PIEDMONT PETS
 March 11, 2021
 By Paulette Dean

A few years ago we went to a home on a complaint about a dog being treated in a cruel way. In fact, the caller told us that no dog in his house lived long. A white pit bull type dog came onto the porch with us. She wagged her tail and leaned against me. A man answered our knock. We showed him our identification and stated our reason for being there.

He came out on the porch and his demeanor, body language, and verbal abuse of us gave me reason to believe that the complaint was a valid one. However, it was the dog's reaction that let me know the true story. She was terrified of him. As soon as she saw him, she dropped to the porch and began urinating. He demanded that she come to him, and she trembled as she crawled to him. She just crouched in front of him.

Honestly, I did not know what to do. The thought came into my mind that if I mentioned her terrified reaction to him, she would pay the price after we left. I spoke with him about kind treatment of animals, how dogs think and learn differently than we do, and this was a wonderful dog that could be such a good friend of his. His wife assured us he loved his dog and was kind to her. We did not believe her for one second.

We had no solid evidence of cruel treatment that would hold up in court; the caller who had complained said that he would not be willing to testify in court. There was nothing else we could do. A follow-up call a couple of weeks later revealed the dog "disappeared." I hope that means she ran away.

Virginia has excellent standards of adequate care required for companion animals. The law can make you feed and water all of your animals. The law can make you provide shelter for them, and can even require veterinary care for them. The lack of adequate care can be proven in court.

There is no law, though, that can measure the love and gentle treatment provided to companion animals. Because of that, harsh treatment and emotional abuse happen in homes and can continue unless a human witness is willing to testify in court.

It is heartbreaking and one of the reasons that we still have a screening process in place for people who want to adopt our shelter animals. And yes, I still think of that poor, sweet, terrified dog.

Barn Wood Searching for wide pine boards from old barns or other structures in the area. I have a truck, and would be glad to pick up wood. I can also remove wood from old structures if necessary. I'll pay good money for some nice old pine! (919) 768-3749 ap-plecidery@gmail.com

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Consider moving beyond the usual methods to find a more creative means of handling a difficult on-the-job situation. Avoid confrontation and, instead, aim for cooperation.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Seasonal change creates a new look for the outdoors. It also inspires Taureans to redo their own environments, and this is a good week to start redoing both your home and workplace. Enjoy.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A misunderstanding needs to be straightened out so the wrong impression isn't allowed to stand. If necessary, offer to support the use of a third party to act as an impartial arbitrator.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A career change offering what you want in money and responsibilities could involve moving to a new location. Discuss this with family members before making a decision.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Feeling miffed over how you believe you were treated is understandable. But before you decide to "set things straight," make sure the whole thing wasn't just a misinterpretation of the facts.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Showing you care makes it easier to build trust and gain an advantage in handling a delicate situation. What you learn from this experience also will help you understand yourself better.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Planning for the future is fine, especially if you include the roles that family members may be asked to play. Don't be surprised if some hidden emotions are revealed in the process.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Making choices highlights much of the week, and you have a head start here, thanks to your ability to grasp the facts of a situation and interpret them in a clear-cut manner.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Carrying a torch can be a two-way situation: It can either keep you tied to the past or help light your way to the future. The choice, as always, has to be yours.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your watchwords this week are: "Focus." "Focus." "Focus." Don't let yourself be distracted from what you set out to do. There'll be time later to look over other possibilities.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A workplace opportunity might require changes you're not keen on making. Discuss the plusses and minuses with someone familiar with the situation before you make a decision.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Love and romance are strong in your aspect this week. If you've already met the right person, expect your relationship to grow. And if you're still looking, odds are you'll soon be finding it.

BORN THIS WEEK: You approach life in a wise and measured manner, which gives you an edge in many areas.

HOLLYWOOD

Christopher Plummer in "The Sound of Music"

HOLLYWOOD — Without a court, a jury or concrete evidence, Armie Hammer has been tried and convicted by his peers after recent social media posts. One from ex-girlfriend Courtney Vucekovich alleges, "He said he wanted to break my rib, barbecue it and eat it." Another ex-girlfriend claims he carved his initial in her flesh. Hammer vehemently denied these charges, but his agents at William Morris and his publicist have dropped him. He's also been dropped from Paramount's film about the making of "The Godfather," and producers Kenneth Branagh and Ridley Scott have decided to edit him completely from the already completed "Death on the Nile." Its release was moved from December 2019 to October 2020 when COVID-19 hit, and now to Sept. 17, 2021.

Ridley Scott is no stranger to this maneuver, having edited Kevin Spacey (after his "Me Too" scandal) from "All the Money in the World." It was the only way he could recoup some of his investment and debut before a competing miniseries from FX. The late Christopher Plummer stepped in and netted an Oscar nomination for his efforts.

Christopher Plummer used to tell friends that he didn't want, after his long career, to be remembered just for playing Captain Von Trapp in "The Sound of Music" (1965). He admitted: "It was so awful, sentimental and goey. All aspects of making the film were unpleasant except for working with Julie Andrews."

Plummer avoided using the movie's name, instead referring to it as "that movie," "S&M" and "The Sound of Mucus." He did say that "The film itself was well made, and I'm proud to be associated with a film with such mass appeal."

Plummer declined to attend the 40th anniversary cast reunion, but provided commentary for the 45th anniversary reunion and appeared with the full cast on "The Oprah Winfrey Show" in 2010. He eventually recanted his dislike of the film and admitted having "terrific memories" of making it.

In 2010, at age 81, Plummer was Oscar-nominated for playing Leo Tolstoy in "The Last Station." In 2011, at 82, he received his second Oscar nomination for "Beginners," playing Ewan McGregor's father who came out as gay in the last five years of his life, for which he won his Oscar, quipping, "You're only two years older than me, darling, where have you been all my life?"

In 2017, "Gossip Girl" star Ed Westwick (as Chuck Bass) was accused by two women who claimed he raped them and one who claimed sexual assault. The BBC "paused" production of a TV series starring Westwick "until these matters are resolved!" Then COVID hit. There is a "Gossip Girl" reboot in the works, but Westwick, who has denied the allegations and was never prosecuted, hasn't been asked to do it yet. Every actor today is happy to say, "not me" instead of "Me Too!"

A GOOD YARN! Which ball of yarn was wound from the skein of wool in grandmother's knitting basket?

THINK ROMAN! Ten sticks are laid out to form an equation using Roman numerals. As you can see, the equation is incorrect. Can you correct it without moving any of the sticks? P.S.: It's tricky.

THE "A" PYRAMID! Pictured at right is a word pyramid. Each word, as you go down the pyramid, contains the same letters as the word above it plus a new letter. We give you all of the A's. Here are some hints from the top down.

- 1) Indefinite article (given).
- 2) In or near.
- 3) A drink.
- 4) Type of food.
- 5) Intended to.
- 6) In single file.

Pittsylvania County Spring Baseball to Proceed with Safety Precautions

After being forced to cancel the past few sporting seasons due to COVID-19, Pittsylvania County Parks and Recreation will move forward with spring baseball in 2021. The season will run from the middle of May through July 17.

"Cancelling all of our sports seasons for the past year was extremely difficult and sad for our youth, so we are incredibly excited to be able to provide the opportunity to safely play baseball this year," said Justin Price, Pittsylvania County Parks and Recreation Director. "We are putting all types of safety protocols in place and doing everything we can to prevent COVID-19 exposures for our youth and everyone involved."

Registration will begin online on March 13 and run through April 16. Each area will also host some onsite dates. Please reach out to your area coordinator for those dates. You can find who your area coordinator is and their contact information on the Parks and Recreation website or by calling 434-432-7736. Parks and Recreation has the season slated to begin around the second week of May, and there will not be an end of season tournament.

The baseball season, which will be for ages 4 to 15, will look much different than in years past. To help prevent potential exposures to COVID-19, there will be a wide range of health and safety guidelines in place for the season, a few being:

Players won't be able to leave the dugout to congratulate players after a score, and those in the dugout will be required to social distance and wear masks. The National Federation of State High School Associations rules allow for the dugout and warmup area to be extended for social distancing.

Pitchers will not be permitted to put their hands in their mouth or blow their hands prior to pitching the ball.

All equipment and balls should be appropriately cleaned between each players' use.

Fans that live under the same roof can sit together. Otherwise they will need to social distance, and if they are not able to social distance then they will need to wear a mask.

Concession stands will be limited to pre-packed items.

The games will be played mostly at the softball and baseball fields at Chatham, Tunstall, Dan River, and Gretna High Schools. Occasionally there will be games at the middle school fields.

The decision to not hold an end of season tournament was based on the season beginning later than normal and the potential for large numbers of family and friends wanting to attend, which would make social distancing protocols in the seating arrangements difficult to follow.

"We are doing everything we can to provide some sense of normalcy in this season without compromising the safety of our youth, the coaches, umpires, staff, and fans," Price said.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

* Attention, "Lord of the Rings" fans: the dark region on the north pole of Pluto's moon, Charon, is called Mordor.

* A common issue with blood donation -- along with other types of charitable contributions -- is that if donors don't know the recipient, it's harder to convince them that donating is beneficial. Therefore, in an effort to encourage more young people to give blood, Sahlgrenska University Hospital in Gothenburg, Sweden, sends a text when their donation has been dispensed to someone in need, providing proof that it's going to good use.

* The Twitter bird actually has a name -- Larry, after Hall of Fame basketball player Larry Bird.

* In the 18th century, Napoleon Bonaparte and Benjamin Franklin were both defeated at chess by a machine called the Mechanical Turk -- or at least they thought they were. It was later revealed to be quite the elaborate hoax, with a highly skilled chess master hiding inside the "machine" and moving the pieces against the opponent.

* In a move to keep disease-wary Nazis away, Polish doctor Eugene Lazowski faked a typhus outbreak, saving over 8,000 people from slave labor camps and death.

* The longest song title ever is Hoagy Carmichael's 1943 "I'm a Cranky Old Yank in a Clanky Old Tank on the Streets of Yokohama with my Honolulu Mama Doin' Those Beat-o, Beat-o Flat-On-My-Seat-o, Hirohito Blues."

* Duncan Hines was a real person -- a popular restaurant critic who also wrote a book of hotel recommendations.

* Eight of the 10 largest statues in the world are of Buddhas.

* Pittsburgh is the only city where all the major sports teams (MLB, NHL, NFL) have the same colors: black and gold.

Thought for the Day: "Many are stubborn in pursuit of the path they have chosen, few in pursuit of the goal." -- Friedrich Nietzsche

Creamy Chicken Soup

Ingredients

For the Roux:

- 2 tablespoons oil
- 2 tablespoons unsalted butter
- 4 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 1- cup reduced-salt chicken stock

For the Soup:

- 2 tablespoons unsalted butter
- 2 tablespoons oil
- 4-6 carrots peeled and cut into 1/8" slices
- 2 celery stalks cut into 1/8" slices
- 1 medium yellow onion diced
- 1 garlic clove minced
- 3 cups reduced-salt chicken broth
- 1/4 cup dry or semi-dry white wine; a good drinking wine
- 3 1/2 cups milk cream or half and half (or a mixture of cream and skim milk)
- 2 tablespoons chicken base granules or chicken cubes
- 1/2 teaspoon freshly cracked black pepper
- 1 tablespoon dried parsley or 2 tablespoons minced fresh parsley
- 3 dried bay leaves
- 1 1/2 teaspoon Herbs de Provence
- 1/2 teaspoon turmeric optional
- 1/2 teaspoon paprika optional
- 1/4 teaspoon red pepper flakes optional
- 4-5 cups cooked chicken cubed or shredded - rotisserie chicken works well, but do NOT use smoked chicken.
- Garnish: Shredded Gruyere cheese

Chopped fresh parsley

Instructions

For the Roux:

Heat 2 tablespoons oil and 2 tablespoons butter in a medium saucepan then sprinkle the flour on top. Whisk quickly until well combined. Cook, whisking occasionally, until the roux turns light golden brown. Slowly, while whisking, add 1-cup chicken broth to the roux and whisk vigorously until smooth. Remove the roux from the heat and set it aside while combining other ingredients.

For the Soup:

In a large Dutch oven, heat 2 tablespoons butter and 2 tablespoons oil over MED-HIGH heat. Add the carrots and celery, sauté 5 minutes; stir occasionally. Add the diced onions and cook 3 additional minutes or until the onions are translucent. Add the minced garlic and cook 30 seconds - just long enough for the garlic to bloom.

Slowly add 1 cup of broth while scraping the bottom of the pot to deglaze the pan. Add the rest of the broth and the wine, the roux and stir well. Bring the mixture to a boil and stir often..

Reduce the heat to LOW and add all other ingredients except the garnishes.

Simmer 15 minutes then taste and adjust seasonings, if necessary. This is the time to add salt or pepper, if desired. Continue to simmer the soup until it thickens, about 30-45 minutes more, or to the desired consistency.

Discard the bay leaves.

Garnish with sprinklings of shredded Gruyere and fresh parsley.

Serve with crusty bread. Mmm-Mmm GREAT!

Enjoy!!
