Happy 100th Birthday E.A. Junell Jr.

On November 16, 2020, E.A. Junell, Jr. turns 100. What does 100 years look like? Well, for E.A. it started in Cumby, Texas where he was born to Mattie McQueen and Elmer Junell. E.A. had one brother, Billie and one sister, Donnie. Quite the athlete, E.A. won the State Championship at Cumby High School in the 100 yard dash. E.A. graduated from there in 1939 and from there he went to business school. In 1943, E.A. married the love of his life, Donnie Plunkett and enlisted in the Army. From Cumby, Texas, E.A. moved to Greely, Colorado for army school at the Air Force Academy. Forever a patriot, E.A. served his country in World War II and spent time in Burma, China and Tasmania throughout his service. Following his time in the service, E.A. learned the banking business at banking school in Greely, Colorado and thus began his fulfilling career in banking. During his career, E.A. worked at Citizen's National Bank in Greenville, Texas and Sulphur Springs State Bank (now Alliance Bank) in Sulphur Springs, Texas. Always one to stay busy, E.A. enjoyed ranching and always maintained a fruitful garden at his house with wife, Donnie. He is also a member of the First Baptist Church in Cumby and has been since 1943. When asked how he managed to live to such a great age, E.A. simply replies that the secret to a long life is eating little green onions every day!

You are invited to a "drive by" Monday, November 16, from 1 to 2 p.m. at Wesley House on Church Street. E.A. will be outside under the portico area to wave.

Veterans Day

November 11

A Salute To Our Veterans....

On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918, an armistice, or temporary cessation of hostilities, was declared between the Allied nations and Germany in the First World War, then known as "the Great War." Commemorated as Armistice Day beginning the following year, November 11th became a legal federal holiday in the United States in 1938. In the aftermath of World War II and the Korean War, Armistice Day became Veterans Day, a holiday dedicated to American veterans of all wars.

Disabled Veterans Memorial Located on Downtown Square in Sulphur Springs.

The Hopkins County Veterans Memorial Committee held a dedication ceremony on Saturday, November 9, 2019, on the Sulphur Springs downtown square, to unveil the life-sized bronze sculpture of a disabled soldier and his service dog, Johnny & Bella, entitled FREEDOM IS NEVER FREE. The sculpture by artist John Parsons of Kansas City was commissioned by the Hopkins County Freedom Ball Committee and sponsored by Mickey and Barbara McKenzie and family. The names of Hopkins County Patriots Killed in Action (KIA) that were recently engraved on the Memorial Walls were read aloud, commemorated and dedicated by Veterans of Hopkins County. Along with a flyover, remarks were given by Congressman John Ratcliffe, County Judge Robert Newsom, Hopkins County Veterans Service Officer Danny Davis and Mickey and Barbara McKenzie. The sculpture features a man with a prosthetic leg along with his service dog. Models were Mike and Pam Elliott's son, Cody, and their dog, Bella. The beautiful Veteran's Memorial is located just south of the Hopkins County courthouse in Heritage Square in downtown Sulphur Springs.

RUNNING ULTRA MARATHONS

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

Miles Benevich of San Antonio tries to run an ultra marathon once a month. Recently he ran a 100-kilometer race (62 miles) in the Colorado Rockies.

"That was by far my slowest run. They gave us 24 hours to complete it and I finished a little over 20 hours. I started at 3:15 in the morning and finished at midnight, so there was a lot of running in the dark with just my headlight to show the way. It was exhausting because of the elevation and I thought I might come in last, but there were other runners behind me." He saw some wildlife.

"I took some pictures. I have a page on Facebook called Doing the Miles. I put some photos on it of the moose that I saw in the mountains."

Once he circled San Antonio on foot.

"I ran 100 miles around Loop 1604. That was my largest run so far. It took me a good 25 hours to complete that run."

His goal is to run 3,000 miles this year. He started running just 3 years ago. "I smoked cigarettes all my life and spent a lot of time not doing anything. This really is a new adventure for me. I just decided to get my life and health together. Not that I had low self-esteem or anything, but I just got tired of seeing that person in the mirror and decided to make some changes. They really have seemed to take me to another place and I just enjoy doing it. I have had so many benefits from it and have met some really fantastic people along the way."

Miles makes his living as a funeral director and when he doesn't have business or family obligations, he takes a run. An app on his phone records his running. "It records all my runs and breaks down all the activities and shows the routes that I run every day. It's just a simple app available to runners."

Sometimes he runs obstacle courses.

"Every so often, maybe a half mile or mile, there's an obstacle. It might be monkey bars or swinging on a rope or doing some sort of climb, maybe swimming through some freezing cold water, just some little obstacles to break up the run."

Some obstacle courses feature electrical shocks.

"They look like you're running through a long hallway or a tunnel, but hanging down from the ceiling are electrical wires. I'm not sure how much voltage they carry but the first one I ran across threw me to the ground."

Miles says anyone can start a running program. It just takes determination and confidence. He has lost 20 pounds since he started running.
