SMITH, ALBERT RICHARD - 92, Tullahoma, TN. Because people mattered so much to Pastor Smith, the family has chosen to honor him now through this sharing of memories and at a later time in person with those who wish to celebrate - a time when hugs and tears might be shared more freely and safely. Pastor Smith passed away peacefully August 25, 2020. Richard was born on Sunday, June 10, 1928 and spent his 92 years making a difference in the lives of everyone who knew him and many more who did not. While he made each person feel they were most special to him, there was a small group he upheld as the most important people in his life - his family. A Tennessean from birth until death, Richard graduated from high school (also the place he met Olga) in 1946, graduated college in 1949, and began mission work in Tullahoma in 1950 while he was in seminary. Newcomers to the area were looking for a Lutheran church in their town, and he was glad to help get something started and then move to the next project after a couple of years. Trinity Lutheran Church became an established church with its first 50 members and its first minister, who remained for 42 years. Baptisms, weddings, and funerals were expected at any church, but Pastor Smith brought the community to the congregation and the congregation to the community. A friend shared, "He turned Trinity Lutheran Church into much more than just a Sunday morning congregation, hosting the Tullahoma Day Care Center until it built its own building on part of the property, the Mother's Day Out program, Farmer's Market, AA programs, and was available for pastoral counseling at any time of the day or night." When he wasn't preaching, counseling, or taking care of his family, he could be found at the University of the South in Sewanee, where he taught Greek. What a treasure he has been to so many students of life! He was known by many names, Richard, Rich, Daddy, Dad, Papa, Pastor Smith, and A. Richard. For those who knew him as a minister, his name was changed a bit by one group of youth in the 1970's who decided to call him "The Richard Smith" because he was more than one of many, he was The Richard Smith. For those who knew him as their pastor, he was the example of what a minister should be. As people have discovered of Pastor Smith's passing, they have been anxious to share how special he was in their lives. If you've never known this gentle man, you might enjoy learning of him through their words:

- Thank goodness to have known so fine a person, who was made all the better for the support and love of a woman like Olga, and children like Paula, Eric, and Terese, who shared him with all of us.
- There are "Christians" and there are true Christians, who truly practice the love they preach. The world is a lesser place today because the truest Christian I've ever known has left us.
- He was a tremendous influence on me in my life. He was there for my family & me in all the good times & bad for almost all my life. He was the best example of a man living his life as a Christian that I have ever known or hope to know. While I know heaven rejoices at his arrival, I feel his loss most acutely tonight.
- So many memories of the wonderful man that he was and the numerous times that he helped all of the folks in this area.
- Such a very special man that was such a huge part of so many lives. There are no memories of my growing up years where Pastor and family and Trinity Lutheran are not included.

- What an icon. Loved him & his sense of humor.
- Truly a father to all of us who had the great gift of growing up at Trinity under his loving care.
- He was a great influence in my life. I loved Trinity Lutheran and so admired him!
- Pastor Smith was patient, caring, a great teacher, loving, forgiving of my many mistakes, and most of all a great friend.

Pastor Smith was not one to want to be in the limelight, and happily shared the stage with others. "He could draw people out and have them talking about themselves, their work, their family," one friend shared. While he did like to preach a sermon each Sunday, it seems he would wait until Sunday morning to let the Associate Pastor know which service he would be preaching, leaving the other service for them. We have covered a lot of the life of A. Richard Smith, and there was more you might not have seen very often - his silly side. He would join in the fun at church camp and youth group, even coming up with his own song to sing: "When you're up, you're up, when you're down, you're down. Sometimes when you're up you may be upside-down. But whether down or up, upside-down or down, keep a smile on your face and never a frown." (Actions were definitely included.) And then there is the most important side of A. Richard Smith. He loved his family, taking a day off on Friday or Saturday to just hang out with his children, and giving Olga a chance to do something else. He enjoyed getting away from the ministry; he loved to spend time with the family he loved, traveling away from home to be able to be just Daddy or Dad and later Papa, with no phone to answer. So many people will miss this remarkable human, perhaps none more than Olga, Doodle-Bug, Cap, and their children. He will be missed by so many more who might not have seen him in years but who have valued his presence, his lessons, his patience, and his humor. His faith gave him assurance that his parents, Ollie, Sr. and Pauline; his beloved brother (and golfing partner), Ollie, Jr.; and his treasured grandson, William "Shane" Carnahan, were waiting for him at a heavenly reunion. The surviving family members, grateful for the wonderful example he set as husband, father, grandfather, and friend, are his gracious and much loved wife of 69 years, Olga Finney Smith, with whom he raised three incredible children, Paula (Clint) Carnahan of York, SC, Eric of Winchester, TN, and Terese (Bill) Burns of Conifer, CO; 10 grandchildren; and 11 great grandchildren. A book of memories is being put together, and your story would be a welcome addition. It will take the place of any eulogies, named, in fact 'Not a Eulogy' because he was so specific that there be no eulogy. Please send pictures and words to: ARichardSmithMemories@gmail.com; or, mail to: A. Richard Smith Memories, Trinity Lutheran Church, 705 Wilson Avenue, Tullahoma, TN 37388. SMITH, JOEY SHAWN - 46, Tullahoma, TN. Memorial service, 6:30 p.m., Thursday, August 27, 2020 at Grace Baptist Church. Mr. Smith passed away August 23, 2020. Joey, a native of Michigan, was the son of the late Jack Smith and Betty Joe Grant Smith of Tullahoma. He was a member of Grace Baptist Church. He enjoyed playing the guitar and singing as well as playing video games. He enjoyed being outdoors and working in his yard and grilling out. Joey was a very outgoing person and he loved everyone. He especially enjoyed spending time with his mother. In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by brother, Jackie Smith. In addition to his mother, he is survived by finance, Angela Adams of Tullahoma; sons, Harley Joe Lauderdale of FL and Scotty Lund of MI; brother, Eric Smith (Sandra) of Commerce, MI; and grandchild, Emily. Visitation will be held following the memorial service. DAVES-CULBERTSON FUNERAL HOME, Tullahoma, TN. (931)455-3481.

VASSAR, LORENA LYNN WINDFIELD - 58, Manchester, TN. According to her wishes, cremation has taken place. A celebration of her life is being planned by the family for a later date. Mrs. Vassar passed away August 20, 2020, in Select Specialty Hospital, Nashville, TN, after a relatively short but fearsome battle with interstitial lung disease. Lorena was the first-born of Loran II and Linda (Haney) Wingfield. She was born in Sturgis, MI on April 23, 1962, the anniversary of the birth of William Shakespeare, which is appropriate to her love of the English language. She graduated from Centreville High School, Centreville, MI, in 1980 (a decimal point knocked her down to 11th place in her class, much to her chagrin). She then attended Glen Oaks Community College. Lorena was a talented musician, playing first chair flute in the high school band. She loved to draw and write. Teachers never had to worry that an essay would not meet the required number of words. Lorena never seemed to run out of words. It didn't matter if she was meeting you for the first time, "stranger" was not part of her vocabulary. People will probably remember her most for her dazzling smile and kitten sneezes. She also loved animals, especially cats and elephants. But most of all, she loved her little Cocker Spaniel, Ozzie, who will not be able to understand why she is no longer in the bed for him to cuddle with. She was the loudest fan in the stands at her children's, Ali and Ean, ball games (just as she had been for her brother and sisters). I don't think she ever missed one. No matter how hot or cold or damp or long the day was, she came prepared with all the refreshments and paraphernalia to cheer them on and cheer them up. In the last almost 5 years she was blessed with a new joy; being GG to her grandson, Camden. When they were physically distant, they could be close on Facetime. Aah, the blessings of technology. Camden will not forget his GG. She was preceded in death by grandparents, Lawrence and Ethelyn Haney and Loran Wingfield, Sr.; and father-in-law, Fred (James I) Vassar. Lorena leaves in mourning her husband of 21 years, James (Snoopy) Vassar. They remained deeply in love and committed to their families throughout their long marriage. Also, surviving are her son, Ean Vassar, a senior at Temple Baptist Christian School, Manchester; daughter, Alexandria Kegg, a Scheduling Coordinator for the American Red Cross; grandson, Camden Kegg; father, Loran Wingfield II; mother, Linda Wingfield; brother, Larry (Alise) Wingfield; sisters, Lynda Lou Wingfield and Lucinda (Shane) Shepherd; mother-in-law, Betty Bohannan; and a loving clan of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested memorial donations be made to the Tullahoma Animal Shelter. DAVES-CULBERTSON FUNERAL HOME, Tullahoma, TN. (931)455-3481.

Dumbo loves everyone, he is a social butterfly and is so appreciative for a second chance to have a wonderful life. If you're interested in him, please call 931-454-9580 to schedule an appointment to come visit me!
