Sunday Morning Positive Perks

from your Sassy Small Town Missus

THANKFUL FOR A LIFE TO BE LIVED

Tim McGraw's song Live Like You Were Dying holds special meaning this Thanksgiving. The lesson, don't take for granted tomorrow and don't hold back on your dreams. You never want to look back and wonder why you allowed yourself or others to hold you back. Life is a gift to delight in and hopefully not fear. Rise up each day as if it might be your last and live it like you were dying. That perspective as depicted in the song would be a great gift. Run, skip, love, hug, show kindness. Know that God is with you, don't be afraid. A positive perspective that propels me daily is, I would rather die tomorrow knowing each day I lived life than live forever knowing I was afraid to live. It is the power of quality over quantity, because you never know what news you could get tomorrow that could change everything. A three month illness was a true wakeup call, a turning point. When you lay in bed at night, sometimes in tears because there is so much pain, you tell yourself, "if I can get to the bottom of this illness and Get Myself better, I will never take my days and life for granted". I guess that is why I am so sensitive to feeling as if others are trying to hold us back. If illness falls upon me again, I don't want to look back and say "I should of, when I could of." And if you noticed I said "Get Myself" better. Never depend on others to keep you safe. That is up to you. Do what is needed to be your best self and allow yourself to live life to it's fullest. If you are not your best self take 100 percent pride in getting yourself there, if it is within your ability. If others are willing to make the sacrifice you must be willing to also look within yourself to be your best self. In the song he reads the Good Book and realizes that life is meant to be lived like you were dying. We may not go skydiving or rocky mountain climbing, but we should hug often, laugh often, twirl around, sing, throw our hands up to the sky. Love deeper, forgive others, let the weight of the world evaporate and experience true Joy. Don't be someone who might wonder what they would do if they could do it all over again. Tomorrow is a new day, a second chance. Start living like you were dying. Living life to the fullest, while becoming a better person. When you look back at your life, if it ended tomorrow, what do you hope to see? Make it happen now because tomorrow is never guaranteed. Travel, see those you love, hug them, laugh with them, share adventures with them. Because the dawn of a new day brings a new reality. Make that reality one that makes you feel fulfilled. Have a blessed Thanksgiving full of love, family and of course food.

New memorial at Courthouse Square dedicated to veterans

By Tom Rivers, Editor Posted 11 November 2020 on www.OrleansHub.com

ALBION — A new veterans' memorial was dedicated on Nov. 11 at Courthouse Square. The Knights of Columbus, Albion Council #1330, took the lead in the project.

The headstone for the monument includes the inscription: "Dedicated to our courageous brothers and sisters of this community who served our country in times of peace and war. We thank them for their service. And especially to those who gave their lives in that service. May God grant them eternal rest."

The stone includes the insignias of the U.S. Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, Army National Guard and Merchant Marine. The new flag pole includes a flag that recognizes the different branches of the military.

Greg Dugan is the grand knight for the Knights of Columbus in Albion. He also has been a local barber since 1991. He said many of his customers over the years have been veterans. He mentioned the late Albion Town Justice Bill Larimer, who was a POW in World War II. Dugan noted the late Rocco Sidari and Charles Shervin. Other current customers, including Ben Jones, currently serve in the military. Jones just returned from tours of duty in Iraq and Afghanistan.

"I've had contact with so many veterans, young and old, since 1991," Dugan said before today's ceremony. Once they are in the barber chair, Dugan said many veterans open up and share about their experiences, including in combat.

Dugan thanked Orleans County officials for supporting the project and allowing it to be in a prominent place in the community. "It's been a heart-warming and amazing experience," he said.

The memorial includes two granite benches. One bench has an inscription, "To Commemorate." The other has the words, "To Heal."

"Thank you for taking the time to remember our veterans," Dugan told the crowd on Nov. 11. "They never gave up on us and we can't give up on them."

Photos by Tom Rivers: Members of the Honor Guard were present on Nov. 11, Veterans Day, for a dedication service for a new veterans' memorial at Courthouse Square.

Greg Dugan, the grand knight for the Knights of Columbus in Albion, speaks to a crowd of about 50 at the dedication ceremony.

Heartfelt thank you sent out to Hospice of Orleans County, Respiratory Services, and Christopher Mitchell Funeral Home. Your kindness, compassion, care and respect shown to my mother, Joyce Surowy, was greatly appreciated. It was an honor to have your help in our time of need.

PROTECTING YOUR ASSETS

A living trust, or revocable trust, can be an excellent tool for protecting your money. Unlike a last will and testament, these trusts do not become part of public record, so they can also protect your and your family's privacy as well as help avoid a long probate process for your family after your death. A revocable trust will not protect your assets from creditors. Even once your assets are part of a revocable trust you, as the trustee, are still in ownership of them, and since the trust can be altered or canceled at any time, they can still be claimed by creditors. After your death you are replaced by a "successor trustee," but the situation remains the same.

Estate planning is a smart step for everyone, regardless of income, wealth or the size of your estate. The Law Office of MACK & PACE helps individuals and families craft estate plans that suit their needs and provide stability and security for the future. To schedule a free consultation, please call (585)798-1000. We emphasize living wills and trusts, mortgages and foreclosures, small business, powers of attorney, probate and estate law, and vehicle and traffic law.

HINT: If protecting your assets from creditors is a priority for you, you should probably consider an irrevocable trust in which the trust has ownership of the assets.

Gift-Wrapping Tips and Tricks

Much of the focus of each holiday season is on gift-giving, but all those gifts will eventually need to be wrapped. Stacks of presents just waiting to be covered with paper and ribbon can overwhelm gift givers, prompting them to put off wrapping gifts until the last minute.

Handle oddly-shaped items

Wrapping rectangular boxes can be a snap, but what about something that's round or full of angles? Think about placing oddly-shaped items inside another item to make the shape more uniform. Shoe boxes, coffee cans and even paper towel rolls can hold items. Then place the wrapping on these containers.

Cover prices

To enable easy exchanges or returns, do not cut off the price tags of gifts. Instead, place a festive sticker over the dollar amount, but leave the scan bar visible. This way the gift recipient can return the gift with ease if necessary.

Keep supplies at the ready

Devote a bin or bins to wrapping supplies and tools. Having scissors, paper, tape, ribbon, and more in a designated spot will cut down on having to hunt and peck when it comes time to wrap. Martha Stewart suggests getting a rotary cutter to cut long straight or decorative edges on wrapping paper. Rotary cutters may be easier to use than scissors, especially when paired with a ruler.

Wrap on a firm surface

Devote a table or counter to wrapping gifts. This will keep the paper taut and neat and make it easier to cut and position. You risk tearing the paper or puncturing it when working on carpeting or bedding.

Color- or pattern-code gifts

It's easy to visualize who gets what gift when each recipient has his or her own special wrapping paper. This is also a handy idea when wrapping gifts from Santa, as it will differentiate the Santa gifts from the ones being given by Mom and Dad. ■

Village of Lights

We're encouraging residents and businesses in the Village of Medina to decorate their homes and businesses this year! Seven categories & a Grand Champion will be awarded prizes. Entries must be received by Nov. 30 and decorations must be completed by Dec. 7. Entry forms, categories, and rules can be found at www.christmasinmedina.com. Let's make this year a little brighter!

HIGHLIGHTED EVENTS

- Home For The Holidays 5K on Saturday, November 28th at 9:00 am. SOLD OUT!!! Join us for Shop Small Saturday (Saturday, November 28th)! Check out the specials being offered by our local merchants. Shop Local!!
- Visit with Santa at the Senior Citizen Center, 615 West Ave., on Saturday, November 28th. Social distancing and masks are required and unfortunately no sitting on Santa's lap this year. Santa and Mrs. Claus' schedule for their appearances at the Santa House in Rotary Park throughout the holiday season will be available online at Medina's Olde Tyme Christmas Facebook page and posted in store windows.
- 4th Annual Parade of Lights Toy Drive (Saturday, November 28th) – As with other groups, they too have adapted and this year are hosting a "Santa Hat Drive" at the start of the parade (think boot drive for Christmas). Parade guests are encouraged to empty their couches and bring their spare change; all donations go directly to help make a brighter Christmas for kids right here in Orleans County. Watch for the elves out collecting!
- Virtual Cutest Little Elf Contest – pictures can be submitted to Medina's Olde Tyme Christmas Facebook page starting on Saturday, November 28th through Saturday, December 12th. Winners will be based on how many likes a photo receives and will be awarded prizes from some of our Hometown Businesses! Parents please keep in mind, before you post a photo, that your child's photo will be published on Facebook and seen by quite a few people.
- The Children's Window Scavenger Hunt theme this year is "The Night Before Christmas Mouse" – Entry forms will be available online at christmasinmedina.com and at The English Rose Tea Shoppe, 527 Main Street.
- Christmas Market (every Saturday until Christmas) – located at Canal Village Farmers' Market, corner of West Ave. and West Center St. Looking for something special for that certain someone, or maybe something delicious for your holiday feast? Check out all the goodies at the Christmas Market!

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES

- The children's activities will be offered for TWO WEEKS (Saturday, November 28th through Saturday, December 12th) (unless otherwise noted)) during each business's regular hours. We are extending the time period this year to avoid any large crowds that might conflict with health department recommendations.
- Win an electric toy train set! Drop off a non-perishable food item at The English Rose Tea Shoppe, 527 Main Street, and receive one raffle ticket for each item you bring! Donations will be given to the Medina Food Pantry.
- Have the kids stop in and pick up their special Santa Claus stationary to write their letter to Santa at The English Rose Tea Shoppe, 527 Main Street. After they're done with their list they can mail it in Santa's special mailbox right in front of Rotary Park! While you're dropping off canned goods and picking up stationary, we'll be handing out free tea samples of our most popular teas.

SIGNS OF A STROKE

Sometimes symptoms of a stroke are difficult to identify. The stroke victim may suffer severe brain damage when people nearby fail to recognize the symptoms of a stroke. Now doctors say a bystander can recognize a stroke by asking a few simple questions:

- 1 Ask the person to SMILE.
- 2 Ask the person to TALK AND SPEAK A SIMPLE SENTENCE. i.e. It is sunny out today.
- 3 Ask the person to RAISE BOTH ARMS.
- 4 Ask the person to STICK OUT HIS TONGUE. If the tongue goes to one side or the other, that is a sign of a stroke.

OTHER STROKE WARNING SIGNS

- Sudden numbness or weakness of the face, arm or leg, especially on one side of the body
- Sudden confusion, trouble speaking or understanding
- Sudden trouble seeing in one or both eyes
- Sudden trouble walking, dizziness, loss of balance or coordination
- Sudden, severe headache with no known cause

If you or someone with you has one or more of these signs, don't delay!

CALL 9-1-1 IMMEDIATELY!

The best way to prevent & treat chapped lips

Chapped lips can be an unpleasant reminder that the weather is changing. Many different people experience chapped lips periodically, but they seem to be especially common when the air is dry and cold. The health and wellness resource Healthline.com says that, because the lips do not contain oil glands like other areas of the skin, they are more prone to drying out. Therefore, people need to take extra steps to keep their lips moist.

Stop licking your lips

The Mayo Clinic says that saliva evaporates quickly, which can leave lips drier than they were before you licked them. Flavored lip balms may entice you to lick your lips more.

Rely on sunscreen

Use a lip balm that contains sunscreen, which can help prevent the lips from damage caused by UV rays, further exacerbating dryness. UV rays are present all year long.

Protect your lips

If you know it's going to be cold and dry outside, apply a lubricating lip cream or balm before heading outdoors. Products containing petroleum, beeswax or coconut oil can help lock moisture in. Reapply often. Also, a scarf or balaclava can help block wind that dries out lips.

Use gentle skin care products

Some people are prone to allergic reactions from cosmetics or skin care products. Read the ingredients carefully and avoid those that have led to reactions in the past.

Drink more fluids

Be sure to drink plenty of water to avoid dehydration, which can dry out lips and skin.

Avoid mouth-breathing

Drawing air in through your mouth can further dry out the lips. Alleviate a stuffy nose so you can breathe through your nose more easily.

The Mayo Clinic recommends speaking with a doctor if chapped lips are chronic and not easily remedied, as this may be a symptom of an underlying condition. ■

Signs of a HEART ATTACK

Some heart attacks are sudden and intense, but most heart attacks start slowly, with mild pain. Often people affected aren't sure what's wrong and wait too long before getting help. Symptoms include:

CHEST DISCOMFORT. Most heart attacks involve discomfort in the center of the chest that lasts more than a few minutes, or that goes away and comes back. It can feel like uncomfortable pressure, squeezing, fullness or pain.

DISCOMFORT IN OTHER AREAS OF THE UPPER BODY. Symptoms can include pain or discomfort in one or both arms, the back, neck, jaw or stomach.

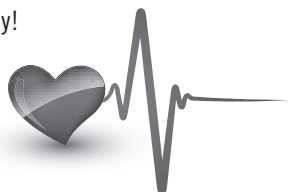

SHORTNESS OF BREATH with or without chest discomfort.

OTHER SIGNS may include breaking out in a cold sweat, nausea or lightheadedness

Women are somewhat more likely than men to experience other common symptoms, particularly SHORTNESS OF BREATH, NAUSEA/VOMITING, AND BACK/JAW PAIN.

If you or someone with you has one or more of these signs, don't delay!

Call 9-1-1 immediately!

Do you have HEEL pain or ARCH pain?

HEEL SPUR SYNDROME/PLANTAR FASCITIS is a common problem among people who are active. It starts as a dull intermittent pain in the heel which may progress to a sharp persistent pain. Classically, it is worse in the morning with the first few steps, after sitting, after standing, or after walking.

- Plantar fasciitis often begins with irritation and tearing of the fibrous band of tissue on the bottom of the foot, which may eventually result in the formation of a heel spur.

- Contributing factors: flat pronated feet, high arched feet, poor shoe support, increased age, sudden weight increase, increased activity level, family tendency.

- Approximately 2-3 times your body weight of force is exerted on each foot with walking. Flexible, non-custom molded arch support found at those advertised shoe stores cannot support these forces and usually do not provide long-lasting relief, do not come with a lifetime warranty, and are typically more expensive than custom-molded ones made by our office.

- 95 percent of our patients symptoms are resolved with conservative treatment, avoiding surgical intervention.

- We also offer surgical procedures with the best post-op success rates using Endoscopic Plantar Fasciotomy techniques and EPF resulting in minimal incisions and scarring, immediate ambulation and often back in a shoe in one week.

If you can't remember when your feet didn't hurt, now is the time to give us a call!

THANKSGIVING WEEKEND CRACKDOWN NOV. 25-29, 2020

Orleans County Law Enforcement Agencies to Crack Down on Drunk Driving
Thanksgiving Weekend

Stay Safe On Roadways During Thanksgiving Holiday - Have a Sober Plan!

In an effort to keep our roadways safer during the Thanksgiving Holiday, Orleans County law enforcement agencies are joining forces in a zealous effort to stop drinking and driving during this Thanksgiving Crackdown (Nov. 25-29, 2020).

As Thanksgiving Eve is one of the biggest drinking nights of the year, it is vital that law enforcement presence be at its peak on this night as a reminder to have a Sober Plan while traveling. Although STOP-DWI efforts across New York have led to significant reductions in the numbers of alcohol related fatalities, there are still too many lives lost due to DWI crashes.

You can help Save Lives, Don't Drink and Drive - Have a Sober Plan!

- Plan a safe way to get home.
- Call for a ride from a sober friend, family member, taxi, or Uber.
- Have a Plan Mobile App: http:// www.stopdwi.org/mobileapp
- Uber apps can be found at: Google Play and iTunes

The STOP-DWI Crackdowns are promoted by New York State STOP-DWI Association with additional funding from the Governor's Traffic Safety Committee and implemented by the STOP-DWI Foundation.

Sheriff Christopher M. Bourke

Albion appoints Kevin Sheehan as code enforcement officer

By Tom Rivers, Editor
Posted November 2020 on www.OrleansHub.com

Sheehan resigns as village trustee to take part-time position

A village trustee has resigned from the Village Board to take a job as the village's code enforcement officer.

Kevin Sheehan was elected to a four-year term as trustee on Sept. 15. He previously served eight years on the board through 2014.

He and trustee Gary Katsanis were filling in at code enforcement in October following the resignation of Tracy Vanskiver. Katsanis was handling complaints about property maintenance with Sheehan doing inspections and building permits.

Sheehan was a union plumber for 27 years before working six years with the federal VA in Batavia. He was the maintenance mechanic work lead.

After retiring from the VA, he worked the past 1 ½ years as a safety compliance consultant for Safety York Solutions.

Sheehan applied for the code position with the village and was offered the job. He resigned as trustee on Nov. 1 and last week was appointed by the Village Board to the part-time code enforcement position.

Sheehan said he wants to be a resource to village residents, with property maintenance and construction projects. He said he plans to take classes to be a fully certified code enforcement officer.

His position on the Village Board will likely remain vacant until the village elections in March. The elections are usually the third Tuesday in March but this year was pushed back due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Debbie Taylor, new East Shelby fire chief, first woman to lead fire department in Orleans County

By Ginny Kropf, correspondent
Posted 12 November 2020

‘She’ll be a role model for any lady who wants to become a firefighter or EMS member.’ – Dale Banker, county EMO director

EAST SHELBY – When Debbie Taylor first joined East Shelby Volunteer Fire Company at age 21, she had no thought of becoming a longtime member, let alone, be named fire chief, the first woman from Orleans County in that role. Taylor received the honor at the fire company’s Nov. 3 meeting. David Green, who will celebrate 60 years as a member on Dec. 13, has served in many positions, including chief. He had nothing but praise for Taylor, who he called loyal, hard working and dedicated. “She’s been a member for quite a few years, and she works hard,” Green said. “She is quick to learn things, she’s well organized and she’s got the personality to do a really great job.” Taylor changed positions with former chief Andy Beach, who has a new baby at home and is very busy on his farm. He was anxious to step down, Taylor said.

After joining East Shelby Volunteer Fire Company at age 21, Taylor moved away and then came back and rejoined. She’s been a member now for 16 years. She said joining the fire company was a natural thing. “I grew up watching the TV show ‘Emergency,’ and when I married Jeff, both he and his father were members of East Shelby fire company.” When she first joined, she said the thought of becoming chief wasn’t even on her radar. “I just wanted to do something for my community,” she said.

Serving the fire company is a family activity of the Taylors. Husband Jeff is fire captain and son Devin is first assistant chief. Debbie has worked her way up from lieutenant, to captain and 2nd assistant chief. She hopes to some day pass the chief’s hat to her son. “There is no competition among us,” Debbie said. “We have a great fire company and we all work very well together. The fire company is my second family.” Jeff was first assistant chief, and he stepped back so Devin and Debbie could advance.

Debbie drives school bus for the Medina School District, so she would usually be free to answer a fire call. “I’m still going to be learning things, with all the modern technology,” Debbie said. “It’s always changing.” She is not intimidated by driving even the biggest fire truck. She has had her CDL license since she was 19 and got it to drive milk truck. The biggest challenge, Debbie said, is the fact of the unknown when responding to a call. “You don’t know what you’re going to encounter,” she said. “I’ve had a lot of help from Dale Banker, director of Orleans County Emergency Management, and Jerry Bentley (deputy coordinator).”

Banker said having the first woman chief is a great thing for the county. “She’ll be a role model for any lady who wants to become a firefighter or EMS member,” he said. “As long as they are properly trained, a woman can do well in a firefighting role.”

He said the county is fortunate to have several women coming up the ranks, any one of whom he wouldn’t be surprised to see become chief of their fire company. These include Kristin McAdoo, who is assistant chief of Ridgeway Volunteer Fire Company; Crystal Luckman and her sister Tiffany Petry in Shelby; Sue Maslyn, EMS captain in Kendall; Patty Knapp, EMS captain in Holley; and Robin Hughson, captain in Carlton.

“I look forward to working with Debbie, or any of the ladies,” Banker said. “With the shortage of firefighters and EMS personnel, these women fill an important role.”

Photo by Ginny Kropf: Debbie Taylor of East Shelby poses with the East Shelby Volunteer Fire Company’s newest piece of equipment, a pumper/tanker, which she will be driving a lot more, now that she’s been named fire chief of the department. She is the first woman to serve in that position in Orleans County.

Thank you St. Jude, glorious apostle, faithful servant and friend of Jesus. The name of the traitor has caused you to be forgotten by many but the true Church invokes you universally as the patron of things despaired of. Thank you for your aid in healing Stephen, and for his family. May all of us praise God and the Elect throughout all eternity.

A keeper for holiday dessert trays

The holiday season is a time when families across the globe look forward to the traditions they've passed down from generation to generation. Holiday baking is one such tradition in many families.

From cookies and pies to brittles and fudge, there's no shortage of sweet treats come the holiday season. But who's recipe collection couldn't benefit from another delicious addition? That's just what can be found in "Toffee Cheesecake Bars" from "Taste of Home Healthy Cooking Cookbook" (RDA Enthusiast Brands) by the Taste of Home/Reader's Digest Kitchens.

Toffee Cheesecake Bars

Makes 2 1/2 dozen

1 cup all-purpose flour
3/4 cup confectioners' sugar
1/3 cup baking cocoa
1/2 cup cold butter
1 8-ounce package reduced-fat cream cheese
1 14-ounce can sweetened condensed milk
2 ggs, lightly beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 1/4 cups milk chocolate English toffee bits, divided

1. In a small bowl, combine the flour, confectioners' sugar, cocoa and baking soda. Cut in butter until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Press in the bottom of an ungreased 13-inch x 9-inch baking dish. Bake at 350 F for 12 to 15 minutes or until set.

2. In a large bowl, beat cream cheese until fluffy. Add the milk, eggs and vanilla; beat until smooth. Stir in 3/4 cup toffee bits. Pour over crust. Bake 18 to 22 minutes longer or until center is almost set.

3. Cool on a wire rack for 15 minutes. Sprinkle with remaining toffee bits; cool completely. Cover and refrigerate for 8 hours overnight. ■
