The Coventry Child Outreach Program is offering FREE screening for preschool age children living in the town of Coventry. Children will be screened in the following areas of development: hearing, vision, speech and language, social emotional and general development. Much like your well-child visit with the Pediatrician, children should participate in screening annually at 3, 4 and 5 years old. To make an appointment, please call Lisa Neill Child Outreach Coordinator for the Coventry Public Schools at 822-9400, Ext. 249. For more information visit www.ride.ri.gov (Instruction & Assessment). Q. I was watching "Castle" the other day, and there was a blond actress who looked really familiar. She played a lawyer who started a nonprofit for disadvantaged women, and it turned out her husband accidentally killed one of the women. Can you tell me about her? — Bridget G., West Palm Beach, Florida

Thomas Janssen/Depositphotos.com
Fiona Gubelmann

A. You are thinking of the gorgeous and talented — and super-sweet — Fiona Gubelmann. She's best known for co-starring with Elijah Wood in "Wilfred," but she's done a ton of stuff before and since. In fact, she's guest-starred on many of my favorite shows, including "Castle," "Californication," "Don't Trust the B- in Apartment 23" and "Modern Family," as well as the feature films "Blades of Glory" and "Employee of the Month."

You can catch Fiona on Saturday, March 19, at 8 p.m. ET/PT in the original Lifetime thriller "Mommy's Little Girl." Fiona plays Theresa, a young woman whose husband died shortly after they were married, so she left her infant, Sadie, in the care of her paternal grandmother, unaware that the bitter, resentful woman isolated the girl, never allowing her to socialize with other children, leaving Sadie ill-equipped to handle real life.

Fiona had fun playing this different kind of role, telling me: "What's so great about the film is that it could be just silly, like, 'Would a kid really do this?' But what the writers did so brilliantly — and as well as under the direction of Curtis Crawford and Pierre David, our producer — is that they made sure the story was motivated by true feelings and emotions of this little girl just wanting to be close to her mom. It's a psychological thriller, and you actually feel bad for the little girl, even though she's scary, and at the same time, it's a sad story. They did a great job of balancing the fun 'popcorn flick' aspect of it with that."

Q. Please tell me that "Outlander" is returning soon! I can't take the wait! — Pauline T., via email

A. You'll have to wait just a little longer. Season two of the historical time-travel fantasy premieres April 9 on Starz. This 13-episode season will transport viewers to France during the Jacobite uprisings, wherein Jamie and Claire try to prevent a war, especially the Battle of Culloden, which wiped out entire Scottish clans, Jamie's being one of them.

Q. I remember a while back you wrote that Hugh Dancy would be in a new drama series. Is that still happening? — Linda F., via email

A. The former "Hannibal" star returns to the small screen — your computer screen, that is — when he co-stars in the original Hulu series "The Path," which premieres March 30. Aaron Paul, Kathleen Turner and Michelle Moynihan also star in this 10-episode drama, which was formerly called "The Way" but was changed due to legal reasons.

Write to Cindy at King Features Weekly Service, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803; or e-mail her at letters@cindyelavsky.com.

We are also always looking for Quality Open Shop Electrical Contractors looking to grow with us. It does not matter if you have just 1 electrician or 1000, we have opportunities for everyone!

The IBEW has been successfully training crews for our contractors since Edison and Tesla were young men. I Will Not Watch You Nae-Nae

One day, during the Reagan administration, my father put on a college football game. The quarterback was a hotshot by the name of Boomer. Boomer was tossing touchdowns, cheerleaders were flinging all about and the stadium was going accordingly wild.

"That's why you want to go to a big college," my great, successful father, told me.

Not one ever to quarrel with any edict passed down by my parental guidance, I made them proud by attending just such a school, attaining mediocre heights. And I remember my very first football game as a member of the student section.

I remember the first key play of the game. Why? Because there was this one dude standing on a riser in plastic shades shaking his car keys, admonishing us through megaphone technology to go ahead and shake our own keys! That cheer, I am guessing, would have been made more effective if we had, indeed, more than one solitary key and a flaccid, laminated dining card on our keychains.

Then, as we made annoying little fwappy flapping sounds with our key and card combo, we were offered this cheer: "Four and four is half of sixteen ... all for [the team], do the lean, lean!" And then we all leaned to the right and then we leaned to the left. We did this for little apparent reason or effect, because whatever we were doing wasn't helping the team we leaned for, unless our game plan was to get destroyed by Florida State.

But that was then, and it was nothing a little Winona Ryder flick on the VHS couldn't cure. Fast-forward to today, and it's a whole new world. Student sections are all the rage, and while that's kind of cool in theory, in practice it often is not.

We get it. You're young and enthusiastic. You need things to occupy your time 45 minutes before tipoff and you're screaming like a banshee in face paint, you do not have to keep claiming that you're No. 1. First of all, you're not No. 1. Put your finger down. Secondly, you're freaking out as if you took the brown acid every time the camera cuts to you. It's high time (no pun) to reassess.

Can't you let up on the throttle a bit and just enjoy the game? Cheer like crazy, sure, but if you are cheering full force for six hours on a Sunday at a Catholic university, you've got to be either off-your-meds crazy or on crazy meds. You're at least suspect.

I'm tired just watching you whip, but watching you nae-nae, too? I'd rather watch the game.

Mark Vasto is a veteran sportswriter who lives in New Jersey.

I wasn't looking for a discount funeral. I was looking for an affordable one.

Most "discount funerals" mean less money, less service, less attention to detail, less of everything. An affordable funeral is a complete funeral based first on the needs of the family, then priced to fit within their budget.

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN
(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.

Clear out drainage ditches

In compacted soils, or soils with greater than 20% clay content, water is slow to move through the soil or may not move at all, and this can damage or destroy plants. To keep your landscape draining properly, a good drainage system may be needed, and it must be kept free of obstructions. Before the spring rains begin, clear all drainage pipes, fields, ditches and canals of branches, leaves and other debris that have collected during the fall and winter months. - Brenda Weaver

Random Acts of Kindness...

I want to thank the honest person who turned in my pocketbook at Tractor Supply in Coventry. I picked up a few things and threw my small purse into the basket. In my own stupidity, I left said purse in basket with substantial money, credit cards, license, etc. in parking lot. It wasn't till I was home that I realized what I did. Someone turned it in to Tractor Supply totally untouched. Kind of restores your faith in humanity. Again, thank you.

Collecting by Larry Cox

Carpenters' Tools

Q. My grandpa and dad were both carpenters and they accumulated an entire outbuilding of tools. Most seem to be at least a century old. Can you put me in touch with someone who can appraise them for me and perhaps give me an idea of where and how I can liquidate this collection? — Beverly, Brooklyn, New York

A. William Gustafson is the owner of William Gustafson Antiques, a company that deals, specializes and appraises older tools. He conducts several tool auctions each year, and he might be able to help you. Contact is P.O. Box 104, 11643 Rte. 22, Austerlitz, NY 12017.

A second source is Martin J. Donnelly antique tools. Donnelly is considered the foremost American auctioneer of older tools. His address is P.O. Box 281, Bath, NY 14810; mjd@mjdtools.com; and www.mjdtools.com. In addition to auctions, Donnelly publishes a catalog of antique tools for sale, fully indexed, and so comprehensive that dealers use it as a guide.

Q. I have some old coins from the 1950s and '60s, an assortment of Avon bottles and about a dozen Beanie Babies. I am interested in selling them, and wonder whom I can contact. — Sue, Tulsa, Oklahoma

A. Unfortunately, you seem to have the trifecta of difficult-to-sell collectibles. Your coins probably aren't old or rare enough to be of much interest to a dealer or serious collector. The market for Avon bottles is sluggish at best, and I suggest you monitor eBay to see what they are selling for in Internet auctions. Beanie Babies were a fad and in great demand a number of years ago, but as interest waned, prices plunged. They will be extremely difficult to sell.

Q. I have a Wilcox and Gibbs treadle sewing machine in a nice cabinet and with original instruction book and attachments. Where can I sell it? — Jim, Chillicothe, Ohio

A. According to Antique American Sewing Machines by James W. Slaten, most Wilcox and Gibbs treadle machines manufactured after 1880 are worth between $400 and $500, depending on condition. I recommend you contact antique shops in your area to see if there is any interest. Sewing machines are plentiful and not in great demand with collectors.

Random Acts of Kindness...

On February 6, 2016 I went to Stop & Shop in the morning. As I got out of my car I saw that the parking lot was all ice. I was about to go back in my car when a women I know slightly came over and took my arm and walked me to the market. She told me to come out with a shopping carriage to hold onto so I wouldn't fall. I am 89 years old and I really want to thank her for her kindness to a senior citizen.

Thank You,
Dorothy

Matthew Colwell
7.10.95 to 2.29.16

Our family would like to extend our sincerest thanks and gratitude to the outpouring of love and support we have been shown in this difficult time. Specific thanks go out to those who went above and beyond to help us through; The entire Iannotti family, Kelly and Dan Albro and extended family, those who stood in as pallbearers (Kip's brothers from other mothers), the coding department at Care New England, Matthew's brothers in his Squad, and his friends Bobby, Garrett, and Abby who have filled our hearts with their visits, stories, kind words, and hugs. To anyone and everyone who knew Matthew, there are far too many to name individually, but know that your generosity and love will live on forever in our hearts.

Thank You,
The Family of Matthew Colwell

Quinn suggested to Wyatt that he focus on a career in the family business. Ridge sat Steffy down for a father/daughter talk regarding her big announcement. Deacon surprised Quinn with an unannounced visit. Unaware that his son was being held captive by Quinn, Bill became increasingly angry at Liam's irresponsibility. Katie sought professional help to cope with her issues. Sasha jumped at the opportunity to become a support system for Zende as he dealt with his heartbreak over Nicole. An overly worried Bill was brutally frank with Katie regarding her drinking problem. Nicole admitted to Maya her biggest regret about Zende. Wait to See: A husband and wife prepare for the birth of their baby.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES

Several Salemites gathered at the pub to celebrate Stefano's death. Chad was shaken up when he heard that Ben escaped the psychiatric hospital. Brady asked Fynn to check Summer's DNA. Hope rejoined the police force. Wait to See: Marlena and Arianna are kidnapped.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

Summer caught Luca searching Natalie's computer for information on PassKey. Chelsea threatened to leave Adam when he didn't tell her that Victor had been blackmailing him. She later warned him that he would never win his father's approval. Stitch told Abby that he was having a hard time connecting with Max, who was starting fights at school. Ashley feared that Simon would lose focus on finding a cure for her disease if he was busy doing photoshoots for Hilary. Phyllis was upset when Summer decided to tell Victor her suspicions about Natalie. Billy and Victoria found it difficult to separate business from pleasure. Devon convinced Hilary to make a peace offering to Ashley. Wait to See: Max overhears a secret at the Jabot lab.

HOLLYWOOD by Tony Rizzo

Elizabeth Taylor

Angus Scrimm, the scary Tall Man who chased brothers (played by Bill Thornbury and A. Michael Baldwin) throughout the film, passed away Jan. 9 at the age of 89. Bill Thornbury married a lovely nurse and moved to Northern California, and A. Michael Baldwin has been teaching acting in Austin, Texas, for the past 10 years. Reggie Bannister and Kathy Lester, from the original film, returned for this latest one.

Congratulations are in order for me after my highly successful showing of photographs I've taken of Michael Jackson, Marlene Dietrich, Grace Kelly, Jackie Kennedy, Cher, Audrey Hepburn, Presidents Richard Nixon, Ronald Reagan and Gerald Ford, Sophia Loren, Mick Jagger, Elizabeth Taylor, Frank Sinatra, Marilyn Monroe and Elvis Presley, to name some. You can view them on the gallery website at fineart-vortex.com and scroll down to my name. Hope you like what you see, and that's no joke!

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Consider moving beyond the usual methods to find a more creative means of handling a difficult on-the-job situation. Avoid confrontation and, instead, aim for cooperation.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Seasonal change creates a new look for the outdoors. It also inspires Taureans to redo their own environments, and this is a good week to start redoing both your home and workplace. Enjoy.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A misunderstanding needs to be straightened out so the wrong impression isn't allowed to stand. If necessary, offer to support the use of a third party to act as an impartial arbitrator.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A career change offering what you want in money and responsibilities could involve moving to a new location. Discuss this with family members before making a decision.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Feeling miffed over how you believe you were treated is understandable. But before you decide to "set things straight," make sure the whole thing wasn't just a misinterpretation of the facts.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Showing you care makes it easier to build trust and gain an advantage in handling a delicate situation. What you learn from this experience also will help you understand yourself better.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Planning for the future is fine, especially if you include the roles that family members may be asked to play. Don't be surprised if some hidden emotions are revealed in the process.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Making choices highlights much of the week, and you have a head start here, thanks to your ability to grasp the facts of a situation and interpret them in a clear-cut manner.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Carrying a torch can be a two-way situation: It can either keep you tied to the past or help light your way to the future. The choice, as always, has to be yours.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your watchwords this week are: "Focus." "Focus." "Focus." Don't let yourself be distracted from what you set out to do. There'll be time later to look over other possibilities.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A workplace opportunity might require changes you're not keen on making. Discuss the pluses and minuses with someone familiar with the situation before you make a decision.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Love and romance are strong in your aspect this week. If you've already met the right person, expect your relationship to grow. And if you're still looking, odds are you'll soon be finding it.

BORN THIS WEEK: You approach life in a wise and measured manner, which gives you an edge in many areas.

Presents

New "Online" REGISTRATION

Summer program registration begins Monday, March 7th

Go to: www.coventryri.org then to Parks and Recreation for a link to our registration website.

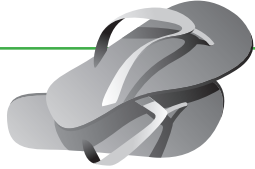

Register on Monday March 7th. Registration period will close as each division fills. The last day to register is June 10th

From the Office of the Director:

We hope that you enjoy the upcoming spring program offerings, coordinated and developed by your Parks and Recreation Department. It is our desire to serve the public in the most efficient and safe manner as is possible. Your consistent use of the eighteen parks, twenty-five ballfields and Coventry's "Linear Park, the Greenway," is testament to your desire to contribute to the health of the Community through physical fitness and activity. You may have noticed our new slogan, "CPR for the Soul." We believe that Recreation resuscitates the spirit or the "soul." In an effort to streamline our registration processes; the Department has instituted an Online registration program. Starting on, March 7th, 2016, we will no longer be accepting paper registration forms. You can register for programs from the comfort of your own home, at the local library, from your mobile device or anywhere Internet access is provided. Once you register, as an individual, or as a family, you will have access to all of our program offerings with the click of a mouse. All payments will be made online. In the event that you don't have access to a computer and Internet service, the Department will provide two computer kiosks located at the Recreation Office, 1277 Main Street, Coventry, RI 02816, along with guidance in setting up your account, if necessary. We strongly encourage you to utilize this system and experiment with the ease of function that our new software tool provides.

We are ushering out the days of long lines to register your family member/s for Coventry recreation programs. I hope that you embrace this change in operational procedures in the coming months, in advance of our busy summer season.

Sincerely, Jay Primiano, Director of Parks and Recreation
