It is our 10th issue of Tennessee Valley Brides Magazine, and what a crazy 10th year it has been. 2020 has held some tough times and the wedding industry was hit hard. State regulations changed what we get to call a celebration and wedding, but the brides of 2020 chose to always see the bright side. I have loved seeing how weddings have evolved over the past few years, but this year brides were forced to have smaller crowds, wear masks, and even caterers had to improvise on how to serve guests at a reception. Even though extreme measures had to be taken, the beautiful photos in our local brides section don't show it. A few brides have gone into more detail about how they had to adjust plans for their special day; hopefully you can learn a thing or two if you are in the middle of planning your wedding.

Our cover bride, Hannah Stockton, created a dreamy wedding at her parents' home in February and we have pages full of her beautiful photos to share. Cake and drinks are always at the top of a bride's list to pick out for her reception, so we caught up with Tina Miller Parker of Bellaria Cakes by Tina, and Brent and Jade Kennamer from All Shook Up to find out the latest trends that they are serving up at receptions in the Tennessee Valley.

This issue has a great planning checklist for newly engaged couples, and a helpful guide that covers who pays for what when it comes to expenses, and so much more! This year's magazine is special for many reasons but seeing each edition get better than the last is something we hope for, and I think our team did just that this year!

I would like to say a special thank you to all of the beautiful brides in our 2020 local brides section that chose to share their wedding with us and you. From meeting new advertisers, planning and coordinating each story, and seeing everything come together, this year has been amazing even during a pandemic. Each local bride took the extra step to make their day unique and memorable. Brides-to-be, this is the perfect place to share your wedding with your friends, family and all the Tennessee Valley area so they can be inspired by your ideas and details.

I love meeting new brides, and I look forward to helping you share your special day with the Tennessee Valley.

Hannah Kaye Stockton and Carson Judson Hutchins were married February 22, 2020 at 4:30 in the afternoon in a lovely outdoor ceremony held at the home of the bride's parents with Guy Estave officiating. The reception followed at the Stockton home.

The bride is the daughter of Mark and Beth Stockton of Russellville. She is the granddaughter of the late Titus and Betty Stockton of Russellville, Kaye May Rogers of Tuscumbia, and the late Jimmy May of Russellville.

Miss Stockton received a Bachelor of Science degree in speech pathology, RN, Master's in Nursing degree from the University of Tennessee and Lincoln Memorial University. She is currently employed as a psychiatric nurse practitioner at Helen Ross McNabb Center in Knoxville, Tennessee.

The groom is the son of Cindy Ikerd and Joe Hutchins of Russellville. He is the grandson of the late Grover and Jeanette Hutchins and the late Bonnie and James Whitfield, all of Russellville.

Mr. Hutchins is a graduate of The University of Alabama with a Bachelor's in Business Administration degree. He is currently a Realtor at Realty Executives in Knoxville, Tennessee, and window specialist at Builder's First Source in Knoxville, Tennessee.

Maid of honor was Katie Hester, best friend of the bride, and matrons of honor were Rebekkah Dunford and Anna Grace Gentry, cousins of the bride. Bridesmaids were Ashley Lawhorn, Brittany Taylor, Jenna Segers, Lauren Flanagan, Shelby Ballard, Shelby Frame, Whitney Vincent, Shay Crawford, all friends of the bride, and Rachel Mitchell, sister of the groom.

Flower girls were Sadie Grace Gentry, cousin of the bride, and Amelia Mitchell, niece of the groom.

Best man was Trey Wooten, best friend and cousin of the groom. Groomsmen were Kiefer Rea, Jake Ward, Brett Guzay, Jack Davis, Phil Moore, Patrick Dunford, all friends of the groom, and Scott Mitchell, brother-in-law of the groom. Ring bearer was Landon Dunford, cousin of the bride.

Wedding director was Lauren Boston. Floral designer was Carmalita Coan. Caterer was Jill Larkin of Jill's Sweet Memories. Ceremony music was provided by Karley Cornelius and Annette Harman, and The Groove Factor entertained guests at the reception. Other special helpers were Party Pros, Mullins Special Occasions, Counts Brothers, Smooth Carriage Services of Albany, Mississippi, Singing River Sweets, Home James Golf Cart Services.

The bride's dress and the bridesmaids dresses were from Bridals by Lori. Groom and groomsmen's attire was from Coats Clothing Co. and Samuel Windsor. Hair stylists were Tammy Hutcheson, Mallory Owen, and Taylor Atkinson, and make-up artist was Corey Nichols of Makeup by Corey. Photographer was April Warhurst and videographer was Awaken Films.

After a honeymoon in Bora Bora, French Polynesia, the couple is now residing in Knoxville, Tennessee.

"My husband and I met in first grade when his mom was my teacher. We were in the same grade and became very good friends. I moved to Tennessee after high school and later he moved to Tennessee. We got connected with each other again eight years after high school and decided to get married. After our wedding, we found out that Carson's grandfather was actually a groomsman in my grandfather's wedding! What a small world we live in!" – Hannah

"I love velvet and I love green, one of my favorite lines in my favorite movie, 'Gone With the Wind,' is when Scarlett says 'they'll be pea green with envy' and I always LOVED her green velvet gown in that movie. I think green is an elegant color and it's a perfect winter color." – Hannah

"The only two things I knew I wanted before shopping for my wedding dress were that I wanted it to be made of tulle and have long sleeves. I love all of the detail of the diamonds and pearls in the mesh of the gown. I also loved the diamonds studded all around the end of my veil. My earrings were earrings I wore in high school in a pageant and that was the only jewelry I wanted." – Hannah

A bride with long, dark, wavy hair is shown from the waist up, looking down at a large, lush bouquet of white flowers and greenery. She is wearing a white lace gown with intricate detailing on the sleeves. The background is a warm, dimly lit room with a lamp and a floral patterned object visible.

"When I met with my florist I told her I only wanted white and greenery. I felt like colors would take away from everything else. I searched a long time to find the right combination of flowers. I found what are called king proteas, and Carmelita certainly earned her money trying to hunt these down. I also knew I wanted anemones incorporated in everything as well as the boutonnieres. I wanted thistle and eucalyptus from the beginning and Carmelita pulled it all off." – Hannah

“There are many things that are special about my parents. My dad is stubborn and anyone who knows him, knows this and I was worried how he would respond to things and prices, lol, but he never said no to anything I asked for our wedding and that is part of what made the day so special. My mom is so talented and made so many things at our wedding from the table setting and napkin rings to the flower girls’ fur shawls. I think the main reason I waited longer than most of my friends to get married is because I would never settle for anything less than the type of marriage my parents have. Their marriage is special in how they’ve shown me what I deserve and how to make a marriage last.” – Hannah

"The cake I chose was one of the first cakes I saw when I was searching. I love abstract art and to me the way the colors ran together was simple but elegant. I have a tendency to like things that are different and this was it for me. The topper was something I thought about for a while, again, I like things different and I just couldn't find any kind of normal cake topper that I liked. So, I worked with this company online and gave them pictures of every detail of myself and Carson and every step of the way they showed me what they were doing and now it sits in our kitchen as a beautiful reminder of our special day. We also didn't do any kind of taste testing because we weren't in town to do so, so I just chose to have each layer different." – Hannah

"I wanted to be able to see the sky and stars so the clear tent was a must. It felt very open and that is what I wanted the everything that day." – Hannah

GO OUT WITH A BANG!

by CECILIA BRUMLEY

Amazing photo ops aside, the celebratory wedding exit is an age-old tradition. In fact, there are two opportunities to make a grand exit — after the ceremony during the post-“I do”s recessional, or at the end of the night when you’re leaving the reception. Want the best of both worlds? Make the ceremony exit into a fun moment, then organize a grand getaway for your event’s finale. Of all the joyful moments on a wedding day, none is quite as unabashedly happy as the bride and groom parading through the crowd of their loved ones as husband and wife. With the help of sparklers, bubbles, flower petals, and confetti, these amazing ceremony exits and reception send-off photos are picture perfect.

We love the unique ways modern couples are choosing to end their receptions. After all, pretty exits not only look like fun, but they often make for some pretty epic photos. If you're thinking about finishing your celebration with one, we've rounded up some of the best ideas to consider — everything from ribbon wands and massive sparklers to a bevy of balloons are all fair game. Want to ride off in style instead? You'll find vehicles for your motorized exit — but whether you go by land or by sea is entirely up to you. The one thing all of these exits have in common? They'll ensure that the party ends on a high note.

A couple of tips before we begin: First, always clear your wedding send-off idea with your venue. Second, we highly recommend coordinating with your planner to seamlessly pull off whatever exit idea you choose.

Have to keep the venue grounds clean? No worries, we've got you! Consider brightly colored ribbon wedding wands. Guests can wave them as you walk their way. Cheerful and colorful — without the mess.

Sparklers have pretty much become the new normal as far as wedding send-offs go. We can totally see why. They make for dreamy photos, guests love them, and they offer attainable opulence.

TNT Fireworks put on an amazing show to finalize Carson and Alex's special day.

Petals and confetti are always at the top of the list too. Beautiful photos and the fun atmosphere of being showered with beautiful colors are always a favorite.

All eyes are on you as you walk down the aisle, have your first dance, and cut into your wedding cake. So why should the last few minutes of your big day be any different? Go out with a bang! The end of the reception is a time to celebrate all the fun that's been had and that you're about to embark on the next chapter of your life as newlyweds. Signal that pivotal moment with an organized send-off outside your venue or a cool getaway car. Better yet? Consider both.

Favorable *fav*ors

by CECILIA BRUMLEY

Treating your guests to wedding favors is definitely not a requirement when it comes to your big day, but it's a nice way to say thanks to those who joined you in celebrating. That being said, there are some types of wedding favors that are guaranteed favorites (like cookies and other sweets), while some favors might run the risk of being left behind on your reception tables — probably not your end goal after spending time and money to pick them out. To help you find ideas that everyone at your wedding will want to take home, we're sharing the best types of wedding favors that continue to knock it out of the park year after year.

Wedding vendors have seen it all, which makes them the perfect candidates to ask about the types of presents people actually want to take home at the end of the night.

If you're in the process of finalizing these wedding details, read on to see what wedding experts have seen, planned and experienced as they give us the scoop on what they'd love to receive as favors!

Treat guests to a taste of your favorite food by sending them home with jars of gourmet sauces, olive oils, preserves, or homemade jams. Whether you have your own secret recipe for the best apple butter in town or you're obsessed with the hot sauce from a local Mexican restaurant, guests will appreciate this personal (and yummy) sentiment. Package the goodies in decorative jars or bottles and top them off with custom labels for a pretty presentation.

One of the best ways to ensure that your guests don't leave empty-handed is to let them make their own favors. A build-your-own popcorn station is a fun option for guests of all ages and allows people to pick and choose based on their personal tastes, meaning there's something for everyone! Invest in decorative jars, bags, and metal scoops to add to the experience while tying into your wedding style. Candy stations and dessert tables are two popular alternatives to this idea.

Offer personalized koozies to go along with your signature cocktail and other refreshments on the big day. Not only will guests end up using them throughout the entire reception, but they can take them home at the end of the night and continue using them for years to come.

If koozies aren't your style, why not try customized glassware? Shot glasses are a go-to option, but we also love pint glasses, wine glasses (stemless ones are less fragile!), champagne flutes, or even ceramic mugs for coffee and tea lovers.

Edible favors are always a hit, and your guests won't be able to resist grabbing a cookie (or two) to take home at the end of the night. Ask your wedding cake baker to design custom cookies that you can give to everyone as a sweet treat. We love the idea of personalizing them with your names, color scheme, wedding date, and creative shapes.

Macarons started out as a trend, but they've since become one of the best types of wedding favors for classic couples or anyone getting married at an elegant venue. They're just as tasty as cake and cookies, but their Parisian vibe makes them feel infinitely fancier. You can find macarons in a ton of flavors and colors, and they can also be customized by adding your initials or other motif on top using edible ink.

Do you love to garden or are you inviting a lot of guests with green thumbs? Seed packets are the gifts that keep on giving! Garden-inspired items, like plantable paper confetti, bird seed ornaments, and packets of herb or wildflower seeds, are perfect types of wedding favors for eco-friendly couples. Personalized labels show that you put plenty of thought into the process.

Lavender, rosemary or sage, and sweet smells of honey and oatmeal are always a big hit. Handmade soaps have a seductive fragrance and feel great on the skin. These favors can be personalized to reflect your wedding style. Every single guest will want one (or maybe two – order a few extra just to be on the safe side).

As you can see the sky is the limit when it comes to wedding favors but these are some of the most favorable that have been seen at weddings here in the Tennessee Valley lately.

Personalized koozies are a great gift that your guests can use again.

Personalized drink ware is a great signature of the couple, especially if signature drinks are served.

Cookies and macaroons in the couple's favorite flavors are always a crowd pleaser.

It's All About the Cake

Dress ☒ Venue ☒ Cake ☐

by CECILIA BRUMLEY

As shocking as it sounds picking out a wedding cake is harder than you think and a top priority for most brides. Wedding cakes have taken their own role in weddings over the past few years. Cakes reflect the couple's personality; they tie all the main elements of the day together; and are normally center stage when you enter a reception.

Every guest will see a cake and get a quick opinion about it, and some will stick around the reception a little longer just to get a slice of the main attraction. Recently, I caught up with Tina Miller Parker, owner of Bellaria Cakes by Tina here in the Shoals. Tina owns her own legal practice in Florence and after being asked to make a cake for a friend she found a new love, hobby and side hustle that is pleasing to the taste buds and the eye. Tina's cakes are custom to the dreams of the bride and groom. We wanted to hear more about her love for baking and what a bride and groom need to know before selecting one of the most important elements of their big day!

 Tell me your education and job background.

 I attended Muscle Shoals City schools. After high school, I went to UNA and went to law school after graduating from college.

I have been practicing law since the spring of 2002, and I love my career because I get to help people in our community every day.

 How did you get into baking and specializing in wedding cakes?

 Funny story. My sister-in-law, Stephanie, asked me in the spring of 2018 if I would be willing to attempt a custom cake for my nephew's high school graduation. It was pretty elaborate with two modeling chocolate toppers, a lion (Brooks High) and Aubie, the mascot of Auburn University, where he would be going to college. It took me forever to decorate it, but in the end, it turned out fairly well and was a big hit. After the party, I began getting requests for other birthday cakes, and in 2019, I decided to make it official. I am now licensed under Alabama's Cottage Food Law.

 Did you have any formal training in baking and cake decorating?

 No! I am completely self taught. As a lawyer, I'm a researcher by nature. I spent countless hours reading blogs from professional bakers, watching instructional YouTube videos, and perusing Pinterest for inspiration. I took a food safety class. And then I practiced until I felt confident enough in my skills to offer my products to the public.

Mixing a naked cake layer with a fully iced layer pleases the taste buds of many.

 Do you ever see this as a full-time job for you or do you limit yourself each year?

 This will always be a "side gig" for me. I love my legal career. Creating wedding cakes gives me a chance to explore my creative side. And I typically only take one wedding cake order per week.

👤 How did you decide that wedding cakes were what you wanted to specialize in?

👤 I already had an interest in wedding cakes, but after participating in the TimesDaily and Faye Mann spring bridal show in 2019, I quickly shifted my business to weddings. I love working with brides and grooms and their families. And I get to put all my energy and focus into only one or two cakes each week.

👤 What is the process you go through with a bride when they contact you and inquire about a wedding cake?

👤 I try and learn all I can about their wedding vision, their theme, venue, flowers, and colors. Sometimes a bride knows exactly what they want before they contact me, and others prefer that I guide them. Sometimes, the hardest decision for them is choosing what flavor(s) they want because as a from-scratch baker, my flavor list is virtually endless! Many of my clients will choose different flavors for each tier of the cake so their guests have options, but I would say that the majority of them prefer a traditional flavor like almond or vanilla white cake.

👤 What do you think is the latest trend in wedding cakes?

👤 In our area, most of my brides opt for a timeless white cake with my from-scratch buttercream and adorned with fresh flowers. But I also enjoy when brides want to color outside the lines. I have created wedding cakes with metallics, geodes, buttercream rosettes, edible lace, and various colors, including an all-black cake for a Halloween reception.

👤 What do you suggest to assist a couple in selecting a cake for their wedding day?

Cupcakes are a favorite and feed many guests.

👤 Order your wedding cake early. Custom wedding cake artists typically limit the number of cakes they create. Once you have booked your venue, go ahead and book your cake.

👤 What size cake is the most popular?

👤 Most of my orders are for three tier cakes, but have made single tier cakes all the way up to five tier cakes. I offer various sizes of tiers, so a three tier cake for example can serve anywhere from 75 guests up to 130 guests.

👤 What options, varieties do you offer in cakes and design?

👤 I like to tell my brides that if they can imagine it, I can create it.

Who pays for what?

by CECILIA BRUMLEY

When "YES" is said, the word that follows it is normally "BUDGET."

Tradition is sometimes thrown out the window with changing times and brides and grooms being older when they get married. Financial responsibilities when it comes to planning and paying for the wedding sometimes get blurred and the question "Who pays for what?" can often come up. Here is a traditional guideline for who will pay the bill when it comes to your wedding vendors. There are no rules that say these must be followed, but knowing ahead of time will help you plan your budget.

Jenkins, Whitten

Gracie Jenkins and Davis Whitten were married August 29, 2020 at 5:30 in the afternoon at Graystone Quarry in Franklin, Tenn. with Greg Davis officiating. A reception followed at Graystone Quarry.

The bride is the daughter of Adam and Chasity Jenkins of Tusculum. She is the granddaughter of Wayne and Beverly Jenkins of Michie, Tenn. and Linda Felks of Florence.

The groom is the son of Rick and Rebecca East and the late Kenneth Whitten of Muscle Shoals. He is the grandson of Maxine Shelhamer and the late Ronald Shelhamer and Earl and Gail Evans, all of Muscle Shoals.

The bride chose an Alexandra Grecco gown from Dress Theory in Nashville, Tenn., along with a Sara Gabriel veil, Bella Belle shoes, a.b. Ellie earrings, and Twings and Honey hair pins.

Maid of honor was Hannah Jenkins, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Kaitlyn Richardson, Kaitlyn Stepp, Keely Templeton, friends of the bride, and Meredith Jenkins, sister of the bride. Flower girl was Ainslee Shelhamer, cousin of the groom.

Best man was the groom's brother, Derrick East. Groomsmen were Brent Butler, Cameron Gautney, Ben Johnson, and Houston Calvert, all friends of the groom.

Wedding director was Madison Peters. Floral designer was Enchanted Florist in Nashville. Ceremony music was provided by violinist Lauren Conklin. Caterer for the reception was Catering and Events by Suzette. The wedding cake was made by Dessert Designs by Leland. Josh Hearing entertained guests at the reception. Hair stylist was Brittany Hart of Salon Mod in Florence and makeup artist was Amanda Gros of Nashville. Photographer was Sommer Hamilton of Saving Grace Photography and videographer was Bear Wallow Film Company.

For their honeymoon the couple stayed at the Sugar Beach Resort in St. Lucia. They are now residing in Madison.

Our story:

Mark and I met in the fall of 2007. While at UNA, we would go on to play lead romantic interests on the stage for two shows (The Diviners and Hamlet). From that point, our lives would join and separate and cross for almost a decade. Finally in December of 2016, our paths crossed and the timing was perfect. We've been together since.

While dating, he knew I had a dream to start a small theatre company in Florence. In the summer of 2018, we saw that dream come true and started P3 Theatre Company. In May of 2019, our company was approaching its one year anniversary and we needed some new tech equipment. He reached out to our alma mater to see if they had any microphones that our company could borrow or buy. He scheduled a meeting with them on May 15th at 6:30pm. I knew it as nothing other than a theatre business meeting. He knew it as the meeting that would change our world. I had absolutely no idea he was planning to propose that evening. Mark has always told me he knew the way he wanted to propose, but he didn't know how to make it happen. He would add, It's how I envisioned proposing to you in college. I always thought it would be at Stephano's, the place we had our first date during Hamlet (which is another reason I had no idea it was happening). When we arrived at Norton Auditorium, I was in complete business mode. He said he was told we needed to meet the technical director on stage left of the theatre. These specific directions were given to make sure I would walk across the stage. As we walked the stage holding hands, he said, I bet the last time we were on this stage was during a show in college. I looked out into the audience and reflected on how sweet that thought was. But I was also very excited about new microphones for our company, so I quickly moved on. The very next moment the whole auditorium went black. I had absolutely no clue what was happening. A spot light came up on us. I turned and Mark Keeton was down on one knee asking, Chelsea Ann Hughes, will you marry me? I was so shocked that I kept repeating, Are you kidding me? He even had to ask me again, because I kept saying, You're kidding me! After his second proposal, I answered with a very proud, ABSOLUTELY! And just like that, I accepted my dream role.

Mark and I had chosen elopement long before Corona was a part of our daily vocabulary. We wanted to make sure our day was solely about us and our love. We both love travel, so incorporating it into our big day was easy. After solidifying that an elopement is what we wanted for our day, our next goal was to find a photographer. Lucky for us we had some talented friends in the business, Jessie and Ben Skipworth. Fun fact: Jessie actually photographed my sister Kate's wedding and Ben was our videographer AND officiant. We settled on our location on the Pacific Northwest Coast and stayed in a little bungalow in Crescent City, CA. This location gave us the opportunity to have our first look in the giant Redwoods of Cali and then took a drive up HWY 101 to the Oregon Coast for our ceremony at Secret Beach. As cliché as it might sound, it was the most magical day of our lives!

After our elopement, we headed to Alaska to chase the Northern Lights. We stayed in a tiny town outside of Fairbanks at a remote place called Borealis Basecamp. We slept in a small igloo (only 15 total on the property) with a see-through ceiling so you can view the lights from the comfort of your bed! Upon arrival, we found out that the owners were actually from Alabama. We never imagined when we asked what part of Alabama that they would say, Killen. What a small world! Basecamp was a once-in-a-lifetime kind of honeymoon with dog sledding, four wheeling in the snow, feeding reindeer, and some of the most delicious food! We hit the biggest jackpot with our elopement/ honeymoon.

Even though we knew we wanted an intimate elopement, we also knew we wanted to throw an awesome reception to celebrate with the people we love most. One of our favorite holidays has always been Halloween. When we found out that Halloween 2020 fell on Saturday, we knew it was pretty much fate for our reception date. We love the city of Florence and are especially fond of the downtown area, so finding Pickett Place was a godsend. We were the first official booking under the new owners, The Burdines, at Pickett Place so they offered us a sweet package deal that included the venue, live music from Drum and Drummer, and photography from Abraham Rowe. It may go without saying, but we are a pretty nontraditional couple, so when our friends at Soul: Wingery and Records said they could cater a fry bar for us, we were sold! It was a huge hit at our wedding (and if you haven't tried Soul, go immediately and tell them The Keetons sent you)! Next on the list of non-traditional goodies was our beautiful black wedding cake by Bellaria Cakes by Tina. It was a delicious s'mores cake with layers of marshmallow icing, graham crackers, and Hershey's chocolate bars. Candid Memories Photo Booth served as our inside entertainment alongside our Trick-or-Treat candy table. The reception tables were decorated with beautiful floral arrangements by Flori (Susan Rowe) and vintage centerpieces collected by us.

Mark's applewood ring with opal inlay was found on Etsy. My opal engagement ring and wedding band was purchased at Billy Mitchell Jewelry of Moulton, AL. Mark's blue velvet jacket was found at Macy's online. His tailored pants were from Coats Family Clothing in downtown Florence. I found my beautiful Hayley Paige Swiss Dot gown at Ivory and Birch Bridal in Huntsville. We cannot recommend Coats and I&B enough!

For the evening, we were surrounded by our closest friends and family members, which included Mark's grandparents (Gail and Ed McIntyre), parents (Cindy and Ronnie Keeton), brother, sister-in-law, and nephew (David, Holly, and Isaac Keeton). My grandparents and aunt (Jim, Shirley, and Tammy Hughes), parents (Allen and Lisa Hughes), sisters (Kate Zills and Molly Hughes), and brother-in-law (Caleb Zills). We spent the rest of the night BOO-ying into the full moon night!

If you've ever wanted a 100% stress free day focused on just you and your husband, then hands down, ELOPE! Then come home and throw an epic reception! You won't regret it.

Yarber, Payne

In 2018, Chelsea moved to Huntsville after accepting a job with a local nonprofit. One of Chelsea's good friends from her hometown, Tyler Mann, told her about a guy named Tyler Payne who just sold this couple a beautiful home. He suggested the two go out and become friends. Chelsea agreed to go on a date but she was very nervous!

On the first date, Tyler showed Chelsea the model home he designed named "The Tyler". The two enjoyed a leftover bottle of wine from the restaurant in the living room of this beautiful home and spent the remainder of the night sharing their personal goals and funny childhood stories with one another. Tyler and Chelsea still have this bottle of wine from their very first date alongside the wine bottles they shared on the night they got engaged. Chelsea was surprised at how quickly she was drawn to Tyler's kind heart, bright smile and bald head! She thought he was just the cutest! The two enjoyed many more dates together and later adopted two rescue beagles-Milo and Memphis who served as groomsmen on their big day.

Due to Hurricane Sally, Chelsea and Tyler had to move their beach wedding to Huntsville, Alabama just 5 days before their scheduled wedding date. Chelsea's sister, Courtney Thompson, found a venue online and was amazed that it was actually available on such a short notice. In only 24 hours, Chelsea and Tyler found a new venue and thankfully did not have to cancel their wedding. Chelsea has worked in nonprofit since she was 16 and decided to encourage guests to donate to the Hurricane Sally Relief Fund since she and Tyler had already received many gifts! The couple wanted to create something positive from their cancelled beach wedding and pay it forward. Chelsea and Tyler also donated their wedding cake to a local clean up crew assisting with roof repairs and damages.

Chelsea Lane Yarber and Tyler Stewart Payne were married September 26, 2020 at 6:00 in the evening at Wedding Chapel on the Mountain in Huntsville with David Howard officiating.

The bride is the daughter David and Emily Yarber. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Traney Yarber and Mr. and Mrs. James Goins.

The groom is the son of Pat Payne and Susan Gurley and Dan and Debbie Ledlow. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Payne and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart.

The bride wore a white Allure gown from Promenade along with a veil handmade by her grandmother, Betty Goins, with stones from the bride's mother's veil. Her grandmother also made the bride's garter from lace from the bride's mother and groom's mother's dresses. She also wore earrings from Promenade and Badgley Mischa shoes from Shoetopia in Muscle Shoals.

Matron of honor was Courtney Yarber Thompson, sister of the bride, and maid of honor was Rebecca Long Hayes, Miss Alabama sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Kellie Giles, Victoria Chittam, Julie Schlosser, and Sarai Bender. Flower girls were Anniston Kate Thompson and Victoria Chittams.

Best man was Adam Stults, friend of the groom. Groomsmen were Tyler Mann, Derek Hardt, Kevin Kelsey, Jordy Taylor, and Matt Owens. Ring bearers were Aaiden Ross Yarber, Everett Richardson, and James Peyton Schlosser.

Wedding director was Kim Jimmerson. Floral designer was Susan Rowe. Music for the ceremony was provided by violinist Susie Shortt and guitarist and vocalist Alen Barlow. Caterer was Bubba's Silver Spoon, who also made the wedding cake and groom's cake. DJ Billy Barsfield, Susie Shortt, and Alen Barlow entertained guests at the reception. The bride's mother made all the floral arrangements for the tables. Hair stylist and makeup artist was Madison Neal of WHNT News. Photographer was Abraham Rowe and videographer was Ace Eaton.

The couple is now residing in Athens. They are planning a honeymoon trip to Jamaica in 2021.

Harrison, Hall

Jess Harrison and Jake Hall were married December 12, 2020 at 3:30 in the afternoon at Bradford Farm and Venue with Austin Wither-spoon, brother-in-law of the bride, officiating. The bride and groom opted to do a traditional declaration of intent with "I do's" and also declare their commitment to one another with their own written vows. The reception followed at Bradford Farm.

The bride is the daughter of Price and Cathe Harrison of Florence (bride's father not pictured due to Covid-19). She is the granddaughter of Joyce Coulter and Wayne Coulter of Muscle Shoals, Jane Harrison and Hap Harrison of Florence.

The groom is the son of Gina and Rick Duboise and Rick and Becky Hall. He is the grandson of Wilbert and Betty Salter, the late Helen Salter, and the late Ellen and Hayward Hall.

The bride chose a Justin Alexander gown along with a Lazo skirt and veil from Bella Couture in Birmingham. She also wore Badgley Mischka shoes along with Harrison family keepsakes jewelry.

Maids of honor were Millie Harrison, sister of the bride, and Taylor Bruner, friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Margaret Yoder (not present due to Covid-19), Whitney Hotsinpillier, Megan Hall, Katie Ringwall, Yasmeen Diaz, Rush Idris, Sage Jordan, and Alina Farah (not present due to Covid-19), all friends of the bride. The bride wanted each of her friends to wear what made them feel beautiful, so each dress was unique in color and style, but coordinated in the same color palette.

Best man was the groom's brother, Josh Hall. Groomsmen were Levi Hall, brother of the groom; Josh Hulsey, Hunter Rylee, Austin Curry, Thaddeus Rowell, Evan Wood, John McFadyen, Clay Bennett, and Jeff Hulsey (not present due to Covid-19), all friends of the groom.

Wedding day director was Cecilia Brumley. Floral designer was Heather Sherrill. Ceremony music was provided by Thomas Maternick's String Quartet. Caterer was April Davis at Southern Skillet Catering. The wedding and groom's cakes were made by Yummie's Bakery. The band "Established" entertained guests at the reception. Hair stylist was Aleesha Crowe and makeup artist was Savana Vinson. Photographer was Heather Sherrill of Create Portraiture and videographer was Al Hammond of Awaken Films. Seth Stanfield at Fine Era Productions provided the rentals for the photobooth, sound, lights, etc.

Due to Covid-19, the couple spent their honeymoon renovating their home together. They are residing in Birmingham.

Horton, Roach

Mariah Lynette Horton of Red Bay and Bradley Parks Roach of Corinth, Miss. were married August 1, 2020 at Burns Bluff at High Falls, Albertville, Ala. The honorable David Tiffin, grandfather of the bride, officiated the 6:30 evening ceremony. The ceremony site was on the Lodge Lawn Arbor perched on the edge of a bluff overlooking the beautiful scenery. The cobblestone aisle for the bride was lined with white church pews leading to a timber frame arbor adorned with floral designs and a chandelier.

The reception that followed was in the unique and beautiful Charn (half church and half barn), located at Burns Bluff at High Falls. The Charn's design boasts of a 57 foot tall belfry tower soaring above the front door in which wedding bells were rung at the commencement of the ceremony. The grand hall of the Charn featured gorgeous crystal chandeliers and a brick double sided fireplace.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Horton of Red Bay. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Tiffin, Mr. Mike Oliver and the late Shirley Oliver, the late Mr. James Horton, all of Red Bay, and Ms. Kaye Horton, of Purvis, Miss.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Robertson, Mr. Bobby Roach and Ms. Myra Raitt, all of Corinth, Miss. He is the grandson of Mrs. Frankie Roach and the late Mr. Bobby Roach, Mrs. Vernell Parks and the late Mr. Earl Parks, and the late Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson, all of Corinth, Miss.

The bride was given in marriage and escorted by her father. She wore an elegant, royal-inspired Stella York wedding gown. Her gown was made of matte Mikado fabric. It was a ball-gown silhouette featuring a modern empire waist and open, square back. Fabric covered buttons ran down the length of the train. The bride's waist was accented with a belt designed in pearls and diamonds. The bride wore a cathedral length veil with appliques around the trim. She carried a bouquet with a beautiful mix of soft pinks and white featuring tuber roses, white ranunculus, o'hara garden roses and lisianthus collared with seeded and silver dollar eucalyptus. She had a piece of her mother's veil wrapped around her bouquet.

Maid of honor was Alyssa Horton, sister of the bride. Matron of honor was Kati Dye, college friend of the bride. Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, we had to make tons of changes to our wedding day. We decided to still get married on our original wedding date of May 9, 2020. We had to change the location and Dr. Lynn and Missy Ridgeway kindly offered their home because my dream was to be married by the river. Our ceremony consisted of Wes & I, attended by our immediate families. However, we had some family friends surprise us by showing up on their boats to watch our special day.

Once Covid-19 restrictions were lifted, we had a reception on August 7, 2020 at our original wedding location at Joe Wheeler State Park Lodge. This day we got to capture the pictures of our wedding party and celebrate with all of our other friends and family. My favorite part was the delicious food. Wes and I have spent every Valentine's Day at Waffle House. So we wanted to include our love of breakfast food at our reception. We served a breakfast buffet that included biscuits, bacon, sausage, hashbrowns, gravy, carved ham, and a waffle bar with a variety of toppings.

Madison Tidwell and Wesley Sharpston were married May 9, 2020 in a 6:00 evening lakeside ceremony held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Ridgeway on Wilson Lake with Bobby Isbell officiating. A reception was held on August 7, 2020 at 7:00 p.m. at the Joe Wheeler State Park Lodge.

The bride chose a champagne color A-line gown by designer Kenneth Winston from the Ella Rosa Collection. It featured a beaded lace top, corset back, and tulle skirt.

Matrons of honor were Taylor Tidwell Wallace, twin sister of the bride, and Hannah Barnes Denton, best friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Jessi Blackstock Tidwell, sister-in-law of the bride; Alyssa Sharpston, sister of the groom; Suzanne Simms, Taylor Haguewood, friends of the bride; and Kayla Isbell, cousin of the bride. The bridal party all wore black one shoulder gowns from Cherry Tree Lane.

Groomsmen were Trey Tidwell, brother of the bride; Jon Owens, Jake Pennington, Griffin Vinson, David Bruce, and Matthew Norris, all friends of the groom. The groomsmen all wore black suits from Coats Clothing Company.

Wedding director/coordinator was Kelli Whitehead Brown of Something to Celebrate. Floral designers were Cindy Harrison and Kelli Whitehead Brown. Caterer was Joe Wheeler State Park Lodge. The wedding cake was made by Tori Jones, and a waffle bar was set up for the groom's table. Reception entertainment was provided by Mark Rohling of Hey Mr. DJ. Hair stylist and makeup artist was Lauren Lindholm. Photographer was Jenna Perry of Love + Bloom Photography and videographer was Ace Eaton.

Due to the pandemic travel restrictions, the couple could not take the California to Mexico cruise that they had planned, so they instead spent a week in Gulf Shores. They are now residing in Tuscumbia.

Peppers, Clifft

Matney and Dru started dating on June 26, 2012 when Matney was a senior and Dru was a freshman in high school. They had always planned on getting married the summer after Dru graduated college, which would be in the summer of 2020. 2020 finally came and the couple intended on having their ceremony and reception at Highland Park Baptist Church, but due to Covid-19 they had to change the venue at the last minute just a month before the wedding. Invitations had already been sent out and the bride and groom really wanted to get married on their date as planned with all of their family and friends gathered. The bride was in her last semester at U.N.A. and had built a close relationship with her Innovation & Entrepreneurship professor Mitch Hamm and his wife Susan. The Hamms lived ten minutes from the original venue and had a stunning residence. The Hamms graciously let Matney and Dru get married in their beautiful backyard allowing them to have their wedding on their original date as planned.

Daniel, Kidder

Mykell Daniel and Zachary Kidder were married October 24, 2020 in a 5:00 afternoon ceremony held at The Anderson Center with Rev. Gregory Daniel officiating. The bride's grandfather, who she's very close to, welcomed everyone. A reception followed at The Anderson Center.

The bride is the daughter of Gregory and Kelli Daniel of Florence. She is the granddaughter of Bobby and Judy Crosswhite and Margaret Daniel and the late Horace Daniel.

The groom is the son of Rodney and Ann Kidder of Crown Point, Ind. He is the grandson of Don and Wendy Kaminski and Charlotte Kidder and the late Rae Kidder.

The bride chose her gown and veil from The Something Blue Shoppe, with alterations by Urban Altered. She wanted to incorporate her mother's veil, so she added pieces of it to her veil.

Maid of honor were Keeley Osborne and Corrina Hall, best friends of the bride. Bridesmaids were Rebecca Gans, Samantha King, Meghan Mitchell, friends of the bride, and Jill Kidder, sister of the groom. Flower girls were Kenslie Brown, family friend of the bride, and Macy Kidder, niece of the groom.

Best man was Clayton Grana, best friend of the groom. Groomsmen were Jon Atwood, friend of the groom; Lucas Gans, friend of the bride; Kaden Daniel and Kai Daniel, brothers of the bride; and Allen Leigh, Jr., cousin of the groom. Ushers were Josh Leigh, Alex Leigh, Preston Kaminski, and Jackson Kaminski. Ring bearer was Lettie McMahan, cousin of the bride.

Wedding director was Terri Brown. Floral designer was Dugger's Florist in Athens. The bride's mother decorated the reception area. Music for the ceremony was provided by Kenneth Rogers. Caterer was Jill's Sweet Memories, who also made the wedding cake and groom's cake. Photographer was Matt and Jasmine Photography, and videographer was Bruce Granger Fractal Image.

The bride loves Disney so she incorporated it in subtle ways into the ceremony and reception: Beauty and the Beast themed music, cake topper, and the ring bearer carried a rose shaped ring box like Beauty and the Beast.

For their honeymoon, the couple spent a week in Captiva Island, Fla. in a beach cottage, and then a day at Magic Kingdom in Disney World. They are now residing in Florence.

Sanders, Tittle

Tennessee Girl - Alabama Boy

Morgan Sanders and Cody Tittle's first date was in downtown Florence, Alabama. After a two-year courtship and a New Year's Eve engagement in Nashville, Tennessee, the couple decided that they wanted to get married where their relationship began in Florence. In early February, the couple chose the beautiful historic home built in 1883, Pickett Place, in the downtown area and two weeks later the Covid 19 pandemic was a reality. With faith in God, prayer, and lots of family support, Morgan and Cody managed to maneuver through shutdowns and rapidly changing state guidelines to move forward with their nuptials. On September 12, 2020 in a 6:00 evening ceremony, with plenty of social distancing, on the gorgeous front lawn of Pickett Place. Brides talented aunt Daphene Cope designed the flowers and decorated the home and grounds for the special day. Brides cousin, Tiby Ferguson, an events coordinator, helped with all the wedding planning. We chose to use sentimental details throughout the wedding. Family heirlooms like my late grandfather's carpenter hammer as well as some of Cody's family's treasures. We wanted to pay tribute to our heritage, we incorporated family crystal and sterling silver that have been in or families for years for serving pieces at the reception.

Special childhood friend of the bride, Colby McAnally, officiated the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders of Lawrenceburg, Tennessee. Groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brandon Tittle of Florence, Alabama.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose to wear gown by Olia Zavozina, a Nashville based designer. The custom gown featured a unique neckline, fitted silhouette, and beaded embellishments. The bride carried a bouquet of garden roses, bleached fern, ruckus with white stock, dusty miller, jasmine plumulas and seeded eucalyptus wrapped in blush and dyed silk ribbon attached to the family prayer book, with a cameo of her late grandmother, and was designed by Teri Shackelford of Mansion and March Floral and Event Designs of Nashville. Mansion and March also designed the wedding parties' florals.

The maid of honor was Macy Sanders, sister of the bride, Matron of honor was Hallie Hoffmeyer, childhood friend. Bridesmaids were Abby Markus and Caroline Thomas, childhood friends, and McKenzie Yarbro and Blair Vasquez, college Sorority sisters.

Best man was Brandon Cole (Bubba) Tittle, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Jaye Dolan, William Lovelady and Taylor Thompson, childhood friends, and Jake Campbell and Conor (Goose) Rickard, college Fraternity Brothers. Ushers were Jackson Ferguson of Lawrenceburg Tennessee and Charlie Murphy, Columbia, Tennessee both cousins of the Bride.

Day of Wedding Directors were Alice Stofel of Lawrenceburg, Tennessee and Audrey Brown of Columbia, Tennessee. The reception included a lovely southern buffet and custom cake all by Jill Larkin of Jill's Sweet Memories. Drumb and Drumber with Billy Allen provided music for the ceremony and reception entertainment under a beautiful draped tent. Stationery and invitations were printed by Printers & Stationers, Inc. in Florence. Party rentals were from Party Pros, Florence. Hair stylist was Alei Stephens of Lawrenceburg, Tennessee, and make-up artist was Lea Thomason of Columbia, Tennessee. Photographer was Abraham Rowe of Florence.

After a honeymoon in Charleston, South Carolina, the couple is now residing in Florence.

McGuire, Conder

In July 2018, Meg was spending the summer before starting graduate school working at Steel City Pops in Tuscaloosa, AL. One evening while she was snipping away at popsicle wrappers, one gentleman in particular caught her eye. His name was Preston, and he proved to be quite the loyal customer that summer. A little over a year later, the couple got engaged.

Like so many engaged couples in 2020, the future Conders had to reassess what their big day was going to look like as the entire world was put on pause. As the date drew closer, the couple's vendors, families, and friends rallied together to make The Conder Wedding happen with the guests' safety in mind.

June 20th brought a day filled with so much thanksgiving and celebration. Meg had kept a journal of letters to Preston since their engagement that included a letter she had written to her future husband six months before meeting him. Preston was given this journal right before the couple's "first look."

The ceremony site was nestled in a forest of towering pine trees, filled with the musical stylings of country recording artist and Muscle Shoals local, Rachel Wammack. Meg's bouquet featured pheasant feathers in honor of her late grandfather.

Kruz and Paizlee Davenport, the couple's ring bearer and flower girl, could not be there for the wedding. The siblings have a rare disease called Schimke Immuno-Osseous Dysplasia (SIOD). The Davenport Family was in Palo Alto, California where Paizlee received her father's donated kidney. While Meg and Preston missed them dearly, they were so excited for what this life-changing transplant meant for Paizlee's future. They encouraged guests to consider making a donation to the Kruz'n' For A Kure Foundation in their honor.

The couple and their guests danced the night away, and the two drove off in the back of a vintage blue convertible under the colorful explosions of a surprise firework display. It took an entire village to pull this wedding off in light of the unprecedented circumstances, and Preston and Meg cannot express their gratitude enough to those that made their big day so special. There's no question – The Shoals knows how to throw a party!

The wedding date was set for June 20, 2020. As a Shoals native, Meg wanted to utilize as many local vendors as possible. They were as follows:

Venue: Bradford Farm and Venue
 Photography: Katie Jewell Co.
 Makeup: Corey Allen Nichols (Makeup by Corey) Gown, veil, bridesmaid dresses, and tuxedos: Cherry Tree Lane Bridal and Formal
 Hair: Kenzie Thomas Hair
 Lash Extensions: Pretty by Coco
 Flowers: Stephanie Crow & Friends
 Food: Southern Skillet Catering
 Bride's Cake: Bellaria Wedding Cakes by Tina
 Groom's Cake: Yummies Bakery and Deli
 Videography: Blake Hudson
 Music: Rachel Wammack
 Fireworks: Alexander McDonald
 Officiants: Brett Pitman and Neil Reynolds
 Invitations and Programs: SAS Printing

The groom is the son of Joe and Deona Berrens of Florence. He is the grandson of Frances Richardson and the late Billy Richardson and the late David and Jackie Berrens, all of Florence.

The bride wore a beautiful white satin gown from Cherry Tree Lane with a matching veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses with her grandmother's locket attached.

Matron of honor was Lori-Anna Byrd, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Darby Berrens, sister of the groom; Abby Ambrose, cousin of the bride; Megan McDonald, Darby Rainey, Bailee Gist, Maddy McNabb, Brooke Smith, and Emma Gresham, all friends of the bride. Flower girl was Caroline Byrd, niece of the bride.

Best man was the groom's father, Joe Berrens. Groomsmen were Luke Ambrose, cousin of the bride; Bradley McMurtrey and Blake Peters, cousins of the groom; Tyler Pigg, Cody Pigg, Henry Harrison, Mitchell Lovell, and Jason Arnold, all friends of the groom.

Wedding director was Terri Brown of Kiss the Bride. Floral designer was Will and Dee's Florist - groom's grandparents. Bridal bouquet was made of garden roses, ranunculus, and freesia. The reception was catered by Southern Skillet. The wedding cake was made by Amy's Cakes and the groom's cake was made by Regina Carmack of Sugar Time Bakery. Gus Spears of Universal Event and Production Services provided entertainment at the reception. Hair stylists were Kyla Warden and Nisha Morris from Textur and makeup artist was DeAnna Putman from Textur. Photographer was Heather Sherrill of Create Portraiture and videographer was David Montgomery. Thanks to Sarah and Madeline Cox for helping with the ceremony at the Buffler House. Special thank you to the bride's cousin, Harold, and Deborah Kimbrough for providing the getaway car and the fireworks for the exit.

The couple plan to take their honeymoon on their one year anniversary - a stay at La Toc, Sandals all-inclusive in St. Lucia. They are now residing in Florence.

Woodruff, Jacobs

The bride was honored with a drive-by bridal shower 2 May 2020. Due to COVID-19, the original 15 May 2020 wedding date was rescheduled for late summer. However, Justin received a job offer that would require us to relocate prior to the rescheduled wedding date. We decided to have our wedding ceremony now and a wedding reception on our one-year anniversary to ensure the safety of our guests.

15 May 2020 was a gorgeous day. We could not have asked for a sunnier day. Our guests remained in their cars to keep social distance during the pandemic. My mother, Dorothy Woodruff, escorted me to "The Prayer" by Donnie McClurkin. It was just Justin and I at the altar with the Officiant, Pastor Damon Betts. We wanted everyone to see and feel the purest love and happiness we have for one another; and everyone witnessed the love and deep smiles Justin and I shared. Following the ceremony, Justin and I walked past each car to thank all our guests for sharing with us.

The advice I would give future brides is to form a vision instead of just picking colors and decorating the day in those colors. Create the atmosphere and mood of your relationship and how you want your guests to feel. This gives guests more to talk about than just the dress and hors d'oeuvres.

Jhauncey Omega Olivia Woodruff and Justin Charles Jacobs were married 5:00 pm Friday, 15 May 2020 at the home of the groom's aunt and uncle, Reginald and Wilda Jacobs in Toney, AL with Pastor Damon Betts officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Woodruff of Decatur and the late Rev. John Ralph Woodruff, Sr. She is the granddaughter of the late Richard and Cleo Moore and the late John Henry and Mamie Woodruff, all of Decatur, AL and the late Joseph and Mary Moore, of Denver, CO.

The groom is the son of Charles and Deborah Jacobs of Athens, AL. He is the grandson of the late Arthur and Mary Jacobs of Toney, AL and the late Luther and Mary Davis of Tanner, AL.

The bride chose a Bariano Medusa white lace strapless maxi dress in elegant white lace over a nude satin lining, shaping the breathtaking gown with a strapless, sweetheart neckline. Accented with a plunging nude mesh inset, the curve-hugging maxi skirt flowed from a fitted waist down to a mermaid hem with flourishing sheer mesh godets and a small train with a bonus tulle full maxi skirt. The bride wore a gold and fresh water pearl necklace and earring set with a pearl floral wedding comb. The bride was bejeweled with a Badgley Mischka Hayden champagne satin rhinestone ankle strap heels.

Maid of honor was Ms. Jeanine Woodruff, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Ms. Teaka Shoulders and Ms. Caresa Sullivan, friends of the bride; Mrs. Janessa Woodruff and Mrs. Okera Peoples, sister-in-laws of the bride; and Ms. Bethany Peoples, cousin of the groom. Flower girls were Miss Peyton Peoples, Miss Mila Woodruff and Miss Marley Woodruff, nieces of the bride and groom.

Best man was Mr. Demetrius Peoples, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Mr. Jordan Frazer and Mr. Orin "Tre" Odom, friends of the groom; Mr. Bradley McWilliams, cousin of the groom. Mr. Ishmael Woodruff and Mr. Ramsey Woodruff, brothers of the bride. Ring bearer was Mr. Kenyan Jacobs, son of the groom.

Floral design by Jeanine Woodruff and Jhauncey Woodruff. Ceremony music by Antonio Woodruff. The bride did her own hair and makeup. Photography by James Jacobs. Videography by Demetrius Peoples. The wedding ceremony was broadcast live on Facebook Live. Other special helpers were Reginald and Wilda Jacobs.

The couple's honeymoon is postponed due to COVID-19. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs now reside in Kalamazoo, MI.

Hammond, Gibson

Sally Elizabeth Hammond and Ethan Lee Gibson were married June 20, 2020 at 4:30 in the afternoon at Lexington First Baptist Church with Bro. Jeff Cruse officiating. The reception was held at The Anderson Center in Anderson following the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Lance and Tammy Hammond of Anderson. She is the granddaughter of Glenda and Ted Kenner of Anderson and the late Othell and Morris Hammond of Lexington.

The groom is the son of Valerie Gibson of Lexington and Shane and Heather Woodward of Killen. He is the grandson of Timothy and Carolyn Gibson of Lexington and Mike and Sue Woodward of St. Florian.

Per the bride: "I had the privilege of wearing my great-grandmother's favorite gold bracelet. Ethan gave me a Ronaldo bracelet to match. My matron of honor let me wear the earrings she wore in her wedding for mine. Each detail of my dress was simple, but elegant. It had buttons all the way up the back and it had just enough poof to make me feel like a princess."

Maid of honor was Melia Hines and matron of honor was Candace Dill, best friends of the bride. Bridesmaids were Kayla Michael, Madison Thornton, Abbie Gray, and Autumn Scott, all friends of the bride, and Piper Hammond, sister-in-law of the bride. Flower girls were Olivia Rossiter, cousin of the bride, and Hannah Woodward, sister of the groom.

Best men were Owen Corum and Dylan Sparks, both friends of the groom. Groomsmen were David Johnston, Garrett Hines, and Benji Letsinger, friends of the groom, Jake Hammond and Jesse Hammond, brothers of the bride. Ring bearer was Cooper Woodward, brother of the groom, and Bible bearer was Wyatt Hammond, nephew of the bride.

Floral designer was Mimi's Decor & More. Caterer was Beverly Scott and the wedding cake was made by Carson's Confections. Music for the ceremony was provided by Karen Cantrell and Megan Haller, and DJ Kato Henry entertained guests at the reception. Hair stylist and makeup artist was Monica Aday. Photographer was Amanda Stutts of Be Still Photography. Special thanks to the ladies at First Baptist Church who helped serve and were ready for any need. Lance Hammond, Hammond Custom Woodworking made all the centerpieces and cake display.

The couple spent their wedding night in Anniston before continuing on to Perdido Beach, Fla. where they spent their week-long honeymoon. They are now residing in Lexington.

Lindsay Kathryn Steien and Spencer Blake Neeley were married October 16, 2020 at 6:30 in the evening at Grace Life Church of the Shoals with Bro. Matt Fowler officiating. The reception was held at Doublehead Resort following the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Gary and Marlaina Steien of Muscle Shoals. She is the granddaughter of the late E.D. "Pete" and Jeanette Steien and the late Keith and Shirley Gladney.

The groom is the son of Dennis and Teresa Neeley of Scottsboro. He is the grandson of the late Rachel and Annie Hastings and the late Ed and Frances Neeley.

The bride was escorted by her father. She wore a beautiful white satin Justin Alexander gown from The Something Blue Shoppe.

Bridesmaids were Laura Stockton and Leah Holden, sisters of the bride; Addy Beth Stockton, niece of the bride; Katelyn Phillips, Kayla Turner, and Emily Steles, friends of the bride. Flower girl was Halie Ladner, friend of the bride.

Groomsmen were Taylor Stockton, nephew of the bride; Brandon Wilhelm, Steven Lusk, Austin Wright, Kevin Lusk, and Dustin Stewart, all friends of the groom. Ring bearer was John David Holden, nephew of the bride.

Floral designer was Dawn Garrison. Music for the ceremony was provided by Jason Briley, pianist, and soloist Tom Clay. Caterer was Darlene Nuss Catering. The wedding cake and groom's cake were made by Elizabeth Cozart. Reception entertainment was provided by DJ Katie Pyle and decorator Bonnie Bauer. Photographer was Hannah Briggs.

After a honeymoon trip to Jackson Hole, Wyo., the couple is now residing in Scottsboro.

Pigg, Horton

Covid-19 and Hurricane Delta could not put a damper on the wedding day of Justin and Charlee. A year and a half of planning all came to a halt in the days leading up to their special day. The ceremony was planned for Pleasant View Farm, an outdoor venue located in their hometown. Unfortunately, due to impending Hurricane Delta that was expected to make land-fall on wedding day, the couple made the difficult decision to relocate the ceremony three days before to Cornerstone Church in Collinwood, Tenn. The couple are extremely grateful for the generosity and support they were shown from the members of Cornerstone for allowing them to use their beautiful church. Despite the obstacles faced, Charlee and Justin's wedding day was one of a storybook fairytale. The most perfect day surrounded by friends and family who mean so much to the couple.

Charlee Amber Pigg and Justin Dale Horton were married October 10, 2020 at 4:30 in the afternoon at Cornerstone Church with Junior Overstreet officiating. The reception followed at the church.

The bride is the daughter of Greg and Sonya Pigg of Cypress Inn, Tenn. She is the granddaughter of Johnnie and Glenda Holt and Margaret Pigg of Collinwood, Tenn. and Johnny Pigg of Florence, Ala.

The groom is the son of Jessica and Bart Littrell of Cypress Inn, Tenn. and Jeff and Amy Horton of Florence, Ala. He is the grandson of Dennis and Judy Thompson, Sam and Becky Horton, and Rhonda Donovan, all of Collinwood, Tenn.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a stunning mermaid style gown with a detailed bodice of lace and beading attached to a flowing tulle skirt by Kittychen Couture and a chapel length veil trimmed with lace from Moden Brides located in Huntsville, Ala. She completed her look by wearing her mother's earrings from her wedding day. Attached to her beautiful bouquet of sand roses, blue thistle, ranunculus, and dusty miller were two handkerchiefs given to her as special keepsakes from the groom's great-grandmother and her own great-grandmother.

Maid of honor was Shelby Wilbanks, best friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miranda Goats, Martha Kristin Woodside, Kaylee Smith, Selby Risner, all friends of the bride, and Braydee Pigg, sister of the bride. Flower girls were Ada Holt, Remi Robertson, and Teagan Vickery, all cousins of the bride.

Best man was Austin Holt, friend of the groom. Groomsmen were Seth Hicks and Tanner Weaver, friends of the groom; Mac Holt, friend and cousin of the bride; Tanner Sanderson, cousin of the groom; and Jace Horton, brother of the groom. Ring bearer was Ty Rich, family friend of the bride and groom.

Wedding director/coordinators were Lillie Ruth Brewer and Christie Littrell. Floral designer was Christie Littrell. Ceremony music was provided by Jason Rich. Caterer for the reception was Pat's Cafe and Catering Co. of Lawrenceburg, Tenn., and the wedding cake and groom's cake were made by Tori Jones at Revival Bake Shop. Hair stylists were Jaydee Blackburn and Valerie Crews at Jaydee's, and makeup artist was Sydney Hallmark at Styled by Sydney. Photographer was Rebecca Elkins at Rebecca Lynn Photography and videographer was Tyler Martin at Nelsons Studio. Special thanks to Cherry Tree Lane in Florence for completing the bridal party look.

Unable to travel to their original honeymoon destination due to Covid-19 restrictions, the couple travelled to Branson, Mo. for an impromptu honeymoon. Deep in the Ozarks, the couple enjoyed horseback riding through the mountains and enjoying some much needed relaxation. The couple plan to celebrate their one-year anniversary in Oahu, Hawaii as originally planned.

Elkins, Stamps

Having a wedding during a pandemic was a challenge, but I think with any wedding it's important to be flexible and remember the most important thing is love. Love for your groom, your family, and friends. No matter what is going on in life, you are marrying the love of your life and that's the most important thing about the day!

Autumn Elkins and Sawyer Stamps were married November 21, 2020 in a 3:00 afternoon ceremony held at Camp Creek Weddings in Killen with Harrison Chastain officiating. The reception followed at Camp Creek.

The bride is the daughter of Andy and Lisa Elkins of Florence. She is the granddaughter of Steve and Paula Elkins and Gwyn Jones and the late Ricky Jones, all of Florence.

The groom is the son of Randall and Darlene Stamps of Florence. He is the grandson of Danny and Paulette Abernathy and Faye Stamps and the late Clayburn Stamps, all of Florence.

The bride was escorted by her father. She chose a white lace gown with matching cathedral length veil from Mary's Bridal.

Maid of honor was Aleah Elkins, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Laura Johnson, Harley Parker, Kaylee Windsor, Kaitlin Davis, Mariah Belue, all friends of the bride, and Gracie Holden, cousin of the groom. Flower girls were Serenity Elkins, Ka'Shari Elkins, and Ka'Nyla Elkins, all sisters of the bride.

The groom's father, Randall Stamps, served as his son's best man. Groomsmen were Raleigh Stamps, brother of the groom; William Elkins, brother of the bride; Ben Qualls, Temon Brown, Eoin Broadfoot, and Markus Johnson, all friends of the groom. Ring bearers were Colton Elkins and Kingston Elkins, brothers of the bride.

Wedding director was Sarah Atkins, family friend, and floral designer was Paula Elkins, grandmother of the bride. Ceremony music was provided by Nathan Johnson. The wedding cake was made by Yummies Bakery and the groom's cake was made by Publix. Servers were Amy Windsor, Angela Haddock, and Niki Adrian. Photographer was Kirstin Bynum of Southmere Photography.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Canyon Lake, Texas, and are now residing in Florence.

*Hinkle,
Alexander*

Getting married in a Pandemic is extra stressful. We had been planning a wedding and reception for over a year and then all the sudden all of our plans were flushed away. We made the decision two weeks before our planned date to at least postpone our reception for later in the year. Due to Covid, we decided to "elope" in Cloudland Canyon, Ga. Finding a last minute location was not easy, several parks were still closed and didn't have an answer for when they would be open. Thankful for pinterest and our last minute photographer (Mae) we decided on Cloudland Canyon. Though we had never been there, the place looked amazing and perfect for a wedding and it was. It wasn't what we had planned or expected, but we were beyond happy and in love. We had our ceremony on a beautiful overlook, looking into the canyon. We hiked miles, yes in my dress but in Chacos. We chased waterfalls and got very wet and muddy. Ethan even ripped a huge hole in his pants which made for great laughs. It is for sure a day we will never forget and the happiest day of our lives (so far).

We were able to have our reception later in the year at our original venue, The Ledges, masks and all. The great part about postponing our reception was that we were able to take online dance lessons and had a fun coordinated dance for our first dance. I think everyone, including us, was shocked. What we loved most about our reception was that we were able to premier our wedding video at dinner. So it was almost like they were there with us, in Cloudland. Our videographer was able to insert an old voicemail from my dad at the end with some words I wish I could have told him. I don't think there was a dry eye in the room. Another great memory was the anniversary dance, which is where each married couple stands up, then you see who has been married the longest and ask their advice. Ethan's grandparents had celebrated their 60th anniversary that year and won, by a long shot of course. His grandparents had their first dance together... EVER! It was so nice to share that moment with them and hear their words of wisdom.

Athena Hinkle and Ethan Alexander were married May 20, 2020 at 9:00 in the morning in a beautiful outdoor ceremony at Cloudland Canyon in Ga. with Bobbie Docher officiating. The reception was held at The Ledges in Huntsville on September 6, 2020.

Rhoads, Butler

We both knew that this was the one that God had made for us very early on in the relationship. While I knew about a month into our relationship, Jerett took a few more months. We were able to experience a lot of life in the beginning of our relationship. We both lost family members, I was in graduate school, and I moved further away in order to change jobs, in addition to a global pandemic that changed countless plans that we had made. When the pandemic began, I was hopeful that it would be over soon. We all know now that this wasn't the case. Before our engagement, I entered a contest to win a wedding gown from Vow'D Weddings, the new bridal brand of the Altar'd State brand. I was shocked to be selected as one of 25 winners on my birthday. Little did I know that Jerett and I would be engaged two weeks later. The events of 2020 altered many of our wedding plans. We weren't able to have an engagement party due to restrictions. We selected bridal party attire on Amazon due to international shipping and production delays. We watched as friends changed and postponed their wedding plans and wondered if we would have to do the same. I feel as if we planned five different weddings in 2020, and yet we knew that the only thing that mattered was that we became husband and wife. We had drive-by wedding showers, small bachelor and bachelorette parties at home, and registered for wedding gifts exclusively online. But on the day of our wedding, we knew we had finally made it. We had to reschedule our original reception plans and we had to cut our guest list by a lot. We streamed our wedding online and offered to-go boxes of wedding treats. Was our wedding the wedding I had dreamed of and planned since I was a little girl? No. Yet, it was absolutely the best day of my life. That's because it didn't matter that things had not gone according to our plans. It didn't matter that guests wore masks or that our ceremony location smelled of sanitizer and eucalyptus. It didn't matter that many friends and family watched our wedding online. What mattered was that we had each other. What mattered was that we were just as married that day as we would have been if there hadn't been a pandemic and all our plans had come to fruition. While a beautiful wedding and perfect details are wonderful things, what truly matters is the love that you share for each other. We spent a lot of our time before our wedding preparing ourselves for marriage. It was time that we wouldn't have had if there wasn't a pandemic going on. So while I don't recommend wedding planning or getting married during a pandemic, we were blessed to be married beside our closest loved ones. We had the time to prepare our hearts for marriage. We have each other, and that's all we truly needed on our wedding day.

Madison Anleigh Rhoads and Jerett Dewayne Butler were married October 10, 2020 at 4:00 in the afternoon at The Chapel in Sheffield with Bryant Newell, close friend of the bride and groom, officiating. A full reception will occur at a later date.

She is the granddaughter of the late Brenda Kelly of Greenhill, Neil Killen of Lexington, the late Manuel Nazario of Florence, the late Minnie Bacon Bowman of Reading, Pa., and the late Bill Rhoads of Reading, Pa.

The groom is the son of Barry and Rita Butler of Haleyville. He is the grandson of Freddie and Carolyn Butler of Haleyville, Betty Gray Harris and the late Hardy Harris of Oak Grove.

The bride chose her gown, veil and belt from The Something Blue Shoppe. Her departure dress was from Vow'D Weddings, and her earrings were from Mary's Bridal in Moulton.

Matron of honor was Jessica Smith, friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Caroline Walker, Anna Beahm, Catherine Martin, Grace Johnston, Danielle Stokes, and Alyssa Turner, all friends of the bride. Flower girls were Lois Martin and Willow Smith, cousins of the bride.

Best man was Jared Fannin, friend of the groom. Groomsmen were Barry Butler, father of the groom; Bryant Newell, Ryan Donaldson, Matt Fannin, all friends of the groom; and Matt Aycock, cousin of the groom. Ring bearers were John Michael Ozbirn and Brantley Ozbirn, cousins of the groom.

Wedding director was Katrina McConnell. Floral designer was Bonnie Stokes. For the wedding cake, the couple selected a tiered cookie cake of chocolate chip cookies and buttercream icing made by Stratton Abbey Cupcakery and Cakes, with a topper custom made by Kanani Miller. The groom's cake was a red velvet cake made by the groom's aunt, Teresa Butler. Other special helpers were Bonnie Stokes, Robin Hollander, Amy Stratton, Katrina McConnell, Teresa Butler, and other family and friends of the couple. Hair stylist and makeup artist was Georgia Plummer. Photographer was Rebekah Handley and videographer was Slightly Gigantic Media.
