The frustration of DYSLEXIA is often unread

HERE ARE 7 MYTHS ABOUT DYSLEXIA

- 1 MYTH: Reading and writing letters backwards is the main sign of dyslexia.
FACT: Some kids with dyslexia write letters backwards and some don't. So, letter reversal isn't necessarily a sign that your child has dyslexia. In fact, young children commonly reverse letters. It's not unusual to see them confuse b and d or write p instead of q. If your child is still doing so by the end of first grade, however, it may signal the need for an evaluation
- 2 MYTH: Dyslexia doesn't show up until elementary school.
FACT: Signs of Dyslexia can show up in preschool, or even earlier. That's because dyslexia can affect language skills that are essential skills for reading.
- 3 MYTH: Kids with dyslexia just need to try harder to read.
FACT: Research shows that the brain does function differently in kids with dyslexia. It also shows that reading can actually change the brain over time. But effort has nothing to do with it. It's the type of instruction that makes a difference, not how hard kids try. With good instruction and practice, kids with dyslexia can make lasting gains in reading.

- 4 MYTH: Dyslexia goes away once kids learn to read.
FACT: Intervention makes a big difference in helping kids with dyslexia learn to read. But being able to read doesn't mean they're "cured." Dyslexia is a lifelong learning difference.
- 5 MYTH: Dyslexia is a vision problem.
FACT: Vision problems don't cause dyslexia. Kids with dyslexia are no more likely to have eye and vision problems than other kids.
- 6 MYTH: Kids who don't speak English can't have dyslexia.
FACT: Dyslexia exists all over the world and in all languages. But it often takes longer to pick up on reading issues in kids who are bilingual than in their peers.
- 7 MYTH: Dyslexia is caused by not reading enough at home.
FACT: Reading at home and being exposed to reading is important for all kids. But dyslexia doesn't happen because of a lack of exposure. It's a neurological condition.

What is Middle Tennessee Dyslexia Support and who are the ladies behind it?

We are a grassroots parent support group that was formed to help parents navigate the journey of dyslexia and reading disabilities, created by two mothers who have experienced first hand with their own children the struggles of dyslexia. Stacie and Jennifer are passionate about creating awareness, and connecting others to vital resources and cultivating positive change for the dyslexic community. Navigating IEP and 504 plans, homework help, social and emotional highs and lows, classroom accommodations, appropriate interventions, quality testing and therapy questions and many more. They have experienced it, and want to share their knowledge to help other parents along the way. Don't get left behind! We can help you find the local resources you need to make a difference.

NO EXPERIENCE PREFERRED

The last job you'll ever love!

We are looking to fill a full-time position on our sales team. You'll receive the training you need to be successful in this role. And you'll have the ability to earn more income every month!

“ - Sandra Thomas

I was apprehensive before applying for the position. I only had experience working in gift sales. I knew nothing about advertising. EMG put me through paid training and let me watch other sales reps. That was 10 years ago! When a business tells me “working with you is a blessing,” I can't help but smile every time.

“ - Lance Carter

Before working at Exchange Media Group, I thought they only worked in print. Come to find out, they help hundreds of digital clients, too! I love showing businesses how well our advertising works. I've seen countless businesses grow from working with us.

“ - Sissy Smith

When I first started working with Exchange Media Group, the extensive training was the most impressive part. It allows everyone on the team, no matter where we came from, to be the best we can be. As an employee, I love that our customers become our family. We're local, so we can really make a connection with them.
