Tour Historic Cemetery, Meet Famous Residents on Sunday Nov. 1

Members of the Hopkins County Genealogical Society love to dress up and bring history to life! You're invited to the Sulphur Springs City Cemetery at 2pm on the afternoon of Sunday November 1, 2020. The cemetery is a beautiful walk during the Fall. Cost for the tour is $10 person, as a fundraiser for the Genealogical Society's Research Library. Yours truly is one of the enactors, portraying the 'lady of the house' Amanda Cordelia McDaniel Pate. She was the wife of O.M. Pate, who in 1895 built the Davis Street home for their family of nine, and where I have lived for over 30 years. (And no, I haven't met them wandering the hallways of my home...yet...)

Enola Gay Mathews as Mrs. Amanda Pate, wife to early businessman O.M. Pate actual Mrs. Amanda Cordelia McDaniel Pate, about 1900, whom with husband owned Pate Hardware and Blacksmith and was involved in numerous business concerns

The Sulphur Springs City Cemetery is a beautiful and interesting walk especially during the Fall. Come and meet some of the 'late' movers and shakers in person! Between 2 and 4pm that day, tour groups will leave the Myra Wilson Chapel inside the gates of the cemetery. The lovely Myra Wilson Chapel was built in 1926. With it's spectacular stained glass windows, the Chapel is the focal point of the cemetery. The iron cemetery gates are located at the intersection of 7th Street and California Street, just north of downtown Sulphur Springs. Wear comfortable shoes and enjoy the walk!

Ruenna E McDaniels Coleman 1862 - 1953. Wife of Thomas Coleman. (Shirley Patchen and grandchildren)

Thomas Coleman 1852 - 1914 Mayor 4 terms, with Coleman Lake Park named for him. (portrayed by Thomas Patchen)

Pat Goggans as Daisy Agnes Sellers Sisk 1903 - 1994 Owner Sellers Cafeteria.

Ronny Glossup as Dr. William Carroll Hurley Sr 1829 - 1876. A Phrenologist who could rub your head and diagnose ailments.

Rhonda Bechhold as Mollie Patrick Lynch 1866 - 1958. Family owned Patrick Grocery Store, Mother to Ruth Ashcroft.

Don Faucett as William R Buford 1818 - 1914 Civil War soldier, Buford Park named for him.

Paula Altenbaumer as Elizabeth Coffey A Matron at several hotels. Owned Coffey Hotel.

Come and enjoy the Cemetery Walk with us!

Madeline Armada Hendrix Hamilton McCrary - September 24, 1929 - October 13, 2020

Madeline McCrary, 91, died peacefully on October 13, 2020, at Willow Creek Healthcare Center in Mount Vernon after a six-year battle with Alzheimer's.

She was born September 24, 1929, in Dallas, to Homer and Vera Hendrix. She graduated from Crozier Technical High School in 1945, where she studied commercial art. She also attended college in Arlington and Denton.

She married her high school sweetheart Albert Randall Hamilton on April 8, 1950, at Grace Methodist Church in Dallas. He was a fighter pilot and was killed in a plane crash on June 18, 1953, at the end of the Korean War. Together they had one child, Teresa Lynn Hamilton. In early 1957, she married John Earl McCrary at Grace Methodist. She and Terry moved to Winnsboro, where Madeline became involved in church, civic and community affairs. She was famous for dinner parties, style shows and her Christmas Eve Open House.

On August 7, 1958, the couple welcomed a son, Marcus Rance. In the fall of 1966, the McCrary family was joined by Angie Dunn. Madeline and Angie remained very devoted to each other through the years. Angie married at the McCrary home on Coke Road, with John Earl giving the bride away.

When Mark started school, Madeline decided to follow her dreams and opened the Bandbox of fashions at 303 North Main. For 33 years, the shop was known for its unique apparel, impeccable customer service and fabulous gift wrapping. She had become enamored with wrapping during her stint at Neiman-Marcus. During high school, she was recruited by Stanley Marcus to help develop specialty gift wrapping. He sent her to New York to study design. She learned those lessons well and put them to good use when the Bandbox opened.

She was the second woman elected to serve on Winnsboro's city council after Mayor Elizabeth Suiter. She was also selected as Woman of the Year by the Chamber of Commerce. She was also a part of the original group who founded Autumn Trails and was in charge of the pageant in its early days. She was devoted to her church, teaching Sunday School and leading MYF for many years.

In 1984, she and dear friend Sara Pollard began a line of clothing that was sold across the country.

After losing her husband in 1990 and later retiring from business, Madeline moved to Tyler.

Ever the realist, she moved back to Winnsboro in 2014 and decided to live at the new and lovely Autumn Wind Assisted Living. She had been diagnosed with Alzheimer's and knew what she was facing, as she had cared for her mother during her battle with the disease.

She moved to Willow Creek in June after breaking her hip in a fall. Madeline was preceded in death by first husband, Lt. Albert Randall Hamilton, Jr.; second husband, John Earl McCrary; and her parents.

Madeline McCrary is survived by daughter, Terry Mathews and husband, Chip of Winnsboro; son Mark and wife, Stacy, of Colleyville; special daughter Angie Dunn Wall of Carrollton; grandchildren Tyler Scott and wife, Amanda, of Leesburg, GA; Austin McCrary of Carrollton; Jacey McCrary of Boston, MA; Hunter McCrary and wife, Catherine, of Keller; Fernando Garcia Vega and wife, Sara of Hurst; great-granddaughter Ariel Schwartz, of Leesburg, GA; brother Robert Hendrix of Mexia; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. Memorial service to be held at a later date.

THE MAYOR BUILT FIRE TRUCKS

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

David Abernathy is the mayor of Pittsburg, Texas. His father held the same position for 52 years.

"I made a campaign promise I wouldn't stay here 52 years," says David.

He started serving his city at an early age.

"I was working at the fire station by myself when I was 16. You could get a driver license back then at 14."

He became a Justice of the Peace when he was in college.

"I became the youngest JP in the state at the time. I was still going to college and coming in and holding court. After that I was starving to death so I got into the newspaper business for about a year."

Then he joined the Forest Service. "I was with the Texas Forest Service 34 years. Whether it's a hurricane or wildfire we had that under our bailiwick and then also I did training and supervised providing assistance to all the fire departments in East Texas. A lot of people don't realize it but Texas has as large a forested area as any other southern state that's entirely forested. We've got roughly 52 million acres of forested land in Texas. It's a great agricultural commodity that comes out of East Texas in timber value."

David and his dad built fire trucks.

"We built 8 fire trucks together and gave them to the community. We literally built them from the frame up. These are fully functional fire tracks. He built 2 others besides the 8 others that he and I built "

His father was a mechanical engineer.

"My father was such a perfectionist. When I was a senior in high school we built a fire truck together. Every screw slot on that truck is straight up and down. There's not a screw that's turned perpendicular. They're all straight up and down. It serves no purpose. It's just because we could. That fire truck that he and I built when I was in high school is in service today."

David says Pittsburg has a lot going for it. Downtown is healthy. The area produces poultry and hay and has some beautiful mansions built in the late 1890's. Carroll Shelby, the Ford Mustang man, grew up in Pittsburg. The city is the hot-links capital of the state and it has the Ezekiel Airship.

"It crashed on the way to the St. Louis World's Fair but the state recognizes it as flying one year before the Wright Brothers flew their plane at Kitty Hawk. They just had all the documentation and this one didn't."
