SPEAK OUT

Dear "Speak Out",

Thursday, November 26, 2020, is Thanksgiving Day this year. Many of us probably look at what has happened to America in 2020 with the Coronavirus COVID-19 and the stock market crash and subsequent recession as a terrible year and that we don't have much to be thankful for this Thanksgiving.

The purpose of this article is to remind each of us that we still live in the best and most prosperous country in the history of the world. Just understand that we could have been born in a poor, third world country. We could be living in fear of persecution from a dictator.

We need to look at our physical health and all the things we can do which many other people cannot. If you can see, hear, talk, walk, smell and don't have a terminal disease, you should thank God for all His physical blessings.

As I mentioned last week, about half of the Pilgrims died the first winter they lived in the New World. We often view the Pilgrims as feasting at their first Thanksgiving but that wasn't until the fall of 1621 after the native Americans had taught them how to live and take care of themselves in their new surroundings.

I know that many Americans have lost their jobs and are struggling economically. I sympathize with you but you are still in a much better financial condition than most of the world's population. If you have a roof over your head, have a warm house in which to live and food on the table, you are blest.

Many Americans are homeless and living in cardboard boxes and going to soup kitchens for their daily meals. Even though I don't agree with socialism and Social Security, Medicare and Medicaid, we are truly blest in a country where the government steps in and helps those in need.

Many countries do not have such programs and leave their citizens to fair for themselves and allow them to live or die. If you have a family, you are truly blest as many children today are orphans and do not have any family to love and protect them. It seems that we as Americans tend to complain about the conditions of our lives when we are blest abundantly above the rest of the world's people.

Many countries in our world experience continual wars between militant and religious factions while we live in a country of relative tranquility. I believe that the riots of this past summer should open our eyes to what many of the world's inhabitants experience on a daily basis.

So as you get together with your friends and family this Thanksgiving for a wonderful turkey meal with all the trimmings, think about all your blessings. I believe that one indication of the fact that we as Americans are very, very unthankful is that we have forgotten how to say "thank you".

I have, and I know you have also, experienced little or no thankfulness from those to whom you have done nice things. Just a simple "thank you" would be nice in a conversation and a "you're welcome" as a reply.

We as Americans have come to the point where we believe that the world owes us a living and that favors which others do for us are just part of life which we deserve. I believe that this is a very selfish and self-centered way to view life. I was raised by my parents to say thank you and to respect other people. I guess I am just suffering from culture shock in this present day unthankful world.

I pray that as you read my article that you will begin to realize all the blessings which we experience in our wonderful country and will view Thanksgiving Day this year as a day to set aside to thank God and others for all our blessings.

Lord willing, I will see you next week with another article.

Is Anything Too Hard For the Lord?

These words are found in Gen 18:14, first spoken to Sarah some 4000 years ago. God spoke these words, encouraging her and her husband Abraham to choose to believe Him for the miracle of a son. In spite of them being too old to have children, we see that Isaac was born to Abraham when he was 100 years old, and Sarah was 80 years old. They believed God, in spite of evidence to the contrary, and it happened.

Make the choice today to give God a chance. Especially in the case of chronic disease and where the doctors have done all they can do. He is the One who can make a way when there is no way. That's Who He is. He has answers when there aren't any answers. He is the answer.

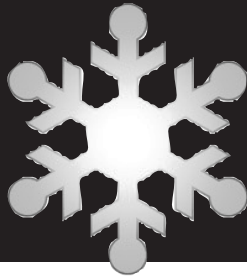

If you would like to talk about this, or would like us to pray for you, let us know.
