- Plan a safe way to get home.
 - Call for a ride from a sober friend, family member, taxi, public transportation, or Uber.

Mechanic to retire after 70 years in the business

By Tom Rivers, Editor | Posted 17 August 2020 on www.OrleansHub.com

John Keding, nearing 85th birthday, could fix anything

ALBION – John Keding – a mechanic since he was 14, first fixing lawn mowers – is finally calling it a career. His last day of business will be Wednesday. He has been working for 70 years.

Photo by Tom Rivers: John Keding, owner of Keding Automotive on East Avenue in Albion, has his last day of business on Wednesday. He has been working as a mechanic since he was 14.

Keding, who is two weeks from his 85th birthday, said he will miss his customers and daily interactions out in the community. Keding put an ad in this past weekend's Lake Country Pennysaver, announcing his retirement. Today, the phone rang often with congratulations.

Linn and Sarah Beckwith, customers for about 20 years, showed up in person with cookies and cards for Keding, office manager Karen Dibley and mechanic Shawn Deibel.

Mr. Beckwith said Keding has unquestionable honesty, and would spring into action for his customers.

"He provided very good service over the years," said Mrs. Beckwith. "I had a lot of emergencies. He had quite a team here. We're going to miss them."

Keding said he is selling the building at 309 East Ave. to his daughter Christine and son-in-law Michael Buorgiorne. It will be the base for Buorgiorne's construction business.

When Keding started as a mechanic when he was a teen-ager, he installed turning lights and fixed lawn mowers. He learned the auto mechanic trade at the General Motors Institute in Flint, Mich., beginning the two-year program in 1953. He worked for General Motors for three years before a two-year stint in Army at Fort Dix from 1958 to 1960.

He returned to Albion in 1960 and worked as a mechanic for a car dealership for 13 years before a brief stint as an electrician.

He opened his own business at the East Avenue location in January 1974. Keding said the work has become more high-tech with problems in cars more difficult to diagnose due to computers and electronics in vehicles.

"I've really enjoyed it," he said about his career. "It's something I always wanted to do." Shawn Deibel, 25, has worked with Keding the past eight years, starting in high school.

"John has been a good teacher," Deibel said. "He has always been accepting and if I needed help he would lend a hand. He has been a wealth of knowledge."

Karne Dibley has worked as the office manager for the past 14 years. She will be taking a job at the high school as a teacher's aide.

"He has a love for the job," Dibley said about Keding. "If it came in broken, he could fix it. He has really enjoyed being out in the community."

Travel Thoughts By Kim

Let's go on an adventure together...to the Wonderful Land of Oz!

Did you know you can visit the Wonderful Land of Oz without leaving New York State? You don't have to ride a house in a tornado. You don't have to wear magical ruby slippers. You only need to take about a two and a half hour drive – give or take, depending on the route you take – to Chittenango, NY. And... you just might encounter a wicked witch, a cowardly lion, a scarecrow looking for a brain, a rusty tin man, and a sweet girl named Dorothy while you're there.

Chittenango is the birthplace of L. Frank Baum – author of the Wizard of Oz books. The small village of Chittenango embraces their connection to the famous author with Oz-themes everywhere you look – including yellow brick sidewalks, a lovely Oz-themed public library, and the All-Things-Oz Museum. Just outside the village, they have an Oz-themed casino with an active tornado in the lobby and the Wicked Good Pizza place next door. There are several other Oz-themed shops in and around the village making sure that you can experience Oz anytime you want in Chittenango.

Downtown Chittenango, NY

Their big claim to fame is the Oz-Stravaganza festival held the first weekend in June every year. Of course, this year's event was canceled, but when it happens, it's pretty darned cool. They have all kinds of costume contests and activities for young and old, alike. One end of town is dedicated to vendors, food trucks, music, and carnival-type rides and games. All the Oz characters come to life and wander around the village for photo opportunities and to delight the kids. They also have guest appearances by authors and others giving talks and book signings. The village is small enough that you can walk all over to experience all the different parts of the festival.

Dorothy, Scarecrow, and Tin Man on the lookout for the Wicked Witch at the Oz-Stravaganza Festival

The weekend is capped with a big parade. I attended in 2017 and the Grand Marshall that year was Jane Lahr – daughter of Bert Lahr, who played The Cowardly Lion in the movie. I got to meet her and have a nice conversation with her. Come as you are or dress like your favorite Oz character – you won't be out of place at the Oz-Stravaganza. The closing ceremony usually includes a balloon lift-off to take Dorothy back to Kansas. Unfortunately, the year I was there the threat of severe afternoon storms caused them to cancel the balloon lift-off. I will have to go, again, sometime to see that part!

But, Oz isn't all that Chittenango has to offer. Back in the early days of the Erie Canal, Chittenango Landing was known for building and repairing canal boats. They have a wonderful Canal Boat Museum that is open to the public and they give school children tours to teach them all about building canal boats. Volunteers have worked to reconstruct the dry docks and other buildings that were once an important canal resource from remains that were discovered and unearthed. I really enjoyed the museum and recommend it if you're in the area.

Remnants of dry docks unearthed and restored at the Canal Boat Museum. The dry docks were used to repair canal boats in the early days of the Erie Canal.

Just four miles down the road is Chittenango Falls – I mentioned this beautiful park with a waterfall and walking trails in my Cooperstown article. Then, another five miles or so is the lovely village of Cazenovia with wonderful shops, restaurants, and a stunning lake.

One of my favorite things about the entire weekend was visiting The Wild Animal Park just north of Chittenango. It is an awesome park with lots of opportunities to get up close and personal with various animals that you can feed and pet. There are also some animals in enclosures for your protection or theirs. They also have snack huts and a bounce house for the kids, as well as a nice picnic area overlooking a lake. It is one of the better animal parks I've ever been to and is well worth the two hour or so drive.

That's me feeding one of the giraffes some carrots at the Wild Animal Park outside Chittenango, NY. I also enjoyed getting to pet and love on the sweet and gentle camels.

For my trip in 2017, I took Routes 104 to 481 and down. I went that way because I wanted to make a stop at Sodus Bay Lighthouse and it looked like the best route to get to the Wild Animal Park as my first big adventure of the weekend – I always try to avoid the thruway. I stayed at a lovely Bed & Breakfast – Bird Brook B&B right in downtown Chittenango. It is a very nice, comfortable B&B with friendly hosts and delicious breakfast. I believe it is the only place to stay right in Chittenango and it is small – just three rooms, one has a private entrance and bath (I was lucky to get that one) and the other two are upstairs and share a bath. So, if you plan to stay for an overnight or two, plan way ahead or look outside Chittenango, like maybe Cazenovia – just ten miles away. On the way back, I took Route 20 and hoped to do a few things along the way, but it was Sunday and most of what I wanted to do was closed and it was starting to rain, so I just made a couple quick stops and came home.

I highly recommend the Chittenango / Cazenovia area for a quick get-away. Whether you go the first weekend in June to participate in the Oz-Stravaganza or just go to enjoy a bit of Oz and all the other wonderful things to do in the area, you're sure to have an awesome time! And... it isn't that far to make a day trip to the Wild Animal Park and a walk down the yellow brick sidewalks in Chittenango.

If you'd like to see more photos and information about the Chittenango area and the Wild Animal Park, you can visit these posts on my blog:

THE LAW AND YOU

BY NATHAN D. PACE
 ATTORNEY AT LAW

DOES OSHA APPLY TO MY BUSINESS?

Whether or not you have to comply with OSHA (Occupational Safety and Health Act) rules or not depends on the type and size of business you are starting. For instance, if you are planning to have fewer than ten employees and your business is considered "low hazard," you are most likely exempt from OSHA regulations, but it is always best to check with your small business attorney to be sure. If it turns out your business is not exempt, your attorney can also help with navigating the regulations to create the best health and safety program for your company. This can save a significant amount of money down the line by avoiding injuries, lawsuits, and penalty fees.

You've spent years learning the ins and outs of your business, but chances are you don't want to invest that much effort into understanding the nuances of legal matters related to business. If you are interested in hiring a corporate business lawyer, rely on the Law Office of MACK & PACE. We can provide you with the consultation and representation you need to protect your business. Call our office to schedule your initial consultation. To schedule a free consultation, please call (585)798-1000.

LUVBUG25!

Here is how it all started. My husband and I always talked about getting a Dune buggy. But instead around 2010 we invested in two motorcycles. To be honest, one was a Harley and one was a Scooter! Brian got the Harley and I got the Scooter. It was going to be great fun. Together we were going to ride the highways together, side by side. That was the plan, but not the reality. First and only problem was Me. When we considered this adventure we forgot to factor in two important variables. #1 I am accident prone and #2 I do not like hair raising experiences. Don't laugh, but I found the Scooter to be scary. I was afraid to go over 20mph and I kept crashing. The clutch brake thing was too much for my brain to process. However I was determined to achieve the "M" on my license for Motorcycle and I did, so I was happy with that. The helmet matched my bike, but that could not motivate me to get back on it after I passed the road test. So I was relegated to the back of the Harley with Brian and I did not like it. I wanted to be in front, not the back. If I couldn't handle a Scooter no way was going to handle a Harley. Fast forward a couple years and someone nearly sideswipes us off the Harley. It was a unanimous decision, it was time for a change. So back to the original and much safer dream of the Dune buggy. We sold the two wheeled contraptions and began the search for a four wheeled mobile. As luck had it we found one in Orleans County. It was a year and half process but My husband restored it. It is beautiful. We named it LUVBUG25 since the year we purchased our Bug was also the year of our 25th Wedding Anniversary. Rest assured that the LUVBUG25 is more our speed. When you are in the Bug people always smile and wave because it is a happy color and is a fun shape. People are waving at the Bug not us. It is the youthful spirit of the Bug that makes people happy. A couple of kids mentioned to us that it must get "squirrely in the back end" when we get going. Kids, we do not go that fast, we are past that point in life, we just want to enjoy the ride. We have no desire to get "squirrely." I love how LUVBUG25 proudly displays the red/white & blues in the tall whip antenna. Every time we take a spin I look at My Husband and say "This is what it is all about". Being outside with the wind in your hair listening to some tunes on the radio. It makes one feel like they are part of something inviting - the world. The LUVBUG25 is manual shift which I am not skilled at. Perhaps someday I will learn, but for now I am happy to be My Luvbug's passenger and co-captain in our ride through life.. LUVBUG style. If you and your honey have a fun adventure you have dreamed of, take a chance and just do it! Whether it be a flop like the Motorcycles or a success like the Dune buggy, you never know if you don't try.

Healthy Choices

— Your guide to looking and feeling your best —

Easy ways to keep your immune system strong

The immune system is a powerful component of the human body. The immune system recognizes when viruses, bacteria and other foreign invaders enter or compromise the body, and then takes action to prevent illnesses from taking over. The average person can help his or her immune system do its job more effectively by making the immune system as strong as it can be.

Harvard Medical School says that diet, exercise, age, and psychological stress may affect immune system response. Certain lifestyle choices can promote a strong immune system.

- Get adequate sleep. Doctors believe sleep and immunity are closely tied. A study of 164 healthy adults published by the National Institutes of Health found those who slept fewer than six hours each night were more likely to catch a cold than people who slept for more than six hours. Aim for adequate rest each night to keep your body in top form.

- Increase your intake of fruits and vegetables. Fruits and vegetables supply the powerhouse antioxidants that are essential for protecting a body against free radicals. Free radicals may play a role in heart disease, cancer and other diseases. Serve fruits and/or vegetables with every meal to ensure you're getting enough antioxidant-rich foods.

- Consume fiber and fermented foods. Fiber can help feed the gut microbiome, which is linked to a robust immune system. The microbiome also may prevent harmful pathogens from entering the body through the digestive tract. Data also suggests that eating more fermented foods can further strengthen and populate healthy bacteria in the gut.

- Exercise regularly. Aim for 30 minutes of moderate exercise per day, advises the American Heart Association. Thirty minutes of exercise each day can go a long way toward keeping the body healthy. The U.S. National Library of Medicine says physical activity may help flush bacteria out of the lungs and airways. Exercise causes changes in antibodies and white blood cells. These antibodies and white blood cells circulate rapidly, so they may detect illnesses earlier than they would if you do not exercise. Body temperature also rises during exercise, which could naturally prevent bacteria from growing.

- Try to minimize stress. According to Simply Psychology, when people are stressed, the immune system's ability to fight off antigens is reduced, making people more susceptible to infections. The stress hormone corticosteroid can suppress the effectiveness of the immune system. Limiting stress through meditation and breathing exercises, or trying to remove stressors from one's life, may help.

A healthy immune system is vital to fending off or recovering from illness. ■

Do you have HEEL pain or ARCH pain?

HEEL SPUR SYNDROME/PLANTAR FASCITIS is a common problem among people who are active. It starts as a dull intermittent pain in the heel which may progress to a sharp persistent pain. Classically, it is worse in the morning with the first few steps, after sitting, after standing, or after walking.

- Plantar fasciitis often begins with irritation and tearing of the fibrous band of tissue on the bottom of the foot, which may eventually result in the formation of a heel spur.

- Contributing factors: flat pronated feet, high arched feet, poor shoe support, increased age, sudden weight increase, increased activity level, family tendency.

- Approximately 2-3 times your body weight of force is exerted on each foot with walking. Flexible, non-custom molded arch support found at those advertised shoe stores cannot support these forces and usually do not provide long-lasting relief, do not come with a lifetime warranty, and are typically more expensive than custom-molded ones made by our office.

- 95 percent of our patients symptoms are resolved with conservative treatment, avoiding surgical intervention.

- We also offer surgical procedures with the best post-op success rates using Endoscopic Plantar Fasciotomy techniques and EPF resulting in minimal incisions and scarring, immediate ambulation and often back in a shoe in one week.

If you can't remember when your feet didn't hurt, now is the time to give us a call!

SIGNS OF A STROKE

Sometimes symptoms of a stroke are difficult to identify. The stroke victim may suffer severe brain damage when people nearby fail to recognize the symptoms of a stroke. Now doctors say a bystander can recognize a stroke by asking a few simple questions:

- 1 Ask the person to SMILE.
- 2 Ask the person to TALK AND SPEAK A SIMPLE SENTENCE. i.e. It is sunny out today.
- 3 Ask the person to RAISE BOTH ARMS.
- 4 Ask the person to STICK OUT HIS TONGUE. If the tongue goes to one side or the other, that is a sign of a stroke.

OTHER STROKE WARNING SIGNS

- Sudden numbness or weakness of the face, arm or leg, especially on one side of the body
- Sudden confusion, trouble speaking or understanding
- Sudden trouble seeing in one or both eyes
- Sudden trouble walking, dizziness, loss of balance or coordination
- Sudden, severe headache with no known cause

If you or someone with you has one or more of these signs, don't delay!

CALL 9-1-1 IMMEDIATELY!

Signs of a HEART ATTACK

Some heart attacks are sudden and intense, but most heart attacks start slowly, with mild pain. Often people affected aren't sure what's wrong and wait too long before getting help. Symptoms include:

CHEST DISCOMFORT. Most heart attacks involve discomfort in the center of the chest that lasts more than a few minutes, or that goes away and comes back. It can feel like uncomfortable pressure, squeezing, fullness or pain.

DISCOMFORT IN OTHER AREAS OF THE UPPER BODY. Symptoms can include pain or discomfort in one or both arms, the back, neck, jaw or stomach.

SHORTNESS OF BREATH with or without chest discomfort.

OTHER SIGNS may include breaking out in a cold sweat, nausea or lightheadedness

Women are somewhat more likely than men to experience other common symptoms, particularly SHORTNESS OF BREATH, NAUSEA/VOMITING, AND BACK/JAW PAIN.

If you or someone with you has one or more of these signs, don't delay!

Call 9-1-1 immediately!
