Substitute teacher charged with furnishing alcohol to student

On Feb. 22, the Aitkin County Sheriff's Office investigated a report of an Aitkin High School substitute teacher having provided a juvenile with alcohol. The investigation revealed that the substitute teacher had befriended a student and had, on multiple occasions, provided that student with alcohol.

On Feb. 23, Guy Willard Blessing, 77, of Aitkin, was arrested on the charge of Gross Misdemeanor Furnish Alcohol to Minor, which carries a maximum sentence of one year in jail, $3,000 fine or both.

According to the complaint, the student stated "they became friends with defendant the prior year. [The student] stated they had been at defendant's residence located on the 35000 block of 432nd Place in Aitkin Township, Aitkin County, multiple times helping [the] defendant with yard work, dock work, etc. [The student] stated on Feb. 22, 2021, defendant's wife fell and had to be taken to Riverwood Healthcare Center. [The] defendant sent [the student] a text asking for a ride to Aitkin to get his truck. [The student] stated he arrived at defendant's residence at approximately 5:00 p.m. [The] defendant offered

[the student] a beer, which was accepted. [The student] stated [the] defendant had given [the student] beer on previous occasions. [The] defendant kept asking if [the student] wanted another beer, which made [the student feel] pressured to drink more. [The student] refused to accept another beer from defendant."

Blessing appeared in Court on Feb. 24 and was released on conditions of no contact with the student and no unsupervised contact with any persons under the age of 18. His next court appearance is April 19.

In concern for public safety, the Aitkin High School administration was notified of this offense. The school provided the comment that as of February 23, Blessing will no longer substitute teach at Aitkin High School.

Pipeline protester perched and pinned on platform arrested

Rachel Marie Leaf, 34, of Minneapolis

A Minneapolis woman was arrested on February 24 in Aitkin County after suspending herself on a platform about 20 feet off the ground in protest of the Line 3 pipeline replacement project.

At 5:55 a.m., the Aitkin County Sheriff's Office responded to protest activity blocking the Hedborn Forest Road, southeast of Jacobson. Numerous people were blocking the road and a device had been erected in the center of the road. The device was constructed of two logs around 35 feet long and fastened on the top. This bipod was vertical and anchored with ropes and posts approximately 45 feet away from the device. Suspended in the center of the device was a platform that was painted with anti pipeline slogans.

On the top side of the platform over 20 ft. high, was an individual dressed in warm gear and wearing a mask. The individual identified herself as "Rose."

"Rose" was later identified as Rachel Marie Leaf, 34, from Minneapolis.

Others at the scene were instructed to leave the area and remove their vehicles. Everyone left the scene except Leaf, who was given multiple opportunities to leave, according to the complaint.

Leaf was advised that she was illegally blocking a public right of way and that she needed to come down. Leaf refused to come down. An extraction team was called out to assess the bipod device constructed of square steel pieces welded into a 45-degree angle. A pin was welded into each leg of the device and Leaf secured herself to the pins using a chain she wrapped around her wrists and then clipped to the metal pins. Ultimately she was safely removed and lowered to the ground.

Leaf was arrested at 9:57 a.m. and transported to the Aitkin County Jail.

Leaf was charged Thursday, Feb. 25, in Aitkin County District Court with five misdemeanors of Misdemeanor Public Nuisance, Misdemeanor Obstructing Legal Process, Misdemeanor Failure to Comply with Peace Officer, Misdemeanor Unlawful Assembly, Misdemeanor Presence at an Unlawful Assembly.

Conditions of release ordered by Judge Kristine DeMay prohibit Leaf from entering any Enbridge Exclusion Zone or any marked areas of Enbridge work sites in Aitkin County or elsewhere, or any Line 3 locations or work areas. She is also prohibited from having any knowing contact with Enbridge workers or any Line 3 workers at or near such work zones.

Two protesters arrested in St. Louis County

According to the Northern Lights Task Force, on Feb. 24 at approximately 6:18 a.m., St. Louis County 911 received a report Line 3 protesters had blocked a road in rural St. Louis County. They were not letting vehicular traffic through. The road is Robinson Road and turns into the Hedbom Forrest Road as it continues into Aitkin County. This road is used by workers to access the Line 3 pipeline project. St. Louis County deputies responded and found an over-turned car had been placed in the middle of the road. Two males had locked themselves to devices attached to the underside of the vehicle. There were approximately 20 other individuals present. Once dispersal orders were given by law enforcement, the larger group complied with officer directions. The two males attached to the vehicle would not self-release. The two individuals were placed under arrest. The arrest necessitated utilizing special tools to cut them out of the devices. Both were taken into custody without injury and booked into the St. Louis County Jail for obstructing legal process, unlawful assembly, and blocking traffic. Both individuals were from out of state. The road itself sustained no serious damage, except a small amount of oil spilled when suspects over-turned the vehicle.

Aitkin Co. Recycling Center closed

The Aitkin County Recycling Center will be closed Thursday and Friday, Mar. 11 and 12. The center will reopen on Monday, March 15. If you have any questions, please direct them to the Aitkin County Environmental Services Department at 218-927-7342 or aitkinpz@co.aitkin.mn.us.

Bring it to an end

Being held accountable may feel like an attack when you are not ready for the impact your poor decisions have on others. [Governor]Tim Walz allowed Minneapolis to burn. He gave his adult daughter access to confidential information that she shared with the public and rioters. He caused 500 million dollars in damages. His failed executive orders have cost the lives of thousands of Minnesotans. He placed Minnesota last and followed an unparalleled path of destruction for small business across this state. Walz implements mask mandates on our youth while playing sports, creating a potential devastating long term health crisis in our youth. Walz violated our constitutional rights and state statutes to obtain his executive powers and Walz must be held accountable. Walz is the Minnesota Mistake and We the People must fix it. Twelve times the vote to end his executive powers have failed, clearly, it is not up to our other elected officials to get this done, it is up to us. Support Rep. Mortensen efforts to get Walz impeached. We the People must use our voices and bring an end to the Minnesota Mistake, 651-201-3400 — demand Walz resign. Kelly Avelsgard, Deerwood
