster or ice storm, we need something to be able to work with," Morrow said. "You can't just rent it. Everyone will be looking and you may pay as much for a month's rental as it would cost to own the equipment."

The polling place in Littleville will be open from 7 a.m.-7 p.m., on Tuesday, August 25, 2020.

Other contested races in the town include:
Council Place One: Jenna Daniel, David McAnally.

Council Place Two: Ronald Berry, Jack Mitchell.

Council Place Four: Chase White, Diana Young.

Council Place Five: Bobby Childers, Donald Pennington.

Your team-by-team guide for must-watch games in Franklin County

Brady Petree
Franklin Free Press

Every team has that one game circled on their schedule. Whether it be a rivalry, a revenge game, or one that could have potential playoff implications down the line, there is almost always one game that stands out to both the players and even the coaches.

So this week we will take a look at one game for each Franklin County team that has the potential to be an exciting and possibly playoff-altering game.

Russellville Golden Tigers: Week two - Mae Jemison

This isn't the same Mae Jemison team that the Golden Tigers saw in 2017 where they suffered a 56-10 loss. With an offensive squad that averaged just over 23 points per game last year, it would be tough to see the Jaguars breaking last season's scoring average against the Golden Tigers given the depth and talent that Russellville possesses on the defensive side of the ball.

However this is a team that only allowed 21 points per game last season and while that's certainly a step below the Golden Tigers stellar number of 13.8 points per game allowed last season, the Jaguars were able to snag the number two spot in region 8 behind Fort Payne.

If you're a fan of defensive battles, this matchup should probably be high on your list.

Red Bay Tigers: Week eight - Mars Hill

The Tigers might just have the most intriguing schedule in Franklin County in 2020. Bookend matchups against 4A squads in Hamilton and Fayette County will surely be enticing as Red Bay looks to beef up their resume against larger schools.

However the matchup that most fans will have their eyes on is the week eight matchup against the Class 1A state runner-up Mars Hill.

The Tigers do have the upper hand in the series as they currently stand 3-1 all-time.

Last season the Red Bay defense was one of the best in the state allowing just 12.8 points per game and there's room to believe the defense will be just as dominant if not better this season as the Tigers return a plethora of defensive talent.

Look for this matchup to be one of the headlining games in Franklin County in 2020.

Phil Campbell Bobcats: Week seven - Colbert Heights

In a series that has been dominated by Colbert Heights in recent years, the Bobcats showed last season that they are ready to break that trend. Although the Wildcats were able to escape with a victory in overtime, the competitiveness and effort that Phil Campbell head coach Kevin Barnwell's team showed gave the impression that the Bobcats are ready to flip the script.

With a backfield full of talent and a defense that's getting more and more experience, the Bobcats are on the way up and this may be the year that

Brady Petree
Franklin Free Press

After six long months without any kind of official high school athletic competition, we are inching closer to the start of the 2020 high school football season in Alabama. That start will come as soon as this week for some schools across the state and Russellville is one of the schools that will get an early jump on the season as the Golden Tigers take on Decatur this Thursday night.

The Golden Tigers will open up the 2020 season on the road at Decatur to take on the Red Raiders for their week zero matchup before coming back home to take on the Florence Falcons at home in week one.

Before we jump into the home opener next Friday night, let's focus on the game at hand and take a look at what fans can expect as the Golden Tigers take the field this Thursday as head coach John Ritter and company begin their quest towards a region title.

The teams: Russellville Golden Tigers @ Decatur Red Raiders

Where: Shorty Ogle Stadium, Decatur

Time: 7:00 P.M.

Last meeting: 2007 (Decatur defeated Russellville 24-23 in overtime)

All-time series: Russellville leads the series 6-5

As we mentioned in last week's edition of the Franklin Free Press, the Golden Tigers have the upper hand in the all-time series despite the last meeting nearly 13 years ago resulting in a loss for Russellville.

Fans can expect the atmosphere to feel a lot different than any football game that they've attended in the past due to the Coronavirus pandemic. In accordance with safety guidelines, fans will be required to wear facial coverings and social distancing is expected. In addition to the facial coverings and social distancing, there will be other rules in place that fans of both sides will have to adhere to.

There will be entrances and exits that will be limited to the home and visitors sides respectively and there will be no crossover between sides allowed.

As for the game itself, the Golden Tigers expect to utilize both Gabe Amick and Conner Warhurst under center as both quarterbacks bring a different style of play to the table.

Russellville will undoubtedly rely on a heavy dose of junior running back Airreon "Boots" McCulloch and receivers TJ King (sophomore), Rowe Gallagher (senior) and Cole Barnett (senior) to carry the offensive load.

On the defensive side of things, the Golden Tigers figure to be well-equipped to stifle opposing offenses once again this year after a stellar performance from the defense in 2019.

Ritter will have a ton of experience lining up in the box for the Golden Tigers led by seniors Brooks Scott and Angel Moreno at linebacker and defensive line respectively. Senior safety Grayson Eady figures to lead the charge in the secondary flanked by fellow seniors Ashaad Williams and Caden Watts at the cornerback position.

they end the Wildcats losing streak and start a run of their own against their area rival.

Thartown Wildcats: Week one - Shoals Christian

The Wildcats draw one of the tougher regions in Northwest Alabama. However, the key for the Wildcats making some noise in the playoffs will be to catch some early momentum and ride that momentum into some tough region matchups down the road.

Over the past three seasons, the Wildcats have built up a nice three game winning streak over the Flames and they will have to up that streak to four games in order to get on a roll as their first region test will come just two weeks after their matchup against Shoals Christian as the Wildcats take on Colbert County in week three.

Vina Red Devils: Week nine - Phillips Bear Creek

The Red Devils will get a late jump on the season since their first game isn't until Friday, August 28th. Once the season gets rolling for coach the Red Devils, they have a chance to make some noise in 1A region 8.

With region games against Shoals Christian and Cherokee, two teams the Red Devils were victorious against in 2019, there is potential for Vina to secure a playoff spot if things fall right.

The key game for Vina, assuming that things fall the way they need to earlier in the season, will be the final region game on October 23rd against Phillips Bear Creek.

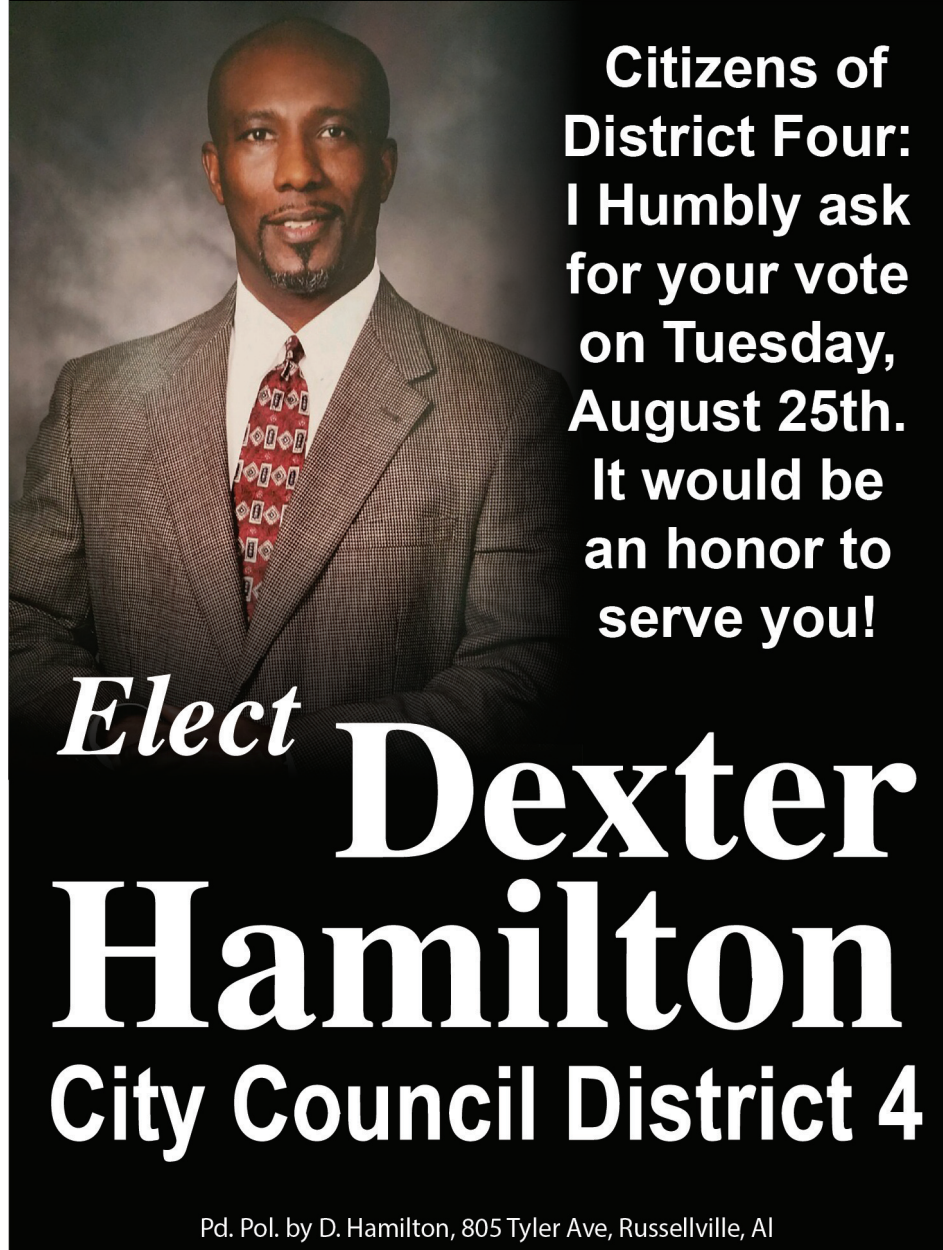

If the Red Devils can duplicate their performances against Shoals Christian and Cherokee from one year ago while pulling off another region upset before going into the game at Bear Creek, the Red Devils could be sitting pretty looking at a playoff berth.

It has been an honor to meet and listen to the Citizens of District 2 and hear your many concerns.

My opponent says he “stands for your needs,” but doesn’t list a single accomplishment for his district in 12 years! Together, let’s give District 2 the voice it deserves in the city government by appointing board members from OUR district, and fixing long-standing problems like flooding & drainage, excessive speed and neglected buildings and lawns.
