Hanlon wins big for Orleans County Clerk

By Tom Rivers, Editor

Posted 3 November 2020 on www.OrleansHub.com

Lammes has sizable lead for Murray highway superintendent; Wilkins wins in Shelby

Nadine Hanlon won big among in-person voters for Orleans County Clerk. Hanlon received nearly two thirds of the vote over Diane Shampine.

Hanlon, who won a close Republican primary over Shampine in June, this time had a much larger vote total – 8,900 to 4,474 for Shampine.

Hanlon is the current clerk of the County Legislature. She also recently ended a 10-year stint on the Kendall Board of Education, where she was president for seven years.

Shampine stayed in the race under the Conservative Party line. Shampine is the current acting county clerk. She was the deputy for 14 years to Karen Lake-Maynard, who retired on Jan. 30.

There are potentially 2,914 absentee ballots countywide to be counted next Tuesday. So far 2,362 of those ballots have been received by the Orleans County Board of Elections.

In other local contested races:

- Murray highway superintendent: Dirk Lammes has a big lead over James DeFilipps. Lammes has 1,076 votes under the Republican and Conservative lines, while DeFilipps has 674 under the Independence line and the independent "Jimmy D for Highway" party.
- Shelby Town Councilman: Ryan Wilkins received 1,102 votes under the Republican line. Craig Stalker also mounted a write-in campaign and there were 229 write-in votes.

The other local positions were unopposed:

- District Attorney: Joe Cardone (R) – 11,794
- Coroner (elect 3): Scott Schmidt (R) – 10,980, Charles Smith (R) – 9,594 and Rocco Sidari (R, C) – 10,262.
- Murray Town Justice: Theodore R. Spada, Jr. (R) – 1,441
- Murray Town Councilman: Randy Bower (R) – 1,433
- Shelby Town Supervisor: Jeff Smith (R) – 1,264

Sunday Morning Positive Perks
from your Sassy Small Town MissusA GREEN WOOL COAT

Have you ever admired something and then it was gifted to you? That is the story behind this Green Wool Service Coat. A while ago, while browsing at the once Fairhaven Treasures, I was drawn to this Wool Coat that was hanging in one of the upstairs rooms. It had history, you could just tell. Here is the Coat's story and the Veteran who wrapped himself in it, in duty to His Country - The United States of America. The Gentleman who wore this Coat was a Corporal in the Marine Corps. He was an infantry man. A weapons expert. A M-60 machine gun was his main weapon. He served two tours in Vietnam during 1964-1966, with a 30 day leave home in between. His time in Vietnam found him often in the jungle and in combat. Like most Veterans of the day, his wife says she does not know much of his time in combat. Those that serve during War-time keep their stories close to their hearts and those stories will further shape their minds for the rest of their lives. So imagine my surprise when his wife came to me one day and said her husband asked her to gift it to me. Yep, goosebumps and tear in the eye. What struck me is when I put this heavy Green Wool Coat on with it's green buttons adorned with the Marine Seal of the Eagle, The World and The Anchor, it was quite heavy and yet small. It nearly fit like a glove and I am only 5'2 and 125 pounds. It was profound because it makes one realize how young those that serve our country often are. The person that wore this in his youth must have been of small stature as many young soldiers are. This Coat gave comfort to a Soldier when he needed comfort. Nobody truly knows the story behind the Soldier who wears the Coat. Only the Soldier knows. He honored me with this because I gave his dog a home when he could no longer care for him and he knew I had admired the coat. I do not know this Gentleman personally, but was told he was so grateful we took his dog and gave him love. Well if he reads this, I hope he knows how grateful America is that he stood strong for us. Without Veterans like him America would not be "The Land Of The Free." Never take for granted our Armed Forces. Without their courage, sacrifice and determination we would have no National Security. November 11th is an American National Holiday that celebrates all Our Military Veterans who serve with honor for our protection. Most people have someone in their family who has served in the military. How inspiring to think a person would put aside their own safety and freedoms for honor and duty to the American People. Because if you think about it, while a Soldier serves they are at the mercy of the American People. Their civilian freedoms are put aside to protect your freedoms. Never forget that or take that for granted. Thank you to all Veterans and their Families who sacrifice, this November 11th and Always.

See my special honor and share who you honor, visit My Blog live online at <https://www.positiveperksposts.com> and catch up on Weekly Photo Perks and past Sunday Posts. Like and Share Your Comments. .

ATTORNEY AT LAW

HOW IS ALIMONY DECIDED?
While alimony may seem arbitrary if your only exposure to it comes from television and movies, there is actually a well-established method judges follow when establishing alimony payments. One of the most important factors in the decision is the length of the marriage, since longer marriages result in more financial reliance. The age of both parties is also taken into consideration as both advanced age and youth affect a person's ability to re-enter the workforce. Economic contributions to the marriage and marital assets are another large area of consideration for judges in cases where alimony is used to essentially reimburse a spouse for money paid on his or her behalf, such as college tuition or job training.

The purpose of alimony is to limit any unfair economic effects of a divorce by providing a continuing income to a non-wage-earning or lower-wage-earning spouse. Part of the justification is that an ex-spouse may have chosen to forego a career to support the family, and needs time to develop job skills to support themselves. From divorce and custody cases to elder law and Medicaid planning, the experienced pros at the Law Office of MACK & PACE help can help you with a variety of family law cases. To schedule a consultation, please call our office at (585)798-1000.

(585) 798-1000
534 Main St., Suite 6
Medina, NY 14103

HINT: Although there are accepted time limits on how long alimony can be paid, a judge can extend or reduce that time based on the individual case.

MTA Clean Up Crew Does An Outstanding Job!

Teacher Association (MTA) members, at Medina Central School District, spent a fall day cleaning up Maple Ridge Road. The team has been doing this for 20 years and adopted the stretch of highway which they clean in the spring and fall every year.

Twenty-three participants took part this year and stayed socially distanced as they cleaned up the roadside. Todd Bensley, a high school Social Studies teacher, says it is a great opportunity for them to give back to the community. "It's a way to support the MTA's efforts in the community and give myself and my colleagues a chance to see each other outside of the school day and connect with teachers in other buildings at our district. We even found a $20 bill!"

Two eighth-graders receive Character, Leadership Awards at Albion BOE meeting

Two students from Albion's Carl I. Bergerson Middle School were presented with awards during the Board of Education meeting on Monday night.

While the meeting was held virtually, a pre-recorded video aired of Middle School Principal Brad Pritchard officially presenting eighth-graders Cassie Brown and Nick Prest with their awards.

"Cassie Brown was nominated for the Leadership Award because she is viewed in our building as someone who is conscientious, diligent and overall just a pleasant person who people love to be around," Pritchard said.

Nick Prest, also in eighth grade, received the BOE Character Award.

"He is a voracious reader and very diligent with his schoolwork," Pritchard said. "Nick has stood out to his teachers this year for the outstanding job he has done managing the remote learning model. He not only keeps up with the learning, he stays ahead."

Both students truly value everyone, everywhere, every day.

Congratulations, Cassie and Nick!
