Thank You

To the kind & caring family and gentleman along with the Tops employee who all came to my rescue when my car became disabled in the Albion Tops parking lot. You all went above and beyond to help a stranded and disabled senior citizen. Thank you is all I can say... to the family who let me use their phone and to the mom who stayed with me until the tow truck came (I hope your ear is getting better); the grandmother who took the family home to Medina and came back to offer a ride to Kendall if my ride couldn't make it; to the Tops employee who ran outside to let me know my ride was on the way; to the generous and thoughtful man who gave me a charger adapter and wired up the muffler pipe. It gives me peace of mind to know there are first responders of a caring sort in Orleans County going above and beyond.

Obituaries

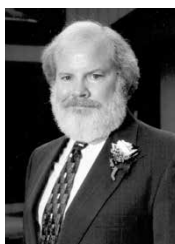

Theodore E. Baker, 99, entered into rest peacefully on Tue., Aug. 25, 2020. A son of the late Joseph and Nancy (Redner) Baker, he was born Feb. 23, 1921 in Buffalo, and lived in Medina and Middleport. Mr. Baker graduated from East High School and attended Chown's Business School in Buffalo, where he met his future wife, Eleanor Kavanaugh. A proud U.S. veteran, Mr. Baker fought in WWII, serving in the Army Air Force from 1942-1945. He was a member of the 486th fighter squadron, 352nd fighter group and fought in Ache, Belgium during the Battle of the Bulge. Mr. Baker retired as bank manager of Liberty Bank in Medina.

He will be remembered for his kindness to all creatures, especially "Pumpkin." His wit, beautiful smile, kind heart and giving nature made it an honor to call him your friend. Mr. Baker is survived by his children: Joseph (Donna), Jeffrey (Diane) and Nancy Baker; grandchildren: Amy Garcia, Kevin (Kinda) Baker, Lori (Rob) Moses, Brian Baker, Tim (Meagan) Baker, Erin (Nick) Langworthy and Mike Baker; 13 great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews; and cherished companion, Audrey Bieliski. He was predeceased by his wife, Eleanor Baker in 1975; sister, Agnes Friner; and brothers, Charles and Joseph Baker. There will be no prior visitation. Holley village offices make the move to former school

The Holley village offices and main meeting room are now located in the second floor of the former Holley High School auditorium. The village started to move over the village offices from 72 Public Square about three weeks ago.

Home Leasing has turned the building, which was vacant for more than two decades, into 41 apartments and the offices for the village.

The main meeting room includes about 70 seats from the old auditorium that were refurbished. There are also about 40 seats up in the balcony but they are for display and aren't available to the public.

Holley Mayor Kevin Lynch is a member of Holley's Class of 1975, which was the last class to graduate in the old high school. He praised Home Leasing for a stunning transformation of the building, which is prominently located at Holley's main intersection in the village.

THE LAW AND YOU
BY NATHAN D. PACE
ATTORNEY AT LAW

THE COMPLICATIONS OF CUSTODY

When it comes to divorce, the most complicated portion of the proceedings concerns child custody. Even the most well-meaning of parents can become combative when faced with that uncertainty, so it is best to know the options before going into discussions. There are two types of child custody. Joint custody is basically an even distribution of parenting responsibilities and privileges; it can refer to joint physical custody or joint legal custody or both. Physical custody is the right to have the child/children live with you, while legal custody is the right to make decisions about children's upbringing including schooling and medical care. Sole custody is when one parent is granted the right of either physical or legal custody or both.

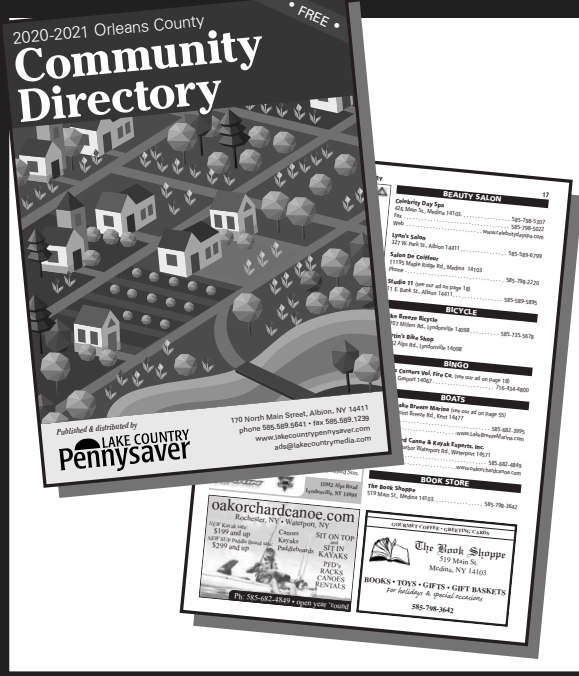

At the Law Office of MACK & PACE, we represent clients for a wide range of legal matters, including child custody. We will meet with you to understand your situation, explain your options and address any questions or concerns you may have. Our goal is to help you find the best possible solution for your family. Please call (585)798-1000 to schedule a legal consultation. Our areas of specialization include family law, business law, personal injury, estate planning, and criminal law.

HINT: Whether you have joint or sole custody of your children, it is always a good idea to keep detailed record of expenses and medical records in case you find yourself in court again.

THE UNBENDING FAITH OF THE SUNFLOWER

If you clicked into my Mid-Week Photo Perk on My Blog Site 8/19/20, you were able to see some evening photos I took at Stokoe Farms, NY this month. This trip left me wondering...what are all these Buds looking at? If you notice the vast majority of these Blossoms are all facing the same direction, away from the Sun. Puzzled, it left me needing to do some research since I always believed that Sunflower Blossoms followed the Sun. On this night it seemed to me that the Blossoms were turning their backs on the Sun as the Sun was setting. Are they in protest.. maybe it is a silent protest, a peaceful protest. Stand by Folks, I am going to Google for some answers. Okay, I am back. I truly learned a lot. In a nutshell, Sunflowers are human. Well, maybe not truly, but their life cycle behavior mirrors our own! What I am about to share with you is quite fascinating. It is how the Sunflower's life mirrors our own as we age and with great purpose. It turns out Sunflowers have an internal life clock. The young Sunflowers pop out of their soil beds each morning and say "Hello" to the Sun. Throughout the day as the Sun moves, the young Buds follow the Sun in the sky gaining strength so they may become mature Buds. Much like young children who need Sun to flourish and are eager to greet the day. An interesting thing happens when Sunflowers reach adulthood, they stop following the Sun. They have work to do. In the morning they react strongly to the Sun. As the day rolls on their movement with the Sun slows down. Yep, I get it Mr. and Mrs. Sunflower..sometimes we Adults slow down a little as the day wanes on. When you are working hard and the heat is upon you, it can slow one down a bit. What is their job you may wonder...pollination. Those big mature Buds create a lot of heat and the bees just love all that heat and are attracted to the Buds for Pollination. Too bad the adult Sunflowers didn't have the ability to take a mid-day nap. I find that helps keep me moving with the Sun. So I am glad to know all of this because I hate to think of such a beautiful blossom like the Sunflower being unhappy and organizing a protest against the Sun. The thing that is magical about the Sunflower is that as it matures it becomes so beautiful and as it fades it leaves behind tiny seeds for rebirth. A legacy and lesson for future generations, just like people. Spiritually Sunflowers represent worship and faithfulness, always seeking truth and light. Faith is a powerful thing. Faith that the Sun will rise each day and if we work hard hopefully it will bring us a life of light and purpose. A lesson to be taken from The Sunflower. So as your life matures do not bend. Keep your stalk strong like a Sunflower. Great each day with eager anticipation and serve a purpose that will bring you and other happiness..
