SPEAK OUT

Dear "Speak Out,"

We continue with week nine of our study of our United States Constitution. This week we continue with the consideration of veto power in Article I – Section 7 – Clause 2 which reads "If after such Reconsideration two thirds of that House shall agree to pass the Bill, it shall be sent, together with the Objections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two thirds of that House, it shall become a Law. But in all such Cases the Votes of both Houses shall be determined by Yeas and Nays, and the Names of the Persons voting for and against the Bill shall be entered on the Journal of each House respectively."

If any Bill shall not be returned by the President within ten Days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the Same shall be a Law, in like Manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress by their Adjournment prevent its Return, in which Case it shall not be a Law."

Article I – Section 7 – Clause 3 is linked with Clause 2 and reads "Every Order, Resolution, or Vote to which the Concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary (except on a question of Adjournment) shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the Same shall take Effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives, according to the Rules and Limitations prescribed in the Case of a Bill."

In the event of a presidential veto, the president will send the bill back to the House of Representatives with his or her objections. If the House of Representatives considers the veto, it can modify the bill to comply with the suggestions of the president and then send it to the Senate for their consideration.

If both houses are in agreement with the president's suggestions, they will send the bill back to the president for his or her consideration and signing. If the House of Representatives decides not to comply with the objections of the president, they can vote again on the bill. If two thirds of the representatives agree, the bill will be passed and forwarded to the Senate for their consideration.

The Senate can do as the House of Representatives did, and if they also agree with the contents of the bill and pass it with at least a two-thirds vote, the bill will become law which is called overriding a presidential veto. This clause grants the president ten days to review a measure passed by the Congress. If the president has not signed the bill after ten days, it becomes law without his signature.

However, if Congress adjourns during the ten-day period, the bill does not become law. Again, these clauses were designed by our founding fathers as checks and balances.

Article 1 – Section 8 has multiple clauses which are all linked together as a run-on sentence. Clause 1 reads "The Congress shall have Power To lay and collect Taxes, Duties, Imposts and Excises, to pay the Debts and provide for the common Defence and general Welfare of the United States; but all Duties, Imposts and Excises shall be uniform throughout the United States;..."

The House of Representatives has the authority to initiate financial bills, but both houses of Congress, have the responsibility together to jointly agree upon the final version of such bills. It is the responsibility of the President of the United States to administer these laws for the military and general welfare of the country. Next week, Lord willing, we will continue our study of the Constitution with Article 1 – Section 8.

● FISCAL STRESS MONITORING ●

The Office of the State Comptroller uses the Fiscal Stress Monitoring System to examine the annual financial information reported by your Village. This analysis provides an objective assessment of the fiscal challenges facing individual local governments and school districts, identifying situations where corrective action may be needed. These 2020 scores are based on end-of-year results — and thus generally provide a baseline measurement of local governments' ability to respond to the ongoing public health crisis and the related financial uncertainty. We expect that these factors will be reflected in reports in 2021 and beyond.

This letter is to notify you that as of February 27, 2021, our review of the 2020 Annual Update Document (AUD) for your Village has been completed. Your Village's fiscal stress scores and designations are summarized below:

FYE	Score	Fiscal Stress	Score	Environmental Stress
2018	39.6	No Designation	40.0	Moderate
2019	45.8	Susceptible	33.3	Susceptible
2020	30.0	No Designation	23.3	No Designation

Scores for all non-calendar fiscal year end local governments will be released to the public in the near future and you may receive questions about your score/designation as well as any notable changes and trends. More information about the System is available on our website.

THE TOTAL EASTER STORY!

1. The Bible

The Bible is God's inspired, inerrant message to us. The Bible gives us direction (Psalm 119:105), shows us right and wrong (Psalm 119:11), and shows us the truth about ourselves (Hebrews 4:12).

2. God

God is the self-existent, infinite, holy, personal Creator of the universe. God has always existed, and He created the universe by the power of His Word (Hebrews 11:3). There is only one true God (Isaiah 45:5). In the unity of the Godhead there are three persons of one substance - The Father, the Son, and the Holy spirit - with distinct personalities.

3. Jesus Christ

Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, yet completely God and one with the Father (John 10:30). Jesus is the Mediator between God and humankind, having been sent by God to earth to die for us and to forgive our sins (John 1:29).

4. The Death and Resurrection of Jesus

Jesus died on the cross, was buried, and after three days rose from the dead (1 Corinthians 15:3-4). After 40 days Jesus ascended into heaven, where He is at the right hand of the Father (Hebrews 1:3), pleading to God on our behalf (1 John 2:1).

5. Man and Sin

God created humans in His image (Genesis 1:26-27) with an eternal soul (Matthew 10:28). Our chief end is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever. Yet the entire human race falls short of God's perfect standard because of sin (Romans 3:23). Our sin leads to death, but God has given us eternal life through Jesus Christ (Romans 6:23).

6. Salvation

We are saved from our sins and death by believing in the person and work of Jesus Christ (John 3:16). We can do nothing to earn our salvation; it is God's gracious gift to us (Ephesians 2:8-9). Once you believe by faith that God has saved you by His grace in Jesus, you are secure in Christ for eternity (John 10:28-29).

7. The Holy spirit

The Holy Spirit, the third person of the godhead, has always existed with God the Father and Jesus Christ. The Holy spirit baptizes every believer into the body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12:13) and gives each of us spiritual gifts and empowers us to bear spiritual fruit when we give Him control of our lives (Galatians 5:22-23). The Holy Spirit is our guarantee that Jesus Christ is coming back for His church (2 Corinthians 1:21-22).

8. Angels, Satan, and Demons

The spirit world is very real. It is made up of God's messengers, called angels, and God's enemies, Satan and his demons (Ephesians 6:12). Satan is also the enemy of the believer (1 Peter 5:8), and he blinds the mind of the unbeliever (2 Corinthians 4:4). Satan and his allies are ultimately doomed to defeat (Revelation 20:10).

9. The Church

The church is the universal body of Christ, comprised of all believers everywhere. The church exists so that we can worship God (Ephesians 5:16-19), serve one another (Ephesians 4:12), and share our faith (Mark 16:15).

10. Future Things

God has a plan for the future, which includes the end of the world as we know it and the creation of a new heaven and a new earth. The focal point of God's future plan is the second coming of Christ, which will happen unexpectedly (Matthew 24:44). Judgment and eternal life in hell await the unbeliever (Revelation 20:15). All those who have believed in Jesus Christ will spend eternity in heaven, which Jesus is preparing for us (John 14:1-3).

Once again we want to emphasize that mere knowledge about God won't save you. Remember, salvation is a gift of God that you receive by faith, faith in our savior Jesus Christ.
