New mayor, council member start year in Aitkin

New Aitkin City Council Mayor Megan Workman being sworn in on January 4..

By ANN SCHWARTZ

Mayor Megan Workman, a nurse, and Council Member Jason Henke, a high school teacher, were sworn in at the first Aitkin City Council meeting of the year on January 4.

Returning Council Member Kathy Galliger being sworn in on January 4.

Kathy Galliger, a retired nurse, was returned to the council and also sworn in. Member Amanda Lowe attended remotely and Member Leeann Moriarty was present, as were Administrator Rose Beverly and city department heads.

Workman asked for "grace" as this was her first meeting and Beverly and council members nudged her along.

Workman's husband and sons were in the audience when she was sworn in.

New Aitkin City Council Member Jason Henke sworn in on January 4..

In other action the council:

- Talked about the plowing of the city walking trail and trails were very important, during this time of COVID-19, for families and children to get fresh air and exercise. The plowing of the trails is done by volunteers, but the trail is not clear behind Rippleside Elementary. Bob Nicko, street commissioner, said the department would plow it the next day for the city portion, which is through the park and behind Rippleside.

- Introduced Workman and Henke to Nicko, Interim Police Chief Paul Ryan and Fire Chief Brian Pisarek. Ryan has been acting chief since mid-November.

- Agreed to a $3,400 a year contract with Lexipol to update and train the police department on mandatory procedures. "They quiz officers on scenarios, so they have to know the policy," explained Ryan. Reporter Lynn Mizner pointed out from the audience that this company was a risk mitigation organization for law enforcement and a for-profit concern. She added that they weren't addressing such issues as social justice.

- Tabled action on the former Newton lot on the south side of Hwy. 210 across from Aicota. The former owner had dilapidated buildings on the property. He moved and the lot was cleared and cleaned up. Neither Beverly nor the council were happy with the low appraisal they got. They said that lot, with highway frontage and access, should be worth a minimum of $38,000.

Agreed to hold work sessions once a month on the second Wednesdays at 5:15 p.m. to discuss long range financial and infrastructure planning. The council will also discuss the status of a proposed position of park director.

Cuyuna Lakes Chamber awards 2020 Volunteer and Business of the Year

Due to the coronavirus pandemic, there was not an annual fall dinner this year where the Cuyuna Lakes Chamber of Commerce could honor local business leaders and volunteers. Instead, the awards were announced in the “State of the Chamber” video produced in partnership with The Bigger Picture.

The video is posted to the Cuyuna Lakes Chamber of Commerce YouTube and Facebook channels. Tune in for a chance to win Cuisine Cash from local food and beverage establishments. This year’s winners are highlighted below.

Volunteer of the Year

Peggy Stebbins, Director of Marketing and Public Relations at Cuyuna Regional Medical Center (CRMC), has received the 2020 Volunteer of the Year award from the Cuyuna Lakes Chamber. Stebbins’ nomination cited her willingness to help whenever needed and a strong passion for the community’s overall wellbeing.

“It has been said that the best exercise for the heart is by helping others. If that is the case, then Peggy’s heart will beat strongly for a thousand lifetimes,” said Kyle Bauer, CEO of CRMC. “She tirelessly commits her time and energies helping serve the people across all of the Cuyuna Lakes region and we at Cuyuna Regional Medical Center could not be prouder of her being recognized as the Cuyuna Lakes Volunteer of the Year recipient for 2020.”

Stebbins is involved in various projects, fundraising, and community events through her position at CRMC. She is instrumental in events such as the “Because of Brandon” type 1 diabetes fundraiser for youth, as well as the “Kaleidoscope” cancer fundraiser. Colleagues describe Stebbins as an inspiring community leader who can encourage others to give back.

“Everything she does is community oriented, and she is thinking not only how it will benefit CRMC, but the whole community. She sets a great example for her team and colleagues for volunteering and giving back to the community,” said Jennifer Podsiadly, Charitable Fund and Community Relations Coordinator at CRMC. “She is so deserving of this award; she is a great role model and leader for all of us.”

Stebbins joined the Cuyuna Lakes Chamber Board of Directors in 2014 and has actively served on the event planning and marketing committees. “I’m so happy to hear that Peggy will receive this award,” said Chamber Vice President Amy Swensen. “She deserves it with all the work, experience and time she has provided both in her role at CRMC as well as for our community. She is always ready with a helping hand or to provide professional advice. Many improvements and successful projects have come from Peggy’s dedication. Thank you and congratulations, Peggy. Well deserved!”

Fellow board members serving alongside Stebbins on the chamber’s event committees echoed these sentiments. “Peggy is an amazing asset to CRMC, the chamber and the community! No matter how much she has on her plate, she is always willing to go above and beyond to ensure the project is done well. Peggy cares for this community deeply and you can see that in her day-to-day actions. I am lucky to know her and lucky to be privileged to work alongside her,” said Anne Roberts.

“Peggy Stebbins is a woman with the ability to make things seem effortless, when some situations are extremely stressful, problematic or have run its course. Her words of wisdom have been so truly helpful to me over the years and she makes a person feel valued, important and at ease. Her tireless dedication to the community and her craft is her strong suit. Her involvement with the Chamber of Commerce, CRMC of Crosby, Baxter, and Breezy Point just to name a few of the off-site clinics and their events is nothing to bat an eye at! The talent she has, to take an existing event and make it more successful each year, proves how much of an asset she is to our community. I am a better person having

How are Tribes being involved in this project?

We’re engaging with Minnesota Tribes and creating opportunities for their citizens and communities to benefit.

At Enbridge, we are proud of our relationships with Indigenous communities, and see them as mutually beneficial—economically, socially and culturally. Our Line 3 replacement marks an unprecedented level of Tribal engagement, inclusion and economic participation.

As part of the Line 3 replacement, we’ve committed $100 million for Tribal-affiliated work opportunities, and we’re engaging with Minnesota Tribes on training, contracting, procurement and hiring.

A Tribal-led Cultural Resources Survey was completed along the project route. With representatives of nine Tribes doing direct survey work, and more than 30 Tribes involved via government-to-government consultation with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, this has been the largest such survey ever attempted in the energy industry.

Most importantly, we’ve been listening. From the start, we respected the wishes of the Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe to route the new Line 3 around their reservation. We’ve also signed a 20-year easement renewal with the Fond du Lac Band and made further route changes based on the Tribal Cultural Resources Survey results.

met Peg and words cannot express my admiration for her. I am proud to call her a friend,” said Shellie Wynn.

“Peggy has such a big, genuine heart. No matter what is already on her plate, she is always willing to add more. She amazes me all the time with her work at CRMC, the Chamber and our community. I have learned a lot from Peggy serving with her on the Chamber and value all her professional advice. Thank you, Peggy, for all your hard work. So well deserved.”

Aubrey Koop added, “Peggy has been a wonderful board member to serve with and to learn from. In our years on the board together, I gained much knowledge and perspective from her steadfast dedication to our community. Peggy is always the first to step forward to offer help and direction. Thank you, Peggy, for all you do for the Cuyuna Lakes! This is a well-deserved award.”

In addition to volunteering for the Cuyuna Lakes Chamber, Stebbins is involved with several Deerwood Civic and Commerce events throughout the year. Stebbins also sits on the Northland Arboretum

Board of Directors and serves on the organization’s marketing and events committees.

“She is amazing with anything events related. Peggy has great networking skills to make events successful. Her ability to compartmentalize enables our group to do target marketing. She leans on her talents well. With the Wild and Scenic Film Festival – overnight she had radio stations and newspapers on board. She is not one to need recognition. She is always behind the scenes getting things done,” said Candice Zimmerman, Executive Director of Northland Arberium.

Stebbins grew up in St. Paul and graduated from Mankato State University with a degree in Communications. She currently resides in Deerwood. Her two grown children live in Montana. When Stebbins is not at work or serving the community, she enjoys the outdoors and is a naturalist with a passion for nature.

Business of the Year

Located in Ironton, AutoSmith Service Group has received the 2020 Business of the Year award from the Cuyuna Lakes Chamber. The nomination cited the AutoSmith staff are always willing to help the lice departments, EMS trainings and different college programs. AutoSmith have donated trucks to move or haul multiple things for different organizations.

Their staff even attended a local resident and customers 91st birthday party. Another way the AutoSmith crew have gone above and beyond for the community is by scrubbing graffiti off park equipment.

Rep. Dale Lueck legislative update

The members of the 92nd Minnesota Legislature were sworn into office today. I am honored to be starting my fourth term representing the citizens of Aitkin and Crow Wing County as a member of the Minnesota House of Representatives.

As a COVID-19 precaution, our swearing-in ceremony and floor sessions are being conducted with most House members participating remotely from their legislative offices instead in the capital house chamber as is tradition.

My committee assignments include the Agriculture Finance and Policy, and Environment and Natural Resources Finance & Policy committees. I anticipate additional appointments in the coming weeks as we fill out a variety of additional committees, commissions and boards.

Like many of you, I am glad to put 2020 into the rear-view mirror and look forward to working on behalf of the people in District 10B as this new year begins. Front and center will be moving the governor toward working more cooperatively with the Legislature to bring an end to the peacetime emergency that we have been laboring under for the better part of a year.

To the many constituents that have sent emails directly to the governor over the past several weeks, thank you for helping me make it clear to him that a one-size-fits-all approach (and the now over 100 emergency orders he has issued) is not working for many of us in rural Minnesota. Keep up that effort, and here is a contact form to reach out to the governor and provide your input.

In addition to working through the current pandemic, the major task this first year of the 92nd Legislature includes adopting the next two-year state budget. That budget must be in place no later than July 1, 2021 in order to continue state operations. The most recent budget forecast indicates about a $1.3 billion shortfall.

As we move forward the governor will be providing his agencies’ budget requests to the Legislature. That will be followed by receipt the February 2021 forecast, which will provide the most current data available as we finalize the state’s next biennium budget package.

During this session I expect to be in St. Paul Monday-Thursday and in the district on Fridays. The easiest way to reach me is via email: rep.dale.lueck@house.mn.

Please be safe as we enjoy this week of warm January weather.

Minnesota Mistake

It appears a cord has been struck with the push for Walz’s resignation. Now, two MN politicians are demanding an audit on the number of covid deaths because they appear to be inaccurate or fabricated. Maybe people will find that information credible and stop defending Walz’s ridiculous actions. Tim Walz shut MN down, levied mask mandates, destroyed small business owners, has his henchmen suing and fining anyone who disobeys his orders, not law, his orders. All over a virus with a 99% plus recovery rate. Walz allowed Minneapolis to burn with 500 million dollars in damage. He gave his adult daughter access to confidential information which she shared with the public and rioters endangering all our lives.

These were choices Tim Walz made and he wreaked havoc on Minnesota. Anyone standing with Walz today is like those who stood with Stalin and supported a regime that killed millions of their own people. This is not an attempt to have people agree or disagree with the information, this is an attempt to fix a huge Minnesota Mistake and that is Tim Walz. 651-201-3400 your voice can be heard, demand he resigns.
