We're changing to better serve our community.

This is the last week for our Shelbyville / Bedford County weekly publication.

We are replacing our weekly publication with a premium community magazine called Shelbyville. We'll mail the new magazine the first week of June. We look forward to bringing you positive stories. Local news in America is under pressure from digital media. It has become increasingly hard to find local news content in our rural communities. There has been a void for years showcasing the positive impact of local individuals. We are drowning in terrible news everywhere you look, and the local newspaper's journalism doesn't go deep enough. Local advertisers need an effective way to reach local buyers.

Our Shelbyville magazine will focus on the positive things happening in our community and celebrate our past achievements. The magazine will be printed on high-grade "slick" coated paper. The distribution will be through the mail and advertisers' locations. The editorial will have an emphasis on residents' stories who have made a difference, local good news, and highlight sports team members. We'll have snippets of content for events and activities for local people to enjoy. There will be articles on local businesses and their benefits to our community and a memorial section to celebrate lives that have passed.

Call Sissy to get more information about placing your events in the magazine, to share stories and for marketing opportunities 931-224-5268.
