ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Time is on your side in the early part of the week. But anything left undone by midweek will need to be put into rush mode. The weekend offers choices for you and someone special.

TAURUS (April 30 to May 20) Finally getting credit for a contribution is nice for all you idea-generating Ferdinands and Fernandas. But don't sit on your laurels under the cork tree. Use it as a first step to a bigger opportunity.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Despite the progress made, a hint of doubt might set in. That's OK. You need to stop and consider not only what you're doing but also how you are doing. Make adjustments where needed.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) The dreamer is dominant in the Moon Child's aspect, but a dollop of hardheaded practicality is coming up fast and jockeying for space. The challenge is to make room for both modes.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) It's a good week for Leos and Leonas to start assessing what they've done and what they plan to do. Moving to a new environment -- home or job-related -- is a possibility for some Cats.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) The week calls for Virgos to make tough decisions, but in a way that leaves the door open for changes. Ask for advice from someone who has been in the position you're in now.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Disappointments are never easy to take, but you have the ability to learn from them and go on to success. Meanwhile, continue to build up your contacts. You'll need them soon.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Things might still be going much too slowly to suit you. But you need the time to make sure they're going in the right direction. It's easier to make a course correction now rather than later.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Showing some temperament at the way things are going is one way of getting your point across. Just don't overdo it, or you risk turning away more-moderate supporters.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Things could change more quickly this week than you like. But don't fret; you'll most likely find that you're up to the challenges. The weekend offers much-needed relaxation.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Big challenge coming up? Uncross those fingers and believe that you're going to do well. And keep in mind that so many people have faith in your ability to succeed.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Testing the waters is a good way of learning about an opportunity before plunging right in. Ask more questions and be alert to any attempts to avoid giving complete answers.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a gift for making people -- and animals, too -- feel special and loved.

PIEDMONT PETS

February 18, 2021 By Paulette Dean

When I first started working at the shelter in 1992, the interim director also served on the board. Judy had been a music teacher in the Danville public schools for years before she decided she wanted a career change. She and I had spent a lot of time together when we served on the board together and then as she mentored me at the shelter.

She said something that I did not understand at the time, but I do now. When we were talking about music, she said that having a master's degree in music and teaching for so long had taken the pure joy out of merely listening to music for her. She said that the entire time she listened to music, whether on the radio or on cassettes (it was the 1990s), she would pick out the different instruments and listen for mistakes or nuances of the music.

I can understand what she meant. I absolutely love my job, but it has taken some of the joy of innocence away from me. Let me explain.

I love to embroider and crossstitch. I have wonderful patterns of different animal heads. In the past, I wanted to stitch a fun collage. However, now when I see the bust of an animal, all I can think of are the times we investigated decapitated animals.

How I love snow! Now, though, I cannot see it without seeing the pictures in my mind of the animals suffering in it. That is also the reason why I can no longer completely enjoy a glass of cold water on a hot day; I remember the dogs who died of heat strokes or dehydration.

I see storm drains and think of the countless kittens, cats, and dogs we have rescued from them. I am not naïve enough to believe there have been none who have drowned in them.

996 South Boston Rd., Danville, VA 24540 Phone: (434) 799-0843

I have always had a fear of fire, and now I see the images of the ones we have received that have been burned.

As a colleague and I were talking about a current cruelty case, I made the comment that I wish legislators could spend at least a day in our world before they pass laws. Her simple, "Oh yes" told me she understood.

On and on I could go, but you get the picture.

Make no mistake; I am not saying this for sympathy or to be viewed as a martyr. In fact, I believe that what I am saying could be said by almost everyone else who works at a public open-admission shelter. I am saying this because first of all, it is true and second, it may explain the reasons why we ask questions of adopters.

Although much of my innocent, view-the-world-throughrose-colored glasses is forever gone, how grateful I am that I have been able to serve in this capacity for almost 29 years. So very grateful.

Pottery Cigar Box

Homes of the early 1900s in the United States had many matched sets of decorative pieces. There was a coffee and tea service with creamer, sugar bowl and tray. There was usually a desk set with a pen, blotter ends, inkwell, pen holder, letter opener, stamp box and more. And, of course, there was a smoking set that had a box for cigars, cigar cutter, sometimes a cigar holder, humidor, lighter, ashtray, a cigarette holder and a special cigarette case to carry. When viewed alone, the parts are often hard to identify.

A recent auction by Rago sold a pottery box with a lid and corners that featured hooded figures. The size suggests it was originally made to hold cigars. Cigars were sold in standard size wooden boxes starting in 1865. A decorative box often held them on a desk or table. This box is marked Atlantic Terra Cotta Company, an important maker of New Jersey clay tiles from 1907 to 1949. It sold for $875.

• I inherited a 1768 German family Bible. What's the best way to store it so it doesn't deteriorate?

A If your family Bible lists names of family members with birth and death dates going back over 250 years, you have a treasure! Before you store the Bible, use your cellphone or digital camera to take pictures of the pages that have family information so you can share them with other family members and have copies in case the ink fades.

Don't try to copy the pages by opening the book flat on a photocopier. It may break the spine. The public library may have a photocopy machine with a book mount to hold the book partly open, but the light may fade the print.

Don't keep the Bible in a plastic bag. Put a piece of archival tissue paper between handwritten pages to prevent the ink from bleeding through. Store the Bible flat in an archival box and pad it with archival tissue paper to keep the Bible in place. Store it in a cool, dry place, not in the attic or basement. Archival materials can be purchased at sites online. A few places for archival supplies are www.gaylord.com and www.lightimpressionsdirect.com.

Recycling is not new. Attractive boxes that held products like cigars were often reused to hold jewelry or sewing equipment. What the hooded figures on this box represent is unknown, but the box sold for $875 to be used in a 21st-century way.

* Fruit math: A tomato or an apple plus green bananas in a paper bag equals ripe bananas.

* Empty tissue boxes have so many uses. Try lining one with a plastic grocery bag and keeping it in your car for stray trash. Or you can use it to corral all of those plastic grocery bags until you need them -just stuff them in one at a time. Lastly, and probably my favorite: Cut out doors and windows to use as houses for kids' toys. Imagination makes the possibilities endless. -- JoAnn

* "Jazz up your pancakes by adding pureed frozen blueberries or strawberries. It turns the mix either blue or red, and it's fun for the kiddos." -- V.R. in Florida

* "We are always prompted to choose strong passwords, but a random collection of letters, numbers and special symbols can be hard to remember. I make a strong password by using a coded phrase, like "My three boys are No. 1," which might be "MY-3boysR#1." Just thought I'd share my trick, but not my password!" -- R.W. in Iowa

* Keep a bottle of club soda handy for spot stains on carpets or upholstery. It's good for more than just drinks.

HOLLYWOOD by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Jennifer Lopez and Armie Hammer were teaming up for Lionsgate's $65 million romantic comedy "Shotgun Wedding" — that is until some disturbing messages by Hammer, detailing sexual fantasies, were leaked. How this will affect his upcoming releases — "Crisis," with Gary Oldman; "Death on the Nile," with Kenneth Branagh and Gal Gadot; "Next Goal Wins," with Michael Fassbender and Elizabeth Moss; and the "Call Me by My Name" sequel is anyone's guess.

The Kennedy Center Honors began in 1978, but the 2020 "Honors" were a pandemic casualty. This year, the Honors will be taped during the week of May 17. The annual event, usually to a packed house and the U.S. president (except the previous POTUS, who refused to attend four years in a row), will be socially distanced.

The first of this year's five honorees is choreographer and actress Debbie Allen, for her work with Michael Jackson, Dolly Parton and as Lydia Grant in the '80s series "Fame," among other accomplishments. Allen admitted, "I have a real purpose in life to be as creative as possible and to expand the reach and possibilities of others."

Also being honored is top country-music singer/songwriter Garth Brooks: "As one of the world's bestselling music artists he heightened country music profiles like no other singer before him." Brooks confessed, "I've watched many of my heroes sit in that booth. I had the joyous honor of singing for some on their special night. The hope is to contribute to humanity, to inspire to be the most we can, but most of all, to simply laugh, cry, love and dream through music."

Singer-songwriter and activist Joan Baez is being honored "because she breathed new life into the folk genre, powering rock music's turn to social and political consciousness." A lesser-known honoree is violinist Midori

Dick Van Dyke

Goto, "whose international presence, over 35 years, combines graceful precision and expression for performances building connections between art and the human experience."

Last, but never least, is Dick Van Dyke, honored "because of the charm that has made him one of the most cherished performers in show business history." Some of his best vehicles were "The Dick Van Dyke Show," "Bye Bye Birdie," "Mary Poppins" and its sequel, and "Chitty Chatty Bang Bang." Van Dyke remembers "Many years ago, I hosted a similar event, held in private, with The Kennedy Family. I saw the care with which the recipients were chosen from an impressive list of nominees. Being included this year, in this small, illustrious group, is the thrill of my life."

The show has always aired between Christmas and New Year's, but this year it will reach our homes on Sunday, June 6, on CBS. At 95, Dick Van Dyke is still working, wondering what that strange word "retire" means!

Back pain

When a person suffers from acute back muscle spasms (involuntary tensing of the muscles), it can result in short-term pain that may last a few weeks.

A clinical research study (RESUME) for adults with pain due to acute back muscle spasms is now enrolling participants.

The RESUME study is currently seeking volunteers to participate in a clinical research study to evaluate a new, non-opioid, investigational medication for patients suffering from back pain due to or associated with muscle spasms.

You may be eligible to participate in RESUME if you:

- Are 18 64 years of age.
- Are able to walk.
- Have sudden onset of back pain associated with muscle spasms not caused by a longterm (chronic) condition.
- Are willing to stop all other non-study provided medications or treatments for back pain/muscle spasms.
- Are willing and able to comply with scheduled visits and study procedures.
- Can be immediately available and assessed to start receiving investigational medication.

Eligible study participants will be compensated for their time. Participation in RESUME is voluntary and study participants can leave at any time and for any reason.

Easy Ways to Enjoy Life's Everyday Moments

FAMILY FEATURES

or many people across the country, carving out time from busy schedules to spend with loved ones can be difficult. However, when opportunities arise to experience bonding activities together, the results can be fond memories and a deeper sense of security.

"Many families, mine included, usually put a in some time and maybe even some learning and sharing. Kids can help with measuring and other age-appropriate tasks, and the casual setting is a good environment to get kids talking about what's on their minds

If evenings are too rushed to make an all-hands approach practical, instead try carving out some ne on the weekends or once a month for a few hours of baking up batches of a favorite treat. You can also find new and fun family-friendly recipes. Even if the recipe doesn't turn out well, the time spent doing it together is a treat on its own.

lot of energy into planning fun events and special trips to create memories," said Amanda Mushro, TLC lifestyle expert and fairlife ambassador. "These get-togethers help us cope with challenges and remember to make the most of each day. This year, while disappointing, has revived our chances to slow down a little and savor the little moments that happen at home every day."

Build Strong Bonds

Life gets busy, and in the shuffle it's easy to overlook the importance of quality time with your friends, family, and significant others. Commit to regularly (and safely) spending one-on-one time with each loved one as a special treat you can all cherish. Even if it's just snuggling and watching a favorite show together, crafting or doing an activity you both enjoy, try making an effort to slow down and strengthen your bonds.

Head Outdoors

Leave the technology behind and go for a walk or a bike ride together once or twice a week. It's a ritual you can look forward to while taking advantage of the time together and the chance to burn some energy. You can take outdoor appreciation even further by planning camping trips to enjoy the joys of wildlife through activities like bird watching, fishing or impromptu scavenger hunts.

Make Meals a Family Affair

Not only does getting the whole family involved make the preparation faster, it's a chance to squeeze

Enjoy Tasty Treats Together

There's nothing quite like a bowl of ice cream to light up a face and mood so break out the scooper and make some sweet memories. Set up your next sundae bar with a tasty option like fairlife Light Ice Cream, a delicious, lactose-free frozen dessert with a strong nutrition profile compared to traditional ice cream. It comes in seven flavors, so there is something for everyone.

Avoid Life's Stressors

Outside influences can have a major impact on your mood and ability to enjoy your time at home. Try turning off your phone notifications for a few hours of uninterrupted home time. If clutter is creating havoc, look for ways to improve your home's organization and get everyone in the house to pitch in to keep things in place.

Schedule Weekly Fun Nights

Designate a night each week to have fun together playing games, watching movies or dancing. Pull out the board and card games or get some fresh air with yard games like croquet or bag toss. Sign up for a virtual cooking fitness class. When it comes to movies, enjoy old favorites together or introduce kids to beloved classics from the '80s and '90s and incorporate fun traditions with snacks and special treats.

Rethink Dessert for Better-for-You Moments

Special moments and gatherings often revolve around food. With some simple (and tasty) adjustments, you can still savor every moment, including dessert, without overindulging.

Choose a light(er) frozen delight. A cool scoop (or two) of dessert is a perfect cap for all kinds of cuisines and making smart choices can help manage the calorie load. One example is fairlife Light Ice Cream, delicious frozen desserts expertly crafted with ultra-filtered milk and natural flavors for a lactose-free product with a rich, creamy texture. In comparison to traditional ice cream, it has less sugar, fat and calories. Additionally, depending on which of the seven flavors you choose, it contains 8 or 9 grams of high-quality protein.

Make fruit the star. Fresh berries or seasonal fruit like peaches with fairlife Vanilla Light Ice Cream are a refreshing and more nutritious option than a rich cake or pie filled with added sugars. Or try dipping fruit like grapes or strawberries in chocolate for bite-sized treats.

Serve perfect portions. Occasionally treating yourself is actually a good way to help keep your healthy lifestyle on track. It minimizes the sense of deprivation that can lead to overeating. The trick is to manage your portions. Miniature cheesecakes or tarts are enjoyable ways to treat yourself with a sweet ending to the event. Or try making your own ice cream sandwiches using reduced or sugar-free cookies and light ice cream for the filling. Each pint of fairlife Light Ice Cream has 3 servings per container.
