Job Title

A local Pastor joined a community service club, and the members thought they would have some fun with him.

Under his name badge they printed "Hog Caller" as his occupation. Everyone made a big fanfare as the badge was presented.

The Pastor responded by saying, "I usually am called the 'shepherd of the sheep'... but you know you people better than I do."

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) A once-harmonious relationship appears to be hitting some sour notes. Spend some time together to see why things have gone off-key. What you learn might surprise you.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You feel a need to make some changes. Good -- you can do it on a small scale (some new clothes, for example), or go big and redecorate your home and/or office.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Control your tendency toward early boredom. A situation in your life might be taking a long time to develop, but patience pays off. Stay with it.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You might feel that you're on an emotional roller coaster this week. Don't fret; just ride it out and let things settle down. A Pisces shows understanding.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Do something different for once -- compromise. A stubborn stand on an important issue proves counterproductive. You need to be open to new ideas.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A friend offers advice that you perceive as an act of betrayal. But before you turn against the messenger, pay attention to the message.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A year of riding an emotional pogo stick finally settles down. Use this calmer period to restore frayed relationships and to pursue new opportunities.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your words can sting, so be careful how you respond to a friend's actions. A calm approach could produce some surprising facts.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Be careful about whose secrets you're being asked to keep. They could impose an unfair burden on a straight arrow like you.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) While you prefer taking the tried-and-true course in life, be adventurous this week and accept a challenge that can open new vistas.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Your strong sense of justice helps you deal with a job- or school-related situation. Stay with your principles. A Sagittarius emerges as a supporter.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You need to build a stronger on-the-job support system to convince doubting colleagues that your innovative proposals are workable.

BORN THIS WEEK: You might not say much, but you're capable of extraordinary achievements. You are a loyal friend and a devoted family person.

HOLLYWOOD
by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — If Renee Zellweger intended to get as far away from "Chicago's" Roxie Hart and her Oscar-winning best actress performance as Judy Garland in "Judy" (2019), she has succeeded. She's waited a year to choose her next film, and it will be a golf comedy ... yes, golf! "The Back Nine" is written and directed by "Sex in the City" creator Michael Patrick King. Zellweger's character tries to redefine her life 25 years after giving up her promising golf career so her husband could have one, by turning pro. From "Over the Rainbow" to golf?!

Hugh Jackman will finally return to Broadway in February 2022 in the revival of Meredith Wilson's "The Music Man." Originally planned to open last December, it was sidetracked by the pandemic. But before that, Jackman will complete "The Son" for Florian Zeller, director of the Oscar-nominated "The Father," with Laura Dern. That will follow the sci-fi romantic thriller "Reminiscence," with Rebecca Ferguson and Thandiwe Newton (now using the Zimbabwean spelling of her name). Originally scheduled for an August opening, now it too will open in February 2022.

Let's talk "Odd Couple": Billy Crystal will star with Tiffany Haddish in the dramedy "Here Today," which he co-wrote and directs. Penn Badgley and Laura Benanti will aid and abet them.

Mark Hamill will star with Bert Kreischer in "The Machine," which was inspired by Kreischer's stand-up routine about his real-life drunken past, a la "The Hangover" meets "Midnight Run." His stand-up routine of "The Machine" has been viewed more than 85 million times. Hamill is currently shooting the third season of "The Mandalorian" for Disney+.

Bet you didn't know I was friends with Mark when he was one of the stars of "General Hospital" in 1972. In 1977, after looping "Star Wars," Mark was in a car accident that burned his face. His agents called me for some of my photos of him to aid surgeons repairing the damage!

Don't ever take your favorite shows for granted. Would you believe "The Simpsons" is banned in China and Venezuela? "Modern Family" was nixed for Iranian TV because of its same-sex couple. "The Big Bang Theory" was banned in China because it was too popular. Huh? "M.A.S.H." has never been seen in South Korea. "South Park" was banned in Kuwait because of Muslim jokes. China won't show the classic British sci-fi series "Doctor Who" because it depicts time travel. But "Family Guy" wins hands down because it's been banned in Taiwan, Indonesia, Iran, Vietnam, Egypt, The Philippines, Malaysia, South Korea, South Africa, India and Russia. Believe it or not, a "Friends" episode titled "The One With The Lesbian Wedding," which aired in 1996, was banned in several countries, and parts of Texas and Ohio ... well whaddayaknow, some things never change!

Since our organization in 1975, we have preached spaying and neutering and have had many different programs to assist with the cost of the surgery. Since 1993 the generosity of The E. Stuart James Grant Charitable Trust has enabled us to help with having 40,000 animals spayed or neutered.

In the past, most people asked for help with having dogs spayed. The effect has been that we are seeing a decrease in the number of puppies received. Kittens, however, are a different matter.

This is a good time to remind all Danville and Pittsylvania County residents that we continue to offer spay/neuter rebates. Danville residents can receive up to $75 and Pittsylvania County residents can receive up to $50.

A rebate certificate must be picked up from the shelter at least the day before the animal is taken to the veterinary clinic for the surgery.

The general guidelines are:

1. The money is to be used for residents of Danville and Pittsylvania County. The pets must live with them.
2. No money can be used to facilitate the adoption of any animal from any other rescue group or shelter.
3. No money can be used for any animal being fostered for another group or for an animal that is going to be released to another group.

4. The money cannot be used for general trap/neuter/release programs. The exception would be if an individual will take legal responsibility of the feral cat's lifetime care, including providing food, water, shelter, and veterinary care and the cats are released on the person's personal property.

We send money to veterinary clinics to help clients most in need of help. In addition, if you have a problem with outside cats that you are taking care of, please call us. We can offer help beyond the rebate amounts.

The real math is this: Every minute in the United States, 50 dogs, 50 cats, and 8 humans are born. That means that a family of four must have 25 pets in order for there to be no homeless dogs and cats.

Spaying and neutering programs can benefit the animals and also humans.

AVERETT SCHOOL OF NURSING CONTINUES TREASURED TRADITION, BEGINS NEW ONE

Averett University added yet another meaningful tradition to its end-of-year roster of celebrations as it hosted its first-ever nurse practitioner white coat ceremony – an event following the annual Nurse Pinning Ceremony for the 2021 nursing graduates.

During the 2021 National Nurses Week, the University's School of Nursing held both ceremonies on May 7 at Averett's Riverview Campus downtown.

At 11 a.m., the pinning ceremony honored and celebrated 16 students who have successfully completed their Bachelor of Science in nursing (BSN) degree and will officially graduate from Averett tomorrow. The ceremony stems from centuries of tradition, and includes many significant symbols, from nursing caps and pins, to lamps and anointed oil.

"You were called to be a nurse because you see nursing as an opportunity to help people in need. That is your essence, I feel certain," Averett President Dr. Tiffany M. Franks told the graduates.

"The people you will be serving are all in need of help," she continued. "It calls for deep, deep commitment and selflessness. You will help with compassion, skill, knowledge and a sympathetic ear. You epitomize all that nursing is about."

Graduates from Averett's 2021 BSN program have secured jobs in health care facilities across Virginia, North Carolina and even Tennessee. The ambitious group is entering into a diverse range of nursing areas, including general medicine, emergency medicine, labor and delivery, intensive and critical care, surgical oncology, pediatrics, neurology, perioperative and more. Many have hopes to continue their education by obtaining their master's and doctorate nursing degrees, as well as pursue a number of additional, specialty certifications in areas like emergency nursing and paramedic training, among others. A couple of them are parents, and one is even a grandparent.

"It's hard work – a lot of hard work, said graduating BSN senior Savanna Joyce. "Honestly, I sometimes didn't think that I could do it...but to get to this point is amazing and I'm very proud of myself."

The nursing pin the graduates were presented in today's ceremony denotes the nursing school from which one has graduated, and the ceremony welcomes new nurses into the profession. In addition, the nursing cap worn by each graduate – except the one male in this graduating class – has been part of the female nurse's uniform since the early history of nursing, representing a hygienic and professional look. Today, it serves as a universal symbol of nursing care and kindness.

In an equally symbolic ceremony, the University kicked off a new White Coat Ceremony tradition at 1 p.m. – one that has been held among medical schools for decades, but is becoming a growing trend among nursing schools with master-level, advanced practice nursing programs. Normally conducted prior to a family nurse practitioner (FNP) student's first clinical experience, Averett invited members of all three cohorts of its recently established Master of Science in nursing program to participate since 2020 didn't allow for in-person ceremonies. Eight students participated.

"Today's honorees are indelibly etched in Averett history as our inaugural MSN 'White Coaters,'" said Franks. "In the years to come, there will be many more of these white coat ceremonies, but there can never be another first."

When a faculty member cloaks the students with their white coat, it marks the beginning of their advanced practice nursing career, and indicates the faculty believes in their ability to carry on the tradition of the advanced practice nursing profession.

"From this day forward, every patient you meet will be a new experience and will teach you about healing, illness, hardship and human emotion. This ceremony marks the induction into the advanced nursing practice profession and the transition to becoming a part of the clinical team," said Dr. Ryan Mallo, associate professor in Averett's School of Nursing's graduate nursing program.

According to Mallo, there are now more than 350,000 advanced practice nurse practitioners across the country who are certified to practice and deliver primary care. Averett's MSN student Caroline Hoover has been working as a critical care nurse for 25 years, and has been working full time at Bon Secours in Richmond while pursuing her master's. This milestone is exciting for her because it marks the transition into clinical work.

"Averett's ability to place their students in clinical settings was one of the number one reasons I came here," she said. "I'm very emotional. I didn't realize how emotional I would be, but I'm very excited to get into the clinical portion; it's an area where I want to be. The classroom is wonderful, but this is where I really want to be, in the clinical area."

"You have successfully juggled demands of coursework, families and full-time work – not easily done at any time, and certainly not combined with the challenges of a pandemic – and I feel sure you all have experienced exponential growth during the first phase of this program," said Franks. "Today marks a significant and symbolic moment in your academic career – celebrating your progression to the role of practitioner – and creates a psychological, intellectual and ethical contract between you and the profession... The white coat you will put on today marks the beginning of this journey; wear it with pride, with a sense of privilege, and most important, with humility."

River District welcomes new businesses with ribbon cuttings.

DANVILLE VA – Danville's River District continues to grow and thrive. In April and May, the River District Association celebrated three new businesses with ribbon cuttings.

Head Up Eyes Forward is a lifestyle brand and store located at 453 Main Street, opened March 23, 2021. Owners Susan and Landon Moss started the brand to honor their son and brother Ryan, a lover of adventure, who lost his life hiking in the mountains of Colorado. "Our goal is to encourage 'getting out there' for adventure with a strong emphasis of giving back to the community. HEAD UP. EYES FORWARD will donate 10% of the profits to charities every year."

Blue Moon Tattoo opened in early April at 401 Bridge Street, Suite 200. Blue Moon Tattoo is owned and operated by Jessica South, who has been a tattoo artist for 23 years. After exploring the River District things fell into place to move her business downtown. Jessica says "We pride ourselves on a clean, friendly, licensed facility. We want you to be safe and happy with the finished result." When giving advice to those dreaming of owning their own business she says "Spend some time in the area you think you want to be. Spend some time and money with other local business owners in the area. The friendships and shared experiences can be priceless. Find something you are passionate about."

Impotters Clayworx located at 406 Lynn Street is owned by Lori and Berkely Bidgood, who opened their River District location on May 1, 2021. Impotters Clayworx been operating from home and offering classes at Main Street Art Collective and River District Artisans for several years. Lori began doing pottery after deciding to shift away from a desk job, and the business grew to selling pieces locally, and offering classes at River District Artisans, and Main Street Art Collective in the River District. The logical next step was to have a studio in the River District to create her own pottery pieces to sell and offer classes and open studio time for those in the region interested in doing or learning pottery.

"We are extremely grateful for the new businesses that choose to locate in our beautiful Downtown Danville" said Diana Schwartz, Executive Director of the River District Association. "They could locate anywhere they choose, and we are thrilled they want to be part of the revitalization of the River District. We look forward to supporting and serving all the new and existing merchants in any way we can. A healthy business mix is essential for our community, and we want to remind everyone to continue to shop local and support these endeavors so they can continue to provide unique and personal experiences that you can't find anywhere else."

The River District Association was organized in 1999 as the Downtown Danville Association. In May 2015, the organization was renamed the River District Association to complement the City's River District brand and is an accredited Virginia and National Main Street Community. The office is currently located at 208 N. Union Street, Danville, VA.

OBITUARIES

"For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:8
