Heritage Wind Project
Orleans County, New York
NOTICE OF SUBMISSION OF 94-C TRANSFER APPLICATION

Heritage Wind, LLC ("Heritage" or "Applicant") will be transferring its Application to construct a major wind electric generating facility from Article 10 of the New York Public Service Law to the Office of Renewable Energy Siting (the "Office") pursuant to Section 94-c of the New York State Executive Law. This notice announces that on or about January 4, 2021, the Applicant will file a Transfer Application pursuant to 19 NYCRR 900-3.2 seeking a Permit from the Office authorizing the construction and operation of the Facility. Upon the filing of the Transfer Application, the Transfer Application shall be complete in accordance with Section 94-c on the basis that the Application was deemed complete under Article 10.

The Facility is a proposed wind-powered electric generation project consisting of up to 33 wind turbines generating up to 184.8 megawatts (MW) of electricity to be located in the Town of Barre, Orleans County. The Facility will include wind turbines, access roads, electrical collection lines, substations, permanent meteorological towers, an operations and maintenance (O&M) building, and staging/layout areas to be used during construction, which may include a potential temporary concrete batch plant. A point of interconnection substation will be placed in the Town of Barre, along the existing National Grid Lockport-Mortimer 115 kV power line, to deliver electricity generated by the Facility to the New York State electric grid.

The Facility is a zero-emission wind energy facility that will assist the State in meeting the goals of the Climate Leadership and Protection Act and State Energy Plan, which includes obtaining 70% of energy generation from renewable sources by 2030 and significantly reducing greenhouse gas emissions. Other positive impacts of the Facility include diversification of energy supplies, new employment opportunities (both temporary construction employment and full-time jobs), and increased revenues to County and local tax bases, purchase of local supplies, goods and services. In addition, the Applicant has attempted to minimize impacts to land associated with the Facility by limiting the disturbance to forested lands and wetlands to the maximum extent practicable. However, the construction and operation of the Facility may result in some environmental impacts as more fully described in the Transfer Application, including, but not limited to: impacts on terrestrial ecology, including avian and bat species; minor impacts to forested land, wetlands and agricultural lands; and impacts to people, including noise, traffic and visual impacts.

This notice is being provided in accordance with 19 NYCRR 900-1.6(c) and will be published at least three days prior to the filing of the Transfer Application. In addition, a copy of the Transfer Application will be served on the Chief Executive Officer of each municipality in which any portion of the Facility is located, as well as those persons and agencies enumerated in 19 NYCRR 900-1.6(a).

Upon filing the Transfer Application, the Applicant will provide funding to be disbursed by the Office to local agencies and potential community intervenors to help pay expenses, including attorneys and consultants, associated with participating in the 94-c process. Within thirty (30) days of the date of the filing of the Transfer Application any local agency or potential community intervenor seeking funding from the local agency account must submit a request for initial funding to the Office of Renewable Energy Siting, at 99 Washington Avenue, Albany, New York 12231, Attention: Request for Local Agency Account Funding.

This notice and the Transfer Application will be available at the Project-specific website maintained by the Applicant: <https://www.heritagewindpower.com/>.

You Must Be Born Again: Salvation Is In Jesus Christ

Jesus said: "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God...."

"And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up,

"That whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

"For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

"He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God...."

"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life, and shall not come into judgment, but has passed from death into life."

(John 3:3, 14-18; and 5:23)

ATTORNEY AT LAW

POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR ACTIVE DUTY SOLDIERS

Military service includes a wide and fluctuating variety of posts. Some soldiers may remain in one country for long periods, able to go home to their families at the end of their day, while others are frequently deployed overseas for months or longer. If you're in the latter case, consider giving power of attorney to a trusted party so he or she can act as your "agent," handling financial decisions and responsibilities for you while you are away. A power of attorney agreement can include anything from the ability to pay bills on your behalf, to filing your tax returns, to serving as a temporary guardian for your minor children if you are the sole parent.

When you deploy, you are usually advised by your squadron or base legal representative to get a power of attorney in the event you need someone to assist you with financial or other legal issues while you are out of the country. Creating a power of attorney can also be a good idea for your estate plan. A power of attorney can make things easier on you, but it can also give someone a lot of power, so you need to select the appropriate power of attorney for your needs. Please call the Law Office of MACK & PACE at (585)798-1000. We emphasize estate planning, business law, family law, and criminal law.

HINT: A power of attorney document can include a time frame or limit on how long a person can act on your behalf.

THE ENERGY OF 4

My Friend Heather was telling me about the importance of my new lot number in Tennessee. There is Energy behind each property number, if you entertain the possibilities of balancing energy... Being I am sort of an empath, I am big on Energy. We feed off Energy, so it is important to make sure you are on a path that will lead to good Energy. My Friend assured us our address #283 in TN is a favorable number. Our conversation led me to Google for a bit of research on this concept. First reduce your property number to a single digit. This allows you to properly diagnose your Address Numerology. For example.. 2+3+8 = 13. Then 1+3 = 4. Four is Heart Chakra and represents Love. We all need Love so this is splendid. The lucky colors are pink and green, which is so awesome because as a combo pink and green are my favorites together! A Four is the most grounded of the numbers and those that spend time in Fours need safety and security. A Four is also great for growing a business. If you are a Four then you live in a world where promises must be kept, integrity is a big thing. One pitfall of a Four is that you can be very inflexible in your thinking and tend to be quite conservative. All of this totally describes me both the good Energy and the not so good Energy. Funny thing is that as I was thinking this over I realized that I currently have all of these things and I am not even on the Mountain yet. Come to find out I already spend most of my waking hours in a Four. My home in NY is 364 which reduces to a 4 and my business is 139 which also reduces to a 4. There are no coincidences. Your home is your foundation for life and it's Energy should be one that is compatible with your soul and dreams. The wonderful thing is no matter your numerological foundation, once you leave your bubble you can have a great adventure, even for a non-risk taker like me. We protect the safety and security of our home, but also crave a bit of adventure when we get out into the world. I am glad I have lived under the watchful eye of the Four because it's Energy has blessed me with a 30 year marriage full of love, laughter and happiness, plus a business that has blossomed for the last 20 years. Goodness, I can not wait to see what happens at 283 because 364 and 139 have already given me so much. Just for fun, reduce your number and see what kind of Energy your home has. See if it is one that can make you happy! This is not scientific at all, but it never hurts to check off all the boxes when building a serendipitous life. I talk alot about Self and being responsible for our Self and happiness, but truth be told I have a little superstition in me too! Google Address Numerology for more information, if anything it is fun to imagine it's power in the universe. Oh and if you are a 5, I will be over sometime to let loose :).

Travel Thoughts By Kim

Let's go on an adventure together...to Savannah, GA!

Let me just say, "I LOVE SAVANNAH"!!! Of all the amazing places I've been, I can honestly say there are only a couple that made me say, "I think I could live here happily ever after" with an instant "at home" feel, and Savannah is one of those places. It makes me sad, right now, to think that I've only been there twice. I do believe I need to remedy that.

Factor's Row – known as the Wall Street of Savannah at the height of the cotton exchange. The cotton exchange was a major business in Savannah. In the late 1800s, Savannah and Liverpool, England were the only two places in the world where the price of cotton was quoted.

Both times I visited Savannah, I stayed on Hilton Head Island in South Carolina and drove into Savannah, so I can't help you with ideas on where to stay, if you want to stay right in Savannah. The first time was for a business trip – a co-worker and I attended a seminar on Hilton Head. We flew into Savannah airport a day early and rented a car, so we spent our first day acting like tourists around the beautiful city. Unfortunately, it was a chilly, rainy day and we didn't have any more time to return for more sight-seeing, so didn't really get to enjoy it fully. My second visit was with a friend in February 2011 and the weather was PERFECT and we walked and trolleyed all over the city and saw as much as we could see. I was living in NC at the time, so we drove my Mustang (oh, how I miss that car) down for the trip. We stayed at a beach resort on Hilton Head that my friend had a time share with and drove over to Savannah each day we were there.

Since I mentioned Hilton Head, I will add that it is another really nice place to visit. It is a beautiful island community with wonderful shops and restaurants and, I hear, good golfing (can't say, myself – not a golfer). It made for a great combo trip. The drive on US 17 into Savannah is about 40 minutes or so and very pleasant. . . .well, except for the Talmadge Memorial Bridge! This is a very tall bridge with a twisty approach when coming upon it from Hilton Head to Savannah that is a very intimidating sight. It's not that bad once you get on it and the approach from Savannah back to Hilton Head is much more calm, but, man. . . seeing it coming up from the SC side is a real "take your breath away" moment. I would recommend the combo trip – very nice! The link to the blog post at the end of this article also includes photos of Hilton Head.

Savannah is a gorgeous city built for walking and walking is the best way to see it. We went to the Visitor's Center and gathered a bunch of brochures and just started walking. The historic district consists of a well laid out pattern of twenty-two squares in four main sections – Along the Waterfront, The First Squares, Squares of Luxury, and The Booming Westside. On our first day, we parked in metered parking and walked the entire lower portion of the historic district – Along the Waterfront and The Booming Westside sections.

Savannah was established in the mid-1700s with the intent to provide a buffer zone between the Spanish pushing northward from Florida and the English colony of South Carolina. The squares were uniquely designed to give Savannah a strong military advantage and are now lovely parks and memorials to the rich history. James Edward Oglethorpe started the colony with four squares and, by 1851, it grew to twenty-four squares with twenty-two remaining, today. The city is truly a walker's dream. . . .and a history buff's idea of heaven.

Colonial Park Cemetery is an eerie walk back in history – a must see when visiting Savannah.

During our days in Savannah, we learned a lot about the wonderful history. The gorgeous mansions, the cotton exchange, the monuments, the shops, the industry, and so much more filled us with wonder and awe. Each square is a block with a beautiful park in the center and the mansions or shops or whatever surrounding it. The City Market is amazing. It is in the middle of the city, but feels much more like a park. In fact, we really didn't feel like we were in a city anywhere we went. We may have crammed a lot into a few days, but it was such a lovely, relaxing time that we hardly noticed until we looked back on all we accomplished.

My very favorite part of Savannah is the Riverfront district. The buildings are old and the streets are cobblestone with trolley rails and the river views are stunning. There are some really great shops and restaurants, but the main attractions are the monuments and memorials along the edge of the river. Among them is one called "The Waving Girl," honoring Florence Martus.

Florence waved a handkerchief by day and a lantern by night at all the ships entering and leaving the port of Savannah from the porch of her home on Elba Island. It is said that she never missed waving at a single ship between 1887 and 1931.

There is so much to see and do in Savannah – a haunted drug store on the most haunted street, an eerie cemetery brimming with history, the mansions, the restaurants, the riverfront, the movie locations, and on and on. An absolute MUST do: There is an awesome candy shop with locations in both the City Market and on the Riverfront where you can purchase fresh, warm pralines that will melt in your mouth and make you feel like you died and went to heaven. The food at all the restaurants we chose (in both Savannah and Hilton Head) was absolutely incredible – including a very rustic tavern called "The Pirate's House" that used to be frequented by pirates and sailors back in the day.

We even got to see Forrest Gump! On our last day, we took a trolley all day to save our feet and Forrest hopped on asking if anyone knew where Lt. Dan was because he was looking for him. What a hoot!

Take a trip to Savannah – you won't be disappointed – like I said, it is one of only a couple places that I visited where I felt like I could make it my home and be instantly happy! But, for now, you can visit my blog post for more stories and photos from Savannah: <https://thoughtsbykim.com/2011/02/20/the-beauty-of-savannah/>

Happy Adventuring,
Kim Pritt

On his 103rd birthday, Stanley Kast receives many greetings and an Assembly citation

By Tom Rivers, Editor - Posted 29 December 2020 on www.OrleansHub.com

Kast ran a tractor until he was 97 and still keeps an eye and the daily comings and goings at the farm

ALBION – State Assemblyman Steve Hawley stopped by Stanley Kast's home on Densmore and West Transit roads today and presented him with a special citation from the State Assembly for Kast's 103rd birthday.

Kast was born in the house and has worked the farm in Gaines his entire life. He was out in the orchards operating a tractor until he was 97. He still keeps track of the daily comings and goings on the farm, including the corn truck traffic, what varieties are being planted in the orchards, and what fruit trees are being trimmed, sprayed or picked.

About 20 cars stopped by and family and friends waved to Kast from his window. The people came from the Albion area, with some from Buffalo, Rochester and Williamson.

He was married to Evelyn Denagel Kast and raised two sons, David and Paul. Kast has three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Stanley Kast watches the parade of people – wishing him a happy birthday today.

Barre Residents DO NOT BE FOOLED

The Apex informational Web presentation was a mere DRAFT of what might come!

Cuomo shut the state down and that includes the courts, which has resulted in the halt of this 94C formation. Governor Cuomo has New York State in the red financially and it take money to establish new departments.

Per Citizens for a Better Barre's attorney:

You should know that the Office of Renewable Energy Siting (ORES) does not really exist, as it is comprised in its entirety of one man: Houtan Moaveni. He holds the title "Executive Deputy Director" of ORES, but Moaveni works the Public Service Commission on Article 10 matters. ORES is supposed to be located at the Department of State, but Moaveni has still got no office there.

Moaveni this week issued a solicitation for technical staff, as it appears he has none of his own. He's using DPS.

Heritage will need to explain what happens if ORES does not get off the ground for a year or so.
