Mrs. "Tacky" once called up the ReStore:
"I have furniture, 'treasures' and lots more!"

The sofas were moldy.
The "treasures" were phony.
All her junk just got pitched out the back door.

Don't be Tacky! Take your junk to the Dump!

* "At a home center recently, I saw a zip-up bag to store artificial Christmas trees in. This bag looked like luggage, with wheels on one end. I have purchased two, and I use them under my bed to store off-season clothes. I can pull the handle and they wheel right out, and I no longer have to get down on the ground and tug them out as I used to do. It's a back saver." -- I.W. via email

* If you get a scratch in a white enamel sink or other white enamel surface, try touching it up with white fingernail polish.

* "Try soaking an ink stain in rubbing alcohol for a few minutes before putting the garment in the wash." (Test first on a scrap.) -- B.D. in Virginia

* "If you have a picture frame that just won't stay straight, cut the eraser tip off of a pencil and glue the flat (not the domed) side to the back of your frame at the bottom. For stubborn frames, use one at each corner. Then re-hang. Once you situate it on the wall, the erasers keep the frame from slipping to either side. It works great." -- R.I. in California

* Don't just move dust around with that feather duster. Reserve it for dusting delicate items in a designated space (outdoors, preferably). Get a microfiber cleaning cloth instead. It catches dust and holds it.

* To make your own special flavor of coffee creamer, use a pint of fat-free or low-fat half and half and add the extract or spices of your choice. Some ideas: peppermint extract, chocolate syrup, almond extract, cinnamon, nutmeg or vanilla extract.

My son asked me
"Where does poo come from?"
I was a little uncomfortable but gave him an honest explanation.
He looked a little perplexed, and stared at me in stunned silence for a few seconds and asked, "And Tigger?"

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) This year, instead of jumping into the whole holiday prep scene, move in a little at a time. You'll appreciate the sense of control you're more likely to enjoy.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) The separation between the Bovine's head and heart is never as far apart as it seems. Both senses work best when they come out of logic and honesty.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) The best way to keep those pre-holiday pressures under control is to just say no to taking on new tasks while you're still trying to work with a heap of others.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) News means a change might be on its way, but what does it hold? Don't just ask questions; make sure you get answers you can trust

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Old friends and new have one thing in common: Both your longtime and newly minted pals have much wisdom to impart.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) With time running out, this is a good time for you to show 'em all what those Virgo super-organizational skills can do.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Librans and holidays are made for each other, especially if children and animals are going to be part of your joyous season.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Time is getting too short to allow a spat to taint the holiday season. Restart your relationship and reschedule holiday fun times.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Seeking advice is laudable. You might learn far more than you thought you could. Stay with it.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Continuing to assess changes works toward your getting your new project up and ready. Trusted colleagues remain ready to help.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) That new situation needs a lot of attention, but it's worth it. This is a very good time for you to involve the arts in what you do.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) It might be a good idea to slow your hectic holiday pace so that you don't rush past what -- or who -- you're hoping to rush toward.

BORN THIS WEEK: Others pick up on your confidence in yourself, which inspires them to believe in you and your special gifts.

POLICE CHIEF RECEIVES EXCELLENCE IN POLICING AWARD

Police Chief Scott C. Booth on Monday was presented with the Excellence in Policing Award from the Radford University Center for Police Practice, Policy and Research. The annual award recognizes police leaders who champion innovative strategies that improve policing and bring about change in a community.

Since joining the City of Danville as police chief in January 2018, Booth has led the Police Department in implementing community policing and a stratified policing approach. The stratified policing model uses evidence-based strategies that are proactive rather than reactive.

"When I first came here, I saw there was so much potential in the city, and specifically in that (police) department," Booth said today when accepting the award. "... It was a community that was hungry for community policing and a better way to do things. I had the support of City leadership, which wanted things to get better and told me on day one that 'we want this to be a premier place to live, work and play, and we want you to help us to get there.'"

Booth said the department also was "hungry to get better."

"It was a professional department, and it was open to new ideas and new ways of doing things," Booth said. "We've done some really good things, and we have a lot more as a city and an organization that we are going to do together."

When presenting the award, Roberto Santos, co-director of the center and associate professor of criminal justice at Radford University, called Booth a leader in embracing evidence-based strategies and creating change in a police organization to institutionalize these practices while partnering with the community at the same time.

"The Danville Police Department, through his leadership and with the community support, has been able to bridge the two together where you are able to sustain crime reduction to make the community feel safer while building this partnership and relationship with the community," Santos said.

Rachel Santos, co-director of the center and professor of criminal justice at Radford University, said the center holds Booth and the Police Department as examples for other police departments in Virginia and the nation.

"With this award, we really wanted to recognize Chief Booth for his strong and effective leadership, as well as the Danville Police Department, which has become a premier police agency in Virginia and the United States," she said.

The Center for Police Practice, Policy and Research gives this award once a year to a current sworn police officer, supervisor, commander, or executive who is a leader in their agency and has been a champion for the implementation of innovative strategies that bring about change and improve policing.

Animal Antics Fundraising Event

Like every other organization, the Danville Area Humane Society has been affected by the current pandemic. As a result of restrictions and in an abundance of caution, we have not been able to hold our normal fund raising events during the spring, summer, and fall.

Our work, however, to help the animals has continued and has even expanded during this time. We have established a pet food bank and have increased the number of transfer partnerships. We have remained open-admission, accepting any animal needing our help. During this time, we have also needed extensive repairs at the shelter. There has also been an increase in animals received that needed veterinary treatment.

Amid all these challenges, we are pleased to announce that we have gone virtual with a fundraising event! We want to see how your pets have kept themselves busy during this time; their pictures will be posted on our Facebook page. Our Animal Antics event allows you to show off your animals. Participation in our Animal Antics costs $10 for one pet or $15 for multiple pets. The registration fee includes an event T-shirt.

To register, visit our Facebook page and click on the link to the Google form. Registrants will be sent an invoice. Once that is paid, a picture of an animal will be e-mailed to us and it will be posted on our Facebook page. You may pay through the PayPal link on the page, pay over the phone, or come to the shelter and pay in person.

The picture can be of a dog playing, cat napping, bird swimming, bird chirping, or whatever antics your animal enjoys. Be creative, show off, and make people laugh and clap at the talents or shenanigans of your pet!

People who do not have their own pet can sponsor a shelter animal and help it get adopted. Just click on the link on the Facebook page and note on the form that you want to sponsor a shelter animal. A picture will be taken of the sponsored animal and posted.

We are very grateful to our sponsors:
