NORTHWESTERN COLLEGE

LILLY GRANT YOUTH THEOLOGY INSTITUTE PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Northwestern College has a half-time position beginning immediately for a program director of a new youth theology institute, funded by a four-year grant from the Lilly Foundation. This position has responsibilities throughout the year for coordinating all aspects of the institute's administration, working with a campus leadership team and supervising assistants. Responsibilities will include training college student mentors, maintaining communication with partner organizations, evaluating the program and preparing annual reports. Depending upon qualifications, there is the possibility of teaching up to two classes in the religion department as an adjunct instructor.

The ideal candidate will have a bachelor's degree and preferably a master's degree in a related field; experience working with high school youth; and strong organizational, administrative and communication skills.

Northwestern seeks candidates with an authentic Christian faith who will support the college's mission, Reformed and evangelical identity and commitment to Christian liberal arts as expressed in our Vision for Learning (www.nwciowa.edu/vision). Northwestern College is affiliated with the Reformed Church in America. Applications will begin immediately until the position is filled. To apply, send letter of application, resume and Northwestern College application to:

Project 65

To be held March 22

The MOC-Floyd Valley Community School District will be holding our annual "Project 65 Luncheon" on Tuesday, March 22.

We would like to invite all of our District residents who are 65 or older to a free luncheon with entertainment provided by several of our high school students. It would be an honor and a privilege to host you at this event that recognizes all that you, our senior citizens, have done for the youth of our District.

We will begin serving a delicious dinner at 11:15 a.m. in the high school new gymnasium. The meal will be prepared by our own MOC-Floyd Valley food service staff and will be served by our Student Council members under the direction of Trish Sandbulte and Tricia Wiese. We will conclude our luncheon by 1:00 p.m.

Reservations can be made by calling Rachel at 737-4873 by Tuesday, March 14.
