What Gift Can You Bring To Jesus This Christmas?

Wise men brought Jesus gifts to celebrate His birth. Christmas is about His birthday, yet for Christmas, we buy gifts for others. How would you feel, if on your birthday, all the gifts at your party were for others?

Jesus wants a gift from you this year. But what gift can you bring Him?

Jn 3:16 (tPt) says "For this is how much God loved the world - he gave his one and only unique Son as a gift . . . God did not send his Son into the world to judge or condemn the world, but to be its Savior and rescue it."

He gave Himself as a gift for you, that you would give yourself to Him. Give Him your life, your heart, yourself.

If you would like to talk about this, or would like us to pray with you, let us know.

SPEAK OUT

Dear "Speakout,"

My article last week reminded us that this past Monday, December 7th marked the 79th anniversary of the bombing of Pearl Harbor and our entry into World War II. There is so much information to include to complete my two week article.

Upon reaching Pearl Harbor the morning of December 7th, the Japanese torpedo bombers that had travelled in complete radio silence attacked the harbor in groups of twos and threes in a surprising, quick and powerful attack, with the second fleet of aircraft blitzing the site an hour later.

Two of the United States Pacific Fleet ships were lost forever with the Battleship USS Arizona (BB-39) and the Battleship USS Oklahoma (BB-37) being sunk in the initial attack.

The Arizona exploded and sank after a bomb detonated in a powder magazine killing 1,177 officers and crewmen. The Oklahoma was sunk by several torpedoes during the attack and 429 crew died when she capsized on Battleship Row.

The Battleship USS Nevada (BB-36) was the only battleship to get underway during the attack but was hit by one torpedo and at least six bombs while steaming away from Battleship Row forcing her to be beached at Hospital Point.

The Nevada was refloated, repaired and later served as a convoy escort in the Atlantic and as a fire-support ship in four amphibious assaults.

The Battleship USS California (BB-44) lost 100 crew members that morning after the ship suffered extensive flooding damage when hit by two torpedoes on her port side. Both torpedoes detonated below the armor belt causing virtually identical damage each time. A 250 kg bomb also entered the starboard upper deck level which passed through the main deck and exploded on the armored second deck setting off an anti-aircraft ammunition magazine and killing about 50 men.

The Battleship USS West Virginia (BB-48) was sunk by six torpedoes and two bombs during the attack but was salvaged in May 1942 from the Pearl Harbor seabed by draining the water from her hull. During the attack the Japanese had a key focus on eliminating the battleships as they were one of the biggest threats to the internal affairs of Japan and their campaigns for conquering Manchuria.

Stealthy Japanese planning permitted the attack on Pearl Harbor to remain undetected by United States intelligence. The Destroyer USS Cassin (DD-372) and Destroyer USS Downes (DD-375) were Mahan-class destroyers. They were in dry-dock at Pearl Harbor during the attack when an incendiary bomb ignited fuel tanks on the Downes. The Cassin slipped from her keel blocks and rested against the Downes which were both destroyed by uncontrollable fires. Both ships were considered lost but their machinery and equipment were salvaged and sent to Mare Island Navy Yard where entirely new ships were built around the salvaged material and given the wrecked ships' names and hull numbers.

The Cruiser USS Oglala (ID-1255/CM-4/ARG-1) was a minelayer cruiser and was the flagship of the Pacific Fleet Mine Force. Japanese torpedo planes of the first attack surge hit the cruiser with a single torpedo and the Oglala rapidly took on water and sank. She was later salvaged in 1942.

We tend to view our history as events to study in school but to then forget. I am very sure that those who were there on that infamous day looked upon those events as real life and not just print on a page in a history book. It is not until one of our loved ones is lost in the military that we look at things differently.

Lord willing, I will send the first of two articles regarding Christmas next week.
