One And Ten

Elizabeth was surprised to receive ten dollars from her Aunt for her birthday. The Aunt asked how she was going to spend it. "I'm taking it to Sunday School and giving it to God." the little girl replied. "He'll be just as surprised as I was at not getting a dollar like usual."

A salesman rang the bell at a suburban home, and the door was opened by a nine-year-old boy puffing on a long black cigar. Hiding his amazement, the salesman asked the young man, "Is your mother home?" The boy took the cigar out of his mouth, flicked the ashes on the carpet and asked, "What do you think?"

The Evil Brothers

There were two evil brothers who were rich and used their money to hide their ways from the public eye. They even attended the same church and looked to be perfect Christians. Then, their pastor retired, and a new one was hired. Not only could he see right through the brothers' deception, but he also spoke well and true, and the church started to swell in numbers. A fundraising campaign was started to build a new assembly.

All of the sudden, one of the brothers died. The surviving brother sought out the new pastor the day before the funeral and handed him a check for the amount needed to finish paying for the new building.

"I have only one condition," he said. "At his funeral, you must say my brother was a saint." The pastor gave his word and deposited the check. The next day, at the funeral, the pastor did not hold back. "He was an evil man," he said. "He cheated on his wife and abused his family." He went on in this vein for a small time, and the surviving brother was clearly fuming in his seat. "But," the pastor concluded, "compared to his brother, he was a saint!"

Tide Detergent: It Gets The Stains Out!

Dear Tide,

I am writing to say what an excellent product you have! I've used it all of my married life, as my Mom always told me it was the best.

Now that I am in my fifties I find it even better! In fact, about a month ago, I spilled some red wine on my new white blouse. My inconsiderate and uncaring husband started to belittle me about how clumsy I was, and generally started becoming a pain in the neck. Well, one thing led to another and somehow I ended up with his blood on my new white blouse! I grabbed my bottle of Tide with bleach alternative, and to my surprise and satisfaction, all of the stains came out! In fact, the stains came out so well the detectives who came by yesterday told me that the DNA tests on my blouse were negative. Then my attorney called and said that I was no longer considered a suspect in the disappearance of my husband. What a relief! Going through menopause is bad enough without being a murder suspect! I thank you, once again, for having a great product. Well, gotta go -- I have to write to the Hefty Bag people.

Your friend, Velma

I LOVE MEXICAN FOOD

I had to apologize to the waitress at the Mexican restaurant. I ordered a Taco Salad but I was so hungry that I accidentally ate the bowl.

I not saying El P's chip sauce is too hot, but I took a jar home and put it my refrigerator and the next morning my refrigerator had defrosted!!

A cow in Northeast Texas has given birth to rare quadruplets. The four calves — now known as Eeny, Meeny, Miny, and Moo — are healthy and thriving, even though their successful birth was an extremely rare occurrence!

I eat my tacos over a tortilla. That way when stuff falls out, BOOM, another taco.

"A Woman's Prayer"

Dear Lord,
I pray for Wisdom to understand my man;
Love to forgive him: and
Patience for his moods.
Because Lord, if I pray for strength,
I'll beat him to death!
Amen!

FAIR WARNING

Finding one of her students making faces at others on the playground, Ms. Smith stopped to reprove the child. Smiling sweetly, the Sunday School teacher said, "Bobby, when I was a child, I was told if that I made ugly faces, it would freeze and I would stay like that." Bobby looked up and replied, "Well, Ms. Smith, you can't say you weren't warned."

It was a disastrous year for the farmers. The snow fell and fell until the government relief agency had to step in and lend a hand. "It must have been terrible," said the government man to a farmer. "All that snow." "Could have been worse," calmly answered the farmer. "My neighbor had more snow than me." "How's that?" asked the government man. "More land," replied the farmer.

Imagination is more important than knowledge. Knowledge is limited. Imagination encircles the world.

First Love

Pastor Josh Sims

Recently I began reading out of the Book of Revelation. Why you ask? Well because 2020 right!? Ok, just kidding about that. The real reason is due to people who are inquiring about the book, but feel intimidated by it based off of what someone has told them or something they have read. The book of Revelation is simply this, The revelation of Jesus Christ to John the Apostle. Yes, Revelation does deal with end time events, but I believe it can speak to us today as well. I want to share with you, a verse found in Revelation chapter 2 verse 4, "Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love." This verse is taken from the warning Jesus is giving John the Apostle to deliver to the church in Ephesus. As I was reading this, I couldn't help but wonder if with all the events that have taken place in 2020, have I left my first love? In this context the first love being referred to is Jesus Christ. See this year has brought so much to the table that frankly we have had to adapt to on the fly. When changes take place like this it is easy to leave our policy and procedure manuals and just react to situations rather than be able to respond. When we react based on the moment however, we can find ourselves innocently drifting away from our mission. Our mission as believers is and always will be to Love Jesus first. Jesus even said it when asked about the greatest commandment in Matthew 22:36-40. Jesus' response was, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, mind, and soul, for this is the greatest commandment and the second is like it. Love your neighbor as yourself." My personal opinion is that if we will put Jesus back at the forefront of our lives, then we will be able to respond to the changing needs surrounding us and minister to the hurting like never before. It is just like the wise man once said, "it's not how you start but how you finish that counts." Let's together come back to our first love and finish 2020 strong!

We are ALL in this together.

By: Wallace Kennedy, Jr.

We read in the story of Nehemiah 2:11-20 While building the walls of Jerusalem how all the people were facing difficulties, and emotionally challenged with anxiety coupled with fear. They all came together and was able to rebuild the wall.

Another Old Testament story of how powerful it is when people are working together is unstoppable. Genesis 11:4-6 "Come," they said, "let us build for ourselves a city with a tower that reaches to the heavens, that we may make a name for ourselves and not be scattered over the face of all the earth." Then the LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the sons of men were building. And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

We can accomplish a lot when we work together. Right now we need to work together and pray, in order to conquer this "pandemic" COVID19. You may ask what is it I can do? The way you can help is by practicing safe (social) distancing, wearing a mask, which is burdensome, shows your neighbor that you care about them.

Paul says to us: 1 Corinthians 1:10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. Also: . Romans 12:10 Be devoted to tenderly loving your fellow believers as members of one family. Try to outdo yourselves in respect and honor of one another.

There is something powerful and special about working together. 'As the writer of Ecclesiastes says, 'Two are better than one...' If either of them falls down, one can help the other up. ... A cord of three strands is not quickly broken' (Ecclesiastes 4:9-12).

In closing: When two or three come together, we can be assured the Lord is in the midst. One can put a thousand to flight two can put ten thousand to flight. If two touch and agree in the earth it shall be done.

There is power in numbers and working together. We are on the same team, with the same enemy, let's work together and win. Divided we fall but united we will stand.

Suffering

The only survivor of a shipwreck was washed up on a small, uninhabited island. He prayed feverishly for God to rescue him, and every day he scanned the horizon for help, but none seemed forthcoming. Exhausted, he eventually managed to build a little hut out of driftwood to protect him from the elements, and to store his few possessions. But then one day, after scavenging for food, he arrived home to find his little hut in flames, the smoke rolling up to the sky. The worst had happened; everything was lost. He was stunned with grief and anger. "God, how could you do this to me!" he cried. Early the next day, however, he was awakened by the sound of a ship that was approaching the island. It had come to rescue him. "How did you know I was here?" asked the weary man of his rescuers. "We saw your smoke signal," they replied

Claybank Master Gardeners

Greetings Gardeners!

While Hurricane Sally certainly blessed us with full rain barrels, it also over watered nearly everything else. Our local farmers were close to harvesting a record peanut crop, but too much rain at a time when dry weather was needed will severely diminish their harvest.

Too much rain can leach out essential nutrients from the soil, but by adding compost to your plants or a balanced granular fertilizer (such as 0-10-10 which has less nitrogen to pollute water basins) a few days after the run-off of water may help them regain much needed nutrition. If you don't yet have a mature compost source, good quality mushroom compost or composted manure from a garden center will help. Another organic source, fish emulsion (also called "fish fertilizer"), is very effective and healthy for veggies and ornamental plants. Mix a tablespoon in a gallon of water and apply.

Here's what you can plant now: But first, If you get a soil test done before you plant you will find out what to add to your soil to make your veggies thrive. Beets, broccoli, cabbage, carrots, cauliflower, Chinese cabbage, collards, kale, kohlrabi, lettuce, mustard, onions, radishes, snap beans, spinach, summer squash, turnips, white potatoes, winter squash. This list is from the Alabama Cooperative Extension System's SOW app which is easy to access from your cell phone. Let it know that you live in Zone 8a or 8b (Houston, Coffee & Dale Counties). Tap on any of the suggested veggies and more information appears about how deep and far apart to plant seeds, suggested varieties, and much more.

The Claybank Master Gardeners are again meeting every third Thursday of the month, with masks and socially distanced, at 11AM at Hoppergrass Restaurant in Ozark, 129 S. East Ave. (But please call the Dale County Extension Office at (334) 774-2329 to be sure in case of changes). This month, on October 22nd we are planning to meet. Interesting speakers, on different topics related to gardening, are usually with us.

Happy Gardening!

How Many Is Too Many

As he stood at the bar for the first time with his son the proud father said, "Now is as good of time to talk about some of the facts of life. Remember. a man that drinks beyond his capacity is no gentleman. To enjoy life you must observe a happy medium. Have a drink occasionally, but never, never, never get drunk."

"Yes sir," replied his dutiful son, "but how am I to know when I am drunk?"

"Well, you see those two men over there in the corner?" said the father. "If you were to see four men, you'd know you were drunk."

"Dad, let me have the keys," grinned the son. "There's only one guy over there."

Kids ... imagine a phone that is wired to the wall.
And all you can do is talk on it!!

Dear Dave,

My in-laws have very generously offered my wife and I $250,000 to help with a down payment on a home. I know the amount exceeds the IRS's yearly gift allowance, but they want to structure it as a family loan and have already told us they don't care if we pay it back. If we accept, we technically owe them a lot of money. If we say no, they may be offended. What do you think about this and how it might impact the relationship?

James

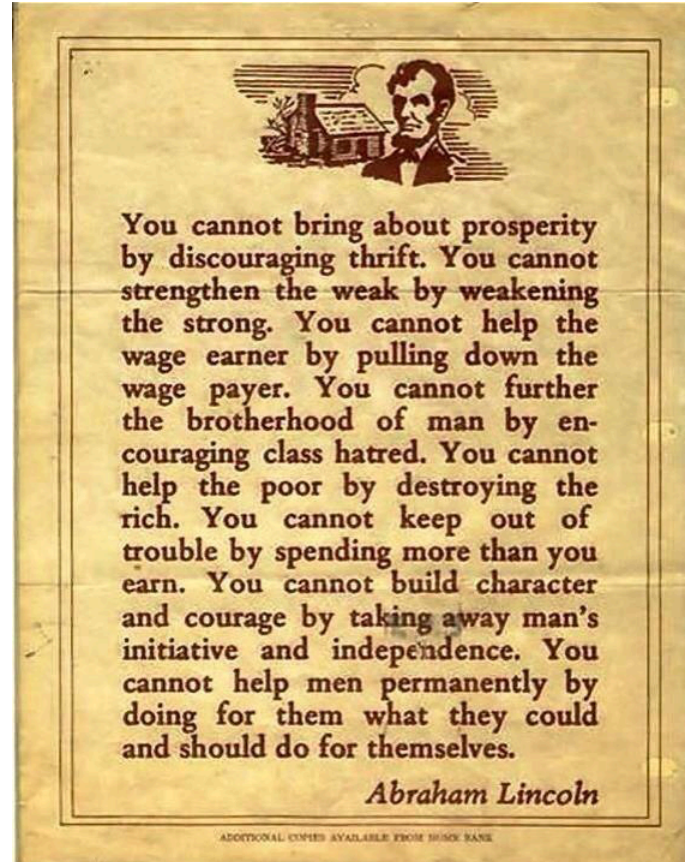

Dear James,

Well, it makes sense your wife would be onboard with the whole thing. It's her dad making the offer, so of course she would be a lot more comfortable with the idea than you are.

This is a big deal, and it's something you two should have a very serious conversation about. Get on the same page in every regard. Also, I'd recommend making sure you get everything in writing. See to it, as well, that it can be forgiven at the maximum allowable annual gift rate. In addition, in the event of death make sure it's included in the estate, it's forgiven, and there will be zero call on the note. In effect, that would make it an advance on your inheritance instead of debt. Under no circumstances should they, or any other heirs, have grounds to call the note.

That's a good question, James. And a nice gift! —Dave proclaimed "the most beautiful woman in the world." The 26-yr-old Lamarr was thriving in Hollywood when, in September 1940, Nazi U-boats hunted down & sank a cruise ship trying to evacuate 90 British schoolchildren to Canada. 77 drowned in the bleak north Atlantic. Lamarr, a Jewish immigrant from Nazi-occupied Austria, who had been making America her home since 1938, was outraged. She fought back by applying her engineering skills to development of a sonar sub-locator used in the Atlantic for the benefit of the Allies. The principles of her work are now incorporated into modern Wi-Fi, CDMA and Bluetooth technology, and this work led to her to be inducted into the National Inventors Hall of Fame in 2014.

Hedy Lamarr, often

You may not recognize Charlie Chaplin by this photo, but he lived 88 years.

He left us 4 statements:
 (1) Nothing is forever in this world, not even our problems.

- (2) I love walking in the rain because no one can see my tears.
- (3) The most lost day in life is the day we don't laugh.
- (4) Six best doctors in the world...:

1. The sun,
2. Rest,
3. Exercise,
4. Diet,
5. Self-respect
6. Friends.

Stick to them at all stages of your life and enjoy a healthy life...

A man saw a snake being burned to death and decided to take it out of the fire. When he did, the snake bit him causing excruciating pain. The man dropped the snake, and the reptile fell right back into the fire.

So, the man grabbed a metal pole took the snake out of the fire and saved its life.

Someone who was watching approached the man and said: "That snake bit you. Why are you still trying to save it?" The man replied: "The nature of the snake is to bite, but that's not gonna change my nature, which is to help." Do not change your nature simply because someone harms you. Do not lose your good heart, only learn to take precautions.

10 Lessons I Want to Instill in My Kids...

- If you're thankful, show it.
- If you love someone, tell them.
- If you're wrong, fess up.
- If you're confused, ask questions.
- If you learn something, teach others.
- If you're stuck, ask for help.
- If you made a mistake, apologize.
- If you trip, get back up.
- If someone needs help, help them.
- If you see wrong, take a stance.

Advice for Your Girls

Girls, don't chase a boy. Let him chase you. let him call you, let him text you. remember YOU are the prize. The bible says "A man should look for his wife, not a wife should look for her husband" many girls seem to let boys control their emotions which puts them into a depression stage or puts them through a heartbreak. You forget how beautiful you really are, you are a precious human being that was put on this earth to be loved by a man. If he's not willing to show you how much he cares for you by doing small things, leave. Love yourself FIRST then God will send your leading man that will love you unconditionally.

Envy shoots at others and wounds itself.
