Koinonia Circle, a member of Bob's Bible Bunch, and a member of the care committee. She devoted her life to passionately serving the children of Tullahoma and was a beloved teacher at Bel-Aire Elementary school for 37 years. She had a profound impact on the lives of hundreds of children. She was active in the Tullahoma Education Association serving several years as Treasurer. In addition, she served as a representative on Bel-Aire's CEO program and was instrumental in its development and success. She was highly thought of by her peers and was voted teacher of the year twice. She was a member of Alpha Delta Kappa Sorority, an International Honorary Organization for Women Educators, and served as secretary even while fighting her battle with cancer. She never forgot the children she taught and followed them through the newspaper, word of mouth, and Facebook. She formed a special bond with a group of teachers, affectionately known as the Mountain Sisters, and always looked forward to their annual trip to Gatlinburg. Several times throughout the course of her cancer diagnosis, she experienced medical setbacks but always remained optimistic and fought to overcome them. After one setback, she had to relearn to walk. However, upon arriving home and getting cleared to drive, the first thing she did was take a neighbor to the store who needed groceries. This was a testament to her lifelong nature of being selfless and always putting others first. She was preceded in death by her father, Joseph W. Bailey. She is survived by her mother, Frances Smith Bailey of Tullahoma; brother, Larry of Tullahoma; adopted sister, Nancy (William) Irby of Tullahoma; nephew, Clay (Susan) Irby of Knoxville, TN; niece, Blair (Jason) Lewis of Atlanta, GA; great-nephew, John Clayton Irby; and great-nieces, Reagan and Kinsley Lewis. He was preceded in death by nephew, Blane Luke Hill. Casey Gann, was also known as "Bubba", to his nieces and all the kids he was around. Casey was very sensitive and loving. One of his favorite things to do was play with small kids. He was so caring and loving of his sister, that when she was getting married, he cried to the preacher that he was losing his sister. Instead, he gained another brother, Ethan. Cody, Ethan and Casey were as close as brothers could be. Casey loved outdoor stuff, riding 4 wheelers to boats, mountains to lakes, he was very active with friends and family. Casey was very special to everyone he came in contact with. No experience preferred.

We are looking to fill a full-time position on our sales team. You'll receive the training you need to be successful in this role. And you'll have the ability to earn more income every month!

“ - Sandra Thomas

I was apprehensive before applying for the position. I only had experience working in gift sales. I knew nothing about advertising. EMG put me through paid training and let me watch other sales reps. That was 10 years ago! When a business tells me “working with you is a blessing,” I can't help but smile every time.

“ - Faith Cashion

Working at Exchange Media Group has been such a blessing. I get to do what I love everyday by helping businesses grow!

“ - Sissy Smith

When I first started working with Exchange Media Group, the extensive training was the most impressive part. It allows everyone on the team, no matter where we came from, to be the best we can be. As an employee, I love that our customers become our family. We're local, so we can really make a connection with them.
