Meet... Spunkie

I'm Spunkie and I've had a pretty rough life. I was originally found as a stray in Tullahoma with my brother last year. We kept each other sane on our little adventures then we were at the shelter for quite awhile because we wanted to be adopted out together. We were inseparable and enjoying life together till a couple of days ago, unfortunately my brother and I ended up getting separated. He is at a home while I am here at the shelter. I am a relaxed little lap dog that deserves the best home as possible.
