Judy Moore, Retiring Director of H C Community Chest, Recognized by the Sulphur Springs City Council

After twelve years as Director of Community Chest, Judy Moore has announced her retirement and that she will be leaving Hopkins County to move closer to her daughter in San Antonio. Judy's 37-year career in the military first began in San Antonio when she started her US Army career in 1974 as a WAC in the "Women's Army Corps", before women became recognized as regular Army. Her career was based in training and leadership in the medical field with assignments all over the world, and she achieved the rank of Sgt. Major before her retirement from the Army. After that, she went back to school, earning a graduate degree in Computer Sciences. Soon, she had a new job and spent another dozen-plus years with the military as a civilian employee in the US Marine Corps, retiring from USMC in 2009. At that time, she and her husband moved to be near Texas A and M University Commerce. They bought a house in Hopkins County and she applied for the job at Community Chest. Her vast experience in procuring supplies, equipment and services from agencies and other sources, as well as her Triage training in organizing and implementing assistance plans in emergency situations, has been a huge benefit to this community. As the proclamation describes, in many ways her work has made a permanent impact for assistance for the needy in Hopkins County. We will miss you, Judy!

Sulphur Springs Mayor John Sellers thanks Moore for her service.

Mayor Sellers is also a historian who loves to point out the interesting architecture of City Hall building, once a Federal Building as a US Post office, and later as the City's Public Library. Renovations on the downtown building since 2000 have opened back up spacious windows which light up the spacious Council Chambers, making it a memorable space to mark recognitions such as this, as well as to host family reunions and other events in the lives of Hopkins County residents.

CITY OF SULPHUR SPRINGS, TEXAS PROCLAMATION RECOGNIZING THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF JUDY MOORE

WHEREAS, Judy Moore has many amazing accomplishments and we really do not want to lose her to San Antonio, Texas, but we know she will be incredible wherever she is located; and

WHEREAS, she introduced the Shopping Program where clients were able to come in and select foods that suited their family and individual needs; and

WHEREAS, she introduced produce into the program and included the PAN Program for seniors to allow them to get additional food aside from their normal distribution; and

WHEREAS, she partnered with TXU, FEC and Reliant to provide managed funds to the Community Chest to assist with clients bills without depleting the General Fund; and

WHEREAS, she created the "Reach Out" program so clients without the ability to travel to the foodbank could meet monthly to receive food close to their homes; and

WHEREAS, Judy was responsible for creating a database for clients so services could be maintained and updated with every visit to ensure fairness and consistency; and

WHEREAS, she partnered with NTFB and the local schools to facilitate a program for students to receive additional meals to take home if they were struggling with hunger; and

WHEREAS, she partnered with local schools, businesses, and organizations every year to facilitate multiple food drives and partnered with local churches to facilitate the Thanksgiving boxes with over a thousand given out last year; and

WHEREAS, she partnered with MET to provide employment for seniors looking to get back in the workforce and with MIMR to provide employment for clients; and

WHEREAS, she has provided free Notary services, partnered with local businesses to provide vouchers for clients in need of services, remodeled their facility by partnering with Lowe's, worked yearly with United Way, started the yearly Health Fair, and made sure the community was aware of the program they offered.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN A. SELLERS, Mayor of the City of Sulphur Springs do hereby deem it an honor to recognize Judy Moore for all of her accomplishments.

It is so proclaimed this the 2nd day of March 2021.

John A. Sellers, Mayor

WEST OAKS FUNERAL HOME

500 Hillcrest Dr., Sulphur Springs, Tx. 75482

<http://www.westoaksfuneralhome.com>

Jim Butler

Longtime Cooper Review co-owner and publisher Jim Butler passed away Saturday, March 6 at Baylor Medical Center. He was 71.

There will be no formal or public services for Mr. Butler.

Born in 1950 in Waldron, Arkansas, he graduated from Waldron High School in 1968 and Arkansas Tech University in 1975.

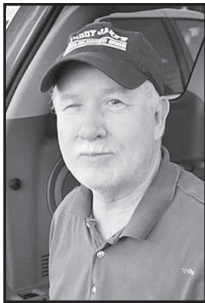

He married his wife, Sally, in 1974 and they spent the next 46-plus years building a life in Northeast Texas. She survives.

After starting his career in Dallas, Butler became the controller of Echo Publishing Company in Sulphur Springs in the early 1980s and remained with Echo until retirement in 2017, helping build the company from a small newspaper and printing operation into a multi-faceted and successful media company. He continued assisting with Echo operations as an accounting consultant until his death.

In 2006, Butler, along with his wife Sally, purchased the Review, excited for the opportunity to build on the newspaper's reputation as a strong, small Texas weekly. He became a strong and active voice in Delta County, working tirelessly to support his adopted community.

Known for his quick wit, Butler was famous for the tales from his youth in Arkansas. Friends will tell you that he seemingly worked more jobs during his teenage years than most people work in a lifetime. Though a master of business and numbers, his life experiences gave him at least a passing knowledge of a wide-ranging number of subjects.

Earlier this year, he sold the Review to its current owners, his longtime friend and co-worker Karrie Harmon and her daughter Rhandi Allred.

Marie Tippit

A funeral service for Marie Tippit, age 92, of Sulphur Springs, TX, was held at 12:30P.M. on Saturday, March 6, 2021 at Cornerstone Church in Rockwall, TX with Bro Al Davis officiating. Interment was held at 3:30 P.M. at Laurel Land Cemetery in Dallas, TX with Jon Olson, John Holland, Sam Miller, Andrew Termini, JD Tippit and Garrett Tippit serving as pallbearers and Daniel Tippit as an Honorary. Visitation was held on Friday, March 5, 2021 from 6:00 to 8:00 P.M. at Murray-Orwosky Funeral Home. Mrs. Tippit passed away on March 2, 2021 at Christus Mother Frances - in Sulphur Springs.

Marie was born on October 25, 1928 in Lonestar, TX to Charles and Maud (Hastings) Gasway. She married her first husband, JD Tippit, on December 26, 1946 in Clarksville, TX who preceded her in death. Marie married her second husband, Harry D. Thomas in 1966 in Dallas, TX, who also preceded her in death. Marie was a home maker.

Marie Tippit was a soul that has been dealt a life of hardships. You would never know that because she took her hardships and found a way to make herself stronger and lift others up as she walked her own journey. She was resilient. She had an unquenchable light that warmed you from the inside out. She was humble. In just a moment of visiting with her you would know that God was her source of strength, success, and happiness. She wanted to give to others not be given to. She wanted to pray for you not to be prayed for. She saw herself as a servant of Christ who showed love to all. Marie always had enough 'mom' for us all.

She is survived by her daughter, Brenda Tippit; son, Curtis Tippit; grandchildren, Daniel Tippit, Garrett Tippit, Andrew Tippitt, Chole Cross, JD Tippit, Barbie Termini, Mandie Miller, Andrea Holland, Ariel Olson, Walter Tippit and Jodie Tippit; great-grandchildren, Scarlette Cross, Malcom Cross, Kent Miller, Eva Miller, Mack Miller, Jedidiah Olson, Annalise Olson and Sadie Termini; brother, Dwight Gasway.

Marie was preceded in death by her parents; both husbands; son, Allan Tippit; sister, Erma Jean Williams; brother, Narvel Gasway.
