2020 UPRA Rodeo Finals Held in Sulphur Springs

November brought the United Professionals Rodeo Association's 2020 Finals, and the 3-night event was once again staged in the rodeo facility of Sulphur Springs, Texas. Especially this year, it's nice when things "stay the same" like UPRA did. Many staples in the rodeo world changed in 2020 due to COVID's far-reaching precautions. The National Finals Rodeo, which has been held in Las Vegas, Nevada for many years, is being held this December in Dallas in the new Rangers baseball field, Globe Life Park. It's return to Texas is interesting because NFR history actually began in Texas and Oklahoma. But that's another story! Also the PBR migrated to Texas for it's 2020 Finals. The "Unleash the Beast" Professional Bull Riders finals competitions were held at AT&T Stadium in Arlington during mid-November 2020. In case you hadn't noticed, the rodeo world has grown into a mega-entertainment industry!

Back to UPRA, or Cinch United Finals, (which we in Hopkins County feel a bit of proud ownership of) that Association is doing well. A couple of new states added rodeos to the circuit, increasing the pool of talent as well as purse money. And the addition of 'smoke and mirrors' during the cowboy introductions gave the annual rodeo a bit more glamour and polish. Overall, talent was great this year, both in ropers and riders and in the rough stock. Nobody actually knew what attendance would be, due to the uptick in COVID cases, but crowds were reportedly good all three nights, according to Association president Jerry Hill. Another unique feature of this year's UPRA Finals was this: the reigning Queen and Teen Queen gave up their crowns, but did not pass them on to new royalty. Since there were no Queen's competitions due to COVID risks, there was no new royalty awaiting! Another novel thing about this novel pandemic!

Let's meet the 2019 outgoing royalty. Queen Sarah Dalton actually lives in Winnsboro and works on a stud farm in Como, so she is a very familiar face in the local horse crowd. Besides having a smile ready at all times, this redhead is carrying a full load of college courses at North Texas Community College in Mt. Pleasant. Her future plans are to continue in an equine career. It's funny though, because her life story is different than you might imagine, Sarah had never even ridden a horse until four years ago! That's when she decided to try out for Miss Winnsboro Rodeo Club. She did not win that title, but with hard work soon earned a crown as Miss New Boston Rodeo Queen, and she brought that title to her bid as UPRA Queen. Horses are now her life! Sarah has served the Association well, and is proud that her life has taken the direction it has.

Sarah Dalton, Miss UPRA 2019
who appeared at the 2020
UPRA Finals

The young lady with the title of UPRA Teen Queen 2019 actually grew up in the rodeo world, and was already familiar with "queening" as a small child. Jentri Haivala of Newton, Texas is 16 years old and is homeschooled. She was raised by parents who both were in rodeo, and has been riding all her life. He won her first Rodeo Princess crown at age 4, at a Paris Rodeo and Horse Club event. Her motto, especially during 2020's pandemic is, Never Give Up. Jentri had barely begun representing the UPRA circuit in early 2020 when COVID struck, and in fact was at the Midland Rodeo when she heard the news about the Governor's ordered shutdown of public venues. Consequently, during her year as Teen Queen, she has appeared as rodeo royalty at fewer rodeos than most. She will be glad when things "return to normal"! Both girls are very appreciative to their parents and families for the love and support they have received during their year with UPRA.

Jentri Haivala, Miss
UPRA Teen Queen 2019

Well, 2020 is almost over. What will 2021 be like? Nobody knows, yet! I'm gonna adopt Jentri's motto of "Never Give Up" and ride straight into the New Year. Til next week, I will watch for you at the Corral Gate!

Randy Hall

Randy Hall entered the Glory of Heaven on Sunday, December 6, 2020. He was known for his quiet, gentle spirit and his love for the Lord. He was born on June 19, 1939, to L.L. Hall and Lovice (Biz) Minter Hall. They preceded him in death. He was a successful businessman and was the owner/operator of Hall Oil Company, Incorporated for the past 48 years. He took over when his father passed away in 1972. It was a huge part of his life since the age of 12. Randy was also a successful rancher and cattleman. He was in the cattle business all his life, taking great pride in taking care of cattle and raising good ones. After graduating from Sulphur Springs High School in 1957, he went on to attend East Texas State University. He was a member of the National Guard, and a life-long member of First Baptist Church where he served as a deacon and usher. He was an Eagle Scout and served on the Board of Directors of City National Bank.

He is survived by his wife of 58 years, Ruthmary Jackson, whom he loved dearly. It was his delight to take care of her, and he did it very well. He was the true example of a Godly husband. Also surviving are his three daughters, Randa Massey, Ruanne Horton and Heath, and Rori Stroud and Keith. Five grandchildren, Jackson Massey, Clancy Horton, Annie Horton, Sadie Stroud, and Ty Stroud. He loved watching them play ball, rope calves and steers, and show cattle, hogs, and sheep. They were all his true pride and joy. He wanted for nothing but wanted them to have it all. Randy was the head of the family. His passing leaves a huge void. He also leaves a wonderful legacy, one that is characterized by his love for his Lord. Christ was his direction and at the center of every decision. He lived well and he loved much. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. Psalm 23:6

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m., Thursday, December 10, 2020 at First Baptist Church. Visitation will begin at 1:00 p.m., prior to service time. Interment will follow at Sulphur Springs City Cemetery with Heath Horton, Keith Stroud, Jackson Massey, Clancy Horton, Ty Stroud, and Bill Nance serving as pallbearers. Honorary pallbearers will be David Dildy, Mike Hodge, Francis Pogue, Rip Van Winkle, GW Gibbins, Don Phillips, Don Deaton, Wayne Galyean, and John Folmar. The family would like to give a special thanks to Samuel Felli and Shmyra Fountain for all of their love and care shown to our dad while he was in the hospital. Memorials may be made to the Gideons or any charity of your choice. Arrangements are under the direction of West Oaks Funeral Home. www.westoaksfuneralhome.com
