ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Impatience is still somewhat of a problem. But a sign of progress should soothe the anxious Aries heart. Meanwhile, invest some of that waiting time in preparing for the change ahead.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Bovines tend to excel at solving problems, not creating them. But you risk doing just that if you're slow to respond to a timely situation. If necessary, seek advice from someone you trust.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) The Gemini Twin might need to do more than a routine check of both a job-linked and home-based situation. Dig deeper for more data on both fronts to avoid unwanted surprises later.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Moon Children facing an important workplace decision are encouraged to use their perceptiveness to see through any attempt to win them over with a supercharge of fawning and flattery.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Good news catapults Leos and Leonas into reconsidering a deferred decision. But time has moved on, and it's a good idea to recheck your plans and make adjustments where necessary.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) The week favors relationships, both personal and professional. Take the time to look for and immediately repair any vulnerable areas caused by unresolved misunderstandings.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A friend's problems bring out your protective instincts. Be careful to keep a balance between meeting the obligations of friendship without being overwhelmed by them.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) The temptation to take an extreme position on an issue is strong, but moderation is favored both in personal and professional dealings. Move toward finding areas of agreement.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Getting another boss or teacher? Try to see the person behind the image. It will help you adjust more easily to the changes that new authority figures inevitably bring.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Much as you might dislike the idea, keep an open mind about using the assistance of a third party to help resolve problems that threaten to unravel an important agreement.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Career choices that seem too confusing to deal with at this point probably are. More information would help uncomplicate them. On the personal side, a friend might need your advice.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A challenge that seems easy enough at first could take an unexpected turn that might test your resolve. Decide if you feel you should stay with it, or if it's better to move in another direction.

BORN THIS WEEK: You can be strong when standing up for justice, both for yourself and for others.

1. Is the book of Agrabah in the Old or New Testament or neither?
2. Which book repeats this paraphrased counsel three times to the young women of Jerusalem, "Do not stir up or awaken love until it pleases"? Proverbs, Psalms, Song of Solomon, Genesis
3. By Roman reckoning, what time of day did Jesus meet the Samaritan woman at the well? Day-break, Noon, Mid-afternoon, Dusk
4. On the island of Patmos, to whom was the Book of Revelation given? John, Paul, Matthew, Luke
5. Who hid 100 prophets in two caves and supplied them food and water? Solomon, Philemon, Obadiah, Hosea
6. The Semites were descended from Shem, the son of ...? Moses, Noah, Paul, Jacob

ANSWERS: 1) Neither; 2) Song of Solomon (2:7, 3:5, 8:4); 3) Noon; 4) John; 5) Obadiah; 6) Noah

* Spring clean your tools. Ditch half-used tubes of caulk, stiff paintbrushes, random hardware that doesn't have any obvious use, especially screws or nails that have been pulled out of the wall.

* "When cleaning the microwave, boil a couple of cups of water in the microwave first. The steam will help loosen any stuck-on food." -- O.D. in Idaho

* Defrost meats on the bottom shelf only. Ideally, you should have a large bowl or container to put packages of meat in that require defrosting, so that if they leak, the leakage will be contained and will not get on any of your other foods.

* "The plastic liner in cereal boxes makes a good, strong container for kitchen scraps if you are saving them for composting." -- Y.T. in Oregon

* Another reason to get the newspaper: Crushed newspaper makes a great rag for shining windows in your home and in the car. No lint left behind!

* "Wipe out the insides of a cornstarch container to make a handy catch-all for craft supplies or crayon sets for kids (labeled so they all have their own). These are a really good size, and several brands seem to come with a clear lid." -- H.D. in Florida

1. The Beatles held the No. 1 slot on the charts for three months with consecutive hits in 1964. Name the song and artist that finally broke their lock on the top of the charts.
2. Which group released "Island Girl"?
3. Who was the first to release "Spanish Harlem"?
4. Isaac Hayes was best known for his work on the music for what film?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "Cause we'll all stick together, And you can take that to the bank, That's the cowboys and the hippies, And the rebels and the yanks."

Answers

1. "Hello, Dolly" by Louis Armstrong, the oldest artist to ever reach No. 1. The song was from the musical of the same name.
2. The Beach Boys on their "Still Cruisin'" album in 1989. Elton John had released a different song by the same title in 1975.
3. Ben E. King, in 1960. The song was released as a B-side, but climbed the charts on its own.
4. "Shaft," in 1971.
5. "In America," by the Charlie Daniels Band, in 1980. The song is a patriotic answer to all the problems facing the country at the time, from Watergate, to unemployment, to high interest rates (mortgages had reached 18%).

This is a good time to remind people about how to make sure their dogs and cats can be protected during the heat.

Never leave your dog or cat in a parked car during warm or hot weather. The buildup of heat inside a car can kill a pet very quickly. Dogs and cats do not sweat as we humans do. Their lungs are their main cooling system. With nothing but overheated air to breathe, your pet cannot live very long. Heat stress, heat stroke, and permanent brain damage are the consequences, if your pet does survive. With the outside temperature in the low 80s, the temperature inside a car - with windows slightly opened - will reach 102 degrees in 10 minutes. In 30 minutes, the inside temperature reaches 120 degrees. Humidity increases the danger. Cars parked in the shade or cars that have just had the air conditioning turned off are just as dangerous. It is kinder to leave pets at home in warm weather, beginning when the temperatures reach 60.

If you see a dog in an unattended parked car, please call us immediately. We will need the location, make and color of the car, and the license plate number. Then, go into the store and ask the manager to announce over their public address system that the owners need to return to their car. However, when the spring and summer seasons arrive, either leave your pets at home, or take along a human who can remain in the parked car with the engine running and the air conditioning on.

It is now required by the Code of Virginia that adequate shelter must be properly shaded and does not readily conduct heat. Outside dogs cannot find relief in a doghouse that is not shaded. At temperatures over 80 degrees, the danger of heat stroke increases significantly. If the dog is confined to a pen on concrete, reflected heat makes the temperature even higher. A doghouse that is not in shade becomes nothing but a hot box. A source of shade must be provided in order for your dog to be comfortable.

In addition, it is now unlawful to tether dogs in temperatures 85 degrees Fahrenheit or higher.

Never expect your pet to be without cool, fresh water. Fresh water must be provided at all times. Even inside pets drink more during hot weather. The absolute legal minimum for adequate water is "access to clean fresh water of a drinkable temperature." Cats must be provided the same level of care as dogs.

We may be enjoying spring-like weather now, but summer is on the way and they can be brutal in Virginia!

Your Health Means Everything: Taking Care of Yourself in a Post-Pandemic World

by Brian Bradley, Chief Nursing Officer, Sovah Health - Danville

Life has changed in ways both big and small over the last year. Plans were suspended and priorities shifted as we cautiously made our way through a situation that we had never experienced, much less imagined would happen. As we get closer than ever to putting the COVID-19 pandemic behind us - thanks to wider vaccine distribution and safe practices to slow the spread of the virus - many of us are looking forward to getting back to the things we've been missing - planned vacations on pause, suspended social gatherings, even just dropping by a friend's or loved one's for a coffee catch-up.

There is one priority, however, that we have all shared during the pandemic that should remain high on your list: your health. If there is one thing we have collectively learned over the last year it is that - in short - your health means everything.

We have put a lot of time and energy into protecting ourselves and others from COVID-19, and that is very important and worthwhile. But taking care of your health means a lot more than successfully staying virus-free. It means taking charge of your health so you can stay on top of any issues that arise before they become serious. It means not delaying the care you need to feel better and get healthier so you can fully enjoy all of those things we've been missing lately.

As we move forward, life might look different. But there's one thing that won't change: the quality of care you've always relied on at Sovah Health. We are again offering a range of healthcare services, from preventive screenings and physicals to quality-of-life procedures, to help you make the most of every moment moving forward. Our entire team is working hard to ensure a safe place of care, and you can count on us to ensure a healthier community for all of us.

Here are some of the most important ways you can keep your health a priority in the months and years to come.

Schedule screen time

No, not that kind of screen time. We're talking health screenings that are important road markers on your health journey - like annual mammograms if you're a woman who's 40 and up, annual colonoscopies if you're 45 and older and low dose CT screening if you're a current or former smoker. Screenings like these can help detect cancer early and allow for easier and more effective treatment. And remember, if you're at higher risk, you may need to start annual screenings like mammograms and colonoscopies earlier. Talk to your doctor about your risks and the right timing for you. It's no surprise that American Cancer Society researchers estimate that almost 1.9 million new cancer cases will be diagnosed in 2021, and the ACS is projecting an increase in late-stage diagnoses and preventable cancer deaths due to delayed care. If you've been putting off your screening during this last year, now's a great time to get it on the calendar and get the peace of mind it can bring.

Check in with a check-up

Like regular screenings, annual well visits with a trusted primary care provider play a key role in your overall health and well-being. That goes for all ages. They help you and your provider establish a trusting and informed relationship that can help you both stay up to date on your unique health needs and stay on top of any issues that may arise. Knowing your family medical history and health risks, your provider can help you keep track of those annual screenings, as well as any potential issues to watch out for.

Don't gamble with your health

Emergencies are called emergencies for a reason. When one puts your health at immediate risk, it is vital that you get the care you need as soon as possible. Don't wait, because an emergency will not wait on you. If you're experiencing chest pain or any emergency, minutes do matter. It is critical that you get to the hospital and get the care you need right when you need it.

Live healthy

Creating good habits and routines can go a long way towards keeping you healthy and ready to embrace all life has to offer. Eating healthy, engaging in regular physical activity, getting enough sleep, reducing stress and taking care of your mental health all have major benefits for your health, and can help reduce your risk for certain diseases. If you're struggling in any of these areas or just aren't sure where to get started, talk with your primary care provider. They can help you with advice or point you in the direction of any specialized care you may need to feel your best.

Your health affects every other aspect of your life. Without it, it's a lot more difficult to enjoy the people and things in your life that bring you joy. So, don't make it wait. Get the care you need. Start a new healthy habit. Schedule that check-up and screening. Take care of your health. It means everything.

If you are looking for a provider, need to schedule a screening or looking to make an appointment, Sovah Health can help. Call 844.GO.SOVAH or visit SovahHealth.com to get connected with the care you need.

DAHS Accepting Scholarship Applications for 2021 Awards

Danville, Va., April 15, 2021 - The Danville Area Humane Society (DAHS) is accepting applications for the two scholarships established in 2019 in partnership with two area families. Each scholarship is for $500.

The first award, named for Margot Mayhew of Gretna, was created by her grandson, Bobby Allen Roach, to honor her during her final stages of glioblastoma brain cancer before passing away on May 2, 2019. The scholarship is funded through family donations and the DAHS. The Margot Richter Mayhew Scholarship for Professional Studies will be awarded to a Pittsylvania County student who plans to pursue a career helping animals. Primary consideration will be given to a student who will study at a college or university in the Dan River region.

"My family and I continue to be grateful for the tremendous generosity of the Danville Area Humane Society for its contribution to and hosting of this scholarship, Roach said. "Knowing that my grandmother's legacy lives on in this way--in the lives of students who are making such an important difference in the world--brings us such comfort as we continue to grieve and heal. It brought her great joy to know that a scholarship was being created in her name during her last days, and nothing can equal the value of seeing her smile and her face light up during that dark time." -

The second scholarship, which will be awarded to a student living in the City of Danville, was created in memory of Barbara S. Smith. The Barbara S. Smith Scholarship for Animal Welfare Studies fund was established by the daughter of Smith, Hilary Wyatt.

Smith's daughter, Hilary Wyatt, was employed by the Danville Area Humane Society as the shelter manager and currently serves as on the board of directors.

Wyatt said, "The Barbara S. Smith Scholarship for Animal Welfare Studies, holds a very special meaning for our family this year. We would like to honor the memory of Eddie, beloved kitty of Barbara and Steve Smith. Eddie died this past January and seemed very grateful to Mom and Steve for giving him a loving home. Eddie came to them as a foster cat after being seized in a cruelty investigation."

Wyatt continued, "The past year brought many challenges for the humans and animals alike. This year will not be any different. Luckily, we have the Danville Area Humane Society that has the animals' welfare as their priority. Animal welfare means a lot to our family and the community. We hope that this scholarship will help a qualified individual in the city of Danville, pursue their career in the animal welfare world. We need more passionate people, like the Danville Area Humane Society.

Paulette Dean, executive director, said "The Danville Area Humane Society is thrilled with our two scholarship funds. The Barbara S. Smith Scholarship for Animal Welfare Studies will award $500 to a Danville resident every year and the Margot Richter Mayhew Scholarship for Professional Studies will award $500 to a Pittsylvania County resident every year. Donations can be made via PayPal or mailing a check to P.O. Box 3352, Danville, VA 24543."

Scholarship application forms are available on the DAHS website at dahsinc.com, or can be requested via e-mail at dahsinc@yahoo.com, or can be picked up at the animal shelter. The deadline for submissions is May 1, 2021.

For more information about DAHS, visit www.dahsinc.com.

PROGRAM AIMS TO TEACH CITIZENS HOW TO RESPOND DURING AN ACTIVE ATTACK SITUATION

The Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services is offering free online training to citizens about how to respond during an active attack situation.

The training "provides strategies, guidance and a proven plan for surviving an active attack event" (DCJS website). The training is designed for civilian stakeholders and community organizations to include schools, faith communities and civic organizations.

This is quality training presented by knowledgeable instructors. Though we hope that the unthinkable will never happen; your preparation could save someone's life.

This two-hour virtual training will be held via Zoom. To view currently scheduled sessions and to register, visit this link: <https://www.dcms.virginia.gov/training-events/civilian-response-and-casualty-care-ccrc-virtual-training>

Nancy Pauline "Polly" (Mangus) Phelps

December 31, 1938 ~ April 19, 2021 (age 82)

Nancy Pauline "Polly" Mangus Phelps of 193 Locust Lane, Danville, Virginia, passed away on April 19, 2021 at her residence after a decline in health.

She was born on December 31, 1938, to the late Wirth Marshall Mangus and Pluma Brook Cecil Mangus. She lived most of her life in Danville where she was of the Baptist faith and supported the International Fellowship of Christians and Jews.

She was predeceased by her husband, Robert Calvin Phelps and son, William Calvin Phelps. As the last surviving member of her immediate family, she is predeceased by her sisters, Vera Mangus Sowers and Betty Mae Mangus; and brothers, William "Esau" Mangus, Jacob Mangus, and David Ray Mangus.

Mrs. Phelps is survived by her daughter, Katherine Phelps Blair, and husband Wade Blair; grandchildren, Casey Blair Hamlett (Dustin Hamlett), Ethan Wade Blair, and DeAnna Sue Phelps; and great-grandchildren, Jackson Wade Hamlett and Lilly-Ann Brooks Hamlett. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Due to Covid-19 restrictions there will be a private family service.

Swicegood Funeral Home is respectfully serving the Phelps family.

These free obituaries are sponsored by Swicegood-Barker Funeral Services as a service to their clients/families and Piedmont Shopper readers. Please let them know we appreciate their continued support.

For These Vets, Haircuts Are Life-Changing

I pushed through the coffee shop's back door and found the attic dormitory crowd in the kitchen. Sarge had arranged for the lady who gave free haircuts at the senior center to come in and "neaten up" the homeless veterans, as he'd expressed it to her, before they went on job interviews. She breezed through the door with a plastic tarp for the floor, fancy salon wraps for their shoulders, a hand mirror, and a bag of scissors, combs, razors, sprays and gels, plus a stack of cosmetology magazines from which each veteran could choose his preferred hairstyle. All just opted for "something shorter."
For one of the veterans, the one with long, tangled hair past his shoulders and a full bushy beard and mustache that covered half of his face, the "something shorter" turned into "more, please" as she cut. "Hello again," he quietly said to his image in the small mirror, touching his chin and cheek after the haircut and shave. "Haven't seen you in a long time." He handed the lady a few bills, even though he didn't need to pay, and then trotted up the street to the drug store, where he bought a pack of disposable razors and shave cream.

Seeing this, Sarge made arrangements for the lady to come back twice a month for trims and cut her a check that she refused to take. Standing outside under the streetlight after the haircuts, Sarge was subdued. "Did you see how his eyes lit up, seeing himself in the mirror like that? All trimmed and shaved? And all of them confident now about finding jobs?" He quietly muttered an uncharacteristic string of profanities, then spun to face me. "We have to do better for them. The VA has to do better. Towns have to do better."

As he stared off across the parking lot, I pointed out that he'd singlehandedly changed the lives of these four men by opening the dormitory. He faced me again and said, "Well, I'm not done yet."

HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD — Here's interesting casting ... Sandra Bullock, age 56, romantically paired with Channing Tatum, 40, in "The Lost City of D." She's a reclusive romance novelist on a book tour with her cover model (Tatum), when they're kidnapped and thrown into a cutthroat jungle (shades of the 1984 hit "Romancing the Stone," with Michael Douglas, Kathleen Turner and Danny DeVito). Filling in for DeVito is Harry Potter's Daniel Radcliffe as the villain. Radcliffe has completed shooting season three of the TBS series "Miracle Workers," while Sandra Bullock is upcoming in "Bullet Train," with Brad Pitt, Joey King, Lady Gaga and Michael Shannon. Channing Tatum is due in "Dog," which he also co-directed, opening July 16.

Zac Efron, Russell Crowe and Bill Murray co-star in a film about Chick Donahue (Efron), who left New York in 1967 to bring beer to his Army buddies serving in Vietnam. Naturally, Zac will show off his superhero body as he hoists beer through the jungle, wearing shorts and a Hawaiian shirt. Even though it's called "The Greatest Beer Run Ever," you can expect big things since it's being directed by "Green Book" Oscar-winner Peter Farrelly.

Zac's also preparing the second season of the Netflix documentary series "Down to Earth," in which he travels around the world with wellness expert Darin Olien to find healthy, sustainable ways to live. He's also readying for the remake of the 1984 Drew Barrymore film "Firestarter." Crowe is awaiting release of the horror/thriller "The Georgetown Project," with Sam Worthington and David Hyde Pierce.

Meanwhile, back at Wahlburgers, brother Mark Wahlberg is planning the release of "Joe Bell," with Gary Sinise and Connie Britton, which scored well at the Toronto Film Fest last September; the action-adventure "Uncharted," with Tom Holland and Antonio Banderas, which opens Feb. 11, 2022; and "Arthur the King"

Depositphotos

Sandra Bullock

(not about King Arthur, but a stray dog named Arthur). Wahlberg is currently taking on Halle Berry in Netflix's "Our Man in New Jersey," playing a blue-collar James Bond.

Don't know how the Academy plans to save this year's Oscars, but Elton John has chosen Neil Patrick Harris to host his 29th annual AIDS Foundation Academy Awards Pre-Party. The one-hour event will stream live (sort of), at four different times in North America, the United Kingdom, Europe and Australia/New Zealand. The streaming hosts will beam the charity gala to 100,000 "attendeeds."

Oscar-winning actress Helen Mirren, for 2006's "The Queen," will be the villainous Hespera, daughter of the god Atlas, in the sequel to "Shazam!". Zachary Levi and Asher Angel return as the superhero and his teenage counterpart, Billy Batson. The original grossed $366 million and all they could say was "damn," we mean "Shazam!"

KOVELS Antiques & Collecting
By Terry and Kim Kovel

Tramp Art Birdcage

What is "tramp art"? There is folk art, regional art, naive art, fine art and other very special names for groups of collectibles and antiques, but tramp art is probably the latest one to become popular. Tramp art has been made for many years, but the name was invented by a folk-art author in 1959 to describe whittled objects made from old cigar boxes and other scrap wood. Although wooden cigar boxes were used to hold cigars since the 1850s, the idea of chip carving the wood into picture frames, birdcages, dollhouses and more didn't become a noticeable craft until about 1875 to the 1930s.

It might be hard to see the bird in this cage, but it is probably a model that was part of a tramp art collection. It sold for $615.

What is still called tramp art was made not only by the "tramps" (hobos) of the past, but also by prisoners, sailors and others, almost always men. Today we can use a cellphone to fill lonely hours, but in the past, whittling and other crafts were popular. At first collectors thought it was an American idea, but by the 1980s, antiques dealers were finding similar carved boxes in Europe, especially Germany, and bringing them back to sell at shows.

Today tramp art, like graffiti, has been accepted as an art form. This 34-inch-wide architectural tramp art birdcage has five doors and other openings. It sold at a Skinner auction in Boston as part of a collection of tramp art for $615.

helps the candlestick stand up. One of the ways to value silver is to find the meltdown value by multiplying the current price of silver by the weight. The cement is heavy and makes judging silver value different. A weighted Whiting candlestick sold online for about $20.

CURRENT PRICES

Stoneware, water cooler, barrel, cobalt blue bands, crown stencil, metal spigot, Robinson Ransbottom, 4 gallon, 15 1/2 inches, $59

Folk art, cane, dog handle, full body, wood, carved, Pennsylvania, 1800s, 33 3/4 inches, $71

Q. I've been holding onto a pair of candlesticks given to me more than 40 years ago, and I never use them. They're not really my thing. Can you help with the marks? It has a "W" in a circle with three curved lines on either side. It also says "sterling cement reinforced." Any pricing info would be great, too.

A. Your candlesticks were made by Frank M. Whiting Co., of North Attleboro, Massachusetts. The company was in business from 1878 to 1940, when it became a division of Ellmore Silver Co. That company went out of business about 1960. Silver that is "cement reinforced" also is called "weighted" silver. The heavy base

A Vibrant, Flavorful Spring Meal Prepped in 20 Minutes or Less

FAMILY FEATURES

Adding delicious, new flavors to your homecooked meals this spring may be easier than you think. A secret ingredient like cooking wine is a simple way to add a boost of flavor to all kinds of recipes.

During the spring months, few people would prefer cooking in the kitchen for hours rather than enjoying the outdoors. Make spending time with family and friends even more special by sharing a quick, delicious, spring-inspired meal together. Time-saving dishes at home begin with an option like Holland House® Cooking Wines that add an extra boost of flavor to recipes like Chicken Gyro Bowls. Perfect for a weeknight meal, the recipe combines pantry staples and enticing seasonings for an easy-to-make dish using a slow cooker.

Featuring savory chicken gyro meat atop a scoopful of rice, crisp and vibrant veggies, and garnished with crumbly feta and tangy tzatziki sauce, the bowls are bursting with flavor and perfect for the season.

Cooking wines are flavor-enhancing ingredients that can quickly transform an ordinary meal into an extraordinary one. Available in four flavors – Marsala, Sherry, White and Red – Holland House Cooking

Wines are made with fine grapes and perfectly blended seasonings, aged to perfection, to offer bold flavor to your springtime cooking. Consider these uses for each variety:

Sherry cooking wine works equally well in dessert recipes, main dishes, sides, soups and sauces. One example is these delicious Chicken Gyro Bowls, which you can leave cooking in the Crockpot™ throughout the day. The remaining preparation is fast for a weeknight meal that's ready in next to no time.

Best known for its use in chicken marsala, marsala cooking wine lends flavor to other preparations, too. Marinate sliced meat in marsala cooking wine before grilling, roasting or sauteing, or swirl it into gravies and soups to add delicious, savory flavor.

Stir red cooking wine into gravies and red sauces, or try marinating less-tender cuts of beef, lamb or pork in the refrigerator (for up to 24 hours) to boost flavor and tenderness.

White cooking wine pairs well with fish and lighter fare like chicken and turkey, as well as rice dishes.

Find more recipes to bring mouthwatering flavor to your springtime table at HollandHouseFlavors.com and crock-pot.com/slow-cookers.

Chicken Gyro Bowls

Recipe courtesy of Jillian of Food, Folks and Fun
Prep time: 20 minutes
Cook time: 4-6 hours
Servings: 6

Chicken Gyro Meat:

- 1/4 cup Holland House Sherry Cooking Wine
- 3/4 cup chicken broth
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 1/2 tablespoons dried oregano
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1 medium yellow onion, roughly chopped
- 2 pounds boneless, skinless chicken breasts, thawed
- 4 large garlic cloves, minced

Gyro Bowls:

- 2 cups long-grain rice
- 1 medium cucumber, seeded and sliced
- 1 large tomato, chopped
- 1 cup shredded iceberg lettuce
- 1/2 cup crumbled feta cheese
- 1 1/2 cups tzatziki sauce

- black pepper, to taste
- 4 pitas, warmed and cut into wedges

To make chicken gyro meat: In small bowl or liquid measuring cup, whisk cooking wine, chicken broth and lemon juice; set aside.

In separate small bowl, combine dried oregano, salt and pepper; set aside.

Add chopped onion to bottom of slow cooker and lay chicken breasts on top of onions.

Pour cooking wine mixture over onions and chicken.

Sprinkle half of oregano mixture over top of chicken. Flip chicken over and sprinkle remaining oregano mixture over chicken.

Evenly distribute minced garlic over chicken. Cover slow cooker with lid and cook on high 4-6 hours or low 6-8 hours.

Shred cooked chicken then use wooden spoon to mix shredded chicken, onions and remaining liquid together. Turn off slow cooker and let mixture sit, with lid on, while preparing rice.

To make gyro bowls: Cook rice according to package instructions.

Place rice in bowls and top with chicken gyro mixture, cucumber, tomato, lettuce, tzatziki sauce and black pepper, to taste. Serve with pita wedges.

At the end of its life, the stem tips explode in a massive array of tiny flowers capable of being pollinated and developing into fruit, and their nectar attracts insects and birds. However, the flowers also exhaust the plant and drain its nutritional supply until it dies.

RECIPES

Strawberry Pie

Ingredients

- 1 baked deep dish pie shell
- 6 cups sliced fresh strawberries divided
- 1 cup sugar
- 3/4 cup water
- 3 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon butter
- Cream Cheese Whipped Topping
- 1 cup heavy cream
- 3 tablespoons cream cheese softened
- 2 tablespoons powdered sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract

Directions

- Slice strawberries. Mash some of the strawberries until you have 1 cup mashed. Place the remaining strawberries into the baked pie shell. Place into the refrigerator for later use.
- Place 1 cup mashed strawberries into a large saucepan. Stir in sugar, water, cornstarch, and lemon juice. Bring to a boil and cook 1 minute until thickened. Remove from heat and stir in butter until melted.
- Allow mixture to cool, 1 hour. Pour cooled mixture over the strawberries. Return pie to the fridge until set, about 4 hours.
- In a large mixing bowl, use a hand mixer to beat heavy cream with cream cheese, sugar, and vanilla extract until stiff peaks form. Transfer to a piping bag to pipe designs onto finished pie, or serve each slice with a dollop of whipped cream.

The Sleepy Passenger

A flight attendant was on the red-eye to Manila when a water leak developed in the galley, which eventually soaked the carpet throughout the cabin of the 747.

A very sleepy passenger who had become aware of the dampness asked the attendant, "Has it been raining?"

Keeping a straight face, the attendant replied, "Yes, but we put the top up." With a sigh of relief, the passenger went back to sleep.
