PIEDMONT PETS

February 25, 2021
By Paulette Dean

In the first two months of 2021,
we have offered rewards in two different abandonment cases. The first one involved two puppies that were put in a wire cage and abandoned at a dumpster in the county. Both of those puppies were adopted.

This past weekend, shelter staff members went to a street in Danville to get two rabbits that had been abandoned on the side of the street. Sadly, the rabbits had been able to escape from the cages before they got there.

Through the years, we have received hundreds of calls (maybe even thousands, actually) about animals being abandoned. Dogs, cats, rabbits, ferrets, and guinea pigs have all been rescued from cages on the side of the road, from median strips, at dumpster sites (sometimes in a taped box), and a myriad of other places.
Sometimes, a dog's neck appears to have had a collar removed. The physical condition of the animals range from being in good condition to being emaciated or injured and near death.

The one they all have in common is the look in their eyes from being scared or confused. That look usually goes away when they are rescued, brought to the shelter, fed, watered, and put in a comfortable resting spot. Abandonment is against the law in Virginia; it is a Class 3 misdemeanor. The Comprehensive Animal Care portion of the Code defines abandonment as: "Abandon" means to desert, forsake, or absolutely give up an animal without having secured another owner or custodian for the animal or by failing to provide the elements of basic care as set forth in 3.2-6503 for a period of four consecutive days."

Several years ago, the Virginia Legislature included companion animals under the litter laws. At first, this may seem offensive to group pets in with garbage, but it actually is a very good step. However, if the person is charged under the litter laws, the crime is a Class 1 misdemeanor. The law itself is very well-written: "It shall be unlawful for any person to dump or otherwise dispose of trash, garbage, refuse, litter, a companion animal for the purpose of disposal, or other unsightly matter, on public property, including a public highway, right-of-way, property adjacent to such highway or right-of-way, or on private property without the written consent of the owner thereof or his agent."

Under the Class 3
misdemeanor abandonment laws, a person can be fined not more than $500. Under the Class 1 misdemeanor litter laws, a person can be confined in jail for not more than twelve months, and fined not more than $2,500, either or both.

We will pay a reward for information leading to the arrest of anyone abandoning an animal in the City or in Pittsylvania County. The reward money comes from donations.

If you know of anyone who has abandoned an animal, please call us. Abandonment is illegal and cruel.

* Need a quick fix for tarnished brass? Look in your fridge. Ketchup, applied liberally then buffed off, will remove tarnish in a pinch.

* Use a sticky note to clean the cracks in your keyboard. First hold it upside down and shake to remove crumbs. You'd be surprised how much comes out. Then run the sticky strip of the note paper between the keys to pick up dust and any other crumbs.

* "Many people play drinking games with movies and alcohol, but here's my drinking game: I work at an 'office' job (although we are remote now), and every time I get an email notification, I take a sip or slug of water. It's got me surprisingly hydrated!" -- P.J. in Florida

HOLLYWOOD by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Tom Hanks' film "News of the World," which cost $38 million to make, was released in theaters Christmas Day and grossed $9.7 million. That was good, considering it was available for Netflix subscribers as well. His next release, the science-fiction film "Bios," with Skeet Ulrich, is set for theaters Aug. 13 without a streaming release, so far. Last January, Hanks began filming "Elvis" in Australia for "Moulin Rouge" director Baz Luhrmann. He'll play Presley's manager, Colonel Tom Parker, with Austin Butler as Elvis. In March, he and wife Rita Wilson tested positive for COVID-19 and the film was shut down. In September, they resumed and completed the film (scheduled for a Nov. 5 release to theaters and HBO Max).

Hanks is now playing Geppetto in the Disney+ live action remake of its 1940 animated classic, "Pinocchio." Oscar-winner Roberto Benigni (for 1997's "Life Is Beautiful") remade "Pinocchio" in 2002 for $45 million, but it grossed only $41 million worldwide. This time it's being directed by Robert Zemeckis, of "Romancing the Stone," "Back to the Future," "Forrest Gump," "Cast Away" and "Who Framed Roger Rabbit" fame. In addition to Hanks, he's cast Luke Evans (Gaston in "Beauty and the Beast") as The Coachman. Evans is fresh off of Hulu's "Nine Perfect Strangers," with Melissa McCarthy and Nicole Kidman.

At the dawn of the 1970s, I met a young actor who was co-starring with Sal Mineo in a Los Angeles stage production of "Fortune and Men's Eyes." It was a prison drama in which the young actor was raped every night by Mineo's character. It was very controversial for its time. I got to know the actor, and we did several photo sessions together. Flash-forward to 1985, when that young actor turned up on television as the star of "Miami Vice." His name was Don Johnson. When the show ended five years later, he drifted through films and TV guest-star roles until he landed the hit series "Nash Bridges," co-starring Cheech Marin, which ran from 1996-2001. In 2010, Johnson sued the producers of the police drama for $23 million because they allegedly conveniently forgot to give him his share of the foreign residuals he was contracted to receive. The case was finally settled in 2013, and he received $19 million. So when his 2015 series "Blood & Oil" ended after only 10 episodes, he wasn't devastated.

Johnson is currently co-starring with "SNL" alum Kenan Thompson in his new NBC series "Kenan." Johnson replaced Andy Garcia (who was in the pilot) playing Kenan's father-in-law, who offers to help raise his granddaughter. A $19 million settlement for foreign residuals? Who says crime doesn't pay!

AVERETT UNIVERSITY ANNOUNCES NEW VICE PRESIDENT FOR PHILANTHROPY

Averett University has announced that Melissa Wohlstein has been named vice president for philanthropy after an extensive nationwide search. Her appointment was effective as of Feb. 16, 2021.

Wohlstein joins Averett after a career spanning almost 20 years in both the public and private college/university settings, working in all aspects of higher education fundraising.

“I am confident that as vice president for philanthropy, Melissa will find strategically innovative ways to grow the University,” said Averett University President Dr. Tiffany M. Franks. “With her existing connections to Virginia and her commitment to Averett’s mission, she will provide thoughtful and inspiring leadership as we embark on many bigger and bolder fundraising initiatives.”

During her tenure in philanthropy — with responsibilities including annual fund drives, alumni development, major gifts and planned giving — Wohlstein has secured more than $25 million in major gifts.

Her experience includes serving as the associate vice president of development at Hollins University; senior director of constituent relations for the College of Veterinarian Medicine at the University of Georgia; vice president for institutional advancement at Radford University; associate vice president for development and campaigns at Georgia Southern University; and senior director of development and alumni affairs for the College of Health and Human Performance at the University of Florida.

“It is an honor and privilege to serve as the vice president for philanthropy for Averett University,” said Wohlstein. “This is an exciting time to join the Averett family and the Danville community, with so much positive energy focused on the vision for the University’s future. I look forward to working with President Franks and to engaging with our alumni, supporters and leadership to help lead Averett to new levels.”

Wohlstein earned a Master of Public Administration degree from The University of Central Florida as well as a Bachelor of Arts degree in theater and English from The University of Alabama.

She has presented at numerous national fundraising conferences and held leadership roles in several professional and community organizations, including the Council for Advancement and Support of Education, the Association of Fundraiser Professionals and Rotary International.

Wohlstein is joined by her husband of 18 years, Doug; a daughter, Alex and two labradors.

1. Name the artist who claims he's lost fans because of his name.
2. Which group was the first to release "Woke Up in Love"?
3. "Conga" is considered the signature song for which artist?
4. Who was the first artist to be inducted twice into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "Well, you can tell by the way I use my walk, I'm a woman's man: no time to talk."

- Answers
1. Meat Loaf. Vegetarians were leery of him because of the name (in one case a fellow artist who wouldn't speak to him), although he himself was a vegetarian for over 10 years.
 2. Exile, in 1983. "Woke Up in Love" took the former rock group to the top of the country charts in both the U.S. and Canada.
 3. Gloria Estefan and the Miami Sound Machine.
 4. Clyde McPhatter, both as a member of the Drifters and for his solo work.
 5. "Stayin' Alive," by the Bee Gees in 1977. It was used in the soundtrack for the film "Saturday Night Fever." After its release, "Stayin' Alive" shot to the top of the charts and stayed there for a month.

- Ingredients
- 1 can Pillsbury Crescent Rolls
 - 8 tablespoons (1/2 cup) softened butter, divided
 - 1/4 cup brown sugar
 - 1/4 cup white sugar
 - 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- CINNAMON ROLL ICING
- 1 cup powdered sugar
 - 4 tablespoons heavy cream (or 2 tablespoons milk + 1 tablespoon butter)
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla

Instructions

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Melt 4 tablespoons of butter in the bottom of a pie plate. Add the brown sugar to the butter and stir to combine. Cover the bottom evenly with butter/sugar mixture.

Unroll crescent dough and pinch seams together to create one big sheet. Spread with remaining softened butter. Combine white sugar and cinnamon and sprinkle over the buttered dough. Roll the dough back up into a log, and cut into 8 cinnamon rolls. Place rolls in prepared pie plate. Sprinkle with any remaining cinnamon sugar.

Bake at 350 for 20 minutes. Top with cinnamon roll icing (recipe follows) and serve warm. Store leftover cinnamon buns at room temperature.

FOR THE CINNAMON ROLL ICING

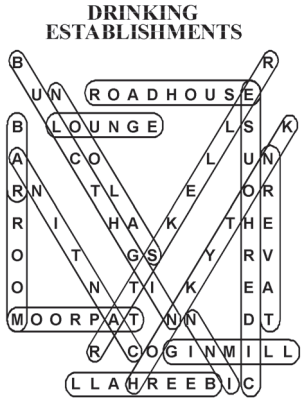

With a fork, stir together sugar, cream, and vanilla until smooth and pourable. Add one tablespoon of milk if needed to thin. If using milk and butter instead of cream, heat the milk and butter in the microwave to melt the butter, then add to the sugar and stir in vanilla.
