Sunday Morning Positive Perks

from your Sassy Small Town Missus

EVERYONE IS IRISH MARCH 17TH

The best part of St. Patty's Day is that it allows you to pinch people and you can not be booked on charges of assault. At least I don't think you can, don't hold me to that. I believe if you get pinched on St. Patty's Day then you must assume some of the blame. Unless you live under a rock you know well and good, that if you fail to have green on your anatomy then you are asking for a good pinch. Maybe you want to get pinched, that would not be so unheard of. Some people will do anything for some human contact these days. The one I love is the "Kiss Me I Am Irish" paraphernalia. What in the world does St. Patrick's Day have to do with getting kissed?. Beware though, if you adorn such a slogan be prepared to get kissed. If you do get kissed and you are unhappy with it, then you can only blame yourself. Or perhaps you have taken the belief that St. Patty's Day will bring luck to a whole new level and are increasing your odds. Lots of fun things happen on St. Patty's Day. People drink green beverages, they can appropriately be loud, they can freely and unabashedly do some Irish step dancing, they can eat boiled corn beef (yuk), and attend parades of visual delight. It is one day of the year that you are Irish, no matter what. Everyone is Irish on March 17th, no questions asked. Did you know that March 17th is the official death date of St. Patrick the Patron Saint of Ireland? St. Patrick was born to a wealthy British family and was kidnapped as a teenager and enslaved by the Irish. During his enslavement he found Faith and upon his escape he returned home and became a Priest. Eventually St. Patrick made a journey back to Ireland to share Christianity with the Irish, specifically Northern Ireland. St. Patrick used the three leaf clover to explain the Trinity to his Gallery. The green of the clover is the primary reason that on St. Patrick's Day, green is the King of all colors! People have been wearing green ribbons and Shamrocks to celebrate since 1680. However, St. Patrick's Day did not become an official holiday in Ireland until 1903 and the first official parade was held to commemorate. This joyous holiday shared to the world by Ireland is the most celebrated of all national festivals. More countries celebrate the 17th of March than any other. Surely many American's do not know the history of St. Patrick or why March 17th is commemorated. One thing is for sure, St. Patrick's gift to modern day is the much needed jubilation in which this universal celebration brings. So get yourself some soda bread and raise a glass of green libations on the 17th and toast to St. Patrick. Enjoy a moment of laughter with those who make you feel Lucky enough to be alive! And maybe you will even get a kiss... for being Irish, of course. Or perhaps you prefer that pinch! How will you celebrate St. Patrick? Happy St. Patrick's Day everyone!

Wedding Guide

How to find your wedding florist

Weddings join the lives of two loving individuals so they can share their future with one another. Various elements help make weddings both momentous and magical.

Some weddings adhere to themes that are designed to make an impression and showcase couples' personalities. Floral arrangements are key components of wedding themes, as they help to establish ambiance at both the ceremony and reception.

Flowers can easily help couples achieve a desired vibe, whether that's rustic, romantic, modern, or even whimsical. Skilled florists may use a variety of flowers and foliage, as well as dramatic displays to help create the couple's wedding day vision. According to an internal study from the wedding advice and planning resource The Knot, which surveyed more than 27,000 couples who got married in 2019, the average cost of wedding flowers was $2,000 in 2019. However, the cost of floral arrangements can vary depending on the scope of the arrangements and choice of flowers, including whether they're in season or not.

It is essential for couples to spend time vetting potential florists to find one who will produce their desired vision at a price that fits their budget. These guidelines can make the process go more smoothly.

- Establish your theme early on. Floral arrangements will complement and enhance other elements of the wedding, including color scheme and the wedding theme. If your wedding theme ties into a specific season, you will work with the florist to find blooms and other pieces that coordinate. For example, winter weddings with white, ice blue and silver color schemes may coordinate with white ranunculus flowers, dahlias, dusty miller foliage, and viburnum berries.

- Bring swatches and photographs to consultations. It is easier to explain color palettes to a florist with examples in hand. Show the florist the types of arrangements you prefer and have actual fabric swatches from bridesmaid gowns or groomsmen vests so that colors can be complemented.

- Create a list of desired items. Florists may sell items a la carte or have packages of common floral pieces for wedding celebrations. Types of floral arrangements include bridal bouquet, bridesmaids' bouquets, maid of honor bouquet, corsages for mothers/grandmothers, boutonnieres for groomsmen and fathers/grandfathers, flower girl headpiece, petals to sprinkle, table centerpieces, altar arrangements, pew or chair decorations, and cake decorations.

- Go easy on aroma. Tread lightly when selecting blooms that have strong aromas. They may be beautiful, but many people are sensitive to smells. Allergies also may be exacerbated by flowers with strong aromas. Discuss options with the florist before proceeding.

- Explain your budget. Research the average cost of floral arrangements and let the florist know what you can afford. This can help the florist narrow down options or make substitutions that fit your theme and your budget.

Couples can take certain steps as they choose floral arrangements for their weddings. Cost should not be the only factor in the decision, even though it is an important one. ■

DON'T RELY ON LUCK THIS ST. PATRICK'S DAY – HAVE A PLAN

In an effort to keep our roadways safer during St. Patrick's Day Celebrations, Orleans County Stop DWI Coordinator, Sheriff Christopher M. Bourke announced Orleans County Law Enforcement Agencies will join forces to increase presence during Stop DWI's St. Patrick's Day Crackdown.

(St. Patrick's Day Crackdown runs from March 16 - 21, 2021).

Although STOP-DWI efforts across New York have led to significant reductions in the numbers of alcohol related fatalities, there are still too many lives lost due to DWI crashes.

You can help Save Lives, Don't Drink and Drive - Have a Sober Plan!

- Plan a safe way to get home.
- Call for a ride from a sober friend, family member, taxi, or Uber.
- Have a Plan Mobile App: http:// www.stopdwi.org/mobileapp
- Uber apps can be found at: Google Play and iTunes

The STOP-DWI Crackdowns are promoted by New York State STOP-DWI Association with additional funding from the Governor's Traffic Safety Committee and implemented by the STOP-DWI Foundation.

Two Medina Students Win Writing Awards

Two sixth grade students, at Medina's Clifford Wise Intermediate School, have won awards for writing from the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) Aurora Women's Club.

GFWC (Aurora Branch) is a volunteer organization that offers a wide range of programs for community service, while providing members with opportunities for education, personal development and social interaction. Their purpose is to promote education at all levels, support participation in the arts, preserve natural resources, stress good citizenship and leadership development, and serve the needs of the community.

Every year the GFWC sponsors creative writing contests for poetry and short story to provide an avenue for students to freely express themselves, as well as draw upon their experiences through writing. English Language Arts teacher Leah Gates worked with her students on submissions. She was thrilled to hear that Natalia Olsen (sixth grade) won second place in Category 3 for Poetry for her poem "The Tornado" and that Sofia Lopez (sixth grade) won an Honorable Mention in Category 3 for her short story "Rain".

Both students received certificates and ribbons and Natalia also received a monetary award for her second place finish. "We are so proud of these talented young students," say Principal Christopher Hughes and Assistant Principal Jennifer Stearns.
