On the day father died, and while he was being carried to the grave we wept for ourselves but we did not weep for Dad.

For death has nothing to do with going away. The sun sets and the moon sets, but they're not gone.

Just as the seed must go into the ground to bloom and the bucket must go into the well to bring water

So, the human seed is placed in the ground and grows and comes up full of unimagined beauty and opens with a shout of joy.
