Relief to help some Minnesotans survive Walz's shutdown

Governor Tim Walz signed a bipartisan $216 million economic relief package that includes direct support for small businesses and a 13-week extension of unemployment benefits.

"Our small businesses have made enormous sacrifices to their own bottom lines for the good of our state," said Governor Walz. "This is a critical lifeline for those businesses, and for the Minnesotans whose livelihoods depend on them. This bipartisan bill will provide direct, targeted aid to keep our small businesses afloat, support workers struggling to get by, and help families put food on the table while we work to get the virus under control."

The bill includes $88 million in grants administered automatically by the Department of Revenue to restaurants, bars, gyms, bowling alleys, and other businesses who have seen losses of more than 30% compared to last year; $14 million administered by the Minnesota Department of Employment and Economic Development (DEED) for convention centers and movie theaters; and 112 million in grants that will be administered at the county level. The county-based grants are intended to help additional businesses impacted by the recent closures that do not qualify for the first two grant categories, however businesses who receive grants from the Department of Revenue are not precluded from receiving county-based grants.

Many are critical of Governor Walz's continued shutdown of small businesses. He announced the current restrictions on November 18, which kicked in just two days later.

"Harmful closures mandated by Governor Walz have resulted in significant economic hardship for main street businesses and families in our community," said Rep. Josh Heintzeman, R-Nisswa. "This legislation will help alleviate some of the damage caused by the Governor, but it will not make these businesses whole. These folks don't want a handout, they want to safely reopen their doors and serve the community. The Governor's orders are not backed up by data, and he needs to allow as many businesses as possible to reopen with safety measures in place to protect employees and customers."

"The bill will help," Rep. Dale

Lueck, R-Aitkin said. "However, I continue to believe it's time for the governor to back off on the current business crippling restrictions. Rather than use the attorney general's office and other state agencies as a sledge hammer to threaten business owners, we must stay laser-focused on protecting those most at risk and getting our children back in school."

"This legislation will help businesses and workers impacted by the governor's shutdown and ideally will serve as a bridge until the federal government passes additional relief," said Rep. Sondra Erickson, R-Princeton. "While today's vote is a step in the right direction and will help local businesses stay open and keep our neighbors and loved ones employed, it will not cover all of the losses incurred by Governor Walz's shutdown. Stores, restaurants, fitness centers, and others that have been closed do not want a handout, they want to be able to open and safely serve their customers. I will continue working to make that a reality."

The bill also extends the deadline to January 4, 2021 for school districts and charter schools to report the number of students enrolled in the free or reduced hot-lunch program.

"Because of federal action the school hot lunch program automatically became free for most students," Lueck said. "Unfortunately, as a result, many parents did not complete the enrollment process for the program. Future program aid considers previous year certified enrollments, if that number is not accurate, many schools could see a significant reduction in next year's aid in this area."

Impending road construction – Little Falls has advice for Crosby

Photos submitted by the Little Falls Area Chamber of Commerce showing their new downtown.

By ANN SCHWARTZ
The way to get through the reconstruction of Hwy. 210 in Crosby in 2021 is to work together, says Debora K. Boelz, president/CEO of the Little Falls Area Chamber of Commerce.
“Be supportive of each other. This is a community-wide effort,” Boelz emphasized in an interview. “Support each other—business to business, customer to business and municipality to business. Remember, your city employees will be on the hot seat as well. There is short-term sacrifice for long term gain.”

Boelz is offering support and advice to assist Crosby in its impending construction situation.
In the Little Falls area, they didn’t envision that their huge construction project would be followed by a pandemic. But, it did assist businesses in getting a web presence, learning how to sell items online, to do bulk mailing and to step up communications with customers. “One women’s clothing store would email loyal customers, pointing out such things as ‘we just got a new blouse in that is in your size that we’re sure you’d like.’”

Downtown venues also made use of their back doors. Many already had parking behind their buildings, along with back entrances, and those were played up.
The first part of the construction went great, but instead of finishing on Labor Day, it was mid-October when the project was wrapped up.
They have a much healthier area, she said, as old coal chutes, buried gas tanks and other hazards were removed and utility lines replaced in the “Big Dig” as they dubbed their project. Now, they have a gorgeous and healthy downtown with added bike lanes. They did lose a little parking, but now have wonderful sidewalks -- so everything is a trade off.

Unfortunately, downtown property owners, of which Boelz is one, have to spend the next 10 years paying the bills for the project. “We trained people to come downtown and now they have to continue to come to pay the bill,” she laughed.
There were inconveniences. The post office was in the heart of the construction. One bank had to close their drive-up for three months. To counter that, they offered drinks and cookies personal greetings to customers who came inside to do transactions.
Living in a construction zone is dirty. “It is a constant effort to keep windows, surfaces and merchandise clean. When they aren’t busy, employees are cleaning.”

The local Morrison County Record newspaper did a great job of publishing weekly updates on what items were completed and what was expected to be done the next week. “That let readers know if they could get to the dentist the next week, or other places they needed to go.”
She warns that Cuyuna Range area nonprofits will suffer because their donors are already stretched from pandemic losses.
Now is the time for businesses to plan ahead for ways to save money next year.

“There will be less coming into the cash register and less has to go out,” she said. She advises to be proactive to replace that energy-gobbling water heater, ice machine, lighting and other ways to reduce fixed expenses. Take advantage of rebates that utilities offer. See what you can get by without, such as having floor mats changed frequently.
“Now we have a beautiful downtown with handicapped-accessible curb cuts, new sidewalks and bike lanes,” Boelz emphasized.

Department of Health announces new COVID-19 testing site in Brainerd

The Minnesota Department of Health (MDH) announced a new COVID-19 testing site at Central Lakes College in Brainerd, part of a collaboration with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). Testing at this site will occur through Saturday, Dec. 19 at the Central Lakes College Gymnasium at 501 W College Dr. in Brainerd. Hours on Saturday are from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

The site will be set up as a walk-thru, with participants self-administering a nasal swab test. The site has capacity for approximately 480 tests per day. Appointments are strongly encouraged, but not required.

This testing event is part of a federal effort to provide temporary federal support in areas that have seen a recent spike in COVID-19 cases. The site is made up of three components: federal government support, federal contractor support, and state and local support. It is the second site of its kind in Minnesota; the first was held in Blaine from Dec. 7 through Dec. 12.

The Brainerd site is a coordinated effort between the State of Minnesota, HHS, the Minnesota National Guard, Crow Wing County Public Health, Central Lakes College, and eTrueNorth (eTN). The State of Minnesota and National Guard are providing support, including non-medical personnel, site management, and traffic control. HHS is providing resources such as personal protective equipment, cloth face coverings and community mitigation guidance. The federal contractor, eTrueNorth, is providing support including online registration, test kits, and notification of lab results. The lab processing the test samples is Health Quest Esoterics in Irvine, California. eTrueNorth will notify participants of their test results via email within approximately three to five days.

"This is a very convenient way to get tested close to home with fast results," said Brainerd Lakes Chamber President Matt Kilian. "Our chamber strongly encourages local businesses and their teams to take advantage of this opportunity, especially those in quarantine or questioning whether they were exposed to the virus. It's another step to get our economy back on track."

"With much of the focus today being around the release of an effective and safe vaccine, it is important to have our community continue to be vigilant for symptoms and continue to test for COVID-19," said Crow Wing County Public Health Supervisor Michelle Moritz. "Individuals should also test five to seven days after they have been in close contact with other individuals that have tested positive. This clinic will give many the opportunity to test regardless of symptoms or close contact. It will be important to know your COVID-19 status before making plans for the holidays."

"Testing saves lives when people know their COVID-19 status and are then able to isolate away from others to prevent further spread," continued Supervisor Moritz. "While we are excited to soon have a vaccine and end this pandemic, we our community to help get our kids back to school and business back open by slowing the spread until we have the majority of our community vaccinated. Testing can be quick, easy, and now without a doctor's order."

Testing is open to anyone who believes they need a COVID-19 test, with or without insurance. State guidance on who should get tested was recently updated and can be found on the Minnesota COVID-19 Response webpage, Who Should Get Tested?.

Individuals seeking testing can register at Do I Need a COVID-19 Test?. Test results can be accessed by logging into this same portal after receiving an email notification that results are ready.

Aitkin Public Schools update

As we approach the holidays, I want to wish all of our families Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Happy Holidays to everyone. I know this holiday season will look different than in the past for many families. Please continue to connect with families and friends, regardless of how that looks in 2020. I also ask that you all please stay safe and do what you can to keep you, your family and the community safe.

When we return from the Holiday break, Aitkin Public Schools will be looking at a return to in-person learning for grades 4-12 on January 18, 2021. In order to do that our Covid Case numbers need to decline. The good news is that our local numbers have started to trend down. I know that Remote Learning has been a challenge for many families. Our families and staff have worked hard to make it the best we can, but it is not an ideal educational situation for many students. We want to be able to open our doors for all grades in-person, and we need your help and the entire community's help to do that.

Please continue to follow the protocols of hand washing, masking, social distancing, etc. as you celebrate the season. Please continue to monitor for symptoms and follow up with your health care providers if you have any questions. Your practices can and will make a difference.

Once again I want to wish everyone a safe and happy holiday season. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all!

Daniel J. Stifter
Superintendent Aitkin Public Schools

Boycott mandatory mask-policies

When a person is not wearing a mask or other face-covering, others should not assume that the person is acting in defiance of the governor's mandate. Some people are genuinely unable to wear masks/facecoverings for very legitimate medical reasons. These reasons are sometimes, but not always, obvious to casual observers. It is out of respect for these exempt people and their medical privacy that many businesses are deliberately and appropriately choosing not to question people who enter without a face-covering.

The Minnesota mandate has very clear exemptions for medical reasons. The reasons are actually quite extensive. People with these exemptions deserve to be treated respectfully and be allowed to participate normally in society if they wish to do so. It is unethical and immoral to treat them as if they are posing a threat to others by being out in public without the ubiquitous mask.

For an establishment to absolutely deny entry to persons who are medically unable to wear masks/shields is unethical, immoral, discriminatory, and cruel. It is bullying to try to force these medically-exempt people to wear face-coverings in order to do business in society, when wearing them may cause severe harm to these people's health. Not everyone has the ability or desire to do business via online ordering and/or curbside service, and the nature of certain businesses makes such methods of operation impossible anyway.

This is how the mask is being turned into a form of the Apocalyptic Mark of the Beast; the U.S. is very nearly at the point where no one can buy or sell (or even participate in society!) without "The Mask."

Businesses understand boycotts because boycotts hurt their bottom line. If enough people boycotted businesses such as Menards and Costco over their mask-policies which deny that all persons have a right to be treated with dignity, they would back down and start treating ALL customers with proper respect.

Rep. Dale Lueck legislative update

Good things are happening. The British conducted their first COVID-19 vaccinations. Legislators received a detailed briefing from the Minnesota Department of Health (MDA) on Minnesota's vaccine distribution plan Tuesday evening, after MDA's initial public announcement earlier that day.

The Food and Drug Administration's (FDA) Vaccines and Related Biological Products Advisory Committee has recommended emergency use of Pfizer's vaccine. As I pen this update, FDA is reviewing the committee's recommendation. Final FDA approval should come soon. Next week the advisory committee will make a recommendation on the Moderna vaccine.

Minnesota expects to receive the first shipment of the Pfizer vaccine within 1-2 days after the FDA approval. Assuming no delay in approvals, by the end of December Minnesota is expected to receive enough vaccine to provide about 183,000 individuals with the first of the 2-shot protocol. Both vaccines require a booster shot at 3 to 4 weeks.

The vaccines will be shipped to 25 distribution hubs across Minnesota. The hubs will service about 118 additional spoke facilities that will be handling the vaccines. The vaccines are temperature sensitive, a successful test shipment with a temperature data logging device inside the package has already been conducted. Assuming prompt FDA approval, Minnesota's first vaccinations could begin sometime just before Christmas. Who and when individuals will get vaccinations will be based on risk factors. The first group will include selected healthcare workers and residents and individuals working in skilled nursing facilities and nursing homes. Visit <https://www.health.state.mn.us/diseases/coronavirus/vaccine/phase1aguide.pdf> for detailed information on MDA's guide for allocating the vaccine. We are making good progress, but please this is not the time to relax precautions like masks, social distancing and hand washing that help to slow the spread of the virus.

Gov. Walz has called a special legislative session for Monday. That will automatically renew his emergency authority for another 30 days. As I mentioned last month in a news release when the governor imposed the current shut down, we can't wait for the feds, we need to provide help to our main street businesses that have again been forced to close.

A relief package is being worked on with the goal of being ready for Monday's special session. At this point it would include about $116 million in aid administered by the state and another $100 million that would be provided to the counties for distribution at the local level.!

Call for Gov. Walz's resignation

Fraud on a small scale usually results in massive consequences, not immediately, but in the future.

The repercussions from the failed former Crosby police administration and the corrupt city council have not been felt, yet.

The repercussions from the failed executive orders of Tim Walz and the findings of the Joint Transportation and Judiciary and Public Safety Committee Report won't be felt for quite some time.

He allowed Minneapolis to burn, his adult daughter had access to confidential information that she disseminated to the general public and rioters. He has destroyed small business, devastated our economy.

In comparison, South Dakota did nothing significant with COVID — no mask mandates, no lockdowns, 86,500 cases as of Dec 7 with only 1,100 deaths, and that includes events like the Sturgis Bike rally. Minnesota 350,000 cases with over 4,000 deaths, all on the hands of Tim Walz.

Daily protests must be held at every closed restaurant with protesters compensating for the food and beverages each protester consumes.

What must be immediately felt is your voice calling for the immediate resignation of Tim Walz, 651-201-3400 is the number. Demand Walz's immediate resignation.

We the people must not wait for others to do what we must get done.

"The world will not be destroyed by those who do evil, but by those who watch them without doing anything." A. Einstein.

OBITUARIES

MARION BARTA

Marion Victor Barta, 91, of Aitkin died Wednesday, December 9, 2020 in Aicota Healthcare Center, Aitkin. Marion was born in Walsh Co., ND on February 26, 1929 to Victor and Agnes (Narloc) Barta, Sr. He went to the county school and worked for area farmers until enlisting in the Air Force in 1954. Marion married Kathleen Lawrenson on September 2, 1954, while stationed in England. They were married 42 years until her death on May 30, 1996. Marion found love a second time and was married to Marion E. Dasovich (Miss Marion) on July 27, 1997 until she passed on January 29, 2014. Marion and Marion were lovingly referred to as M&M by relatives and friends. Marion was an Air Force Veteran. His time in the military spanned the Vietnam War with numerous assignments all over the globe, mostly as a Communications Master Technician. He traveled with or without his growing family who tagged along to many of these various destinations both Overseas and Stateside. After a 20-year career in the AF he retired in 1971 as a Master Sergeant. He settled in Pengilly MN, with his wife Kathleen and his three children: Philip, Sharon, and Rachel. He found work as a local butcher, (a benefit of his first but not last job in the military). Afterwards he was hired and became a Maintenance Mechanic at Butler Taconite. During his time at Butler he built His and Kathleen's dream home on a patch of land in the woods just outside Pengilly. It was close to Swan Lake where his brother, folks, and close friends lived. At some point he "retired" a second time but never slowed down. To say Marion was a prolific woodworker would be an understatement. He has left a legacy of his handiwork in countless households and landscapes. His moniker "Marion's Kingdom" is a fitting testament to his beloved shop next to that house he built in Pengilly. Marion loved being part of the communities he lived in, especially the Catholic Church. Marion was a member of the Parish Counsel, a Eucharistic Minister and organizer for many Summer Festivals and Parish events. Marion was also a member of the VFW Pengilly Post 8831. He was the area Commander for a time and served as an Honor Guard member until his move to Aitkin. Marion is survived by his son: Philip Barta, two daughters: Sharon Barta and Rachel (Cindy Gellner) Barta; five grandchildren: Jessica (Scott) Minter, Jacqueline (Joseph) Aamodt: Jennifer (Ryan) Larson, Anthony (Tabatha Moore-Bohler) Bohler and James (Ashley) Bohler; 10 great grandchildren: Rudy Marion, Victor Philip, Ivan Utred Jared, Grace Kathleen, Max Russell, Lukas James David, Mathew Gerard Allen, Peyton, Aubrey and Carson; brothers: Andrew (Josette Barsness) Barta; and Raymond (Marianne) Barta; and sister-in-law, Irene Barta. Marion is preceded in death by his wives, Kathleen and Marion; parents; sister, Bertha Barta; brother, Victor Barta, Jr.; daughter-in-law, Debra Barta. Arrangements were with the Sorensen-Root-Thompson Funeral Home and Cremation Service of Aitkin. Leave online condolences at www.srtfuneral.com.
